

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. R E P O R T :

To the Forty-Eighth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

The Standing Committee respectfully report their official acts for the Diocesan year 1884-'5, as follows:

SEPTEMBER 17th, 1884.—The Committee met in the Vestry-room of Trinity Church, Buffalo, and organized, by the election of the Rev. John M. Henderson, as President, and the Rev. Louis B. Van Dyck, as Secretary.

Report of Standing Committee.

Ten Priests were chosen, whose names were ordered to be presented to the Council, from whom to elect the Ecclesiastical Court of the Diocese, in accordance with the provisions of S. III., Can. I., of the Diocesan Canons.

SEPTEMBER 22d, 1884.—A list of Offerings for the current Diocesan year was prepared and ordered to be sent to the parishes.

The sum of $1,100 was assessed upon the Parishes to meet the Diocesan expenses for the current year, and the Secretary was directed to send a notice to each Parish of the sum required from it for this purpose.

DECEMBER 15th, 1884.—The Committee met, with the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, as a Financial Board.

The Editor of the Kalendar was requested to keep an account with the Diocese for the printing of all official notices and documents, such account to be accepted by the Committee, on approval by the Bishop, to the amount of one hundred dollars per annum.

On the adjournment of the Financial Board, the Canonical consent of the Committee was given to the consecration of the Rev. William Paret, D. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland, and of the Rev. George Worthington, D. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Nebraska.

Mr. Edward Phelan Hart, candidate, was recommended to the Bishop for admission to the Holy Order of Deacons.

The Bill of Thomas Evans for the sum of $6.00, for printing Lists of Offerings for the current year, was ordered paid.

The bill of Matthews, Northrup & Co., for the sum of $632, for the printing of Journals, etc., of the last Diocesan Council, was accepted, and ordered paid as soon as there should be funds in the hands of the Treasurer to the credit of the Fund for Diocesan Expenses.

The bill of the Treasurer for the sum of $7.00, incurred for office expenses, was ordered paid, and his attention was called to the fact that the increase in his salary by the Council of 1881, might fairly be supposed to provide for such expenses.

Report of Standing Committee.

JULY 14th, 1885.—The Committee met at the National Savings Bank, Buffalo.

The sum of $46 was appropriated from the Education Fund to the benefit of Mr. Mark W. Ways, of Rochester, pursuing his studies in Hobart College with a view to Holy Orders.

AUGUST 10th, 1885.—The Committee met at the National Savings Bank, Buffalo.

The following minute in regard to the recent decease of the President of the Committee was unanimously adopted:

The Standing Committee, in view of the death, after more than three months of distressing illness most patiently borne, of their late President, the Rev. John M. Henderson, would gladly put on record an expression of their appreciation of his worth. A member of the Committee since 1876, he has always discharged his office with a clearness of discernment and firmness of principle, equalled only by his gentleness and moderation in the expression of his convictions. Always conservative and thoughtful, he was as conscious of the responsibility of the position with which the Diocese had entrusted him, as he was considerate of the many interests involved in the solemn decisions of the Committee. Called to its Presidency on the decease of the lamented Ingersoll, whose name was the synonym of noble dignity and grace, he took up and fulfilled its duties with the same unassuming efficiency that characterized all his conduct; while the gentle sympathy of the man, that showed out so spontaneously in word and act in every sphere in which he moved, bound his fellow-members to him, as it did all who came to know him, and especially the congregation which his removal leaves so sorely bereft. With them we sorrow for the loss of one whose learning and gracious excellence of character made his life of the highest value to the Church, and the community where that life was spent. We look back over his twenty-four years' labor in the Diocese, as well as his nine years' work in the Committee, with thankfulness to God for such an example of earnest, spotless faithfulness; and while we are saddened by his departure, we feel that the Church is made richer by the name he has left in her annals, and recognize anew the truth of the inspired declaration that of such names are the jewels which the Master gathers and treasures up against the day of His glory and triumph with His Saints.

The Canonical Testimonial was signed in behalf of Mr. John H. Perkins, of Rochester, late a minister of the Presbyterian Communion, for admission as a candidate for Holy Orders.

The Rev. Louis B. Van Dyck was chosen President of the Committee in place of the Rev. John M. Henderson, deceased; and the Rev. Charles W. Hayes was chosen Secretary, in place of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, resigned.

The Rev. Charles H. Smith, Rector of St. James' Church, Buffalo, was unanimously elected a member of the Committee to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Rev. Mr. Henderson, subject to the approval of the Bishop.

SEPTEMBER 3d, 1885.—The Committee met at the National Savings Bank, Buffalo.

The Annual Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College was received and referred to a Committee.

Report of Standing Committee.

The Secretary was requested to prepare the Annual Report of the Committee to the Council.

The Secretary reported the official approval of the Bishop of the election of the Rev. Charles H. Smith as a member of the Committee.

SEPTEMBER 10th, 1885.—The Committee met at the National Savings Bank, Buffalo.

The Committee on the Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, reported the following, which was adopted:

The Report of the Trustees makes pleasant reading this year, though it comes to us signed only by the Secretary of the Board, and lacks the endorsement of a Committee of the Trustees, who, to fulfill their Charter obligations to the Institution, should have officially examined its securities and certified their integrity and the correctness of the report. The number of pupils on the Foundation has been maintained at 12, while the Term-pupils have risen to 38, and the Day-pupils to 13, making 63 in all, against 55 last year. There seems thus to be, on the part of Churchmen in this and other Dioceses, the beginning of an appreciation of the advantages which are here offered for the proper training of their sons for College or business life—which it is hoped will grow till it shall make the College what it ought to be, one of the first institutions in the land for the education of boys as well as the dispenser of the blessings of a full intellectual and moral equipment to an increasing number of those for whom its benefits were devised by its noble-hearted founder. It ought to be all this, because its situation is unrivalled for health and beauty, and its discipline and instruction well nigh all that need be desired. The Report shows an encouraging condition of the finances, especially in that the first steps seems to have been taken toward the replacement of a portion of the endowment fund which for so many years was steadily diminished. There are now in hand Bonds and Mortgages, amounting to $96,076.76, against $92,201.76 last year. The stock of the Suspension Bridge, $2,500.00; Land Contracts, $3,562.80; $860.00 more than last year, and $1,094.19 cash awaiting investment—a total of $103,233.75, a gain of $2,355.00 during the year.

The Report tells us that in November last the cottage admitting visitors to the Whirlpool was burned to the ground. Rebuilding of this with the insurance money ($1,000), and a portion of the rental, left the net income from the Whirlpool only $60.00. The net income from the Farm appears to have been $80.72, and the main College building has been reshungled and painted, and the chimney-tops repaired, at a cost of $670.24, making the whole bill for repairs, $1,448.81. These facts show that the income of the year ($6,075.98 from endowment, and $17,293.10 from Term-pupils) has been well husbanded to leave a balance of $461.77 cash in hand, as against $159.03 last year, and resources, amounting to $3,286.45, against $1,312.63. Of the amounts due from pupils, $1,520.00, some appear pretty large in the Report—two owing sums of more than two hundred dollars each, four others more than one hundred each, and four others still between fifty and one hundred. But it must be remembered that the Report bears date of June 30th, just at the close of the School-year, and doubtless some, and perhaps most, of these arrearages have been paid up—and the liabilities of the College at the end of the year were unusually small, amounting in all to less than one thousand dollars ($983.29). The salaries, wages, Foundationers' personal expenses, taxes, furnishing and advertising expenses have not varied materially from those of last year—while the supplies have cost more than $3,000 more—thus showing that while the Boarding department increases this single item of expenditure, it is yet from this department, without added cost for instruction and the maintenance and equipment of the School as now constituted, that added resources are to come for the increase of the ability of the School to do its beneficent work—a work which it is doing at a cost to its patrons of less than would be required to sustain their sons at almost any similar institution, offering equal advantages. Your Committee feel grateful to the President of the College, who is also the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, for the excellent showing of the year, financially as well as educationally, and they commend him and the work over which he presides to the favorable consideration of all who are interested in the College, or in the higher education of their children.

The following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Standing Committee be requested to bring before the Diocesan Council a knowledge of the fact that no bonds can be required of any officer of the Diocese, for want of any corporate body capable of receiving such bonds; and to suggest the advisability of such an application as shall secure from the authorities of the State an incorporation of the Diocese of Western New-York.

All which is respectfully submitted.

CHARLES W. HAYES,
Secretary.

The Report was accepted, and the resolution appended referred to a Committee having State Legislation in charge, with instructions to procure an Act of Incorporation for the Diocese.

The Rev. E. W. Worthington, Chairman of the Committee on the Admission of New Parishes into Union with the Council, read the following

R E P O R T :

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

The Committee on the Admission of New Parishes into union with the Council respectfully report: That they have examined the application of Grace Church, Scottsville, and find the same to be in due form. They therefore recommend the admission of said Parish into union with this Council.

and directed several persons looking forward to the sacred ministry. The circulars of the De Lancey Divinity School, submitted to you last year, and approved by you. I have sent to all the Bishops of the Church in the United States, and to many of the clergy, and also to a number of applicants for information. At the present time there are four persons connected with the School. Only one of these has had in the year past any assistance from the funds of the Scholarship; but their income is already entirely appropriated for the year to come.

The Library has had the following valuable additions, through the income of the John H. Swift Book Fund: The History of the American Episcopal Church, by the Rt. Rev. W. S. Perry, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Iowa, 2 vols., and 2 sets of The Ante-Nicene Fathers, 2 vols. each. The Library of the School, which has thus far been in my house and custody, has been kept insured by me. It is labeled and ready to be transferred to the more commodious and secure depositary now in preparation for it.

REPORT:

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

Your Committee on the General Theological Seminary would respectfully report: That they note with great satisfaction the continued improvement in the condition of the Seminary grounds and buildings and the increased facilities for the comfort and intellectual development of the students under its care. The last year has added another important building to those already situated upon that valuable plot of ground, one which has been a pressing need almost since the Seminary was first founded. Many a student and graduate has looked upon the collection in the library, some of which never could be duplicated, and trembled at the thought of the possibility that in a few moments these might all be destroyed; but by the completion of the fire-proof building that anxiety vanishes.

There is room for further improvements, and an earnest call is made by the Dean for additional gifts to insure the completion of the new dormitories in Dehon and Pintard Halls. It is to be hoped that these may soon be forthcoming.

Your Committee appreciate the benefits which must accrue to the students from the courses of lectures on various subjects by eminent Divines of the Church, one of which this current year is to be delivered by a learned Presbyterian of this Diocese.

We also feel much satisfaction in the efforts made to elevate the standard of literary qualifications required both from those who enter the institution and those who are graduated from its halls.

While there are departments for which better provisions might and ought to be made, yet your Committee recognize with gratitude the superior advantages which a general institution of the Church like this—situated in the great metropolis of the nation—offers to students of theology, and they express confidence in the management and instruction of its Dean and corps of Professors.

All which is respectfully submitted.

He appointed as tellers to receive and count the votes: For the Clerical vote, the Rev. A. J. Brockway and Mr. O. K. Judd; for the Lay vote, the Rev. M. C. Hyde and Mr. W. H. Dudley.

While the tellers were out, the Rt. Rev. the President introduced to the Council the Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., of the Diocese of Ohio. The Council received him, standing.

By invitation of the Bishop and the Council, Dr. Bolles gave some very interesting reminiscences of the formation and early history of the Diocese.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council be given to the Rev. Dr. Bolles for his interesting remarks, and that he be invited to take a seat at the right of the Bishop during the sessions of this Council.

The tellers on the election of Treasurer of the Council reported, from which it appeared there had been no election. Whereupon, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Van Bokkelen, it was resolved that the election of Treasurer be postponed to this evening's session.

The tellers of the vote for the Standing Committee reported, from which it appeared that by a concurrent vote of both orders, the following gentlemen had been elected: The Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, the Rev. Walter North and the Rev. J. W. Brown, D. D., Mr. W. H.

Report of the Committee on Finances.

Walker, Mr. G. B. Worthington, Mr. E. S. Dann and Mr. George Barker.

On motion of the Rev. A. S. Crapsey, it was Resolved, That the ballot be dispensed with, and that the Rev. H. W. Nelson, Jr., be elected to fill the vacancy still existing.

The Rev. H. W. Nelson, Jr., from the Committee on the Incorporation of the Diocese, asked that the Committee be continued to another year. Granted.

The Secretary then read a communication from the Secretary of the Diocese of Albany in regard to legislative action, which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on the Incorporation of the Diocese.

The Committee to nominate three Trustees for De Veaux College presented the following names: Mr. James H. Fisher, Dwight S. Chamberlain, M. D., and Mr. Benjamin Flagler.

The Treasurer gave the names of the Parishes in the Diocese which were delinquent in the payment of assessments. No definite action was taken upon the report.

The Rev. Henry Anstice, D. D., from the Committee on Finance, read the following

R E P O R T :

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

Your Committee on Finance respectfully report: That there have been placed in their hands the following reports, viz.: The report of the Treasurer of the Council (see APPENDIX II., B.), the report of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Parochial Fund (see APPENDIX II., E.), and the report of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Christmas Fund (see APPENDIX II., A.). These reports have been duly examined and audited by Committees appointed by the Bishop, except the report first named, which has been duly audited by this Committee, and their acceptance by the Council is therefore recommended.

It will be seen from the report of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund that the principal of the fund has been added to from year to year, by withholding from distribution a portion of the receipts from Parish collections and interest from investments. The increase from these two sources, according to the Treasurer's account, was, in the year 1883, about $400; in the year 1884, about $700, and during the present year $517. It is certainly desirable that the permanent fund should be increased in any legitimate way, and it could be wished that special gifts and legacies might be invited to this object; but the propriety of reserving for this purpose any part of the collection made for the immediate relief of its beneficiaries may at least be questioned. Probably no appeal to the congregations of the Church excites more sympathy or is more heartily responded to than the Christmas appeal. This is undoubtedly largely due to the expectation and the implied promise that the gifts made at this time (except so far as otherwise distinctly indicated) will be applied to pressing cases of present need, and not be hoarded for the possibly greater necessities of the future. As the Christmas contributions vary in amount from year to year, it is, of course, impossible for the Council to fix upon a stipend which shall be an exact measure of distribution; but there is no difficulty in providing that any excess of receipts shall be applied to special cases of need, under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese.

Your Committee therefore recommend the passage of the following resolution:

No part of the Parish collections for the disabled Clergy of the Diocese, except so far as distinctly designated for that purpose by the donor, shall be added to the permanent fund, but shall be applied, with the entire interest from investments, to the relief of its beneficiaries; and any excess of receipts from these sources, over and above the amount required for the stipends, shall be appropriated to special cases of need, under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY ANSTICE,
J. J. LANDERS,
GEO. S. HAZARD,
P. RICHARDS,
W. J. ASHLEY.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the report be accepted, and that the resolution appended be rejected.

A recess was taken to 3 o'clock.

Immediately after recess the Litany was said by the Rev. J. E. Goodhue; concluding Prayers by the Bishop.

TRINITY CHURCH, GENEVA,
WEDNESDAY, September 16, 1885, 3 o'clock P. M.

The Bishop called the Council to order.

Minutes of the Morning Session were read and approved.

Mr. Alfred Ely, from the Committee on the Centennial of the Diocese of New-York, asked for the discharge of the Committee, and that the Bishop be requested to appoint the delegates.

Report of Committee on De Veaux College.

The Report was accepted. The recommendation in the same was adopted, and the Committee discharged.

The Rev. A. P. Brush, from the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, read the following

REPORT :

To the Forty-Eighth Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

The Standing Committee on De Veaux College would respectfully report:

First. That we have carefully examined the Report of the Trustees, which was referred to us, and find that although the Trustees report the Principal increased by $2,555, yet this gain is derived from the sale of real estate, so that there is no real gain. The real estate thus sold is reported as steadily appreciating, whence we would infer that the "real gain" in the transaction is to accrue to the purchasers thereof.

Second. We find that a year ago the resources included the sum of $1,167.48, due from Term-pupils; this year the resources are swelled in the same direction by the sum of $1,820.10.

We have no evidence by which we are able to determine whether the old bills of the Term-pupils have been collected, or whether the present increased sum of $1,820.10, includes the arrearages of pay of Term-pupils for a series of years past.

Third. We find that for years past the real estate has not been a source of revenue to the College; therefore, if it is thought best to dispose of the same, we would recommend that the land be properly appraised, so that the Council can be informed of its value with reference to sales.

We would further recommend that the Managers of the Institution be more prompt in the collection of bills of Term-pupils.

A. P. BRUSH,
ASAPH S. BEMIS,
JOHN N. MACOMB, JR.

The Report was accepted, and ordered to be printed.

The Rev. H. W. Nelson, Jr., invited the Clerical and Lay Deputies to visit the Geneva Church Home during their stay in Geneva. The invitation was accepted, with thanks.

The Bishop read an extract from a letter of the Archbishop of Canterbury in regard to Religious Reform in Europe.

sion of New Churches into union with this Council, read the following

R E P O R T :

To the Diocesan Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

Your Committee to whom was referred the application of S. Thomas' Church, Buffalo, for admission into union with the Council, respectfully report: That we have examined the papers submitted to us and find them to be correct, and recommend the admission of said Parish into union with the Council.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. W. WORTHINGTON,
DE L. STOWE,
Committee.

Dated, September 16, 1885.

Whereupon it was, on his motion,

Resolved, That S. Thomas' Church, Buffalo, be admitted into union with this Council.

The names of the duly accredited Lay Deputies were then called.

Mr. G. B. Worthington, from the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, read the following

R E P O R T :

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

Your Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, respectfully report:

That during the past year the Fund has been increased $2,002, and now amounts to $45,571.84. This increase has come from the following legacies:

The late Miss Martha A. De Lancey,	$1,000.00
" " Rev. Dr. Shelton,	2,000.00

It is interesting to notice the source from which these legacies have been derived, as indicating the estimation in which this important Fund was held by its oldest friends.

The income of the year has been $5,203.70, derived

From Collections from Parishes,	$2,779.00
" Interest on Securities,	2,424.70

Expenditures have been $5,450.43.

Bishop's Salary,	$5,000.00
Taxes and Insurance,	450.43

Leaving a deficit, advanced by the Treasurer, $246.73.

Amendment of Canons.

We take this opportunity of suggesting to Parishes, as has been suggested many times in the past, the importance of giving to increase the Permanent Fund, thereby relieving themselves of all further assessment; and we also suggest to the Council the importance of a continuance of the effort to increase the principal of this fund, and we earnestly trust that the Churchmen of this Diocese may continue to remember this object liberally in making their wills.

We call attention to the fact that, although an entire year's salary has been paid the Bishop, there is still due to him, this year, as last, his salary for the month of August.

We furthermore note the fact that the Report of the Trustees is signed by two only of their number.

Respectfully submitted.

G. B. WORTHINGTON,
A. L. CHEW,
ALFRED ELY.

GENEVA, September 16, 1885.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the Report be accepted.

The Rev. A. F. Todrig moved a repeal of Title IV., Can. 3, relating to the due celebration of marriages, which, at the suggestion of the Bishop, was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Rev. W. W. Walsh moved the following addition to Title I., Canon 3, being the Canon defining the duties of the Registrar of the Diocese.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman of this Diocese, at the stated meeting of every Council of the same, to bring or send to the Registrar of the Diocese a written report of Baptisms, Marriages, and Funerals at which he has officiated.

The Registrar shall duly record the same in a book or books provided by the Diocese for this purpose; which shall be preserved as important Records of the Church.

On his motion, the matter was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Rev. G. W. Knapp, from the Committee on the Report of the Diocesan Missionary Board (see APPENDIX II., D.), read the following

REPORT:

Your Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Missionary Board, most heartily endorse the suggestions of the Financial Secretary, and, after the expression of the Council on that subject last evening, feel that no words of theirs are necessary to impress upon the Clerical and Lay Deputies the necessity of increased offerings for this most worthy object. Your Committee are pleased to find that, notwithstanding the stringency of the times, we enter upon the new year with only a trifling debt of $55.43, and we would therefore recommend that the sum of $5,000 be fixed as the minimum for the Parishes to raise in the coming year.

G. W. KNAPP,
JAMES W. ASHTON,
JOEL H. PRESCOTT,
Committee.

The Report was accepted.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Knapp, the sum of $5,000, after various proposed amendments, was fixed as the sum to be raised for the coming year.

The Rev. J. J. H. De Mille, from the Committee on Non-Reporting Clergy and Parishes, read the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Non-Reporting Clergy and Parishes beg leave respectfully to report: That after examination of the Journal of 1884, they find eleven Parishes to be reported as negligent, viz.: S. John's, Wellsville; Grace, Randolph; S. Mary's, Salamanca; S. Peter's, Dansville; Grace, Nunda; S. Paul's, Allen's Hill, S. Peter's, East Bloomfield; S. John's Mission, Canisteo; S. Luke's, Sodus Centre; S. John's, Dresden; S. Mark's, Penn Yan.

Of the Clergy, the following seem to be, from the face of the Journal, without report, viz.: The Rev. W. O. Jarvis, the Rev. R. O. Page, the Rev. A. F. Todrig, the Rev. W. H. Williams, the Rev. Pierre Cushing, the Rev. Isaac Easterbrooks, the Rev. C. F. Kellner, Ph. D., the Rev. J. H. Lee, the Rev. L. H. Sherwood, and the Rev. J. W. Van Ingen.

Your Committee would suggest to the Reverend Clergy that they hand in their reports on the first day of the Council, and ask that this matter be punctually attended to.

All which is respectfully submitted.

J. H. H. DE MILLE,
HENRY S. DENNIS,
F. S. HYDE,
Committee.

GENEVA, September 16, 1885.

The Report was accepted, and the Bishop was authorized to remove some of the names reported, before printing the Journal, if he should find it necessary.

Reception and Address of Rev. Dr. Staunton.

The business of the Council, upon the suggestion of the Secretary, was now suspended, and the Bishop introduced to the Council the Rev. William Staunton, D. D., who furnished some very valuable and clear reminiscences of the early history of the Diocese, and of his own experience in the same.

On motion of Mr. Alfred Ely, it was Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Committee to draft suitable resolutions in regard to the presence in the Council of the Rev. Dr. James A. Bolles and the Rev. William Staunton, D. D., and in regard to the valuable addresses made by them.

The Bishop appointed the following gentlemen as such Committee, they being connected with the two Parishes of which these Clergymen were once pastors, viz.: The Rev. William A. Hitchcock, D. D., Rector of S. James' Church, Batavia; and Mr. Charles McLouth, Lay Deputy from Zion Church, Palmyra.

The Council then took a recess to 7.30 o'clock this evening.

TRINITY CHURCH, GENEVA,
WEDNESDAY, September 16, 1885, 7 o'clock P. M.

Evening Prayer was said by the Bishop, in which he was assisted by the Rev. O. R. Howard, D. D., and by the Rev. Noble Palmer. The first Special Lesson was Jeremiah 22, from the 22d to the 30th verse. The Second Lesson was Rev. 3, from the 7th to the 14th verse.

TRINITY CHURCH, GENEVA,
WEDNESDAY, September 16, 1885, 7.30 o'clock P. M.

The Bishop called the Council to order.

A telegram was received by the Bishop, and read by the Secretary, from Mr. George E. Mumford of Rochester, in which he declined to be a candidate for the office of Treasurer of the Council, or to accept the same if elected.

Report on Works of Beneficence and Charity.

Whereupon, on motion of the Rev. E. C. Cowan, it was

Resolved, That the ballot be dispensed with, and that the Secretary be instructed to cast one ballot for Mr. C. Henry Amsden.

The ballot having been cast, Mr. Amsden was declared to be unanimously elected Treasurer of the Council for the ensuing year.

The Rev. O. R. Howard, D. D., from the Committee on Works of Beneficence and Piety, read the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Works of Charity and Beneficence, respectfully report: That owing to the lateness of the call for the requisite statistics, and the preoccupation of the minds of the Clergy with the business of the Council, there have been but few responses to that call. There are, however, many indications that the offerings for the year past, as compared with other years, have not been diminishing.

In Buffalo, for instance, the streams of Beneficence never set more strongly towards the Church Home. Thousands of dollars—in small contributions usually (money, clothing, household goods, etc.) have been bestowed during the year past—often by nameless benefactors, who know what it is to do good by stealth.

One of its friends lately remarked: "It seems to be the fashion to give to the Home." It is, we doubt not, something more and better than a fashion.

One morning, not long since, we noticed that ground had been broken in front of our near neighbor, S. Mary's-on-the-Hill. A few days more, and the lengthened nave stood complete, and many new seats were added, and at once taken. In a note to the Committee the Rector puts the cost of this extension at $2,500, which was promptly raised and paid by the parish. He adds, among gifts not before reported: From ladies of the Parish, for furnishing study, $43; from Mrs. S. R. Chase, embroidered surplice and stole; from Mrs. Moffatt, linen for same; from Harvey Wells, a choir library; from ladies of the Parish, for altar cloth, $30; from Robert Evans, for communion set, $25; from Marion and Anna Shackelton, a memorial brass ewer for baptismal font, $70. Memorial windows were given by E. L. Parker, Mrs. S. R. Chase, Charlotte Hingston, O. K. Judd and family, E. P. Pickering, Elizabeth Howells and the Sunday-school.

We need not speak of the new Trinity Church which is now going up in the heart of our city—a fabric of beauty and magnificence. Turning up the street on which this new church stands, a mile or two, through Forest Lawn, we reach a point where, spiritually, within a month past, ground has been broken for another Mission Church, so quietly that it may be doubted whether all the clergy of parts adjacent have heard of it. All honor to the devoted churchman, in Deacon's orders, who has entered heart and soul into this work, as he had done before in the case of Lancaster.

Report on Works of Beneficence.

There has been much similar work in Buffalo. But we need not look beyond this hallowed edifice, in which the Council has so often met, for proofs that the spirit of charity and beneficence slumbers not. We learn that $30,000 have been raised and devoted to the work within and without the Church.

From Christ's Church, Cuba, we hear that during the past year the Parish has cancelled a burdensome mortgage of $4,000, and paid off a troublesome floating debt which has been accumulating several years, so that now they are practically out of debt.

S. Mark's Church, Newark, reports that during the past year the Parish has received a legacy of $500, the income of which is to be devoted to the clothing of the poor. The Parish has spent a considerable sum in improving the Church and renovating the rectory.

Christ Church, Rochester, numbers among its gifts a brass pulpit, in memory of James Sabey, a Vestryman of the Church, brass ewer and vases, and a full set of vestments for clergy and choir, costing in all about $1,000.

Christ Church, Corning, has spent about $2,000 upon its Church property; and S. Peter's Church, Geneva, has received a chime of nine bells, of which the largest weighs about 2,000 pounds.

S. John's, of Canandaigua, has received a brass cross, "in memoriam" of Andrew C. Laing, presented by his son.

Gifts to S. James' Church, Buffalo: A brass ewer, together with minor articles, by Mr. Charles B. Adams; a chancel chair and sedilia, by Mrs. Jane Coatsworth.

S. John's, Medina, has received from one individual the funds needed to fit up the Guild-room in the basement of the Church; another has given six choir stalls, of beautiful and substantial workmanship, for the chancel of the Church; a lady gave, at Easter, a richly embroidered set of altar cloths. Two costly stained glass memorial windows, by L. Colgate, of New-York, are the magnificent gifts of three individuals.

Respectfully submitted by the Committee.

O. R. HOWARD,
HENRY T. TOWAR,
MALCOM LITTLE.

The Rev. W. A. Hitchcock, D. D., from the Special Committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions relating to the visit and addresses of the Rev. Dr. Bolles and the Rev. Dr. Staunton, read the following

REPORT:

The Council of the Diocese of Western New-York desires to place on record its deep sense of the honor, pleasure, and benefit afforded at this, its 48th annual meeting, by the presence and addresses of two of its earliest members, and the only surviving clerical members of the first convention held within the original Diocese of Western New-York, half a century ago.

To these venerable and honored brethren—the Rev. Wm. Staunton, D. D., and the Rev. Jas. A. Bolles, D. D.—the Council tenders its loving regards and warm thanks, and respectfully requests that their addresses may be placed in the hands of the Secretary to be appended to the Journal. The Council also desires to record its regret at the absence of an honored Layman of these same early conventions, and directs the Secretary to send to Mr. Wm. C. Pierrepont, of Pierrepont Manor, an expression of its tender regard.

Respectfully submitted.

WM. A. HITCHCOCK,
CHAS. McLOUTH,

Committee.

The Report was accepted, and the recommendation therein was adopted by a rising vote.

The Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, from the Special Committee appointed by the Bishop to draft a suitable minute in regard to the Clergymen of the Diocese who have been called away during the past year, read the following

R E P O R T :

In approaching the tender duty of undertaking to express befittingly the feeling of this Council and of the Diocese at the loss from its band of laborers here of the Rev. Presbyters whose names have stood on the roll of servants of the Master, one cannot but recall the eloquent words of one of them uttered only a year ago, in this very Council, when, fulfilling the similar duty of giving voice to the general sense of loss in the removal of faithful men who had long been known and honored in our midst, he said, "How feeble and inadequate are words to measure the excellence of good men's deeds!"—words that might be named prophetic, since they tell so accurately the story and results of his own life on earth. The life of the Rev. John M. Henderson was a life of deeds—deeds of gentle tenderness, of active sympathy and faithful ministration among his fellow-men, that bound all hearts to him, as the steadfastness and straightforwardness of his course, from its opening to its close, inspired the respect and confidence upon which, as a foundation, arose the delicate fabric of that love and esteem by which he was ever surrounded. Possessed of a learning and grace of diction and spiritual idiom, which shone out in all his discourse, he was well qualified to have been a teacher of men in the higher ranges of Theological lore, had he devoted himself to such duty. He chose rather to be the patient, gentle minister of Christ to aching hearts and weary souls; to stand with Spirit-indicted words of peace and love beside the bedside and the bier—words that carried with them holy strength of consolation, because they were felt to be the outcome from a heart as true as it was tender,—as sure of the truth he uttered as a life of stainless obedience had made it. His life was real; no slight matter in these professional days, when expediency tends so much to usurp the place of higher thoughts; so that men sometimes forget the declaration as well as the association of the old Greek triad—"To Agathon, to Kalon, to Alēthes."

Conservative in character, and made especially so by the sensitiveness of his sympathy, he was yet always bold enough in his stand for well established truth, and so was a typical Churchman, who might well be put forward, not only as an illustration of the refining and elevating influence of the Church's teaching, but still more as a staunch supporter of the old, tried paths of godliness,—a course which the piety and wisdom of ages past has tested and sanctioned. He had indeed drawn far more largely than is usual with the Clergy from the fountains of classical English, and in these and in the Fathers of the Church he found his greatest enjoyment, and the clearest light by which he walked undisturbed by the flickering shadows of modern opinion, fixed in his comprehension of the Church's position and work, above the clouds which too often obscure the vision of less read and less single-hearted men.

Report on Deceased Clergymen.

Had God spared him to old age we should all have been ready to enroll him among the venerable names which the records of this Diocese of Western New-York are so rapidly gathering; but as the Master's wisdom has seen fit thus early to remove him from us, we can but adopt for him the words of the noblest of all mourners: "We are distressed for thee, our brother; very pleasant hast thou been to us."

To the Rev. George S. Teller, still earlier removed from this scene of his earthly labor, much of what has been already said applies with equal propriety. Connected with the Diocese since the year 1877, he served the Churches at Geneseo and Mount Morris, and after a short interval of absence he was settled at Penn Yan, and last at Canaseraga, whence he was suddenly called to his rest. In every one of these places he left a record of faithful earnestness and secured the lasting esteem of all who enjoyed his ministrations. During his later years he suffered from failing health—a fact which he would never quite admit to himself nor allow it to interfere with the discharge of duty. He took an active interest in all the operations and legislation of the Diocese and in the meetings of our Council. We regret that we shall no more hear his earnest voice nor see his thoughtful face.

The Rev. A. Rumpff took orders late in life, and passed his closing years in work in the Church at Wellsville, where he passed away, respected for his learning and his piety. So the years bear away from us one and another of our Brethren, leaving us saddened, yet rejoicing that when the weary wheel of life ceases its earthly motion, it enters upon its endless course in a glorious eternity.

The minute was adopted by a rising vote.

The Rev. A. J. Brockway moved that Title I., Canon 8, Sec. 1, Subdivisions 2 and 3, be so altered that Wyoming County may be transferred from the Deanery of Rochester to the Deanery of Batavia.

The motion requiring a two-thirds vote in order to effect the transfer at once, it was put to the Council, and carried, with only one dissenting voice.

Report on Board of Education. Complimentary Resolutions.

The election of three Trustees for De Veaux College being in order, on motion of the Rev. E. C. Cowan, it was

Resolved, That the ballot be dispensed with and that the Secretary be instructed to cast one ballot for Mr. James H. Fisher, Dwight S. Chamberlain, M. D., and Mr. Benjamin Flagler.

The Rev. G. W. Knapp, from the Committee on the Report of the Board of Education, read the following

R E P O R T :

To the Council:

Your Committee to whom has been referred the Report of the Board of Education in the Diocese of Western New-York respectfully report: That they believe all authority is now in the hands of the Trustees of the De Lancey Divinity School to make such arrangements for the use of the surplus income of the School as they may deem best and proper for its usefulness, and the Committee do not feel called upon to make any further suggestion.

GEO. W. KNAPP,
JAMES W. ASHTON,
JOEL H. PRESCOTT.

The Secretary having reported that no further business is before the Council, on motion, it was Resolved, That 1000 copies of the Journal be printed and distributed in the usual manner.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council be tendered to the Rector of S. Peter's Memorial Church, and to the Rector of Trinity Church, for the admirable arrangements made by them for the comfort and convenience of the officers and members of the Council.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council be given to the choirs of S. Peter's Memorial Church and of Trinity Church, for the good Church music furnished by them, and especially for furnishing music on every occasion of Divine Service.

On motion, it was

Closing Devotions. Adjournment.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council are due, and are hereby cordially tendered to the ladies of Geneva, for their genuine kindness and generous hospitality.

On motion of the Rev. C. W. Hayes, it was Resolved, That this Council adjourn sine die, after the usual devotions.

The Council was reminded of the polite invitation of the President of Hobart College and Mrs. Potter.

The Bishop then addressed the Council in a few appropriate words, after which "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow" was sung, when the Bishop said several appropriate Collects, pronounced the Benediction, and declared the Council adjourned sine die.

ARTHUR CLEVELAND COXE,

(Attest.)

President.

THEODORE M. BISHOP,

Secretary.

APPENDIX I.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

TO THE FORTY-EIGHTH COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE.

REVEREND BRETHREN, AND BRETHREN OF THE LAITY:

To this fair seat of Hobart College, and to these beautiful scenes, I have invited you this year, because I wish you to be encouraged. This American Church lives and grows in spite of everything; I had almost said, in spite of itself. Fifty years ago, as I passed through this village, I took a view of the poor little college, and went into the dear little church built of timber, and felt that it was "the day of small things" indeed, in these outlying regions of the Mother Diocese.

But, just then, a better day was at hand. The growth has been slow, but steady and sure; onward and upward. Look around you. I called you to Geneva to hear those chimes of S. Peter's, and then to survey the new features of Trinity. I wished you to see the marked improvements in the College property, and especially to observe the new Library Hall, the munificent gift of our frequent benefactress, Mrs. Merritt, of New-York, and of her brother, our honoured Wm. B. Douglas, of Rochester. And I wished you, one and all, here to welcome and cheer our new President, and to know something of his views and convictions as to the immediate wants of Hobart College and of its possible future.

After our Council of last year, we kept the solemn commemorations which its anniversaries had brought to mind. We celebrated that great restoration of Catholicity to England, of which Wiclif was the morning-star. We celebrated the consecration of Seabury, who brought the Catholic religion to America, in organic form; who made it national and autonomous, and free from all alien control.

Ennobling Antecedents. Commemoration.

No Church can become great or venerable that is untrue to antecedents so ennobling and so instructive. Our American Church is the Church of Law and of Order, because it is the Church of History. Rooted in the Apostolic age, and developed by the Nicene, it survived Mediævalism, and had life enough to slough it off as the excretion of disease. It is the one gift of God to America, by which American life and civilization can be welded into historic continuity with the civilization of Christendom. It affords just what our people need, to enter upon a career of genuine progress. Such progress must have a religious base. There must be unity of religious action and convictions to promote it; and what is lacking to inorganic religion this Church is able to supply. If, then, we are true to our antecedents, which are those of our history as a people, we shall do the grandest work for America that can be done in it. Gradually the noblest and best minds among our countrymen will revert to first principles; and if they find us true to the elemental Laws of Christianity, they will gravitate to the great central Truths we represent. In God's good time and way, out of a chaotic state, He will bring forth system. How He will do it, He only knows; but we have the plain duty of holding up the standards, just now. We are not struggling for hierarchical aggrandizement, and we may rejoice to believe that God has great designs for America, in which we, as now constituted, may have but an inconsiderable part. His glory and His Gospel are all that we care for, and we can trust Him to work all in His own way. We then have only to "be faithful and strengthen the things that remain." He will hasten the result in His time.

It is not to be doubted that we have strengthened our position and our faith itself, by the commemorations of last year. Two minor commemorations belong to this year. It is just fifty years since the first steps were taken that made us a Diocese. I well remember the Convention at Utica, in 1835, of which our Diocese was the product. Passing through that city, to New-York, on that very day, I encountered many of the Clergy and Lay Deputies as they left the canal packet and exchanged civilities with those who welcomed them. I felt a deep interest in the questions they came to consider, but little dreamed of the import to myself, of their action; nor could they have imagined that the college-boy, returning from a vacation tour, whom they crowded into insignificance and very properly compelled to stand aside, would recall that scene this day, to the Diocese of Western New-York, speaking from its Episcopal Chair. But the point to which I would give greater importance is, that our Mother Diocese, then, was only just about as old as we are now, for she is about to celebrate her Centennial in New-York this month, and has invited us to share in its solemnities. To the details of this invitation I shall soon direct your attention with a practical purpose. We must pay due honour to the maternal source of our existence, and gather to the common home, for common offices of praise and thanksgiving, and not less of fraternal love.

The year's work has been one of almost exceptional effort on my part, but not in the way of mere routine. I have often made visitations without reference to confirmations, going where I could do most good and strengthen the hands of my brethren. And my experience leads me to surmise that every third year should be of this character; for some of the clergy find that strictly annual confirmations have not altogether a favourable effect. They lead not a few who should obey the voice of God and of conscience to "wait another year;" and they sometimes force a rector to "get up a class," when he feels that circumstances are very unfavourable to the attempt. I have greatly sympathized with those of the clergy who have asked me to visit them without reference to "a class," or even to postpone. The autumnal months are the best for ordinary visitations, and I trust these coming weeks will enable me to accomplish an important tour through the Diocese, before the winter sets in. I find that our terrific winters are most unsuitable for such work, and I shall, hereafter, make very rare attempts to do winter-work, outside of our great cities. These have ever increasing claims upon my time and my exertions, and they yield encouraging results, in very many forms.

During the year, I have Confirmed 724 souls; have made 25 Pastoral Visitations, besides my constant labours as one of the clergy of Buffalo; have visited schools (or school and college-boards) on 15 occasions; have laid personally, or by license of another the corner-stones of two churches and of a new building for Hobart College; have re-opened, with solemn offices four churches recently restored or enlarged, and with solemnities of great interest have opened as "houses of prayer," or oratories, four churches entirely new. Churches consecrated 2; secularized 1. Have presided at 2 Convocations and 10 meetings of the Clergy of Buffalo. I have ordained 1 Priest and Consecration of a Bishop. Missionary Work.

2 Deacons ; and as consecrator-in-chief, at the request of the Primus, I have ordained one Bishop (a dear brother closely connected by many relations with my own Diocese), the successor of Bishop Clarkson, in the Diocese of Nebraska, on whom and on whose work I fervently implore a perpetual blessing.

Observe the few ordained during the past year. It is true I expect, at the next Canonical Season, God willing, to ordain others. It is true that I have sifted applications, and have refused to advance to the Sacred Ministry, some on whom I might have laid hands in days of inexperience. But let us not shut our eyes to the fact, that the luxury and worldliness of our age are withholding from Christ's highest service the best gifts ; that is, the choicest of our baptized children. I have observed with the greatest satisfaction the formation of boys into choirs, thinking it may be a providential movement to lead many into the Diaconate and the Priesthood. But on this most serious matter, expect a Pastoral Letter, for the Ember-week in Advent.

The clergy, reduced by the lamented decease of three of our number, and by several removals, are (presbyters 96, deacons, 10) with their Bishop, 107. Several parishes, now vacant, are about to be filled, and the same is true of Missionary stations in Allegany, which are suddenly vacant by changes. When these places are supplied, our number will show a gain since last year ; but momentarily we are less in number by two at the present time. Of our presbyters and deacons, 4 have received Letters Dimissory, and I have accepted the same number from other Dioceses.

Our Missionary work is, generally, in an improved condition, thanks, under the Divine blessing, to the efficient help I receive from my Reverend brethren the Deans. Nor is the condition of the Missions in Allegany any exception. A complication of circumstances has caused removals, coincidently, just now, but these involve no permanent loss. The Rev. J. E. Goodhue has left the parish at Cuba freed from debt, and its substantial church ready for consecration. The Rev. A. J. Warner leaves Angelica, with a restored and beautified church, ready for enlarged work and a new career. Belmont has a rectory, secured under the zealous labours of the Rev. J. H. DeMille, and the church at Belvidere has been recently repaired. The Rev. J. M. Scofield supplies the services at Belmont, and Mr. Warner though he has resigned, does the same for the flock of his recent charge. This county is not therefore as destitute as has been naturally inferred. With Dr. Hitchcock, the Dean, and a valuable lay-adviser, I have lately considered a plan for the re-organizing of our Missions there, on a better system. The apparent difficulties of the situation do, in point of fact, solve other difficulties and open a fair opportunity for enlarged operations. Our greatest difficulties, just now, arise from the "running down" of certain old centres from which the population has drifted away like tides turning into new channels. I need one strong and zealous itinerating missionary of the Nash and Davenport type, and I fervently pray that the Diocese may be moved to increase our Missionary funds that I may be able to give such a helper an adequate support. I will gladly be one of ten to raise $1,000 for this purpose; looking to the stations to supply him with a house, and to pay his travelling expenses. It will be hard work, and ought not to be clogged by niggardly maintenance.

I have not issued the formal licenses to Lay-readers, as yet (though I have received the former ones for the year), because I wish an amended Canon to render this service more real and more efficient. We should have at least one reader for every parish, and for every station. It is a disgraceful state of things if this form of "lay-help" cannot be supplied. Scripture speaks of helps as well as "governments;" we want such helps, surely. I beg to express my thanks to Mr. White, Mr. Champlin, Mr. Dennis and others, who have rendered signal and efficient aid in this way, as did Mr. Lee, and Mr. Moir, long before they were raised to the ranks of the clergy. I have submitted the projected canonical improvements to a member of our Committee on Canons, who will give it attention and in due time lay it before the Council. As I hinted a year ago, I wish to reverse the grudging traditional policy of the Church in this matter, and to make the Lectors, as of old, a recognized and efficient Ecclesiastical order of Christian Men.

Let me relate an incident which greatly cheered me on one of my visitations. Having some special writing to do, while the guest of one of the clergy, I was shown into the rector's study by a servant, for it was early morning. This study was, I am persuaded, a sanctum: a word too often misused. Tears came to my eyes as I observed the pious pastor's Nota Bene in a retired corner. It edified my heart and touched my feelings. The whole Diocese shall have the benefit of it; and if he who gave his Bishop such a treat happens to hear it, it will be as surprising to him as it will be delightful to his brethren.

Pastoral Examples.

I doubt not many more of the Reverend pastors of my Diocese have the same record with God; if so, He who seeth in secret will reward them openly. But, I am glad to put on record in our Journals something for the clergy, suggested wholly by a presbyter, and proceeding fresh from pastoral experience. Here it is:

✝ TO MY SOUL.

1. Read the Bible daily, English, Greek and Hebrew. Note—Wordsworth, Speaker's Commentary.
2. Study the Creed. Note—Pearson, Bull, the Fathers Apostolic and Nicene.
3. Remember the Law of Christ. Note—Beatitudes and the Decalogue.
4. Daily Duties. (a) Sermon-writing. Note—Texts, Themes, Thoughts, Illustrations, Applications. (b) Letters, Canonical, Fraternal (to Clerical brethren), Condolence, Congratulation, Friendship, Business.
5. Visitations. Note—Promptly; Frequently; at convenient Seasons; the Parishioners, all twice a year; the Afflicted, promptly, thoughtfully; the Poor regularly, helpfully.

These charges are worthy of a Ken, a Wilson, or a Wittingham. I transcribed them from a pastor's memoranda and present them to my Diocese, countersigned by Episcopal warrant and authority.

And now listen to another charge from another of your own number, whom I delight to honour, by adopting his words, and teaching by his example. Many among you could lend me words just as suitable, but these have come to me, providentially, and were spoken without the least idea on his part that I would ever see them; much less that I would thus reflect them to my Council:

“In the past ten years, then, I have preached 850 times, and have given 625 private individual instructions.

“Believing, as I do most firmly believe, that no clergyman can know the people whom God has given to his care, or be known by them; can ever be of much comfort to them, or acquire much lasting influence over them, unless he sees them face to face in their homes; believing this, it has been my earnest desire and effort, dear brethren, to be not only your Priest, not only your Instructor in holy things, but to be your Pastor as well — one who thinks of you, and prays for you, and seeks you out in your homes, and tries to sympathize with, and comfort, and help, as best he may, each separate individual heart among you. Would to God I had fulfilled this so blessed part of my duty more zealously and earnestly than I have fulfilled it! And yet, all imperfectly as it has been done by me, in the ten years I have been among you, I have paid nearly 9,000 strictly parochial visits. When I say 'strictly parochial visits,' I mean those visits, whether to the sick or whole, which are not of a purely social character. I repeat, then, of visits other than social ones, I have paid, during the ten years of my Rectorate, nearly 9,000."

What I said to you a year ago about the growing immorality and licentiousness of our cities, and the bad influences these centres are creating on the rural districts, met with an echo from the press and from the popular pulpit, in many parts of our country. I am almost sorry to say, nobody charged me with mistake, or with language too severe. Let me recall it to your attention. The evils multiply in cubic progression; the undisciplined minds of our countrymen accept nothing as established truth and are ready for experiment in any form. They cut away existing institutions as they strip the hills of their trees, never reflecting upon the deluges and the drought, and the sterile denuded lowlands, which must be the consequence, much less on the failure of rivers and the ruin of navigation. An utter inability to forecast and to foreknow consequences, seems characteristic of our population. Any novelty carries them away in a craze, and begets an insatiable craving for novelties still beyond. And this disposition is now cropping out into socialism and revolutionary unbelief, of which the present generation may feel the cruel effects. Our youths grow up indifferent and without fixed principles, and are incapable of withstanding temptations. Everywhere they read and hear the most mischievous and disorganizing theories of life and of society. They are told that there is no God, or if there is, he is neither to be loved nor feared. The awful mystery of evil, nevertheless, is not to be ignored. It exists, it rages, it is hell this side of the grave. The Christian alone looks it in the face; by faith explores it and sees the light beyond; by patience waits for the clearing up of the problems of our existence, and has the practical good sense to adhere to the only system that has ever eradicated evil from the hearts of individuals, or enabled society to overcome it, forcing it to succumb to law. But, the untrained youth, living only in the moment, and never reflecting that these problems extend into eternity to find their only solution there, falls an easy prey to the atheist and his creed of nothingness: "Let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die." In such a crisis of our civilization, fathers, mothers, practical men, and, above all, ye ministers of God, what are you doing for the saving of precious souls, "pulling them out of the fire?" "Is this a time to plant and build?" Look to your hearths and homes. Reflect on your responsibility for your examples. Begin to live, more and more, for the life of the world to come.

The Board of Education, after long and serious consideration, has resolved to move onward with the De Lancey Divinity School. Its work is a specialty. It exists to give due preparation to persons, in advanced life, who like Duffie and Hill rise up "from the receipt of custom," and copy S. Matthew, leaving all for Christ. For these, and yet more for another class; for those who come to us from our fellow Christians of other communions, and who need special training applied to the specialties of their cases, respectively. I may explain what is proposed more fully when the Report of the Board comes in. Suffice it, if we all live to see the Season of Advent, you will hear of a live school, and of live and real work. We shall attract numbers if we do our work well; yes, and endowments too. God grant us that grace and help, "without which nothing is strong, nothing is holy."

Your Committee on the Prayer-Book will lay before you an able report, I doubt not. I have not cared to influence their action, and I do not know what they mean to say; they are men to be trusted in such business. But, as I expressed my own convictions last year, I see no reason for concealing them now. My view of the situation has become greatly emphasized by the developments of the year. They have been startling indeed. The more elaborate and intelligent opinions that have been expressed, prove only that every man has his doctrine and his psalm. There is no common consent among the more learned critics of the "Book Annexed." Some are in favour of "improvements" which would revolutionize our worship, and wholly destroy the Prayer-Book. On the other hand, of many crude and, I must add, ignorant, proposals which have been made—"their name is Legion." Such come largely from those whom the Prayer-Book did not educate, and on whom it has no hold, as the fruit of earnest study, or devout, profound and loving experience, in the formation of their Christian character. On the whole, then, I must take ground far more decided than I did a year ago. I believe in minimizing all change in this marvellous Book and in letting its more essential portions alone for the present. The Church of England, after another Lambeth Conference, will be prepared to take action for the "enrichment" of her own Book, and we should not anticipate work from which we might derive vast advantage. To touch the Book frequently is a destructive policy. Let us wait. Meantime, gather all that is good in the way of addition, out of the "Annex," into a "Prymer." Enlarge the Prymer, by selections from the richest Liturgical sources of the whole Church, and make rubrical provision for their occasional and exceptional use, under Episcopal licence, but not for any disuse of the Prayer-Book, as now obligatory. These are my views, candidly expressed many years since, and by some brethren just as frankly resisted without offence to me. But as one of our Bishops said to me, last winter, "There has been a turn of the tide, and some of us begin to look with approval on the proposed Prymer." My brethren, let us not consent to patch cloth of gold with our new frieze. Let us put all our crudities into a crucible, and when we have made experiments, let us, in mature season, put the tried gold into the casket of our Common Prayer and throw the dross away. I must say now, freely and fully, what I have only cautiously expressed before, that the headlong action of 1883 stunned me. Whoever heard of amending the Liturgic Offices of the Church by lung-power and vociferation in a great popular body, that sat but a few weeks, and that was overloaded with other work? Yet passed it was, as a completed work, to be put "through" the Convention of 1866, without further emendation, of even a word, or a comma. Some excellent brethren, seemed enthusiastically impatient for just this result; but, I feel sure that "sober second-thought," has, ere this, induced nearly everybody to refer the whole work to a choice "Commission," for new and patient revision and a final report, in 1889. If not, then far better to lay the entire "enrichment" on the table, till the Greek Kalends. I cannot speak less feelingly on the most momentous proposition that has been considered by the American Church since the ratification of the Book of Common Prayer, in 1789.

The Revised Bible is now before the Church and the world; on the whole a most valuable result, as proving that there was little that required retouching in our English Vulgate, and that there is nothing more dangerous than the attempt, even of artists, to put new cloth on an old garment. Wise, learned and blessed are the good men who have toiled so patiently over this work, but better men than even they once reported, after severe and watchful labours, "we have toiled, and have taken nothing." I pray God, that, save for occasional marginal enrichment, the "Revision" which belongs to the history of England, under Victoria, may be known and valued in future days only as the candid testimony of the learning and piety of 1885, that it finds nothing to overrule in the sufficient learning and at least equal piety of 1611; but acknowledges the unrivalled excellence of the Old Version and the majestic rhythm and liturgic sublimity of its style. Let it be an everlasting inheritance to the English-speaking people; and like the name it glorifies, "let it remain under the sun amongst the posterities which shall be blessed through Him. Amen, Amen."

I was blessed, during the past year, by your prayers in my behalf on the Anniversary occasions of my consecration (January 4th) and (of my accession April 5th, Easter Day) to the jurisdiction of the Diocese. An unlooked for token of great kindness reached me after the latter of these two solemnities, in a kindly considerate request from several of my lay friends that I would give myself a vacation and an excursion beyond the seas. A handsome tribute of their beneficence, which had been offered on the altar, was at the same time presented me, through the reverend Rector of this Church. I have elsewhere acknowledged this great kindness, I trust in no cold or inappropriate terms. It inspired me with a new impulse of old feeling; a long relinquished desire to see the Holy Land. Once when my passage had been secured, in my comparative youth, I was providentially hindered; twice I was subsequently disappointed, the outbreak of the war, in 1861, proving in this, as in other respects, a stern trial to my hopes and aspirations; and when I was called to be your Bishop, I gave up this cherished anticipation entirely. But it has now begun to stir my heart once more. To sail next November, and give the winter months to the indulgence of (I trust) a somewhat pious longing to see Jerusalem, was my first thought, and I meant to ask your consent at this Council. I found a dear brother in the Episcopate who consented to supply any service that might be desirable at Episcopal hands, during my absence. But, my Diocese has been visited by afflicting changes in several parts, and it is important that I should remain with you till vacant parishes are filled, and till our Missionary stations are all placed on a better footing. I see no immediate prospect, therefore, of being permitted to carry out my wishes, and perhaps I shall never be allowed with mortal eyes to behold —

“Those sacred fields,
Over whose acres walked those blessed feet,
Which eighteen hundred years ago were nailed,
For our advantage, to the bitter cross.”

God's holy will be done. But you will permit me, perhaps, to cheer myself with the hope, that if I should be spared to meet you another year, all things may be favourable to the plan with which some of your number have so generously cheered and refreshed my heart.

I asked my Diocese to give me a thousand dollars towards the purchase of the property, in Athens, to be occupied by the school of our missionaries, Dr. and Mrs. Hill, for the education of the girls of Greece. The project is to make that a perpetual seat of Christian Education, in carrying out their great design; and if this is secured it will be their monument and memorial. Their work has been blessed of God beyond any similar work undertaken by Western Christians. We owe it to ourselves not to let it decay. I told its projectors that I thought my Diocese could give $1,000, and of this sum I expect to make up the seventh hundred, this month. The whole sum will be secured without much effort, before Advent. The treasurer is the Rev. F. Goodwin, of Hartford, to whom I have remitted your contributions, after having acknowledged them in the Church Kalendar.

My aspirations for my Diocese are constantly enlarged, under God, by the fidelity and zeal of the parochial and missionary clergy. Much is going on in divers fields that excites my gratitude to my reverend brethren, and yet more, to our common Master. Let me particularize one move in the right direction over which I “rejoice with trembling.” Can such a large and thorough plan of work be successfully carried on in one of our great cities? S. John's Church, in the city of Buffalo, stands open every day from 8 A. M., to 6 P. M., that all may turn aside from the thoroughfare to pray and to meditate, or if only for a few blessed minutes, to offer such ejaculations as that of the publican who “went down to his house—justified.” At noon every day there is a short office, licensed by the Ordinary, for prayer and praise. I trust the full Morning and Evening Services will be introduced, by and by, and maintained daily throughout the year.

S. John's, Clyde. Other New Churches.

Every Sunday there is an early communion, save only on the first Sunday in the month, when the communion follows the sermon as heretofore. There are three services with sermons every Sunday, besides the Sunday-School instructions and a brief office of devotion at an exceptional hour. The sittings in the church are all free, and I rejoice to say that the attendance on week-days as well as on Sundays, is very encouraging. May this example be followed, and may the Divine blessing mark it, as an acceptable service. This church, in which we are assembled, I rejoice to add, stands open at all hours of the day for prayer.

One year ago (Sept. 13th) I laid the corner-stone of a new church, for S. John's Parish, Clyde, replacing one of primitive origin, which had been destroyed by fire. One year, to a day, after this, on Sunday last, I opened the new church, with holy offices, for public worship. It is worthy of a visit, built of solid stone and (for its cost) a most churchly and beautiful fabric. The architect, Mr. Blaby, deserves no stinted praise; but my heart warms towards the rector and his good people who have put forth extraordinary exertions and displayed no ordinary spirit in accomplishing this work. Henceforth Clyde is "not the least" among the fair churches of the Diocese, nor among its most praiseworthy people. I must find room for a word of special gratitude for the missionary church, S. Mark's, lately erected in Rochester, chiefly by parishioners of S. Luke's, and for the church at Scottsville, now going up on new ground, of which the corner-stone was lately, at my request, laid by the Dean of the Convocation of Rochester.

In Buffalo, a smaller Mission Chapel, to be called S. Matthew's, was opened in the Advent-tide of last year; a second outgrowth of the kind from the parish of S. James' and the missionary zeal of its most excellent rector.

The beautiful new church at Shortsville, which I opened in Easter-week, is, in its way, one of the most noticeable results of missionary work and of local effort, among those of the year.

I need hardly remind you that while I have secularized the old church of Trinity Parish, in Buffalo, a new and costly fabric will shortly replace it. It occupies the eligible site originally belonging to Christ Church, and there has been a fusion of these two parishes, which I consider advantageous to the people of both, and to the interests of the Church in that growing city.

Drs. Staunton and Bolles. Deceased Clergymen.

During our sessions, I promise myself the great gratification of presenting to the Council two representative men — my reverend brethren, the Rev. Dr. Staunton and the Rev. Dr. Bolles. You know them well by name, as former clergy of the Diocese; veterans, the only ones remaining of those who took counsel together for the erection of this Diocese. They have kindly come to look once more in the face this Diocese of Western New-York in Council. You will receive them with all the honours. I regret that Mr. W. C. Pierrepont, whom we should delight to honour with them, is unable to be present. Of the Laity of the memorable convention of '35 he is the sole survivor. God bless him.

The work goes on, but the labourers are few, and how fast they are vanishing from among the children of men: Three dear and honoured brethren have rested from their labours, since we last met in Council. Our beloved Henderson and Teller have been taken from us while yet, comparatively, young men; and one, the Rev. Adolph Rumpff, has been taken in venerable age, after a pure and useful ministry, in the mission-field. Our brother Rumpff was a German by birth, and, accompanied by a most learned man who was my tutor in 1829, he came to this country because of some oppressive acts of the government in the little Duchy where he lived. Later in life he was ordained by me, and I found him worthy of my confidence and love. His history reads, in some respects, like a romance. In his childhood, he saw Napoleon passing on to Waterloo; and it is a little curious that one who dropped away about the same time a layman of this Diocese, was a soldier in that battle, serving in the Hanoverian Contingent, and ministering to the Duke of Brunswick in his last mortal agonies. Probably, no others will ever be named among us, as having shared in historical events so memorable in the concerns of nations and of mankind at large.

The Rev. George Storm Teller was the first ordained by me to the priesthood. A man he was of very decided ability, of earnest piety and of a pure devotion to his work. Twice or thrice he would have been the choice of foremost parishes of the Diocese, but for his feeble health. This condition of his mortal frame he never seemed to be aware of himself; he felt indeed what he supposed to be an asthmatic difficulty; but on he toiled, till he fell like a racer in the course. Dear soul! I loved him well, and made many efforts to secure for him a field of larger usefulness; but, I am glad to know that he enjoyed his work at Canaseraga, where he was greatly valued, and where he fell asleep ; thank God, with little suffering, as a lamp fails when the oil is drained to the last.

The eloquent tribute to deceased brethren which appears on our journal of last year, was draughted by the pen of Mr. Henderson. How little we supposed, as he read it, that he would be among the departed, before another meeting of this Council. Long and painful was his illness ; beautiful and exemplary was his Christian patience ; never was a pastor's death-bed watched by a more devoted people ; and when he died, it seemed as if all the Christians of Buffalo rose up to call him blessed. Truly this Demetrius "had good report of all men and of the truth itself." A purer spirit than his has not been numbered among us. He was a faithful and instructive preacher of Christ ; but the great lesson of his life left to us is that of the almost unparalleled fidelity of his pastoral ministrations. Richly were they rewarded by the loyalty of his flock. I point my whole diocese to that parish, and that pastor, and say, emphatically, would I might see the like everywhere with like results. Oh ! my brethren, let us learn by such a death how we ought to live, if, indeed, we would find it gain to die.

So many of our beloved and honoured brethren of the Laity have been called to leave us, that I speak of them only in this way : I cannot particularize, especially as the names of holy women who abhorred publicity, would be the most deserving of mention. Oh ! how short is life ; how immense are our incitements to work ere night cometh. Yes, my brethren, for Christ and His Everlasting Kingdom, let us work with our might, looking to Him for strength, for opportunity, above all for the will and the resolve to do what we can. Our cause is imperishable. Let the heathen rage as they will ; let the people imagine their vain things, the Church is everlasting and the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth. Let us work, work, work. As John Wesley said to his brother, "Dear Charles, we shall have all eternity for our rest." It will be rest, but not inactivity.

" Visions of glory, spare our aching sight ;
Ye unborn ages, crowd not on the soul."

To God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be all glory and honour, now and everlastingly. Amen.

ORDINATIONS.

To the Diaconate:

1. December 21, 1884. In S. Luke's Church, Rochester, EDWARD PHELAN HART, B. A. Presented by the Rev. Dr. Anstice.

N. B.—It is my opinion that wherever our Clergy can do so, without compromise of our principles as Catholics, we should accept every occasion offered us by our fellow-Christians to do them service in the love of a common Redeemer. See Oxenham's remarks (from an ultraist standpoint) in his edition of Dr. "Döllinger's Reunion of the Churches," (pp. xxxiv. et seq. of Preface,) New-York edition: Dodd & Mead, 1872. All this is widely different from breaking through canons and rubrics, with vulgar gush to prove our Christian regard for them; nor does it justify the adoption of their forms of doing good, when our own have such claims on our devoted care and exclusive interest. Ne quid nimis.

N. B.—After receiving the Viaticum, in his chamber, the physicians advised his immediate removal to the cooler shade of a tent, in the rectory garden. There, hard by the chancel of his beloved church, and the altar where he had so piously ministered, and the pulpit from which he had so faithfully proclaimed the Gospel to his loving people, our Henderson gave up his spirit to his adored Redeemer. N. B.—Let me be forgiven for recording the fact that my three most important anniversaries (this being my birth-day) have, this year, all fallen on Sundays, and one on Easter-Day (see January 4th and April 5th). May I suggest to others the benefit to the soul of keeping such anniversaries in special communion with the Giver of life and of all good?

May 12. Rogation-Day. At Hartford, Conn., at "a Congress of Christians." An address.

N. B.—I attended this interesting gathering as a deeply interested watchman of the "signs of the times." Not prepared to take any leading part, (though kindly invited,) I "occupied the place of the unlearned," and only rose to speak, for ten minutes, on "the use of the Apostles' Creed." The kindness with which this was received, and, in short, the spirit of the assembly in its various sessions, surprised and encouraged me. The responsibilities of our Apostolic Church are daily increasing and merit prayerful study and conscientious action.

August 8. Newport, R. I. The day devoted, by Proclamation of President Cleveland, to funeral observances in honour of General Grant. After the special office prescribed by the Bishop of Rhode Island, I pronounced a memorial oration on "God's Providence in raising the men for the times in every emergency of this Nation."

August 9. Sunday tenth after Trinity. Newport. All Saints' Church. Officiated and preached at the Morning and Evening Services; also ministering in the same place and the like services on the succeeding Sunday.

(3.) REPORT OF AUDITORS.

The undersigned, a Committee appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese of Western New-York to examine the securities in the hands of G. E. Mumford, Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund and the De Lancey Fund, do certify, that after such examination we do find them to correspond with the foregoing report and statement in all respects.

We do further certify that we have examined the account of the said Treasurer as set forth above, and have compared the same with the vouchers, and do find the same in all respects correct.

Dated at Rochester, Sept. 12, 1885.

(D.) DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

To the Forty-Eighth Council of the Diocese of Western New-York, the Missionary Board of the Diocese would respectfully Report :

That by reason of the very liberal contributions for Missions through the year the deficit of the previous year of about $1,000 has been paid, and a sum nearly sufficient realized to pay the first quarterly stipends for the ensuing year. The work of the Board still feels the necessity for funds for aggressive Missionary work throughout the Diocese. The Board most confidently relies upon the Rev. Clergy for increased efforts in raising necessary funds through the regular Canonical collections for this object.

Dated GENEVA, N. Y., September 1, 1885.

JAS. P. MELLEN,
Treasurer.

(3.) REPORT OF AUDITORS.

GENEVA, N. Y., September 14, 1885.

To the RT. REV. A. CLEVELAND COXE, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—In compliance with your request we have carefully examined the accounts of Mr. James P. Mellen, Treasurer of the Parochial Fund, and find them correct.

The securities belonging to the various funds have been examined, and correspond with his statements, and the expenditures as charged are supported by proper vouchers. The investments made by the Treasurer are, so far as we can judge, well and securely made, and there is but one small item of interest on a mortgage in default, and that is believed to be amply secured. The July coupons of certain railroad bonds belonging to one of the funds in the hands of the Treasurer (a gift to the fund) have not been paid, though the amount represented thereby has been made up to the fund from other sources.

Besides the full and detailed account, the Treasurer has submitted a condensed account, which it seems to us is all that need be published.

The salary of the Treasurer for the past year has not been deducted from the balance on hand, but the amount of the same chargeable to the income of each fund is stated after the income account of such fund, and will be deducted from next year's account. The total salary or commission of the Treasurer for the past year, under the resolution of the Board of Trustees, being five per cent. of the income received from mortgages, is $260.88.

Respectfully submitted,

P. N. NICHOLAS.
A. P. ROSE,
Auditing Committee.

De Veaux College. Report of Trustees.

(F.) DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

To the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Western New-York:

GENTLEMEN,—The Trustees of the De Veaux College for Orphans and Destitute Children, pursuant to the terms of their charter, respectfully submit the following Report for the year ending June 30, 1885; also, a copy of the College Register for the Academic year 1884-'85:

During the year there have been instructed twelve (12) Probationers and Foundationers, thirty-eight (38) Boarding and thirteen (13) Day Pupils, making a total of sixty-three (63) pupils.

On the thirtieth day of June the funds of the Institution consisted of $103,233.75 of principal yielding income; which funds are invested in, and consist of, bonds and mortgages, stock, land contracts and cash awaiting investment, as per Schedule A, hereto annexed. $2,355 have been added to the principal during the year from the sales of village lots. The demand for these lots still continues, and their value is steadily appreciating.

Schedule B, hereto annexed, shows the Treasurer's collections and disbursements for the year 1884-'85, except as to principal.

Schedule C presents a condensed statement of resources and liabilities June 30, 1885. (The Farm inventories, which show an increase in value over those of a year ago of $763.86, are not included in this Schedule.)

In November last the Cottage at the entrance of the Whirlpool Grounds was burned to the ground. It was insured for $1,000. With this sum, and a portion of the rental of the place, a two-story dwelling house of wood was this spring erected on the same site.

Of the unusually large sum expended for repairs, $670.24 was required to re-shingle and paint the roof of the main building and to put the chimneys in order.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

WILFRED H. MUNRO,

DE VEAUX COLLEGE, Aug. 20, 1885.

Secretary.

The undersigned, being the Auditing Committee of the Board of Trustees, hereby certify that they have examined the books on which the foregoing accounts are based, and that they find them correct in every particular.

JAMES H. FISHER,

A. A. PORTER,

P. D. WALTER.

DE VEAUX COLLEGE, Aug. 20, 1885.

NOTE.—The Schedules to which reference is made, and the full account of items to which the Auditing Committee refer, are in the hands of the Secretary, and have been examined by the Standing Committee, and by the Council Committee having the matter in charge.

The amount named for increase and improvement of Church property was raised by the Ladies' "Ways and Means Committee."

The discrepancy between last year's number of Communicants and this, is owing to the uncertainty of the present list in the Register. Some persons are recorded who never come forward, and probably some are omitted who should be registered.

The present Rector took charge of the Parish on the 1st day of May, and the above report is as complete as he at present can make it.

There are four things which seem worthy of note, in the record of the Parish for the past year. There has been established a celebration of the Lord's-Supper on each Lord's Day, and on the greater Festivals. The church is open daily from morning to night. A branch of the Church Temperance Society has been organized, and there have been placed in the church an altar of richly carved oak, a credence and chancel rail of oak and brass, and a stone font of massive, but simple construction, with a brass ewer; all of these gifts, except the first, being memorials. There have also been placed in the chancel—the gift of the Sunday-School children—a handsome carpet and two sedilia of oak.

The Mission has suffered much by the removal of active parishioners, and not less from the suspension, for a considerable interval, of regular services. For nearly eighteen months past services have been held regularly every Sunday without interruption. A Sunday-School has been organized. A neat and substantial Chapel has been erected in a desirable part of the village, and prospects are brightening fast.

PERSONAL REPORTS.

CATAWBA, Sept. 14, 1885.

Rt. Rev. Father in God:

I have but a meagre report to make this year. On Sundays I have usually assisted in the services when I have attended. I officiated at one funeral and one marriage. With best wishes, I remain,

Your faithful son and servant in Christ,

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., LL. D.

MY DEAR BISHOP,—I gave up the charge of S. Luke's Church, Jamestown, the latter part of March, since which time, and until taking charge of this Parish, I officiated five times in Buffalo, six times in Rochester, once in Nunda, twice in Westfield, four times in Honeoye Falls.

Affectionately and obediently, THEODORE M. BISHOP.

On all Sundays in term-time I have officiated in the Chapel of De Veaux College. During the summer I had charge of S. Mary's Church, Shelter Island, N. Y. On other Sundays I have assisted the Rectors of various Parishes. I baptized three (3) adults and two (2) children in the College and two (2) children at Shelter Island. I presented ten (10) candidates for confirmation in the College.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX IV.

The Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., and the Rev. William Staunton, D. D., were present at the last meeting of the Council. Both these reverend gentlemen were connected with the Diocese at the time of its formation. Having been invited to address the Council, a resolution was passed, respectfully asking for these addresses for publication in the Journal. They having kindly acceded to the request, they are herewith printed, in the order in which they were delivered.

ADDRESS BY THE REV. JAMES A. BOLLES, D. D., AT THE COUNCIL AT GENEVA, SEPTEMBER 16, 1885.

RIGHT REVEREND FATHER IN GOD, AND BELOVED BRETHREN OF THIS COUNCIL:

I am completely overwhelmed by your kindness and the warmth of the welcome with which you have received me at this Anniversary Council, and scarcely know what to say or how to speak. In reply to the kind invitation of your Bishop to be present on this occasion, I expressed my gratitude, and my wish not to be exhibited as an antique curiosity, nor be called upon for a speech; for I felt then, as I do now, that once more to be in the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York, is a happiness too big for utterance, and awakening in me those remembrances which I can only express by saying that there is no Diocese of the American Church which I have ever loved, or can love so well, and which I hope and pray may ever retain the name, so justly and universally accorded to it under the sainted De Lancey, as "the model Diocese."

How I came into the western part of the then one Diocese of New-York, and happened to be so intimately connected with its division, and with the early organization of the new Diocese, has always seemed to me a singular Providence, and you will excuse me, therefore, for some matters of personal history in explanation. I was a candidate for Orders in the Diocese of Connecticut, entering the General Seminary in 1830, at the age of nineteen years, and paying my expenses mainly by teaching as a private tutor in the family of the late Rev. Dr. Francis L. Hawks. In the spring of 1833, the Rev. Dr. Hawks was compelled to absence from his Parish for rest, and he desired me to be ordained as his assistant; to which Bishop Brownell assented, and ordained me to the Diaconate in March, 1833, a short time before the graduation of my class—an event which I have always regretted, though the authorities subsequently conferred upon me the Diploma of graduation.

After a few months of service in S. Thomas' Church, New-York, a committee of the vestry of S. Luke's Church, Rochester, waited upon the Rev. Dr. Hawks, informing him of the sudden and dangerous illness of their Rector, the Rev. Dr. Whitehouse, who was then about to sail for Europe, with scarcely any hope, on the part of his friends, of his return alive. Under these circumstances I accepted the proposed arrangement for me to resign my position with Dr. Hawks, and accept that of Assistant Minister in S. Luke's Church, Rochester. After an absence of one year, the Rev. Dr. Whitehouse returned, fully restored to health, and I accepted the rectorship of S. James' Church, Batavia, the only parish then vacant in the neighborhood, where I remained for twenty years; so that at the time of my removal in 1854, I was the oldest settled Rector in the Diocese, with the exception of the Rev. Dr. Shelton, of Buffalo. But what, is very strange and extraordinary—in conversation with Bishop Whitehouse, in Chicago, and referring to his dangerous sickness in Rochester, the good man informed me, with much glee, that on his arrival in London, the physician, whom he there consulted, at once decided that his trouble was the whooping cough; the actual result of which was his entire relief from some consumptive ailments with which he had been threatened, and which no doubt had occasioned the extreme alarm of his friends.

Immediately on the return of Dr. Whitehouse, began the movement for the division of the Diocese. I do not mean to be understood as saying that nothing had been done about it before, for there may have been some articles on the subject, pro and con, in the Gospel Messenger. But the movement began in earnest in 1834; nor can there be any doubt that the prime movers, then, were mainly actuated by the desire of having the Rev. Dr. Whitehouse for their Bishop; and hence it was stigmatized in Utica and Buffalo as a "Rochester rebellion;" and so much opposed to it were some of our Buffalo brethren that they went to the Utica Convention by the way of Oswego.

At this time the Rector of S. Luke's was unboundedly popular, as witnessed by the fact that he was elected the President of Hobart College, no doubt with the intention of removing the College to Rochester, and uniting in one man both the Presidency and the Rectorship. No man ever deserved his popularity more justly than did the Rev. Dr. Whitehouse; for not only as a scholar and a preacher was he singularly gifted, but as a pastor he was one of the most faithful, earnest and devoted the Church has ever had. In this western part of the Diocese, he was one of the first, if not the first, to carry on the public worship upon the system of the Ecclesiastical Year, for even Ash-Wednesday was then almost unknown; and then his Parish was regularly divided into sections for parochial work. On Sunday he would give notice that on such a day or days he would visit the families in such a section; and then on such other days in the evening, he would be at such a house of such a section, for an Evening Service and conference with the families belonging to that section. No wonder the people talked about him for their Bishop, and were anxious to divide the Diocese to elect him. But there was a certain Dr. Cheney, of Canandaigua, with whom he had a misunderstanding; and as an illustration of the perpetuation of quarrels from father to son, we have now a "reformed Bishop" Cheney.

In the spring of 1835 a committee from the then newly organized Diocese of Michigan waited upon the Rev. Dr. Whitehouse to know if he would accept the Episcopate; and their understanding was that he would accept, provided the election was unanimous; for he had said, "in that case he should recognize their action as a plain indication of the Divine Will." The election was unanimous; and hence the extraordinary measures to prevent his acceptance. A meeting of laymen was held in Canandaigua, over which the Hon. John C. Spencer presided; and a letter was prepared, for the clergy to sign, imploring the Doctor not to accept the Michigan election, and virtually pledging themselves in the event of the division to make him the Bishop of the new Diocese of Western New-York. That letter, called "The Pledge Letter," was very celebrated in its day, and as it has never been printed, I here read from a copy taken by myself :

TO THE REV. H. J. WHITEHOUSE, D. D.

Rev. and Dear Brother,—We have heard with mingled emotions of pleasure and apprehension that the Convention of the Diocese of Michigan have unanimously elected you their Bishop—pleasure at this well-deserved evidence of their esteem and respect, and apprehension that it may lead you from a field of labor and usefulness, where your services have been already so abundantly blessed.

You must be aware, Reverend Sir, that a project has been for some time agitated, having in view the erection of a new Diocese in the western part of the State. We learn that the committee appointed at the last State Convention to consider the subject, have concluded to recommend a division of the Diocese, as the only practical and effectual means of supplying its wants and providing for its exigencies; and that our worthy Diocesan concurs in the necessity of the measure. We learn, also, that our brethren at the east very generally acquiesce in its propriety, and evince great liberality in their views respecting the apportionment of the funds of the Diocese. Under all these circumstances we think there can be no doubt that sooner or later a new Diocese must be created in Western New-York. When that event occurs, and from the information we have, we suppose it will very speedily, it is our very strong belief that no other individual would unite so much of the good feeling and deep interest of the clergy and laity of that part of the State, for his elevation to the Episcopate, as yourself, and hence that your removal from this field of selection would operate most unfavorably upon the best interests of the Church in the contemplated Diocese. Yet as some time must necessarily elapse before the organization of the new Diocese can be completed, it will be impracticable to obtain a formal expression of its wishes, before you will be called upon to return an answer to the Michigan Convention. It has seemed proper, therefore, that we should, in some measure, anticipate the regular action of the Diocese, by this expression of our individual opinion, so that no step may be taken by you in ignorance of them. We would, therefore, most respectfully, but earnestly, request you to decline the very flattering invitation to the Diocese of Michigan. Your personal acquaintance with a large portion of Western New-York; your knowledge of its wants, of the character, habits and peculiarities of its citizens; your deserved personal influence among them, are instruments of usefulness which can scarcely be too highly appreciated. They are the legitimate means, under Providence, of great good, which cannot be acquired and laid aside at pleasure, and he who possesses them has a talent which may not be hid. The contingency of acquiring them in Michigan, cannot well be set in opposition to their actual possession here. And at all events much precious time must be lost in there obtaining the same means of being useful. That time might probably be well employed for the purpose by another, who in the effort would not sacrifice what you have already gained.

We are not aware of anything which should render the proposed connection with Michigan peculiarly obligatory on yourself; while there are many connections of that character bearing on your relations with Western New-York. The limits of a letter prevent our detailing more of these considerations than those already expressed; and it is less necessary, as you cannot, Reverend Sir, be well ignorant of them.

We conclude, therefore, by reiterating our earnest desire that you would not, by accepting the invitation to Michigan, virtually refuse even to allow your friends to consider the propriety of offering to your acceptance the Episcopate of Western New-York.

We are, Reverend Sir, your friends and brethren in Christ.

What became of this most remarkable letter I am not prepared fully to explain, but a copy was handed to me by the late Gen. Vincent Matthews, of Rochester, and arrangements made for me to visit the western counties and obtain the signatures of the clergy. And I now learn from my beloved brother, Dr. Staunton, that Mr. Spencer visited him at Palmyra to engage him in the same kind of agency among the clergy of the more eastern counties. Of course, neither of us could either sign or circulate the document; for we could not allow, for a moment, by any act of ours, that our motives were vitiated in desiring and praying for a division of the Diocese; nor could we pledge ourselves, before the division, to vote for any candidate for the sacred office of the Episcopate. How strange the Providence that the only persons, probably, then selected to obtain signatures of the clergy, and by whose refusal, no doubt, the plan was abandoned, should now be present, after the lapse of a half century, in this Council of the then unorganized Diocese of Western New-York! What a blessing and what a mercy to ourselves!

From this time the Clergy began to talk about the Rev. Dr. Hawks as an opposing candidate for the bishopric; and this fact led to the most extraordinary debate I ever listened to, which took place in the Convention at Utica in 1835; and one in which the Rev. Dr. Hawks was not less eloquent than in his celebrated speech in the General Convention of 1884. It was understood that the Hon. J. C. Spencer was watching for an opportunity to dispose of Dr. Hawks. The opportunity came in a resolution offered by the Rev. Dr. Proal to raise a committee to investigate the management of a Trust, by Trinity Church, New-York, for the benefit of the Church in Johnstown. The resolution was seconded by Dr. Hawks, and, in doing so, he turned to Mr. Johnson, the then Comptroller of Trinity Church, who sat near him, and smiling said, "Our friend, Mr. Johnson, will not think, that by this resolution we intend to cast any slur upon Trinity Church." Mr. Spencer was at once upon his feet. "Mr. President," said he, "when this resolution was first introduced it did not strike me as very objectionable, but since the levity displayed by the gentleman who seconded the resolution, I am disposed to regard it in a more serious light." He then went on to speak "of the generosity of Trinity Church in lavishing her thousands all over the Diocese, and the contemptible meanness of calling her to account for the paltry sum of five thousand dollars, which she held in trust for the Church at Johnstown." Never shall I forget the calmness of Dr. Hawks when he rose to reply, nor the agitation of his friends all over the house. "Mr. President," said he, "I am happy to learn that my levity has produced serious impressions upon the mind of the gentleman from Canandaigua, and I hope, sir, that my solemnity will not diminish them." He then went on to defend the right of the Convention to make the investigation proposed, either of Trinity or of any other corporation in union with the Convention, no matter what its wealth and liberality; and then, with great solemnity, he turned to the Convention and depicted the real enemies whom Trinity Church has the most to fear; not the open and avowed, but the secret assassins, professing friendship, and sometimes acting as her attorneys, but stabbing her at every pore, and extracting her life-blood for purposes of their own aggrandizement. Of course no adequate idea can now be given of this most eloquent invective. But it was said that Mr. Spencer did not again come into that Convention. I was staying at the house of Rutger B. Miller, Esq., who remarked at the dinner-table that "the lawyers were delighted, as Mr. Spencer was in the habit of riding over the bar rough-shod, but had now found more than his match in a clergyman of the Church."

From this time forward the great battle for the division of the Diocese was mainly fought upon sound Church principles, no matter what the private motives of a few individuals, here and there, who had their favorite candidates for the Episcopate; nor is it possible for any person, now, to conceive of the difficulties which had to be overcome. For it was not only the first example of the division of any Diocese in our country; it not only involved the surrender of much of the State pride which had always been felt, as well by Churchmen as by others, for the great State of New-York; but by many of the best and wisest men, it was opposed as an act of suicide, because that without the wealth of Trinity Church, and the City of New-York, and the Valley of the Mohawk, we could not exist. Then the fact was most significantly pointed at, that there was scarcely a parish in the contemplated new Diocese, which was absolutely self-supporting; not one with an endowment, and almost every one a missionary station. All we could do, therefore, was to fight the battle as Churchmen, basing ourselves upon the teaching and practice of the Primitive Church, and trusting in God for help and deliverance: and I hesitate not to say that the best weapon which was used, and the most effective argument, was a pamphlet then published by Prof. Whittingham, afterwards the learned Bishop of Maryland.

In conclusion, Rt. Rev. Father and beloved brethren, please allow me to speak of the election of Bishop De Lancey; for this is a subject about which, it seems to me, I can speak with absolute certainty.

The Rev. Dr. De Lancey had not been seriously considered as a candidate for the Episcopate, until after the division of the Diocese was fully settled. The Rev. Augustine P. Prevost, of Canandaigua, who came from Philadelphia, and had been a member of the University of which De Lancey was the Chancellor, often talked about him and urged his claims; and the Rev. Dr. Shelton told an anecdote of him and Bishop Hobart, which showed him to be a man of mark; and which no doubt prepared the way. But after the special Convention of 1838, two gentlemen of that body waited upon the Rev. Dr. Seabury, at the office of the Churchman, for consultation and advice. Dr. Seabury said at once, "De Lancey is your man;" and when it was stated that he was not known in Western New-York, and that it would be almost impossible to elect such an entire stranger, especially in opposition to a man so well known as the Rev. Dr. Eastburn, who had already been proposed, the Doctor then took a list of the clergy and said, "Let us see." He then read every name, marking down each one as "straight or crooked or doubtful," and when it was ascertained that such an out and out Churchman as De Lancey might possibly be elected, provided all other things were favorable, then the gentlemen went to consult with Mr. Spencer, who was stopping at the Astor House. Mr. Spencer then resolved to go to Philadelphia to spend the following Sunday, to hear Dr. De Lancey preach, and to consult with such well-known Churchmen as James S. Smith, Esq., and the Hon. Horace Binney. On Mr. Spencer's return, he was full of De Lancey,—no man like him,—and he was resolved to give him the weight of his influence and character—a conclusion which seemed to settle the question so far as the laity were concerned.

Now, a few words in regard to the Hon. John C. Spencer, of whom I wish to speak with the highest respect; and God forbid that anything I have said about his debate with Dr. Hawks should be interpreted as casting the slightest reproach upon his memory. For without any doubt, he was one of the most learned and excellent men of his day, an honor to the Church, no less than to the State, and one of the few whose names will live in the history of both and be held in everlasting remembrance. How he came to drop the advocacy of Dr. Whitehouse I never knew, though he honored me with his friendship and correspondence; but I have sometimes supposed that it was by mutual consent. At all events it is a fact, and one which is full of the deepest instruction, especially to young men in the ministry, that not a single one of the individuals who were talked of as candidates for the Episcopate, when the agitation began for division, had any place or mention, when the time came for the election! And God be praised that the whole question was settled upon great and fundamental principles, not involving the private and sinister motives of any who had part in the final victory! No doubt the large vote obtained by the opposing candidate, the Rev. Dr. Eastburn, prepared the way for his election to the Episcopate of the Diocese of Massachusetts.

And here let me state another singular Providence. At the Consecration of the Rev. Dr. Eastburn, the sermon was preached by Bishop De Lancey, in my judgment, the best and certainly the most elaborate sermon he ever preached. His subject was "The Faithful Bishop," and I am sure there cannot be found, in the whole range of Christian Theology, such another exposition of "his office, his character and his reward." Now, it so happened that the present Bishop of Central New-York, then somewhat bewildered by the conflicting claims of the different bodies struggling to keep him, or to receive him, went by invitation to the old Trinity Church of Boston, where the consecration was held, and he there heard the sermon preached by Bishop De Lancey. How I wish I could tell you, in his own burning words, the impression made upon his mind; but it is now so many years since he told me about it, that I cannot repeat the language. But I am sure the impression can never be effaced either from his mind or heart, and that in no small degree, it shaped his future resolves!*

The election of Dr. De Lancey was very warmly opposed, and was the result of a very hard-fought battle. All sorts of objections were made to him, and most industriously circulated, as that he was not only an extreme high-Churchman, but cold, unfeeling and aristocratic; that his ancestors were Tories, and that he himself had no sympathies in common with our people, and with our Republican form of government. But the most amusing objection was one about which I have now a pile of letters, written by some of our best men, and warning me against the election of a Bishop who believed in "Progressive Justification." On that subject Bishop H. U. Onderdonk had written a tract, in which it was said he was sustained by De Lancey, and that of all doctrines it was the most horrible. Possibly it was, but I did not see it, and am inclined to think it was not generally understood,

* This was December 28, 1842. Bishop Huntington says (after forty-three years) that there is still before him "the impression of the man and the utterance—the dignity, the weight, the mutual fitness between the person and the office."

and had, therefore, no decided weight upon the common mind. The Convention which elected him assembled in this town of Geneva, and no pen can describe the excitement of the day and night before,—the informal meeting of the Clergy, over which the good Dr. Hale presided, but which he could not control, and therefore left the chair in disgust. The friends of De Lancey were calm, held no caucuses, and only listened respectfully to the speeches of their brethren. The Convention was a very solemn one. Never were prayers more fervently offered, and "the space for a while" was so reverently observed that nothing could be heard or felt but the beating of hearts! But the moment the election was announced, one good woman cried out aloud, "Oh dear, poor Dr. Eastburn!"

The Bishop chose Geneva for his home, though he knew the feeling existing there against him; and he told me that his first sermon in this place gave great offence. In course of the sermon he had occasion to refer to the various denominations around us as "brethren alienated from us." That word "alienated" was seized upon, and he was charged with maintaining that they were "aliens to the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise." Not long after he preached the same sermon in S. Luke's Church, Rochester, and changing the word "alienated" to "separated," no fault was found. But, God be praised! the good people of Geneva had reason to change, not the words of the sermon, but their own thoughts and feelings, in so much that when the good Bishop died, every house was in mourning, and every individual felt the stroke as a common calamity.

What, then, can be plainer, Right Reverend Father and beloved brethren, than that you have a diocese, founded by the Wisdom and Mercy of God, guiding and sustaining and overruling all the thoughts and aspirations of His people, fulfilling His promises to His Church, and assuring you and all of us that "God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed; God shall help her, and that right early."

Please accept my congratulations, on this joyous semi-centennial anniversary; and the assurance of my prayers that "God may never leave you, nor forsake you, but make you an eternal excellency, the joy of many generations."

During my ministry in the diocese, and ever since, I have taught to my people, and especially the children, one charming verse, composed by your Bishop, which has seemed to me, if committed to memory, and fully realized in the heart, would keep them safely from all the wanderings of sectism, and from all the delusions of Infidelity:

"I love the Church—the holy Church
That o'er our life presides,
The Birth, the Bridal and the Grave,
And many an hour besides.
Be mine through life, to live in her,
And when the Lord shall call,
To die in her, the Spouse of Christ,
The Mother of us all."

REMINISCENCES OF EARLY DAYS IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW-YORK.

BY THE REV. WILLIAM STAUNTON, D. D.

RIGHT REVEREND FATHER IN GOD, AND BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

By the very kind invitation of the Bishop, I have the privilege, for which I feel grateful, not only of being present at this Council, and participating in its exercises, but also of standing again very near the scene of my early ministrations, concerning which I wish to present a few sketches in this paper.

It was with some surprise that I learned, no longer ago than last Friday, that of the clerical members of the Council held in Trinity Church, Utica, in October, 1835, only two were now living,* and that of those two, it was my lot to be one. It was very natural that when such a thought as that flashed upon my mind, I should be led into a train of reflection on events and incidents in times long past, when, with all the enthusiasm of a young Priest, I was engaged in missionary and pastoral work in two or three villages not very far from the place where we are now assembled. The more I thought of those days when the Church was just beginning to reveal herself to the community as a branch of the veritable "Kingdom of Christ," and of the one only "Church militant here on earth," the more did I feel inclined to set down on paper some brief notes of what I had seen and known; even though, for want of time, I should be obliged to do this only in rough and hasty outline.

In reading to you what I have written, you will kindly make allowance for many defects and omissions, as I write entirely from memory, while on a visit to my son, the Rector of Trinity Church, Syracuse, having no assistance from my papers and memoranda, which are at my home in New-York.

I will begin these sketches by saying that there were some incidents connected with my admission to Deacon's Orders, which were so far out of the ordinary line, that they may perhaps deserve to be noted. The ordination was in June, 1833, fifty-two years ago. You will bear in mind, that, at that time, the Diocese of New-York was co-extensive with the State—the erection of the Diocese of Western New-York taking place some years after. The Bishop was the Right Reverend Benjamin T. Onderdonk, D. D.; and on his visitation, in 1883, of the churches in the central or westerly part of his immense Diocese, he made an appointment for the Indian settlement, at Oneida Castle. Two Candidates for Orders, Erastus Spalding and myself, had been previously instructed to meet the Bishop at that place, in order to our admission to the Order of Deacons. The Indians at Oneida Castle were of three parties, Churchmen, Methodists and Pagans. A convenient, but plain, wooden church had been built and consecrated some years before, for the use of the Church party, but, by some mishap, it had fallen into the hands of the Methodists; and the missionary (the Rev. Solomon Davis) had to request from them the use of the church for the services of the Bishop's visitation. On the Sunday of the ordination, the church was well filled with Indian men and women, all neatly dressed, and most devout in their behavior. The service was in the Oneida tongue, conducted by Mr. Davis, and the responses of the congregation were loud and most reverent in tone and manner. In the gallery, at the lower end of the church, there was a choir, composed, I think, entirely of Indians, and their singing of the chants and hymns in their native tongue was devout and hearty.

The sermon was by the Bishop, and of course in the English language. But Mr. Davis had secured, for the occasion, the services of a very accomplished and fluent interpreter, who stood in the desk just below the pulpit, and translated the Bishop's sermon with surprising facility, animation and expressive gesticulation, thus adorning it with many of the charms of Indian oratory. The Bishop was delighted, and, in his pleasant way, said afterwards to his interpreter, who was a Methodist, "You preached, this morning, a good deal better than I did." The ordination service excited great interest among the Indians, as they had never witnessed anything of the kind before; and after the final blessing was pronounced, there was a long silence in the Church, which ended by the congregation forming into line in the middle alley, and quietly moving up to the chancel rail, to shake hands with the Bishop, and to congratulate Spalding and myself on our advancement to the Diaconate.

A few weeks after this, I was called to the charge of Zion Church, Palmyra, Wayne County, and removed at once to that village. As the parish at that time, was not self-supporting, but received assistance from the Missionary Fund of the Diocese, the Bishop required that I should do some missionary work outside of Palmyra; and he instructed me to spend one Sunday of each month, in holding services in neighboring places. At Palmyra there was a good Church building, of moderate size, with bell and organ, and with a space railed in for a chancel. There was a debt of about $1,200 on this Church, which, after a few months, we were able to remove by the kindly help of $500 from Trinity Church, New-York. There was also a neat parsonage adjoining the Church. The Wardens and Vestry, however, did not grant the use of it to their Minister; but rented it, and applied the proceeds to the current expenses of the parish. The congregation was not large; and the prospect of increase was not very flattering, owing to the strong sectarian feeling then existing in the village. In regard to services, I followed the customary rule of two services with sermons on Sundays; Holy Communions monthly, and on the chief festivals; and usually a service and lecture on Wednesday evenings. I do not recollect that I had any serious difficulty in preaching and teaching what people call "High-Church" doctrine; but which they ought to call the "Christian Faith" or "Catholic Dogma." The influence of Bishop Hobart's positive and manly teaching, in recent years, had spread over the whole State of New-York, which was his Diocese; and sectarianism itself had felt its power, and had begun to suspect that the Episcopal Church might possibly have an older date, and more saintly founders than King Henry VIII. and Queen Elizabeth. The way, therefore, had been, in some degree, prepared for the honest missionary to open his mouth boldly to declare the Gospel of the Kingdom, and to speak the truth without faltering tongue and stammering lips.

My clerical brethren in the parishes around, were mainly of my mind in this matter; and when I exchanged with any one of them for a Sunday's services, I had no fear whatever that he would sow tares in my little field, and put me to the trouble of rooting them out.

Still, it must be said that the Churchmanship of those days came very far from reaching that grand height and breadth of Catholic teaching and ritual which it has attained in our own times. Perhaps it was necessary, or at least expedient, in an age when the public mind was not prepared for the full light of Catholic truth, that a certain degree of prominence should be given to a few leading principles; in order, by a gradual process, to accustom men's eyes to gaze on still loftier views of the nature and constitution of Christ's Church, and of the mystery of grace hidden in the blessed Sacraments of that Church. Hence, the controversies of the day seemed to be confined very much to arguments about Episcopacy and Forms of Prayer. And on these points so much was said, written, preached and printed, that it became a very common opinion that a sectarian might become a good Churchman, by simply believing that there were three Orders in the Ministry, instead of one, and that a book should be used in Divine service instead of extempore prayer. This was, at least, a dangerous tendency of the controversies of the day; and there is little doubt that many people attached themselves to the Church under the impression that, in acknowledging a Bishop and a Prayer-book, they had made a wonderful change in their Church relations, and very much bettered their prospects for eternity. It did not occur to them that though the Church has always had Bishops and Liturgies, yet these alone are not absolutely certain signs of the true and ever-faithful Church of God. For, in the long history of the Church, we read of numerous heresies and schisms, all of which took good care to have Bishops, though they were excommunicated; and Liturgies, though they were corrupted. In short, there is nothing but the grace of God, to prevent even an infallible Pope from becoming a fallible heretic.

The true Church of Christ is marked by its continuous life of unchangeable Faith and Order, as a "one, holy, Catholic and Apostolic" body or organism. These marks, no heresy or schism can possibly have, however numerous its Bishops, however splendid its ritual, and however vast its wealth and power. People, now, even outside of the Church, are beginning to understand all this,— thanks to the great Catholic revival. And thanks, also, to the philosophers and scientists of the last twenty or thirty years, who have found out and confessed that life always implies and requires pre-existing life ; and that, therefore, everything now living has received its life by transmission through a long line or series of living things, reaching back, without a break, to some original source of life. Now, when a man believes this, he has grasped the idea of “uninterrupted succession ;” and will see at once that the living powers of such an organization as the Church, which is Christ’s ever-living Body, could have no present existence unless derived by transmission through preceding ages from the great living Head of that Church. It is, therefore, contrary, not only to the Gospel, but also to philosophy and all true science, to believe that Churches can ever spring up by “spontaneous generation.”

At the time of which I am writing there was also a warm discussion on “Baptismal Regeneration.” This was chiefly carried on by parties within the Church, though participated in by leading men and religious papers of the various sectarian bodies. The question being an abstract one, was not of permanent interest to those bodies, as it did not affect their Church relations or their mode of worship as did the controversy about Episcopacy and Forms of Prayer. In the Church, and elsewhere, much of the controversy arose from differences of opinion about the meaning of the term “regeneration,” and a desire to impose on that term a modern and less forcible definition than that which had the weight of authority in the Church.

I have said above, that the Bishop required me to do some missionary work outside of my Parish. The first place to which my attention was called was the village of Lyons, fifteen miles from Palmyra. In this large and growing place I found a few Church families, but not much prospect of material and means for the formation of a Parish. On the fourth Sunday of each month I went to this place to hold an evening service. My dependence for assistance was chiefly on two prominent families of the name of Adams,* and I always obtained from them a kind reception. By their efforts, the use of the Methodist place of worship was secured for these occasional services. The congregations were usually quite large, but consisted, for the most part, of Methodists, and others who were religiously disposed, or were drawn in by curiosity. There were, however, a sufficient number of Church people in attendance to render the responses distinctly, and thus preserve the unity of the service, which consisted of the full Evening Prayer, with a sermon.† I continued these monthly ministrations for one year ; but found that little advancement could be made without the services of a resident Minister. A few years after this, the Churchmen of Lyons had so increased in numbers and

*The late Gen. William H. and John Adams, so long and well known as the foremost Churchmen of Lyons, and the latter, especially, beloved and venerated by all who knew him.—ED. C. K.

† I also officiated six times in the Court-house ; and on July 13, 1834, baptized ten children in a private house. Bishop Onderdonk visited Lyons on the afternoon of August 9, 1833, and preached in the Court-house. I was present and read the service.

ability, that a Parish was formed, and placed under the care of a resident missionary.

As there were no other towns of importance, destitute of Church services, in the neighborhood of Palmyra, I concluded to devote my fourth Sundays to Church families scattered abroad in the country, and in several small settlements within reach. Among these was the village of Manchester, midway between Palmyra and Canandaigua—the place near which Mormonism had just sprung into existence, and where its leading men—Joseph Smith, Martin Harris, Sydney Rigdon, and others,—were very active, obtrusive and troublesome in preaching their new faith, and in disposing of their new bibles.* In Manchester, there were only two or three Church families; but they obtained the use of a school-house for Morning Service, and the Baptist meeting-house for the afternoon. I held the latter service at an early hour, as I found that as the Baptists themselves had only a morning service, they were willing to be present at a Church service in the afternoon, if held at a convenient hour. These services were continued at Manchester for six months; but as they were entirely gratuitous, and I was obliged to bear the expense of horse-hire, it became expedient to discontinue them.

I will mention only one more item of missionary experience in those early days. There were several Church people living in or near the little village of Macedon, four miles west of Palmyra; and it had occurred to me that the villagers might be benefited by an occasional Church service. I visited the place as a preliminary step; and one of the most prominent men, though a Quaker, expressed great interest in my project, and promised that if I would be present to hold service on a certain Sunday, he would make all necessary preparation, and have due notice given in the village. Accordingly, when the Sunday came, I walked out to the village, and went, first of all, to the house of my Quaker friend. To my surprise, he told me that he had entirely forgotten the appointment, that no preparation had been made, and that nothing could now be done. On hearing this, my mind was made up in a moment, and I resolved that, if possible, a service should be held somewhere in the village. Half-way up the main street, there was an unfinished house, in which the only furniture was the carpenter's bench. I found the owner; and after some conversation, obtained permission from him to use the building. In less than an hour, with the help of several men and boys, a number of benches and chairs were procured, a small table was borrowed, and set up for a lectern;

* Many of the Mormons had removed westward, but those who remained were very bold and persistent in preaching their new doctrines, and would sometimes enter a store in Palmyra, take all manner of liberties, mount a box or get on some steps, and annoy the people around with their noisy declamation. I was told that on one occasion, Harris or Rigdon entered a stage-coach on its way to the village, and with great vehemence insisted that the passengers should embrace Mormonism, or come under the doom of what he called "the great curse." In a corner of the coach sat a quiet but muscular man who kept a bakery in Palmyra. On hearing this threat of the Mormon, he raised his arm and clenched his fist, and brought matters to a crisis by saying to the preacher, "When you bring the curse on my head, this arm will come down on yours." Of course, no anathemas were passed in that stage-coach.

the house was turned into an extempore church, and some boys were sent to invite the whole village to attend Episcopal service. Before long, I had a congregation of twenty or thirty people, among whom were a few Church women, who duly made the responses. Some familiar hymns were sung; a plain sermon was preached, some parting words were spoken, and I returned home—walking four miles—with the satisfactory feeling that I had not altogether lost a Sunday.*

I have already alluded to my clerical brethren who occupied posts in this part of the State. Among these, was the venerable John C. Rudd, D. D., so tenderly associated with the last days on earth of that great and eloquent champion of the Church, the Right Reverend John Henry Hobart, D. D., Bishop of New-York. Under the editorial management of Dr. Rudd, at Auburn and Utica, the paper called the "Gospel Messenger" became one of the most important agencies in the dissemination of Church principles, and the defence of Catholic truth from the bitter assaults of sectarianism. The Doctor did his work wisely and bravely; and it will be long before Western New-York ceases to hold him in grateful remembrance.

At S. Luke's Church, Rochester, Dr. Whitehouse was Rector, with a shade of Churchmanship rather of the so-styled Evangelical type, at first, but soon rising higher, and finally developing itself into the richer coloring of Catholic principle and Apostolic zeal, after he rose, in 1851, to the responsibilities of the Episcopate in the Diocese of Illinois. I have reason to remember Bishop Whitehouse with highest feelings of gratitude and affection, as it was under his care and faithful guidance that I was prepared for the ministry, in a class comprising also Kendrick Metcalf, Johnson Brayton, Erastus Spalding, Gershom P. Waldo† and William Tatham. The late Rev. Henry Lockwood, also, attended our recitations for a time.

Among the lesser lights, of my own grade, was Erastus Spalding, twice, for several years a missionary at Vienna (now Phelps) and Sodus. He had been educated for the bar; but subsequently studied theology, and took Holy Orders, as I have already noted. There were two points for which brother Spalding deserves to be remembered; first, he was a true and faithful expositor of doctrine, as he had learned it in the days of Bishop Hobart; and second, he had a wife of extraordinary mental accomplishments, of great energy, unfailing prudence, and skill in the mysteries of education. You will ask no further proof of this, when I remind you, that on the Clergy-list in our present almanacs, you will find four Priests under the name of Spalding, all of whom have good reason to rejoice that they are the sons of that noble woman.‡

* Since writing this, I find, on reference to my note-book, that I also held service in the afternoon, but preached only once.

† Now Senior Priest of Western New-York.

‡ Mr. Spalding was a faithful and efficient parish Priest, in spite of long-failing health, and was also a man of no ordinary wit and humor, though quiet and rather reserved in manner.—ED. C. K.

There was one other Priest of whom I wish to say a word, though with some sorrowful remembrances. I refer to Richard C. Shimeall, who, as Rector of S. John's Church, Canandaigua, was my near neighbor. Shimeall was a man of much reading, but of a peculiarly nervous temperament, over which he had little or no control. This irritability, under very slight provocation, led him into difficulty at S. John's, and brought about his resignation. Afterwards he removed to Binghamton; but very soon trouble arose, and a resignation followed. In New-York and Brooklyn, also, his unfortunate temperament kept him ever in trouble, and brought him, at last, to the lowest stage of poverty and distress. His mind under this pressure began to waver. His confidence in the Church gradually ebbed away; and (as I have the best private reasons for believing) he was compelled to become a Presbyterian, for the sake of obtaining bread for his wife and children. I earnestly advised him not to do this; and appealed to his conscience; but the choice lay between that conscience and starvation. If the Church had known what was in that man besides his eccentricities, she would have put him in the right place, and availed herself of his special gift in working out the most intricate questions of chronology, genealogy, prophetic numbers, and problems of history, as an industrious scribe, under the guidance and control of some masterly mind, such as that of Dr. Jarvis, of Connecticut. *

In regard to customs and usages, clerical vestments, and music, at the time of which I am writing, there is little to be said which is not familiar to my elder brethren. It is well known that the surplice has only of late years obtained supremacy over the black gown. This latter garment was formerly always worn in the pulpit, at marriages, baptisms and funerals, in private houses; and generally in the administration of the Holy Communion to the sick. I remember well even an Ordination (not, however, in the State of New-York) at which all the clergy present, except the Bishop, were in black gowns. †

For a year or two after my ordination, the custom remained of saying the General Confession in the old-fashioned way,—the people repeating each clause, in the manner of a response. The present custom (as the Bishop has told you in his Charge) was ordered afterwards at a General Convention. In preaching, the text was always preceded by a Collect,—usually that for the Second Sunday in Advent. The preacher always wore the white bands, and black silk gloves. In giving out the hymns, it was the common practice to read all the verses that were to be sung, and to introduce the hymn by the formula “Let us continue the worship of God by singing” such and such a hymn.

* Mr. S. was educated in the “Dutch Reformed” communion.—ED. C. K.

† It is a curious fact, within our personal recollection, that the Rev. R. C. Shimeall, above mentioned, revived the use of the surplice in one of the Churches in which he ministered in Western New-York. The Christmas Day on which the white robe made its appearance, and the criticisms which it evoked from some of the congregation, are still fresh in memory; and a wonderful sight it was to a child, when the minister disappeared under the great pulpit (where was all the space allowed for robing room) white, and very speedily came out black.—ED. C. K.

There was another custom, which has gradually become almost obsolete, viz., the special service and sermon on Christmas Eve. On these occasions, the Church was not only decorated profusely with evergreens, but all the windows were illuminated with tier upon tier of candles, casting a glare of light on the darkness outside. The Church was always crowded; and people of all denominations flocked together as at a great festival. The objection to this custom was, that the services of Christmas itself were thus forestalled, and rendered tame and spiritless, for want of the enthusiasm excited by the multitude of people assembled on the preceding evening. But this objection was partly balanced by the use commonly made of Christmas Eve, in giving the crowd of sectarians some new ideas of Churchly doctrine, worship and usages.

The remarks now made have been limited almost entirely to recollections of things as they were in this part of the State of New-York, a little before the time of the first Council in Utica. I could have taken a wider range, if the occasion had required it. For my memory of the Church and "her heavenly ways" goes back many years further; even to the time, when, as a mere youth, I knelt at the Chancel-rail of Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, while that saintly patriarch of the Church, Bishop White, of Pennsylvania, laid his hands on my head, in the rite of Confirmation. Who could have predicted, at that time, the vast expansion, which it is our privilege to see, of that holy Church, which, then, by reason of its feebleness and its manifold obstructions, was able only to touch, as it were, but the borders of the great West, and could afford only a missionary to a district wide and long enough for a Diocese. Of this, however, it is not my place to speak in the presence of so many from whom it were more befitting that I should seek and gain instruction. I only ask the exercise of your indulgence for the observations which have now been made; considering that they were thrown together in some haste, and under the difficulty of bringing into narrow compass the many thoughts suggested by a review of events in days long past.

ADDITIONAL PERSONAL REPORTS.

U. S. SHIP "JAMESTOWN," NAVY YARD,
NORFOLK, VA., Nov. 5, 1885.

Rt. Rev. A. C. Coxe, D. D., LL. D., Etc., Buffalo, N. Y.

RT. REV. AND DEAR FATHER,—I was detached from the U. S. Training Ship "Minnesota," on the 21st ultimo, and ordered to the U. S. ship "Jamestown," the Flag Ship of the U. S. Cruising Training Squadron, preparing for a winter's cruise in the West Indies, at the Navy Yard, Norfolk, Va. I reported for duty. in obedience to orders, on the 2d inst., and am now in charge of the Naval Apprentices belonging to the Squadron.

There are three vessels belonging to the Training Squadron, the "Jamestown," the "Portsmouth" and the "Saratoga," sailing ships all. These vessels cruise to give the Naval Apprentices their first experience at sea. The lads are in number 800 or 900. We have small crews of men who supplement the lads in an emergency, and render cruising safer than it would otherwise be.

These lads have all passed through my hands on board the U. S. Gunnery Recruiting and Training Ship "Minnesota," in New-York Harbor. I am not, you see, a stranger to the lads. In truth, I am in some cases the legal guardian appointed by the Courts in New-York, to enable them to enter the Naval Service. I shall have the supervision of the lads' English studies. These take in all the common English studies. We will sail early in December, and, D. V., return to New-York in May.

Affectionately yours,

S. D. BOOROM, Chaplain.

AVON, Sept. 25, 1885.

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., Bishop Western New-York:

MY DEAR BISHOP,—During the last Diocesan year, in consequence of the state of my health, I have not been able to do any clerical work, nor to attend more than half of the time the services of the Church.

I am, Rt. Rev. Father,

Affectionately yours,

MILTON B. BENTON.

CLERICAL CHANGES SINCE THE CONVENTION.

The Rev. L. W. Richardson, received, and residing in Buffalo.

The Rev. Hale Townsend, received, and is Rector of S. Peter's Church, Dansville.

The Rev. C. W. Camp is Rector of Grace Church, Lockport.

The Rev. William B. Bolmer. (p. o.) Black Creek, Allegany Co., N. Y.

The Rev. Thos. Duck, received, and is Rector of S. Paul's, Havana.

NOTE.—It is due to Mr. Thomas Dennis, of Buffalo, to say, that the Report of S. Philip's Church in that city, was forwarded by post to Geneva, during the session of the Council, but, not having been called for, was sent to the Dead-Letter Office, and then returned to him. It did not reach the Secretary until the 17th day of November, when the printing of the Journal was completed.

ERRATA.

The Rev. A. F. Todrig is not simply in charge, but Rector, of S. John's Church, Ellicottville.

On motion of Mr. Thomas McBlain, it was Resolved, That all Rectors of Parishes, and other persons, desirous to convey property to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, be requested first to communicate with the officers of that Fund, in order that the deeds of gift may be so drawn as not to conflict with the Charter of that Corporation.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Council be directed to print the foregoing resolution in a conspicuous place, on the inside of the cover of all Journals hereafter to be printed.

 This application shall be signed by all the adults, not less than six in number, who propose to be members of the Mission.*

(2.) If the Bishop consent to the organization of a Mission, he shall appoint, on consultation with the Missionary, the following officers, to serve for the first year. after which they shall be elected annually in Easter Week, by the people, who shall be a communicant of the Church—a warden, a treasurer and a clerk; or, if it be deemed expedient by the Bishop, a warden only, or a warden and treasurer only, shall be appointed.

(3.) It shall be the duty of the warden to procure a room or house, to be used as a place of public worship; to see that the same be kept clean and in good repair, and that it be provided with all things necessary for conducting the services of the Church decently and in order. He shall also provide the Bread and Wine for the Holy Communion; take charge of the Communion Service, the linen, books, etc., belonging to the Mission; and shall endeavor, in the absence of the missionary, to keep up regular services. In case there be no clerk or treasurer, the warden shall perform the duties of those offices.

(4.) It shall be the duty of the treasurer to collect or receive all moneys contributed by the Mission, and to remit or disburse them, in accordance with the rules of the Missionary Board.

(5.) It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a record of events of importance to the Mission, and a list of its families and members; and in case the missionary be non-resident, to have the custody of the register of baptisms, etc., but not to make entries therein, except by the missionary's request, or in his absence; and to attend to any correspondence required by or for the Mission.

(6.) The missionary, in consultation with the officers, shall appoint the sexton, organist, precentor, Sunday-School superintendent, and any helper he may find necessary; but in his absence, the right of such appointment shall rest with the officers previously named.

(7.) Every organization of a Mission in accordance with this Canon, shall be reported by the Bishop to the next Annual Council of the Diocese, which may declare by vote its approval of the organization; and a Mission thus approved shall be entitled to representation by its warden, who shall have ex-officio, a seat and vote in the Council, and in the Convocation of the Deanery.

SEC. 2. (1.) The entire salaries of Missionaries serving organized Missions are to be paid by the Missionary Board, the people becoming stated contributors to the Treasury of the Board, in accordance with § 1 (1), to a certain minimum amount, which shall be agreed upon from year to year between them and the Board, as represented by the Convocation of the Deanery.

(2.) The weekly offertory is to be established at the commencement of the Mission; not only as the easiest way of raising money, and of dividing the expenses equitably among the people, but also that the duty and habit of Christian giving may be practically inculcated.

(3.) The title of real estate given to or purchased by the Mission for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Diocese of Western New-York, to be held by them until such time as the Mission shall become a duly incorporated Parish, or longer, if the parishioners shall so elect.

(4.) An organized Mission may be incorporated and admitted as a Parish, when, first, there shall be a sufficient number of male persons, members of the Mission, in good standing, duly qualified to act as wardens and vestrymen; and when, secondly, the station is provided with a church, and is able to support a rector without missionary aid.

(5.) Missions duly organized shall report annually to the Bishop through their missionaries, or, if there be none in charge, through their warden, or clerk. And in these reports, in their own records, in all Diocesan statistics and accounts, and in the action of the Diocesan Council, they shall be held and treated as Parishes, with the obvious exception, resulting from their having no legal incorporation.

(6.) The failure of the people of the Mission to fulfil their stipulation shall warrant the Bishop in withdrawing his missionary, and, with the consent of the Diocesan Council, dissolving the organization.

SEC. 3. (1.) Every person becoming a member of the Mission, and willing to aid in its support, will be expected to name a certain sum per week, which he will pay to the Missionary Board, whether it be large or small, "according as God hath blessed him."

Another Proposed Canon.

(2.) At every Sunday Service, or at least once when there are two on the same day, there shall be an offertory; and then the contributors shall place the amounts due from them in the Alms-Basin, in envelopes, marked with their names or numbers. The treasurer receiving and opening these envelopes shall credit the givers with the amounts enclosed, and at the end of each quarter shall collect whatever arrearages may be unpaid.

(3.) Money contributed outside of the envelopes shall be separately recorded and reported, and excepting such amounts as have been collected as Communion Alms, or for Canonical objects, shall be appropriated: (1), to the contingent expenses of the Mission, and (2), to such other objects as the missionary may deem expedient.

(4.) In addition to the annual report to the Bishop, a full report of the condition of the Mission shall be made to the Dean of the Convocation by the missionary, or in his absence by the warden, at such times as the rules of the Convocation may require.

Resolutions. Report.

Title IV., Canon 2, on the Registration of Communicants ; which, on his motion, was referred to the same Committee.

Add another section to the Canon as follows : All cases of striking out a name or names from the Parish Register of Communicants, respecting which doubts may arise or objections made by the parties interested, shall be referred to the Ordinary for his judgment, and his decision shall be final.

The Rev. A. S. Crapsey presented the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the deputies of this Diocese to the General Convention be, and are hereby, requested to use all lawful means to secure the enactment of such Canon or Canons as may be necessary to secure a uniform mode for the trial of presbyters and deacons in the Church, and the establishment of a Court of Review, to which appeals may be taken from Diocesan Courts.

Resolved, That the deputies to the General Convention from this Diocese be, and are hereby, requested to bring before the said Convention the advisability of so amending the Constitution of the Church as to facilitate the more rapid formation of Dioceses, the grouping of Dioceses into Provinces, and that the representation in the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies be determined by the number of Clergymen and Communicants rather than by Dioceses.

These resolutions were, on motion, laid on the table for the present.

The Rev. Charles H. Smith, Chairman of the Committee on the Admission of New Churches into Union with the Council, read the following

R E P O R T :

The Committee on the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Council respectfully report : That they have examined the application of S. John's Church, Rochester, and find the same to be in due form. They therefore recommend the admission of said Parish into union with this Council.

All which is respectfully submitted.

CHARLES H. SMITH,

Report. The "Book Annexed."

The Rev. Dr. William A. Hitchcock, from the Committee appointed on so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to alterations proposed to the Book of Common Prayer, read the following report; which, on motion of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, was made the order for the day to-morrow, immediately after the election of officers.

R E P O R T :

The Committee appointed in 1884 to report on so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to the action of the last General Convention, presented a report to the Council in 1885. The same Committee being continued and instructed to make a final report at the next annual Council, hereby respectfully present such report :

While in their report of last year they presented the result of their frequent and careful, and, as far as in their power to make, critical consideration of the proposed revision; comparing the Prayer-Book as it now is, with the Book Annexed and with the report of the Committee of Conference of the General Convention, offering such suggestions and recommendations as in their opinion seemed desirable; they wish now to submit the following statement as the result of their fuller and more mature examination and deliberation.

It is due to Committee to state that, while unable during the past year to secure a full attendance at any of their meetings, the subject has been more or less the study of the several members, and, as far as possible, by correspondence and otherwise, the conclusions arrived at expressed the views of the Committee as a whole.

But it is understood that no member of this Committee is, by his signature to this report, committed unreservedly to all things therein contained; and each reserves to himself the right to take such action in respect thereto in the Diocesan Council as upon debate and fuller consideration he may think proper.

While your Committee are not disposed to question the propriety, or even the necessity, of a revision of the Prayer-Book, and while it is difficult to judge whether the present revision is all that is needed and the best which under existing circumstances can be made, or whether it will satisfy the wishes of the various and diverse schools of Liturgists in the Church, we would express our sincere appreciation of the skill, learning and faithful labors of the Commission by whom such changes have been proposed.

Your Committee regard the Book known as the "Book Annexed" as in many particulars better than the Book, as revised by the Committee of the General Convention.

Therefore, with these preliminaries, and without entering upon a discussion of the importance of Liturgical Revision, or giving the arguments by which our decisions have been reached, we simply report the results.

We cannot recommend the approval by this Council of the resolutions as sent down to the several Dioceses by the General Convention of 1883. Yet, if these resolutions, or any of them, are to be adopted, we advise the following modifications thereof, viz.:

First. That the Feast of the Transfiguration be added to the Kalendar, and that the day be January 18th.

Second. That, instead of the prayer for God's guidance and defence in the Evening Service, the prayer of St. Chrysostom be restored.

Third. The Rubric in the Book Annexed in regard to the use of the Office of the Beatitudes we consider preferable to that proposed by the General Convention.

Fourth. In the Litany, in the new Suffrages for the President, there should be added, "and all others in authority," so that the petition may be for the government and not for only one member of it.

Fifth. The Rubric in the Office for Holy Communion in regard to the Nicene Creed, as in the Book Annexed, we consider better than that proposed by the General Convention.

Sixth. In place of the second and third of the additional Rubrics at the end of the Office for Holy Communion, the following be substituted: "And there shall be no celebration of the Lord's Supper, except there be two at least to communicate with the Priest.

Seventh. In place of the second Rubric at this place, substitute the words "reverently eat and drink," as contained in the Book of Common Prayer, and in the Book Annexed, for the proposed words "reverently consume."

Eighth. In the form for the Solemnization of Holy Matrimony, the exhortation be altered by substituting these words after the phrase "Holy Matrimony," "which is an estate instituted of God, signifying unto us the mystical union that is between Christ and His Church," and "which is commended by St. Paul."

Ninth. In the Order for the Burial of the Dead, in the Committal, use the words "Deceased Brother," in preference to "Brother Departed."

Tenth. Use the same words in Burial at Sea.

Eleventh. In the Burial of Infants use the same form as in the Burial of Adults, only substituting for the words "soul of our Deceased Brother," "the soul of this Child."

Twelfth. That verbal changes in Form of Prayer for Families, as proposed, are not in our judgment of sufficient importance to warrant a departure from the language now used in the Book of Common Prayer.

In the judgment of your Committee, no changes in the Prayer-Book should be made without the utmost care and deliberation, nor should any be finally adopted before the General Convention of 1889, so that they come into use on the Centennial Anniversary of the use of the Book of Common Prayer, as adopted in 1790.

To this end your Committee recommend that a Tentative use be authorized by way of a Prayer as was suggested in the Bishop's Address to the last Council, or by supplementary resolutions, which can be inserted in present copies of the Prayer-Book, not to supersede the services of the Prayer-Book, but for exceptional and occasional use, until the sense of the Church shall be more thoroughly ascertained and the General Convention be prepared to make such permanent alterations as shall have been generally approved by the Church. We believe, with the Bishop, "in minimizing all changes in this marvellous Book, and in letting its more essential portions alone for the present."

The Bishop's Address. Evening Session.

Among the matters we would recommend to be inserted in the Prymer or Supplemental Rubrics are the following:

(1) Providing for the omission in the Morning and Evening Prayer of the exhortation on any day other than Sunday and Christmas Day, and substituting in case of such omission the words, "Let us humbly confess our sins unto Almighty God."

(2) Providing for the use of the Venite, Benedictus, De Profundis, Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis, as proposed by the General Convention of 1883.

(3) Providing for the omission of all that part of the Communion Service prior to the Collect for the Day, at all but one celebration of the Holy Communion in any Church on the same day, and that when such omission occurs the Summary of the Law, beginning, "Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ saith," shall be read.

Also, allowing the omission of what is known as the Long Exhortation in the Communion Service, provided it be read at least once in a month, on a Sunday.

Your Committee conclude their report by offering the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to the action of the last General Convention on the Prayer-Book, be accepted and the Committee discharged.

Resolved, That the Deputies from this Diocese to the next General Convention be instructed to lay this report before the said Convention as the judgment of this Council.

"Resolved, That this Council does not favor the adoption by the General Convention of all the proposed alterations and additions in the Book of Common Prayer, as given in the official Notification, and in the Book Annexed modified, and that it recommends the General Convention in its action on this subject, will keep the happy mean between too much stiffness in refusing, and too much easiness in admitting variations, in things once advisedly established."

On motion of Mr. J. H. Fisher, the motion of the Rev. Mr. Crapsey was laid on the table.

The Secretary was directed to prepare the report for presentation to the Council.

SEPTEMBER 16th, 1886.—The draft of the Annual Report was presented and adopted.

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, made the following report, which was adopted, and ordered to be presented to the Council in the Report of the Standing Committee.

The report of the trustees, coming to us this year, signed and certified in due form, shows a continued and increasing prosperity in the condition of the College; and it seems at length to be reaching that firmer ground where its advantages begin to be appreciated and where it promises to secure such a measure of support as shall ensure its permanent progress. The capital sum in the possession of the College for the production of income is now $110,133.75, an increase during the year of $6,900. Of this increase, $2,000 is from a bequest of the late Rev. Dr. Shelton, one of the noble utterances by which he yet speaks to us, as his voice will be heard through all the time to come in the fruits of his bequests to many of the agencies of the Church's beneficence in which he thus expressed his confidence. All honor to his memory! $1,000 is from a similar bequest of Mr. Thomas Vedder. $1,900 has been realized from the sale of village lots, and $2,000 has since the date of the report been transferred by the action of the trustees to the principal from the income account of the past year. Of this whole capital $37,650.76 is invested in bond and mortgage, $2,500 is stock of the upper Suspension Bridge, $4,718.30 is the sum of land contracts now outstanding, $5,467.36 has, by the foreclosure of a mortgage, been invested in real estate in Lockport, and nearly ten thousand dollars ($9,797.33) is in hand, awaiting investment. It is evident that the trustees find no small difficulty in securing investment of the moneys at anything like the old rates of interest, and this fact makes the increase of the principal especially gratifying at this time, when but for such increase the diminishing rates of income would perceptibly lessen the resources for the support of the beneficiaries of the institution.

The income from the farm has been a little better than last year, $232.96, instead of $180.72, and seems to indicate the success of the policy which the trustees declare they have adopted with reference to the farm, in that they will not endeavor to promote its productiveness by an expensive forcing process, but by bringing it gradually into a condition of permanent improvement. $1,445.94 of the balance of last year has been collected, the Whirlpool has brought in $496.22, $5,838.75 have been received from other endowment sources, and $25,668.19 from the term-pupil department. There has been some increase in expenditure for salaries, wages and furnishing. Works for the manufacture of gas upon the premises have been erected at a cost of $1,596.71 (these works, the Trustees tell us, furnish a more satisfactory light, at a cost, including the supply of materials and interest upon the investment, of less than half the sum of the former gas bills). The greatest increase of expense, as was to be expected, has been for miscellaneous supplies, amounting this year to $17,045.32. There was due from term-pupils, at the end of the year, $1,023.87 against $1,820 last year. The college inventories amount to $2,594.64, and there is cash on hand unappropriated $958.87. The bills of the college are all paid except $139.83, so that there is a balance of resources amounting to $4,652.90, against $3,286.45 reported last year. Of this latter sum, $374.16 has, by resolution of the Trustees, been stricken from the list of available assets as probably uncollectible — a sum which the Trustees say, with just pride, represents a very small percentage of loss on the bills of the last five years, amounting in the aggregate to more than $80,000.00. Taking this sum lost from last year's assets, and adding the $2,000.00 of income transferred to principal, and it appears that the substantial gain of the year from income is $3,740.61, besides the gas works. All this is very satisfactory, and when we come to the more important department of what the College is doing we see the reason for this increase. One has been added to the number of foundationers, and there are now 13. In this moderate increase the Trustees seem to show a disposition to add to the number of the beneficiaries of the foundation just as rapidly as the increment of the endowment fund will warrant; for it is to be supposed that the policy which will commend itself to all conservative men is that of replacing from the income of the term-pupil department as rapidly as possible the principal which was demanded to furnish accommodations for them, while at the same time scrupulously applying the whole income of the endowment fund, whatever its amount, to the support of just as many foundationers as it will sustain. This, instead of immediately increasing the number of the latter to the extent of the present income, and correspondingly diminishing the number of term-pupils, and so lessening the income — for at this time another point has been reached in the life of the College. All its room is occupied. The number of day-pupils remained the same as last year, 13; but the number of term-pupils has risen from 38 to 58. The building is full, and applicants for admission have to be refused. The Trustees, in view of this fact, have thought it wise to raise the rate of admission to $400.00 per year; but the President in his Founder's-day address has suggested, and the alumni of the College have inaugurated, a movement, which, if it is pressed to accomplishment, will give a degree of relief to the crowded quarters. It is proposed to build a chapel outside the present structure. This will give added beauty and dignity to the institution, invest its religious services with an added sacredness, and enable the room now occupied as a chapel to be appropriated to the accommodation of additional pupils. So desirable does this seem, that it might almost be deemed proper to apply the whole surplus of income to the erection of such a chapel, at a cost, say, of $10,000.00 or $15,000.00, as with the present patronage this could be done in three or four years. But the chapel will have more precious associations and a dearer future if it shall be built by the grateful offerings of those who have enjoyed the benefits of the institution, and are able to make acknowledgment; as without doubt, the increasing appreciation of the excellence of the College and the training it offers is partly due to the standing and character of those whose course of manly behavior and upward progress was begun or quickened within its walls. It is by the character of these graduates and their interest in their Alma Mater, as well as by the careful and judicious management of affairs by the Board of Trustees and the thorough instruction and discipline of mind and heart by those entrusted with its administration, that now, after its years of struggle, the College seems entering on a course of bright and manifest success, destined, under the blessing of God, to make famous in all coming time the name of Judge De Veaux. May it long enjoy that blessing, and be to all coming generations a fountain of pure knowledge and pure life — a spot from which increasing numbers shall go forth each year to adorn their stations and to benefit the world!

All which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH,

Secretary of the Standing Committee.

ROCHESTER, September 21, 1886.

The Rev. Walter North, Secretary of the Board of Education, read the Report of the De Lancey Divinity School, as follows:

REPORT:

To the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New-York as Board of Education of the Diocese, the Rector of the De Lancey Divinity School reports:

I am sure it is unnecessary for me to restate here your action at the last annual Council of the Diocese, by which you enlarged the corps of instructors of the De Lancey Divinity School, by the very important addition of the Bishop, and by securing to it the assistance of the Faculty of Hobart College. The benefit of such action so auspiciously begun we trust will become more and more manifest as time goes on. To give formal and fitting expression to that action, on S. Andrew's Day, following the meeting when it was taken, the Bishop of the Diocese celebrated public service with the Holy Communion, in S. Peter's Church, Geneva, the Memorial Church of Bishop De Lancey, and in his sermon explained the peculiar work of the School and its new position, inaugurating S. Andrew's Day as the annual day of the institution's new departure. The Rev. Prof. Edson, of the School, and myself, assisted at this service. In connection with this occasion the Bishop gave an introductory to his proposed course of theological instruction—the Institutes of Christian Church History. It was delivered in the Chapel of Hobart College, and the privilege of attending it was given to the undergraduate students, and also to the general public. Soon after Easter five more lectures of the same course were delivered by the Bishop in the same week, in the same place, and with like privileges of attendance. Those lectures were greatly enjoyed by all who heard them; and I am sure that the delivery of such lectures by the Bishop of Western New-York is in itself a very great advantage conferred by the De Lancey Divinity School upon the College.

In February last I held a reunion of my old theological students to mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of my taking charge of the School. With the exception of two, prevented by serious illness, all of them reasonably within reach of Geneva came together. At this meeting the President, authorized by the Trustees of the College, conferred the honorary degree of S. T. D., upon the Rev. Fayette Royce, of Beloit, Wis., one of the old scholars of the School, who is also a graduate of the College. The President also took occasion to give a most able and interesting introductory to his course of sacred instruction in Christian ethics. I am glad here to acknowledge indebtedness to the Professor of Greek in Hobart College for valuable assistance in critical questions on the original language of the New Testament.

The College has at last secured a beautiful and commodious fire-proof library building. By permission of its President, and consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, I have, within the past month, removed to an alcove in this secure retreat, appropriated to the purpose, the books of the Divinity School Library heretofore accumulated through many years and kept safe and insured in my own house. By original gifts from several quarters, and the subsequent continuous help of the John H. Swift Book Fund, this library has now a beginning of very respectable proportions. There have been added during the past year through this book fund: 2 sets of vols. III., IV., V., VI., and VII., of the Christian Literature edition of the Ante-Nicene Fathers; The Holy Bible, Revised Version, 1 vol.; The Holy Bible, parallel edition, 1 vol.; Revision revised. Burgon, 1 vol.; A History of the Church of England, G. G. Perry, 2 vols.; The Church in Roman Gaul, 1 vol.; Epitome of Anglican Church History. Webley-Perry, 1 vol. The whole number of volumes is now 300, which I have labeled and catalogued with names of donors, and which are now ready for the use of students. It seems to me no small matter for congratulation to thus have already in possession this solid and most valuable nucleus of a suitable library for the School, in perfect safety and convenient position. One hundred of the volumes came most appropriately from the De Lancey family. And I wish to here put on record the fact that next to the De Lancey gift, the Swift Book Fund and the Wm. C. Pierrepont donation, the Rev. George W. Southwell, M. A., the first person ordained from the School, has been a large, and so far, the largest contributor of theological books to this library. I would also mention that most of the books purchased have been selected by Bishop Coxe.

At the present time there are four students in the School, two of whom quite recently were successful practitioners of the law. Several others will be admitted soon. Of late many enquiries have been answered in regard to the School, showing that its special work is becoming continually more and more widely known and appreciated.

During the year the Rev. Professor Edson and myself have conducted several theological examinations. The Rev. John H. Perkins has been ordained deacon, and the Rev. E. P. Hart has passed his second examination for Priest's orders.

Towards the assistance of scholars $160 has been provided from the scholarship funds of the school.

All which is respectfully submitted.

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York :

Your Committee on Works of Charity and Beneficence respectfully report :

That the past year has been one of rich gifts and widespread benevolence throughout the Diocese. The following items of interest have been reported to your Committee, and are by them brought to the attention of the Council.

One thousand dollars has been expended during the year upon the edifice of S. John's, Mt. Morris.

S. Thomas', Bath, has cancelled a debt of $500 on its Rectory, and has received an alms chest in memory of Miss Margaret C. Brown, an addition of $50 for the M. C. Brown Charity Fund, and altar cross and vases for the chapel.

In S. Luke's, Jamestown, much in the line of repair and improvement has been accomplished. The Church edifice has been painted, decorated, re-roofed with slate, and furnished with new chancel carpet. The Rectory has been painted and repaired. The following gifts have been made : White and green altar cloths, dossels and antependia, a brass altar cross and altar linen.

Grace Church, Lyons, has received a bequest of $1,000 from the late Mrs. Haggerty ; and to Hobart College Library Mrs. D. W. Parshall and Mrs. D. S. Chamberlain have given $250 each.

The Church Home at Rochester has received for its maintenance free-will offerings of the people to the extent of $4,512.93.

Grace Church, Scottsville.

Worthy of special notice is the effort by which S. John's, Canandaigua, has been cleared of a burdensome bonded debt. The offerings of Easter Day amounted in all to $3,259.76; more than $500 in excess of all indebtedness. The Church has since been duly consecrated.

The following report from Grace Church, Scottsville, because of the interesting and phenomenal nature of the work, is presented in full :

" To H. L. S. Hall, Musical Director, Grace Church :

" DEAR SIR,—I have the honor, through you, to present to the Rector and Vestry of Grace Church the pipe organ this day erected in said church by William H. Johnson, of Westfield, Mass. Thus have we builded—here a little and there a little—each one giving of time, labor and money, according to the measure of his Master's blessing.

The Bishop called the Council to order.

The Rev. George W. Knapp, Chairman of the Committee on the Report of the Diocesan Missionary Board (see APPENDIX II., D.), read the following

REPORT :

Your Committee to whom was referred the report of the Financial Secretary of the Board of Missions respectfully report, that they are pleased to find that for the first time in several years the amount voted by the Council for missions has been nearly raised during the past year, and note, with thankfulness, the unanimity with which the larger amount of $6,000 has been voted for this year. Even this amount seems much too small for the work which the Diocese ought to do; and the Committee cannot but express the earnest hope that the missionary year may yield a much larger amount than the Council has pledged.

All which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE W. KNAPP,
R. R. CONVERSE,
A. B. RATHBONE,

ROCHESTER, September 22, 1886. Committee.

The Report was accepted and ordered printed in the Journal.

Mr. John A. Van Derlip, from the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate (APPENDIX II., C.), read the following

REPORT :

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New - York :

Your Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate (see APPENDIX II., C.) respectfully report :

By the report of said Trustees made to the Council last year, the permanent fund amounted to $45,571.84. During the past year there has been added the sum of $202.00, from the following sources :

From J. N. Macomb, Jr.,	$200.00
From Saunders' Memorial Fund,	2.00
Making the present fund,	$45,773.84.

Report of Trustees.

This fund is invested as follows :

On bonds secured by mortgages the sum of,	$34,176.00
Oswego Land Claims,	1,936.25
Notes of former Trustees,	1,447.81
Railroad bonds,	1,000.00
Notes of individuals,	6,423.00
And cash awaiting investment,	790.78

This amount is more apparent than real, so far at least as it seems to form a basis for realizing an income to pay the salary of the Bishop.

The item of $1,936.25, called in the report of the Trustees "The Oswego Land Claim," was allotted to this Diocese upon the division of the Episcopate Fund of the former Diocese of Western New-York, and has never been the source of a dollar of income. As to this item the Trustees report that it is absolutely valueless, and suggest the propriety of striking it from the list of securities going to represent the permanent fund for this season.

The item called the "Trustees notes" has the following history : In the early years of the Diocese the income of the fund invested, together with the contributions from the Parishes in the Diocese, proved insufficient to pay the salary of the Bishop, never a munificent one, and to supply the deficiency, instead of creating a floating debt against the Diocese, used for this purpose $1,447.81 of the permanent fund, and gave their individual notes for the amount to the Trustees for the amounts. These gentlemen have never been called upon for the payment of this amount, either principal or interest, and never ought to be. It was assuming a personal responsibility to preserve the financial honor of the Diocese, and though a debt that might legally be enforced, it would be inequitable and ungracious for the Diocese to attempt to enforce it. The Trustees of the fund recommend that those notes be cancelled, and the item be also stricken from the list of securities constituting the permanent fund, so that the real and apparent value of that fund may be the same, and so appear in future reports.

Your Committee have appended to this report resolutions, recommending to the Council the adoption of the suggestion of the Trustees.

The Treasurer has received during the past year money applicable to the payment of the Bishop's salary, as follows :

From collections from Parishes,	$2,738.11
From interest on securities,	2,149.27
	$4,887.38

And has paid as follows :

Bishop's salary,	$5,000.00
Taxes on See House,	470.90
	$5,470.90

Showing a deficit of $583.52, which has been kindly advanced by the Treasurer.

A similar deficit occurred in the preceding year, only amounting, however, to $246.73.

Resolutions. Report.

Your Committee conclude this report with the following suggestions made by the Committee on this subject to the Council of 1885 :

"We take this opportunity of suggesting to Parishes, as has been suggested many times in the past, the importance of giving, to increase the permanent fund, thereby relieving themselves of all further assessment ; and we also suggest to the Council the importance of a continuance of the effort to increase the principal of this fund, and we earnestly trust that the Churchmen of this Diocese may continue to remember this object liberally in making their wills."

All of which is respectfully submitted, with resolutions appended, the adoption of which we recommend.

G. B. WORTHINGTON,
J. A. VAN DERLIP,
JOSIAH CURTIS,

Committee.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund be directed to strike from the list of securities representing the principal of said fund, the item called the Oswego Land Claim, as valueless, and the item called " Trustees' Notes," as unjust and inequitable to attempt to enforce them, and to cancel the said note, to the end that in future reports the true amount of the income-yielding fund may appear.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council are due and hereby tendered to the Treasurer of the Diocese for his generous care for the financial honor of the Diocese, by advancing the deficit shown by his report.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the report be accepted and the resolutions adopted.

On motion of the Rev. E. W. Worthington, it was Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocese be requested to revise the list of assessments for the Support of the Episcopate, and that such revised list be printed in the Journal.

The Rev. J. W. Ashton, Chairman of the Committee on Non-Reporting Clergy and Parishes, read the following

REPORT :

To the Council :

The Committee on Non-Reporting Clergy and Parishes respectfully report : That they have carefully examined the printed Journal of 1885, and such examination reveals the fact that twelve Parishes failed to report, viz.: S. Philip's, Belmont ; Christ, Belvidere ; Trinity, Canaseraga ; S. John's, Ellicottville ; Grace, Randolph ; Grace, Nunda ; Christ, Pittsford ; S. John's, Wellsville ; Ascension, Buffalo ; S. Paul's, Allen's Hill ; Christ, Albion ; S. John's, Dresden ; and that four of these Parishes are in the list of delinquents for the previous year — having made no report, viz.: Grace, Randolph; Grace, Nunda; S. Paul's, Allen's Hill; and S. John's, Dresden.

Your Committee think that existing vacancies explain the fact, but do not justify the inexcusable neglect in not complying with the Canon.

So far as appear from the Journal, personal reports were not made by the following Clergy: The Rev. F. C. Brown, the Rev. J. T. Cushing, the Rev. Edward Dolloway, the Rev. Foster Ely, D. D., the Rev. The Report was accepted.

The Rev. Henry W. Nelson, Jr., from the Special Committee appointed last year, to confer with the other Dioceses of the State upon amendments to the present acts pertaining to the organization of Parishes, and for other matters seeming to require legislation, read the following

REPORT:

The Special Committee appointed last year to consider proposed changes in the act for the Incorporation of Churches, having met with like Committees from the several Dioceses of the State, beg leave to submit the following Report of the Committee of Conference:

The Committee of Conference from the five Dioceses in the State of New-York, at a meeting held on the 11th day of May, 1886, to consider proposed changes in the Act for the Incorporation of Churches, agreed to recommend to the several Diocesan Conventions of the State that the present Statute be divided into two Acts, and amended as follows:

AN ACT to amend an Act passed May 9, 1868, entitled "An Act to amend the Acts to provide for the Incorporation of Religious Societies, so far as the same relate to Churches in connection with the Protestant Episcopal Church."

The People of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

The first section of, the Act entitled "An Act to amend the Acts to provide for the Incorporation of Religious Societies, so far as the same relate to Churches in connection with the Protestant Episcopal Church, passed May 9, 1868, is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

SECTION 1. It shall be lawful for not less than six male persons of full age, belonging to any Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church not already incorporated, to meet for the purpose of incorporating themselves under this Act.

§ 2. A notice of such meeting, specifying its object and the time and place thereof, shall be made public either by open reading in time of Divine Service, or by conspicuous posting in a public place, or by publication in a newspaper of the place for at least two weeks prior to such meeting.

SECTION 1. On the Tuesday succeeding the first day in Advent the male persons qualified to vote in every Congregation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this State, shall elect a Church Warden and Vestrymen in the place of the Church Warden and Vestrymen whose terms shall expire at the end of such year; and the total number of Vestrymen shall be not less than four nor more than eight, as the Act of Incorporation of the Congregation has determined.

case the same should be questioned, and the fact that the name of any person claiming to vote does not appear upon the register shall be presumptive evidence against his right to vote.

§ 4. No person shall be eligible for office as Warden or Vestryman who is not a male person of full age, and baptized.

§ 5. Notice shall be given of such election, by the Rector, if there be one, or if there be none, or he shall be absent, by the officiating Minister or Church Warden for two Sundays next previous to the day so fixed, in the time of Divine Service, and if for any reason the Church be not open for Divine Service the notice may be given by posting it conspicuously on the same two Sundays.

The polls shall continue open for one hour and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or if required, by a vote of the majority of voters present, and the presiding officer, together with two other persons, shall make a certificate under their hands and seals of the officers so elected.

§ 8. The stated annual election shall be holden immediately after morning service, and at such elections the Rector, or, if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Church Wardens, selected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Warden be present, a Vestryman, selected in like manner, shall preside and receive the votes of the electors, and be the returning officer; and shall enter the proceedings in the book of the minutes of the vestry, and sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many electors present as he shall think fit, to be by them also signed and certified.

At all subsequent annual elections one Church Warden, and the number of Vestrymen so determined shall be elected. The notice required by law to be given for the election of the Church Wardens and Vestrymen shall specify the names of the persons whose terms shall expire and whose places are to be filled at such election. The Church Wardens and Vestrymen chosen at any of the said elections, shall hold their offices until the expiration of the term for which they shall be chosen, and until others are chosen in their stead; and shall have power, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church, to elect a Rector to such Church or Congregation as often as there shall be a vacancy therein, and to fix his salary or compensation.

four hours' notice shall be sufficient ; and no such Board shall be competent to transact any business unless the Rector, if there be one, and at least one of the Church Wardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen be present. But if the Rector be absent from the State, and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting has been called by the Rector, and he be absent therefrom, the Board shall be competent to transact all business, if there be present one Church Warden and a majority of the Vestrymen; except that in the absence of the Rector no measure shall be taken for effecting a sale or disposition of the real property, nor may any sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal estate of such corporation be made, nor any act done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

§ 11. The Rector, if there be one, and if not, then the Church Warden present, or if both the Church Wardens be present, then the Church Warden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of votes, shall preside at every meeting of the Board, and have the casting vote.

§ 12. Whenever any corporation, organized under the provisions of this Act, shall deem it for the interest of such corporation to change the number of its Vestrymen, it shall and may be lawful for such corporation to change the same, provided that the number of such Vestrymen shall not thereby be made less than four nor more than eight. And in order to effect such change, the same shall be authorized and approved by the Vestry at a regular meeting thereof ; and shall then, at the next stated annual election for wardens and vestrymen be submitted to, and ratified by, a majority of the votes of all the qualified voters voting at such elections; notice of which proposed change, and that the same will be submitted for ratification at such election, shall be given at the same time, and in the same manner as is required for notice of the said election ; if such change be thus ratified, a certificate shall be made setting forth the resolution of the Vestry, and the proceedings to ratify the same, together with the fact of the notice being given as required, and shall be acknowledged or proved and recorded in the same manner as is required for the original certificate of organization; and thereupon the number of Vestrymen to constitute a part of the Vestry of such corporation shall be such as shall be fixed by the proceedings to effect such change. But such change shall not take effect or be operative until the certificate above-mentioned shall have been duly recorded.

§ 13. Any church or corporation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in this State, heretofore incorporated by any special charter now in force, may adopt the provisions of this act as to the time for holding its annual elections, as to a classification of its Church Wardens and Vestrymen, and as to the keeping of a register to test the qualifications of voters, provided the Vestry of such church shall, by vote at a regular meeting, determine to adopt the same, and such vote shall, at the next ensuing stated annual election for wardens and vestrymen, be submitted to and ratified by a majority of the qualified voters, and certified and recorded in the manner provided by Section 2 of the Act hereby amended.

§ 14. All Acts, and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

On motion of Mr. B. C. Williams, it was Resolved, That this Council approve the first act proposed.

(On motion of the same, it was

Resolved, That the first clause of the second proposed act, relating to the change of time for holding the Annual Election of Wardens and Vestrymen, be approved by this Council.

On motion of the same, it was

Resolved, That the second clause of this proposed act, relating to the division of the Wardens and the Vestrymen into two classes, so that one half of the number shall be elected annually, be approved by this Council.

On motion of the same, it was

Resolved, That some definite provision be made by which the presumptive evidence relating to a right to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen may not be deemed conclusive, and that the decision made on this account may be reviewed.

(On motion of the same, it was

Resolved, That the part of the fourth section requiring Wardens and Vestrymen to be baptized persons, be amended by substituting for the word "baptized" a member of the congregation, as this Council is not now prepared to approve of the requirement that Wardens and Vestrymen should be baptized exclusively or necessarily.

The report of the Committee was then adopted.

Report on the Incorporation of the Diocese.

Mr. Alfred Ely, from the Committee appointed to procure an act for the Incorporation of the Diocese, read the following

REPORT:

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York.

The Committee appointed at the Council for 1885 to inquire into the subject of procuring an act of the Legislature for the incorporation of the Diocese. respectfully report, as the result of their investigation and reflection, that nothing of advantage can be gained by securing any privilege which the Legislature might be willing to confer upon the Council, and the acceptance of a charter might greatly limit the jurisdiction and embarrass the action of this body, as an Ecclesiastical Judicatory, now so important in the system of government established by the Protestant Episcopal Church.

This Council is now wholly free and independent of the laws of this State, because it is recognized in the law only as a voluntary religious organization. It is the policy of the State not to interfere with the jurisdiction of such organizations in matters of faith and doctrine, nor prescribe who may become members of the same; nor to adjudge the rights and privileges, resulting from such membership.

Over all incorporations the State, of right, may exercise control and management, for the reason the State, by its own action brought them into existence.

Therefore, we think it wise and judicious to maintain this religious tribunal and Council independent of the civil power.

Auxiliary corporations have been created for the purpose of managing and preserving the property of the Diocese, and others with enlarged powers may be needed for this purpose, but said corporations do not interfere with the jurisdiction or abridge the free action of the religious organization.

By the provisions of recent enactments (Laws of 1875 and 1876), general in their operation, the trustees of every religious society, which includes Wardens and Vestrymen, are required to administer the temporalities thereof, and hold and apply the property belonging thereto, and the revenues derived therefrom, for the benefit of such corporations, according to the discipline, canons, rules and usages of the denomination to which the church members of the corporation belong, and it is made unlawful for them to divert or misuse the same.

The legal effect and operation of these laws is to preserve to the use of all denominations the property intended by the donors for that use, and subject those officers to the jurisdiction of the civil tribunals, and they may be compelled to execute their trust in accordance with the spirit and purpose of the statute.

In the opinion of your committee these laws are ample to protect the property rights of the local societies incorporated under the general law, and it is necessary to incorporate the Diocese, with a view of securing that end.

For the purpose of preserving the funds which the Council may place in the hands of its treasurer from waste and misappropriation, we recommend the procurement of the enactment of a law, by which he may be required to give a bond on demand of this Council for the faithful discharge of his duties.

This may be accomplished by an amendment to Section 2, of Chap. 110, Laws of 1876, substantially as follows: Such trustees are authorized and empowered to take and receive from any officer elected by any Diocesan Council a bond or undertaking, in such penalty as such Council may by vote require from such officer, conditional for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and such bond or undertaking shall be valid and responsible, and the said trustees may maintain an action or actions in the courts of this State for a breach of any of its conditions.

All of which is respectfully submitted

Committee.

The report was accepted, and the recommendations of the Committee adopted.

The Rev. Henry Anstice, D. D., Chairman of the Committee on Finance, read the following

REPORT:

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

Your Committee on Finance respectfully report: That there have been placed in their hands the following reports, viz.: The Report of the Treasurer of the Council (see APPENDIX II., B.), the Report of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Christmas Fund (see APPENDIX II., A.), and the Report of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Parochial Fund (see APPENDIX II., D.). These reports have been duly examined and audited by Committees appointed by the Bishop, except the Report first named, which has been duly audited by this Committee, and their acceptance by the Council is therefore recommended. The work of this Committee each year would be much simplified by the appointment of auditors in advance of the meeting of the Council to audit the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, as well as those of the Treasurers of the Parochial and Christmas Funds, and this Committee recommends that in future this course be pursued.

It will be seen from the Report of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund that there has been paid to nine beneficiaries of the fund during the year the sum of $1,350, an average of $150 each, and to two temporary beneficiaries the sum of $100, in all, $1,450. The receipts from the Parishes, amounted to $1,207.07, and from the interest on investments, to $883.50, in all, $2,095.57, leaving a balance unexpended of about $600 — more than one-fourth of the total receipts.

While the Committee fully appreciate the prudence and skill which have characterized the financial management of this fund, they cannot but be apprehensive that the policy of hoarding so considerable a part of the annual receipts will have a tendency to lessen the gifts to and the interest in this worthy object : indeed, they have indisputable evidence that this unhappy result has already, to some extent, been experienced.

Your Committee recognizes the importance of a permanent fund, and that it should, under no circumstances, however pressing, be jeopardized or encroached upon. They earnestly wish that it might be largely augmented by special gifts, and in every legitimate way, but they deprecate the policy of appropriating in this way receipts which should be directly applied to sorely needy beneficiaries.

Your Committee therefore recommend the passage of the following resolution :

Resolved, That no part of the Parish collections for the Christmas Fund of the Diocese, except so far as distinctly designated for that purpose by the donor, shall hereafter be added to the Permanent Fund, but shall be applied, together with at least one-half of the interest of the Relief Fund, to its beneficiaries; and any excess of receipts from these sources over and above the amount required for the stipends shall be appropriated to special cases of need, under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

P. RICHARDS,
GEO. ALFRED STRINGER,

Committee.

The report was accepted, and, after the rejection of several proposed amendments to the resolution, it was carried.

The Rev. Charles W. Hayes, on behalf of the Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, read the following

R E P O R T :

To the Forty-Ninth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New - York :

The Standing Committee on De Veaux College would respectfully report:

That we have carefully examined the Report of the Trustees referred to us, and are gratified to find the affairs of the College in so prosperous and promising a condition. For the first time in years a considerable amount has been added to the fund for investment out of the earnings of the College. Whereas the profits of previous years had been absorbed in the payment of debts and improvements of property, this year the sum of $2,000 has been added to the Permanent Investment Fund.

The present satisfactory condition of the College is largely due to the efficient management of the President, Wilfred H. Munro, A. M., and your Committee were particularly pleased with the clearness and completeness of the Report of the Trustees prepared by him as Secretary.

There has been an increase of $7,000 in disbursements, owing mainly to the increase in number of pupils and the erection of gas works, which now supply an excellent quality of gas, at an expense (considering the interest on the cost of the plant, as well as the cost of manufacture) of about one-half of what the gas bills formerly were.

Although there has been an increase of but one in the number of Probationers and Foundationers, yet no applicant has been rejected during the year who possessed the necessary qualifications.

Your Committee has no recommendations to make, or resolutions to offer.

Committee.

On motion of Mr. B. C. Williams, it was

Resolved, That the Bishop, Mr. George Barker, and Mr. Alfred Ely be requested to act as a Committee, to put the action of the Council on the Amendments proposed to the act for the organization of Churches, into proper form and report the same to the Joint Committee of the five Dioceses of New-York.

On motion of the Secretary, it was Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Council be instructed to pay fifty dollars each to the Bishop and the four Clerical Deputies to the General Convention.

The Council then adjourned until 9.30 o'clock, to-morrow morning.

CHRIST CHURCH, ROCHESTER,
THURSDAY, September 23, 1886, 9 o'clock A. M.

Morning Prayer was said by the Bishop, in which he was assisted by the Rev. W. H. Lord, and the Rev. Albert Wood, the Bishop closing with the Benediction.

9.30 o'clock A. M.

The Bishop called the Council to order.

The Minutes were read and approved, after several corrections were made by the Rev. Dr. Anstice, and Mr. J. H. Fisher.

The Missionary-Bishop of Shanghai was introduced to the Council by the Rt. Rev. the President. The Council received him standing.

Resolutions. Proposed Amendment of Canon.

The Bishop then addressed the Council on most interesting and important matters pertaining to his mission.

On motion of the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, the thanks of the Council were tendered to the Bishop of Shanghai, for his exceedingly interesting address on his mission in China.

On motion of the Rev. C. W. Hayes, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That in view of the increased legal doubt which environs the disposition of property to religious bodies, by will, made within two months prior to the death of the donor, that this Council deem it proper to call the attention of the Reverend Clergy to that rubric which provides, that men should often be put in remembrance to take order for the settling of their temporal estates while they are in health.

The Rev. Henry W. Nelson, Jr., offered the following resolution, which, on his motion, was laid on the table until next year :

Resolved, That Judge Barker and the Hon. Alfred Ely be appointed a Committee to secure the legislation suggested in the Report of the Committee "on the Incorporation of the Diocese."

Mr. John N. Macomb, Jr., offered the following Amendment to Title I., Canon 3, which was referred to Committee on Constitution and Canons :

"Amend Section I. of Canon 3 of Title I., by inserting the word 'second' before the word 'annual' in the first line, and by striking out the word 'next' in the same line, so thus amended shall read as follows :

"The Council shall at the Second Annual Meeting preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect, by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Laymembers, four Clergymen, and four Lay Communicants of the Church, as Deputies to the General Convention from this Diocese. Such Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office."

The Rev. L. W. Richardson, Chairman of the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, reported, that all unfinished business had received attention. The Report was accepted, and the committee discharged. The Report was signed by L. W. Richardson, Chairman.

The General Theological Seminary.

The Rev. A. J. Warner, Chairman of the Committee on the General Theological Seminary, read the following

R E P O R T :

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New - York :

The Committee appointed to report on the General Theological Seminary, respectfully submits:

That so far as they have been able to inform themselves this institution was never in a more prosperous condition.

The ability, learning, diligence and theological soundness of its governing faculty, the number and character of its students and the general confidence reposed in its management by the Church, will, we think, compare most favorably with any former year in its management.

This Seminary has already demonstrated the wisdom of its founders, and proved the necessity of such an institution to the proper standing and high aims of a great National Church.

While fully recognizing the necessity for local Seminaries, both Diocesan and Provincial, to meet the requirements of a living and acting Church in all parts of the extensive domain which has fallen to the lot of the Protestant Episcopal Church in these United States, we feel compelled to emphasize the necessity of fully endowed central institutions, in which all the Dioceses are collectively interested, and over which, by their Bishops and by Trustees appointed in their Annual Councils, they all have a joint jurisdiction.

Such an institution as this is designed, and if properly designed and properly supported, well fitted to become a bond of union to the whole American Church, and far from inciting the jealousy of others, should receive careful attention, with aid and earnest sympathy from every Diocese, and should be reckoned the surest and best means of elevating the standard of Biblical knowledge and criticism, of securing the foundations of the faith already laid, and of widening while deepening the impregnable bulwarks of comparative and speculative theology.

It does not come within our province to speak more particularly on this subject, and we trust we have not exceeded the limits of duty assigned us, by calling attention in this general way to the paramount interest which every Diocese should feel with regard to it. If too much apathy in this respect has been felt in times past it is encouraging to note the signs of reviving interest and of substantial gains to the Seminary, in a material as well as in a spiritual and scholastic point of view.

A Deanery has been built at a cost of about $50,000 — the gift of a benefactor — to be used by the professors during the life-time of the present Dean, and to be occupied by his successors in office.

The fire-proof library building, mentioned by the Committee last year, is finished, and the extensive library with its valuable papers and manuscripts is deposited there in comparative safety, while the place which they formerly occupied has been fitted up with every convenience for a Refectory.

The most important addition of all to the buildings on the Seminary grounds is a new Chapel, to cost about $80,000 — also the result of private munificence. The Corner-stone was laid on the 15th day of June last, in the presence of a large number of Bishops, Clergy and Laity, who were addressed by the Assistant Bishop of New-York, the Bishop of Long Island and the Bishop of New Jersey.

The number of students the past year was 79, of whom 17 composed the graduating class.

With its Dean and eight Professorships (though as yet but partially and inadequately endowed) of Pastoral and Dogmatic Theology, of Hebrew and Greek, Biblical Exegesis, Church History, Ecclesiastical Polity, Christian Evidences, and of Elocution, the Church may rest assured that little is wanting but her liberal support and the active performance of her own duty towards this Institution to insure for it a triumphant future and the most happy results for herself.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. J. WARNER,
JOHN N. MACOMB, JR.,
Committee.

On motion of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, the following resolutions were unanimously passed :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council are due to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Rochester, in the use of their Church, and for the very pleasant arrangements made for the sessions of the Council and its Committees.

Resolved, That the Council desires to express its appreciation of the abundant, most cordial and delightful hospitality which its members have enjoyed at the hands of the Churchmen of Rochester, both in their homes and at the reception so kindly tendered the Council on the evening of the first day of the session.

Resolved, That the Council takes a special pleasure in recognizing the aid given by the Choir of the Church, in the religious services of the Session, and the earnestness and the interest of the boys in their sacred work, also the efficient service rendered by Master Doty to the Chair.

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to have 1,000 copies of the Journal printed and distributed in the usual manner, and that he be instructed to consult a sufficient number of printers to secure the publication at the lowest terms consistent with a satisfactory performance of the work.

Mr. D. M. Dewey read the following on the organization of Parishes :

Whereas, The General Convention of the Church, in Canon 5, sec. 2, provide that the subject of the organization of Parishes, defining of Parish limits, etc., be "left to the action of the several Diocesan Conventions for the Dioceses respectively."

Whereas, This Diocese has never taken action on this subject, and inasmuch as the several acts of the Legislature of this State, as well as this practice under the Constitution of this Diocese, relating to the organization of new Parishes necessitate that the Laws be codified and explained, as well as the proper blanks to be used for this purpose be made, it seems important that the Council of the Diocese should take action on the subject of Parish Limits and other matters connected with this subject.

On his motion, it was

Resolved, That the matter be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, with instructions to report to the next Annual Council.

The minutes of the previous day and of this Session were read and approved.

The Doxology was then sung, and with prayers by the Rt. Rev. the President, and with the Benediction by the Missionary-Bishop of Shanghai, the Council adjourned sine die.

A. CLEVELAND COXE,
President.

APPENDIX I.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

TO THE FORTY-NINTH COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE.

MY REVEREND BRETHREN AND BRETHREN OF THE LAITY:

We meet in the city where death has lately deprived us of a beloved and honoured brother, who only a few weeks ago might naturally have expected to be with us and to take an active and dignified share in our work. The pure and benignant spirit of Dr. Massey was a type of what I have desired to cultivate as the spirit of our deliberations. Though not yet a very old man, he was emphatically one of "the elders," and maintained the dignity of his years among us by word and deed, while yet unimpaired in all his faculties for usefulness. You will doubtless pay some proper tribute to his beloved memory,^a but surely the highest token of our respect will be shown by pious imitation of his brotherly kindness and charity. In the midst of a famous election in which Edmund Burke was a competitor, one of the aspirants suddenly died. Burke gave a felicitous turn to the event by a respectful reference to the deceased, adding his celebrated comment: "What shadows we are, what shadows we pursue." Such is the moral, inspired by the death of Massey, if, possibly, among us even one member is tempted by ambitious suggestions or committed to any movement of rivalry in behalf of one brother or against another. I say it solemnly but firmly, if any man imports into our solemn sessions the measures or the motives here denounced—"the Lord rebuke him." He becomes an active agent of the spirit of evil.

OUR COUNCIL NOT A CONVENTION.

The term convention has been discarded by general consent as inapplicable to a diocesan council. It was objected to, very justly, as tending to import into our sacred sessions the measures and the spirit of the political conventions with which we Americans are too familiar. Bearing this in mind, let me remark that the members of a council sit as brethren under the invocation of the Holy Spirit, and are supposed to come to their deliberations "with clean hands and pure hearts." Every third year, however, we reach the perilous crisis of an election to our great Provincial Council, still called "the General Convention"; and so honourable is the distinction of a seat in that council that much feeling is excited, and emulations and heart-burnings may be the disastrous result, unless a truly religious awe restrains and tempers every word and action. Think of our blessed Master's precept, "Love one another," and the Apostolic comment, "In honour preferring one another." Let no man be a self-seeker; let no man submit himself to anybody's machinery and management. Choose in the fear of God the men who, all things considered, seem to be preferable, and able to discharge the high duties of our deputies. Choose in the fear of God and with just considerations of what brotherly kindness demands. Drop all relics of any former collisions and cherish no animosities. "Purify your hearts to unfeigned love of the brethren," as God's word enjoins.

If you will look back to our Journal of last year^b you will find in Dr. Bolles' reminiscences of our earliest experience as a Diocese, an edifying chapter on the folly and wickedness of what is strangely called "the caucus." He says: "The friends of De Lancey were calm, held no caucuses, and only listened respectfully to their brethren." The result was the auspicious election of your first bishop, as well as the defeat of all concerned in attempts to secularize an Episcopal election. Let the traditions of the Diocese, therefore, be sacredly preserved. If anybody attempts to profane our work by the measures and tricks of politicians "mark that man" and rebuke him. The caucus is conspiracy, and it is equally cowardly and unjust. It meets in secret and attempts to settle beforehand what our Constitutions and Canons entrust to a deliberating Council of brothers. It may be that many things need to be said pending an important election, which one does not care to speak in a mixed assembly. Then, move to go into a committee of the whole; sit with closed doors, and calmly go over the ground when all concerned are present, can meet objections and canvass the situation of affairs. The stratagems which political cowards attempt in a caucus, where character may be stabbed in the dark, and where good and true men may be out-generalled, are thus defeated; and yet an opportunity is given for discussion, and for manly, frank, out-spoken complaints, if any ground for complaint should exist.

You have passed a most important canon for the solemn election of a bishop; let its spirit govern all our elections. If you ask why these admonitions, I answer, to pluck out the "root of bitterness" before it lifts its head above ground. "Prevention is better than cure." Enough that public journalism has recently censured an election where "king caucus" was said to have controlled the vote for a bishop. I say not that it was so, but I fear that all parties did not shun "the appearance of evil." Perish all such elections from the view and the toleration of Christians. I am sure that you, brethren, will respond to these remarks, by which you perceive that I am educating the whole Diocese to a common conscience in such matters, so that none may be taken unawares or involved in sacrilegious surprises, when God may call you, in His Providence, to choose another bishop.

CHARLESTON.

We meet amid many solemn events by which Divine Providence is speaking to all who have "eyes to see and ears to hear." Poor Charleston! Have your succours gone with your prayers, to make them acceptable to God and man, in this calamity of our brethren? I trust my Pastoral appeal on this matter has been largely responded to. Who can "see his brother have need" in circumstances so appalling, and not feel in his purse as well as in his heart? My Rt. Reverend brother of Charleston writes me a manly but most touching letter. The details and circumstances have not been exaggerated; great is the need of the sufferers. This memorable convulsion shook the planet from the Nile to the Mississippi. Thank God it was not another Lisbon, as to the extent of its devastation. "The Son of Man cometh," and these are premonitions of the last call.

AN EPOCH.

Observe the universal unrest and distress of nations. I devoutly trust that out of the worldly complications in Europe God, Himself, will work deliverance for Constantinople. From my childhood I have cherished hopes that I may live to see the Turk converted, or else driven back to Asia ; to see the cross restored to St. Sophia, and the whole land to the Cross. Grant it, gracious God! and if England ignobly refuses this glorious work I care not who goes forward and makes himself another Constantine.

Of matters connected with the Court of the Vatican and our American concern with them, I shall speak in my concluding remarks. I come now to the immediate business of our Council.

EPISCOPAL WORK.

During the past year, under the Divine blessing, I have not been hindered from my work, and have added to it, by my course of lectures in the De Lancey Divinity School ; while, by early rising and other economies of time, I have carried my editorial toils to a concluding volume, furnishing to American Christians a complete serial collection of an English version of the ante-Nicene Fathers. Such success has attended this enterprise that the Christian Literature Company, to which I gave its name and outline of work, now proposes to go on with "The Post-Nicene Fathers." For obvious reasons, I declined the task of continuing as their editor-in-chief ; but I shall contribute, if I live, to the new series, and I doubt not it will prove a noble acquisition to the schools and libraries of American Christianity.^c

THE FAITHFUL DEAD.

Of our clergy, as I have observed, one has "fallen asleep in Jesus," during the year. The rest of us are spared for a further trial of our fidelity. Thank God, one of my reverend brethren, within the past few days had his life given him "as a prey," amid the wreck and life-sacrifice of the railway casualty near Silver Creek. "God is the Lord by whom we escape death."

Three of our most esteemed and venerated fathers in Christ have gone to their rest—the saintly and eloquent Bishop Lay, the earnest and vigorous Bishop Young of Florida, and the devotedly faithful Bishop Robertson.

THE LATE BISHOP OF MISSOURI.

Of the last named I must say a few words because he was a priest of this Diocese, and because I earnestly opposed his acceptance of the bishopric of Missouri. I am glad to record the fact that I did so from no want of appreciation of his character and great merit. I was influenced by three important considerations, and was governed, as I always endeavour to be in the matter of an Episcopal election, by motives wholly conscientious and unselfish, with a single eye to the Church's laws, usages, and necessities. (1.) The dear brother had just removed into this Diocese and had accepted a parish (Batavia) admirably adapted to his period of life, his domestic comfort, his usefulness, and his lasting personal interests. Before his books and furniture could be unpacked and arranged, came this election. God never calls any man to two different spheres and classes of work at the same moment. (2.) His mind, physical powers, and his whole character were immature, though full of promise. I urged him to wait and ripen, and assured him that few misfortunes can befall a man greater than that of a premature elevation to the Episcopate. I said to him only what I must have said to myself, and I was faithfully frank from zeal, kindness and consideration. (3.) The Diocese of Missouri required in my judgment, more than almost any other Western Diocese, a man of experience and one already well known in the Church, like him who has now taken his place. Its previous bishop, an excellent and heroic man, had been called to that See in almost similar circumstances while quite young and, in appearance, almost a boy. He did all that could have been expected of him, but suffered much, and died while yet far from aged. I feared the like result for this brother, and just so it has turned out. I doubt not, could he have seen his duty in the light I did, and had he remained in Batavia for a time, he would at this moment have been in his prime, and (probably as a bishop) entering upon the most fruitful period of his life and usefulness.

One of our bishops who was virtually forced into a missionary episcopate while very young, wept when he heard of it, finding that he could not refuse. He took the same view of this matter that I did, and felt it an act of cruelty to invest so young a brother with a mission so arduous and so responsible. I shall never fail, in like circumstances, to act on these principles. The Church has no right to make boy-bishops, placing them as Fathers in God over venerable priests and gifted laymen, old enough to be their grandfathers. This is the gravest administrative matter that can come before the whole Church, the selection of her bishops. If the standard is lowered, we cannot recover ourselves in a single generation. It is temporary downfall. I perform a solemn duty in speaking thus frankly. I do it the rather because I may now go on to say that Bishop Robertson overcame the difficulties of his position as very few men could have done. As soon as he was made a bishop, I took public opportunities to pay him due honour. Only shortly before his lamented death, I received from him a most brotherly and interesting letter. We had no personal differences whatever, and none can regret his early decease more sincerely than I do. He was pure and lovely; he was able and devoted; he has left to Missouri a noble history, and if his career was closed in sorrow which he might have been spared, I doubt not he is now partaking of endless joys in the presence of that glorious Master to whom his life was supremely devoted.

OTHER BISHOPS.

Of Bishop Lay I have only room to add that he was dear to the whole Church, and his memorial is everywhere within her borders. Bishop Young died just as he had entered upon a voluntary mission in Cuba, which he managed with marked ability, and which, I suppose, will bear fruits of increase hereafter. Bless God for all these good men, and the works that do follow them for eternal reward.

THE LABOUR QUESTION.

The "Labour Question," now agitating the public mind, raises many points which deserve the attention and if possible the remedial efforts of the Christian Church. I can add nothing to the timely pastoral letter of the Coadjutor Bishop of New-York, but I heartily adopt it as what I wish to say to you. Listen to the weighty words in which he calls for sacrifices in behalf of the brotherhood of our redeemed humanity. He says: "These sacrifices are not so much of money as of ease, of self-indulgent ignorance, of contemptuous indifference, of conceited and shallow views of the relations of men to one another. A nation whose wealth and social leadership are in the hands of people who fancy that day after day, like those of old, they can 'sit down to eat and drink and rise up to play' careless of those who earn the dividends that they spend, and pay the rents of the tenement houses that they own, but too often never visit nor inspect, has but one doom before it, and that the worst. We may cover the pages of our statute-books with laws regulating strikes, and inflicting severest penalties on those who organize resistance to the individual liberty, whether of employer or workingman ; we may drill regiments and perfect our police ; the safety and welfare of a State is not in these things, it is in the contentment and loyalty of its people. And these come by a different road. When capitalists and employers of labour have forever dismissed the fallacy, which may be true enough in the domain of political economy, but is essentially false in the domain of religion, that labour and the labourer are alike a commodity, to be bought and sold, employed or dismissed, paid or unpaid as the market shall decree ; when the interest of workmen and master shall have been owned by both as one, and the share of the labouring man shall be something more than a mere wage ; when the principal of a joint interest in what is produced, of all the brains and hands that go to produce it, is wisely and generously recognized ; when the well-being of our fellow-men, their homes and food, their pleasures and their higher moral and spiritual necessities, shall be seen to be matters concerning which we may not dare to say, 'Am I my brother's keeper?' then, but not till then, may we hope to heal those grave social divisions concerning which there needs to be among us all, as with Israel of old, 'great searchings of heart.' "

TEMPERANCE WORK.

The Temperance work has received practical aid in Geneva by the establishment of a coffee-room, fitted up in a manner well adapted to deprive young men and others of all excuse for repairing to grog-shops and other places of low resort. This is the very best sort of warfare against the liquor traffic, but I trust the high license movement may be everywhere sustained by churchmen. I do not object to Prohibition except as a tool of political machinery, and I would favour it in all communities where it can be enforced. And, further, let me remind you of the horrible revelations of the police concerning young girls and their exposures to degradation and ruin, even in tender years. These unspeakable horrors are attributed to skating-rinks, excursions, unmatronized walks and drives, and a general want of discipline in families. Let pastors look to this not only in large cities, but in villages and towns.

Movements and Multiplied Agencies.

VARIOUS MOVEMENTS.

The "Missionary Enrollment Fund" demands a word of comment. I think it the best financial measure ever proposed and I trust it may be shaped by the coming General Convention and made obligatory, by canon, upon all dioceses and congregations and individuals. But I am opposed on principle to the multiplication of schemes, however beneficial in their aim, which contemplate general acceptance before general consultation has been had, so that details may not clash with local plans and Diocesan canons. This excellent scheme, I trust, may be matured by the wise counsels of both Houses.

The "Church temperance movement," "the Sunday-school movement," and that for "Christian Unity," are admirable, and yet they all lie open to similar objections. When these divers objects are presented to us by their zealous friends in a form which prescribes days for united prayers and contributions, they certainly conflict with the spirit of the Church's law and order. Every Diocese has its special legislation with which such proposals are likely to interfere, and besides it is not a churchlike proceeding for private individuals to call for such solemnities and acts of general beneficence. In one case a layman issued an appeal of this kind which the presiding bishop would have scrupled to send to his brethren. For local purposes, the multiplication of guilds and societies works well; for appeals to the Church at large they are mischievous. Sometimes they create permanent salaried officers, which are not very efficient, and which prove expensive. An excellent brother who came to us from an external communion assured me that innumerable organizations of this sort had been the plague of his previous ministry, and had caused him great annoyance by irritating and disgusting his people. Let us beware of similar evils.

COURT OF APPEALS.

There is a noisy rather than a general call for a "Court of Appeals." We must send ripe men of experience in the law to our General Convention and be guided by their counsels in this matter.

A Court of Appeals. The "Book Annexed."

I do not believe that there is any tendency to injustice in our Ecclesiastical Courts. The tendency is, at worst, to inflict injustice upon the Church in compassion to offenders. The bishops and the presbyters alike are always anxious to acquit if they possibly can do so, at least in the case of a priest or deacon.

The melancholy records of our dealings with bishops are, perhaps, less unimpeachable. In a long experience, strengthened by the testimony of a venerable bishop who once made me an unwilling member of a church-court, I have observed that guilty men are always clamorous to be tried. They feel certain that few will testify against them, and they can always find friends to testify voluntarily and zealously to their good character. Where there is no subpœna this must always be the case. Ecclesiastical trials rarely do any good to the Church. Let me add that any appellate process which lifting a local scandal into a matter of general concern defiles the whole Church with pestilent controversies, would tend to magnify mischief, and to multiply those cases to which apply the words of our Lord Himself: "Woe to the world because of offences." I am informed that the experience of one of the largest and most respectable denominations of our fellow Christians in this land, has led them to abolish appeals to general jurisdictions and to confine every matter of offence to the limits in which it originated.

THE "ANNEXED BOOK."

Concerning the "Annexed Book," I will add only a few words to what I have cautiously, but firmly, advanced heretofore. Two technical difficulties have been suggested, on constitutional grounds, which seem to me serious indeed, if even a considerable minority should sustain them. To adopt a book open to such objections would be to subject the Church, for years to come, to complaints against an illegitimate worship and to great irregularities in its use. (1.) It is said, for example, that "the Book Annexed" is to come before us as a whole, and must be accepted or rejected as such, without selection or sifting. (2.) And again, it is asserted of each several resolution that "it must be passed or rejected entire; it cannot be subjected to division and to partial acceptance, or the reverse." Without expressing my own imperfectly formed conclusions on these points, let me suggest that, as they must come up in limine, they should be considered an effectual bar to all further proceedings, unless dismissed by an overwhelming vote as points not well taken. And should the several resolutions be proceeded with, then any one of them passed by a trifling majority ought to be reconsidered and voted down. The equal balance of votes in the last Diocesan Council of New-York proves that similar divisions may arise in one or the other of the Houses of our general legislation. What would be the value of a rubric or of a prayer enforced with such lack of unanimity? On the whole, then, my convictions have gravitated towards the Maryland expedient, as it may be called. One is always willing to learn from that wise and venerable Diocese; and, if it be lawful, a few tentative measures reduced to a flyleaf, and not requiring alterations in our prayer-books, would supply the benefit required until final steps can be taken. Let us do nothing with American hurry, and after the manner of a city contractor's job. This question touches the apple of the Church's eye, and none other than a prudent, well skilled, and most loving hand should be trusted in so delicate an operation.

Educational Interests. The Mother Diocese.

EDUCATIONAL INTERESTS.

Blessed be God, our schools and colleges are doing well. Of the De Lancey Divinity School and De Veaux College you will hear gratifying particulars in forthcoming reports. St. Margaret's School for girls, in the City of Buffalo is attended with marked success and is bestowing great benefits on that city. Cary School makes little progress, but is well conducted by Mr. Coe, and is an instrument of immense utility to Oakfield and the surrounding country. It deserves more general patronage. Of Hobart College I must speak most gratefully. It strengthens and it grows. The munificence of Mrs. Merritt and of her brother, Mr. W. B. Douglas, has given us a fire-proof building for the library, and the loss of many books by the late fire has stimulated gifts which have gone far to fill the alcoves on the lower floor. Cannot the whole building be filled by your help and exertions without delay? It is just now the first want of the college, for its lack of a proper library is a crying evil.

THE MOTHER DIOCESE, ETC.

The Centennial celebration in New-York last October was attended by your delegates and proved a memorable occasion. Its memorial volume with its contributions to history ought to be in every family. It would make an appropriate Christmas present to any rector. I have twice attended the Committee of the Five Dioceses in New-York, from which a report will be laid before you on the amendment of our State Law for the incorporation of parishes. I cannot speak too warmly in praise of "the Woman's Auxiliary" in its influence upon the missionary spirit in our Diocese. I beg the Clergy and Laity to encourage its extension and to attend its meetings.

BENEFICENCE.

The Committee on Beneficence will report many encouraging proofs of an enlarged spirit in this behalf. I cannot but direct attention to the remarkable instance at Scottsville, where the church has sprung into existence with such surprising vigour. A large and costly organ has lately been given to it; it is thoroughly furnished and adorned, and the work has demanded no less than three visits from me during the year.

MISSIONS AT HOME.

I had proposed, but time does not permit, to say something about the call for Advent and Lenten "Missions." The experiments in the Diocese, thus far, have been so wise and so thoroughly submitted to Episcopal control that nothing but good seems to have resulted.

They will become fruitful of ills if less prudently directed. The daily Service of Common Prayer ought to be our universal use, and its restoration our first aim. Several churches of the Diocese are open every day for private devotions. A noonday office has been authorized in S. John's, Buffalo, with good effects. Closed churches are an offence to God and man, especially on a Sunday or high festival. I thank my reverend brethren who have denied themselves vacations rather than subject their churches and their people to such melancholy neglect.

This leads me to speak of lay-readers. We have about 40 in this Diocese, but after the coming legislation at Chicago I trust they may be three-folded. We need a faithful reader in every parish, and, not to speak of others, I feel that a tribute is due to Mr. Yates Bennett, of Hunt's Hollow, to whom, with his brother, Mr. Charles Bennett, I have been indebted for long and faithful labours in that very interesting old parish. It would have become a dormant, if not an extinct parish, long ago, but for the fidelity of these brethren and that of the pious people who have persevered in public worship with "only lay-reading."

DEPARTED ONES.

I have paid a tribute to the memory of Dr. Massey. Let me mention a few names which are no more the names of the living here on earth. Though the Rev. Orlando Witherspoon had migrated to another Diocese, I must not deny myself an expression of tender remembrance and of poignant regret at his early decease. It was a sudden call and speaks loudly to all his brethren to be ever waiting and ready. We have lost some of our Laity long associated with the work of the Diocese. Of Mr. Pierrepont, hardly less identified with us than with the sister Diocese, due mention was made last year. Soon after he went to rest. As most honoured and faithful sons of the Church, Mr. Stacey, of Geneva, Mr. Shepard, of Canandaigua, and Mr. Hayward, of Sodus, deserve the most affectionate mention. Less known, but not less deserving, was the late Mr. Hill, of Cattaraugus. The Church in that county owes much to his efforts and perseverance. Nor can I forbear to name several aged women who have lately fallen asleep. Mrs. Bennett, one of the original members of the Church founded in Hunt's Hollow, in 1826, who died at the age of nearly 93 years, was the mother of the lay-readers of whom I have made honourable mention. Mrs. Williams, who died at the age of 95, was the mother of Mr. Fletcher Williams, of Newark. I lately officiated, in the visitation office, at the side of a venerable matron, Mrs. Reynolds, of Rochester, who soon after departed at the age of nearly 102 years. She was the mother of Mr. M. F. Reynolds, of that city; the first mother, as he was the first-born son, of what is now the great city in which we are assembled.

CHRISTIAN BURIAL.

One word on the subject of "Christian Burial." There is a judicious movement in England to provide for a reduction of burial-expenses, and for what is called "basket-burial," as a sanitary expedient. The notion that the decomposition of corpses, laid in proper ground, and rapidly given back to earth, is perilous to the living, is already exploded by scientific experiment. But, "caskets" and other coffins designed to preserve dead bodies have excited just complaints. I urge renewed attempts to acquire consecrated grounds for burial; to banish vulgar floral exhibitions at funerals; to tolerate reasonable expenses only, and to take away, from all pure minds, the last excuse for promoting a return to Paganism, and the horrid rites of burning as refuse the dear remains of our dead.

RESTORATION OF THE JESUITS.

My brethren, Laity as well as Clergy: I have never confined your thoughts to local objects merely, on these occasions of annual assembling. We are members of the Catholic and Apostolic Church, and as such have the deepest interest in its world-wide concerns. Let me now direct your attention to a matter demanding the common concern of all Americans, but to which nobody will point the public mind if we do not. It is part of our mission to be watchmen upon the National walls and to warn the thoughtless multitude of approaching perils. Our people have observed with indifference the naked telegraphic statement that the respectable Pontiff who now fills the Papal throne, has restored the order of Jesuits to all the faculties, prerogatives, and powers which they had grasped, before their suppression by Clement XIV. I have obtained a copy of the Papal brief, and I venture to say that while it is a document of the greatest import to Europe, it is of supreme significance to us in America. In a word, it removes from this formidable society all the disabilities with which the rival orders supposed them to be clogged, by the fact that the act of Restoration did not expressly relieve them of some of the sweeping maledictions of Clement the Fourteenth.

At least the unrevoked features of Clement's brief have been regarded by Romanists as invested with new force and permanence by the blunder of Jesuits in getting Pius the Ninth to pronounce all Papal decrees touching faith and morals infallible and irrevocable. They have thus armed their enemies with a new argument against themselves. Self-stultifying though it be, they have made the present Pope issue another infallible decree, utterly annulling all that Clement XIV. did in the wise exercise of his infallibility. I propose to publish the three constitutions or breves, to enable all intelligent men to compare them and to understand the actual position of the Society of Jesuits as respects this country. Now, be it remembered, the society has, first and last, been banished from every Romish kingdom in Europe as insufferably aggressive towards all governments and constitutions. Pius IX. himself in the early years when he assumed an attitude favourable to Italian progress and freedom was forced to banish them from Rome. Even now no European State except England with Belgium and a few petty Protestant governments gives them any quarter. Observe the consequences in Belgium. Other Romanized countries have invented all sorts of securities against them. Nations that know them expel them, but our innocent republic sets wide its doors and gives free right of invasion to these burglars of the universe.

The society intends to make this rich and unsuspecting nation the field of its largest and most triumphant operations. We give them arms and an army. We invest our invaders with a vote as soon as they land, and hordes of ignorant immigrants thus recruited will soon give them the command of wealth and power in all our large towns and cities. For the Jesuits will be the masters of these ignorant voters. Cardinals, whose red liveries announce their readiness to die for the Papacy, are placed in conspicuous places as a mere mask. No matter who is cardinal, bishop, or priest, the Jesuits are supreme.

Now comes the point. Under the guise of an institution of learning a Jesuit college is about to be established in Washington. It will be the seat of intrigue with our politics and politicians. There our elections will be managed and results secured for the Court of Rome. Most quietly at first, with the utmost audacity very soon, this society will practically neutralize our Constitution, or what is more likely, will bring on a social war of religion. It may be wise to organize adopted citizens into foreign regiments; that is no business of mine. But, the organization of religious regiments at this crisis is most suggestive, and I must ask my countrymen, as part of my duty as a loyal citizen, to inquire into the organizations of "Uniformed Catholic Knights," and to decide whether their armed "battalions," with "mounted field and staff-officers" are a military force consistent with our Constitution. I protest against all military organizations on a religious base, whether Romanish or Protestant. They are a menace to freedom and to good neighbourhood.

HOPEFUL TOKENS.

You must not consider me an alarmist. On the contrary, I never before saw such elements of hope as now, in this red cloud of Romish aggression. Our simple people gaze upon it as amusing and really admire its effects upon the blue horizon. No man schooled by experience, who understands the history of nations and the tactics of the Jesuits, can maintain this stolid indifference. At this moment the Jesuits have humbled Germany and driven Bismarck "to Canossa." In our neighbouring State, the Dominion of Canada, the eastern half, including Montreal and Quebec, lies prostrate under them. They control elections, overawe magistrates, excite the populace and have well nigh taken possession of the courts of justice. There are parts of our land where this is almost the case already. On a larger scale our turn is coming. But here is the first element of hope; while Protestants are stupidly secure, many of our American Romanists are alarmed. Remember, all Romanists who are not themselves Jesuits or rabid ultramontanists, abhor this society. Clement was forced to suppress and abolish it at the outcry of all the Latin nations. Now, I have always argued that the Liberal Romanists are good citizens. I have no fear of such ecclesiastics, as were the venerable Carroll^d and Cheverus. Theologically, I differ with them. As citizens I would maintain their rights as eagerly as I defend my own. For there are thousands of Americans like the late Chief Justice Taney, whose family all belonged to my church in Baltimore, who are true patriots. They were born in the Roman communion and are loth to leave it; but they are eclectics; they believe what suits them and despise the rest. They do not mean to "go to Canossa," and we may rely on them to make war on this Jesuit invasion. Already several of their Liberal Bishops are struggling to keep the Jesuits out of Washington. They are wise and prudent and wish to place there the intelligent and highly respectable French "Sulpicians." I hope they will not succeed. It will be a momentary blind and will dust the eyes of the lookers-on; for as was said to me by a zealous Romanist: "It will belong to the Jesuits all the same, and as soon as it is safe they will assume it openly." Yes, but that depends. Our countrymen may wake up, though I rely more on Liberal Romanists than on stupid, indifferent Protestants to protect us from this great outrage. I have done my duty. The ^d Carroll, though educated by the Jesuits and enrolled with them in youth, was understood to accept the abolition of the society with honest concurrence. He was not a Jesuit as a prelate, for the society had no legal existence during his whole episcopate.

(C.) EPISCOPATE FUND.

(I.) REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

To the RT. REV. A. C. COXE, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Western New-York :

The undersigned, Trustees for the care and management of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, respectfully report that at the date of our last report this Fund, including the Trustees' individual obligation, amounted to $45,571.84, consisting of :

Mortgages,	$29,126.00
Notes of Parishioners,	6,995.00
Railroad Bonds,	1,000.00
Trustees' Obligation,	1,447.81
Land Claims, Oswego Co.,	1,936.25
Cash on hand,	5,066.78
	$45,571.84

The De Lancey Fund, as reported, consisted of :

Mortgages,	$2,200.00
Cash on hand,	200.00

During the past year there has been added to the principal of the Fund :

Gift of Mr. J. N. Macomb,	$200.00
Saunders' Memorial Fund,	2.00
Add amount reported Sept. 1, 1885,	45,571.84
	$45,773.84

The Fund at this date consists of :

Mortgages,	$34,176.00
Notes of Parishioners,	5,423.00
Railroad Bond,	1,000.00
Trustees' Obligation,	1,447.81
Land Claims, Oswego Co.,	1,936.25
Cash on hand,	790.78
	$45,773.84

The Trustees also hold pledges for the annual payment to the Episcopate Fund, as follows :

S. James', Hammondsport,	$13.00
S. Thomas', Bath,	65.00
Trinity, Middleport,	25.00
Good Shepherd, Rochester,	12.00
Trinity, Rochester,	50.00
S. Peter's, Dansville,	25.00

The receipts for income during the past year were collections from Parishes, received :

Through Diocesan Treasurer,	$2,738.11
Interest upon securities belonging to the Fund,	2,149.27
	$4,887.38

The De Lancey Fund consists of :

Three mortgages, amounting to,	$2,200.00
Cash uninvested,	200.00

Treasurer of Episcopate Fund.

The Trustees desire to call attention to the increasing deficiency between the income and the amount required to meet the necessary expenses, and for that purpose have prepared the following statement :

	1882.	1883.	1884.	1885.	1886.
Fund as reported,	$32,703.94	$41,717.84	$42,569.84	$45,571.84	$45,773.84
Interest on investments,	1,708.90	2,352.76	2,325.57	2,424.70	2,149.27
Contrib'ns from Parishes,	3,767.36	3,365.35	2,699.19	2,779.00	2,738.11
Total receipts,	5,476.26	5,698.11	5,024.78	5,203.70	4,887.38
Total expenses,	5,407.86	5,407.87	5,007.16	5,450.43	5,470.90
Surplus,	68.40	590.24	17.62
Deficiency,				246.73	583.52

While the increase in the principal of the fund is gratifying, the advantages that might be expected to arise from this increase have been off-set, in part by the lower rate of interest which these investments bear, and in part by the falling off in the contributions from Parishes, and until the invested fund is considerably increased, it is the obvious duty of the several Parishes to make special effort to increase their contributions.

By reference to the investments of the fund as reported, it will be seen that at least two of the items mentioned produce no income : The Trustees' Obligation, which should, in justice, be cancelled, and the Land Claim in Oswego County, which is of no actual value. Retaining these items leads, in fact, to an erroneous view of the condition of the fund, and the Trustees suggest that they be allowed to strike them out.

GILMAN H. PERKINS,
Trustee.

(D.) DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

To the Forty-Ninth Council of the Diocese of Western New-York, the Missionary Board of the Diocese would respectfully Report :

That the past year has been the most successful since the organization of the Deanery System. The itinerant Missionary labors in the Batavia Convocation has proven eminently valuable in the aggressive work accomplished. The organization of the new mission at Charlotte, by the Rochester Convocation, at a cost of over $600, which sum has been paid in full by contributors in Rochester, thus furnishing the mission with a comfortable and convenient chapel and insuring a permanent mission at that place, is creditable alike to the Diocese and to the Rochester Convocation. The number of Missionaries in the field, and the amount of work have been greater than heretofore. The Missionary stipends have been promptly paid without the necessity of over-drafts on the Treasurer. The request made to the Reverend Clergy at the last Council for an increase of contributions over the previous year has met with a hearty and liberal response, yielding an increase of over $600 over the past year.

It should be understood that since the organization of Deaneries, all the anticipated funds for the year have been, at the commencement of the year, equitably divided among the four Deaneries, leaving the Missionary Board without a single dollar that could be appropriated by them to new and aggressive work in the Diocese. The convocations make their annual appropriations to cover the funds received ; hence it will be seen that there is really no fund applicable to start new work. There should be a fund for such work at the disposal of the Missionary Board. A slight effort this year will easily accomplish this object. If the Reverend Clergy will make an average increase of ten per cent. in their collections over the amount collected the past year, it will, with the balance on hand at the present time, give about $1,000 for this object, and thus enable the Board to establish new missions at once at points which have been long neglected. The Reverend Clergy are requested to make this effort.

The Board would call the attention of the Clergy to the fact that each Vestry throughout the Diocese is expected to elect annually a Lay delegate to the convocations, and to urge the attendance of Lay delegates to all meetings of the convocations, thus interesting a large number of Laymen throughout the Diocese in the Diocesan Missionary work.

The Missionary Board would respectfully request that their annual report should be read to the congregations throughout the Diocese on the receipt of the Journal of the Annual Convention, the printed copy of the same.

Since the last report I have received from Mr. S. H. Ver Planck, of Geneva, the sum of fifty-nine ($59) dollars, to establish a Fund to be called the "Ruth Ver Planck Fund"; the income of which is to be used each year for the purchase of bibles for S. Philip's Sunday-School.

I have also received, from her executor, the bequest of Mrs. Maria A. Wilkinson to the Trustees of this Fund—the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars, to be appropriated to Clerical Support.

Also the bequest of James Foote, formerly of Tompkins County, to the Permanent Missionary Fund, the sum of seven hundred and fifty-seven dollars and thirty-three cents ($757.33).

All of which sums have been invested and placed to the credit of the respective Funds.

In compliance with the conditions accompanying the bequest of James D. Shepard, to the De Lancey Divinity School, received last year, the Trustees have placed a tablet in memory thereof, in west wall of the library of S. Peter's De Lancey Memorial Church, as the most fitting place for such tablet at present.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(3.) REPORT OF AUDITORS.

GENEVA, N. Y., September 17, 1886.

To the RT. REV. A. CLEVELAND COXE, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—In compliance with your request we have carefully examined the accounts of Mr. James P. Mellen, Treasurer of the Parochial Fund, for the year ending September 1, 1886, and find them correct.

The securities belonging to the various funds have been examined and correspond with his statements, and the expenditures as charged are supported by proper vouchers. The investments made by the Treasurer are, so far as we can judge, well and securely made, and there are but two items of interest in default, and those are believed to be amply secured. The April and July coupons of certain railroad bonds belonging to one of the funds in the hands of the Treasurer (a gift to the fund) have not been paid, though the amount represented thereby is believed to be secure.

Besides the full and detailed account, the Treasurer has submitted a condensed account, which it seems to us is all that need be published.

The salary of the Treasurer for the past year has not been deducted from the balance on hand, but will be deducted from next year's account. The amount of this salary for the past year, being five per cent. of the income received from mortgages, is $268.73.

Respectfully submitted,

A. P. ROSE,
P. N. NICHOLAS,
Auditing Committee.

De Veaux College — Report of Trustees.

(F.) DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

(I.) REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

To the Forty-Ninth Annual Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Western New-York :

GENTLEMEN,—The Trustees of the De Veaux College for Orphans and Destitute Children, pursuant to the terms of their charter, respectfully submit the following Report for the year ending June 30, 1886 ; also, a copy of the College Register for the Academic year 1885-'86.

During the year there have been instructed thirteen (13) Probationers and Foundationers, thirteen (13) Day and fifty-eight (58) Boarding Pupils, making a total of eighty-four (84) pupils.

On the thirteenth day of June the funds of the Institution consisted of $108,133.75 of principal yielding income ; which funds are invested in, and consist of, bonds and mortgages, stock, land contracts, real estate in Lockport and cash awaiting investment, as per Schedule A., hereto annexed. $4,900 have been added to the principal during the year.*

From the sale of village lots,	$1,900.00
Bequest of Rev. Dr. Shelton,	2,000.00
Bequest of Thomas Vedder,	1,000.00

Schedule B., hereto annexed, shows the collections and disbursements of income during the year.

Schedule C. presents a condensed statement of resources and liabilities June 30, 1886. (The Farm inventories are not included in this statement. They would show an increase in value of about $1,000 over those taken one year ago. It is to be noticed that the amount realized from the Farm is each year steadily increasing. The aim of the management is not to increase its productiveness at once by an expensive forcing process, but to bring it gradually into a condition of permanent productiveness.)

During the last seven months the College has been lighted with gas manufactured on its own grounds. The works were erected from the profits of the Term-Pupils' Department for the preceding year, at a cost of $1,596.71. The quality of the gas made is much superior to that formerly obtained from the village, and its cost—including the interest on the investment—is about half what the gas bills formerly were.

The Board of Trustees earnestly request that the Committee to whom their report is referred will consult with the Secretary of the Board (who is always in attendance at the Sessions of the Council) respecting any points they may deem obscure in the report.

The Standing Committee on De Veaux College made this report to the Forty-Eighth Council of the Diocese: "We find that a year ago the resources included the sum of $1,167.48, due from term pupils; this year, the resources are swelled in the same direction by the sum of $1,820.10. We have no evidence by which we are able to determine whether the old bills of the term pupils have been collected, or whether the present increased sum of $1,820.10 includes the averages of pay of term pupils for a series of years past."

A question addressed to the Secretary would at once have thrown light upon the matter. The evidence the Committee deemed lacking was contained in Schedule B. of the Report they were considering. In this Schedule it was expressly stated that $974.23 of the year's receipts were from the balances of 1884.

This year a reference to Schedule C. will show that $374.16 of the amount reported as due from term pupils one year ago have been stricken from the list of available assets. A final effort to collect this sum will be made this year. It represents the probable bad debts of the last five years—a loss of less than four hundred dollars ($400.00) in the collection of more than eighty thousand dollars ($80,000.00) of tuition bills.

It is usually quite impossible to collect more than a small portion of the last month's (June) tuition bills before the first of July.

The Committee of the Council further reported: "Third, we find that for years past the real estate has not been a source of revenue to the College, therefore, if it is thought best to dispose of the same, we would recommend that the land be properly appraised, so that the Council can be informed of its value with reference to sales."

The real estate the College holds for sale was plotted and placed upon the market by the late Samuel De Veaux, on the twenty-sixth day of May, 1851. By direction of the first Board of Trustees a duplicate of the first map was made by Peter Emslie, Surveyor, in the year 1856, and the Emslie map was thereupon filed in the office of the County Clerk of Niagara County. The value of this land has from year to year been stated to the Council in our reports. The village assessors tax it this year at $10,500.00. The item concerning it was inadvertently omitted from the last report.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held this day, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That two thousand dollars ($2,000) of the amount already collected from the profits of the Term-Pupil Department during the past year be this day transferred from the Income Account and added to the Permanent Endowment Fund.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

Secretary.

WELLSVILLE, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1886.

To the Forty-Ninth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New-York:

Gentlemen,—I beg leave to report that during the last year this S. John's Parish of Wellsville, N. Y., have purchased property on the corner of Main and Genesee Streets, in this village, and are now rebuilding their Church upon the lot so purchased. The property is deeded to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Western Diocese of New-York in trust for this Society. We have raised and paid the purchase money, amounting to $2,200. It will cost us to complete the Church building some $1,750, of which amount we are minus some $800 that we must raise to clear the debt of building. Our ladies think they can raise the amount by help from other and wealthy Parishes in the State, so that we can have the Church consecrated in October next, at which time the Church is to be completed. The Bishop is aware of financial weakness, and will aid us in our struggle.

Yours,

B. HANKS, S. W. of S. John's Parish.

The past year has been full of encouragement. The local efforts have been most creditable to the Church, while two most acceptable gifts of $1,000 and $500 have given most timely and substantial aid. The Parish is now wholly out of debt, and there are some $1,100 in hand for the much-needed Church-rooms. The increasing interest in the Church has borne its customary fruit.

The Parish was vacant till October 1, 1885, and the Church was closed four Sundays in August, 1886, during vacation and cleaning. S. Mark's Mission at Millport, Central New-York, was started January 3, 1886, and a regular 3 P. M. Service on Sundays with a few week evening Services in Lent and just after seems to promise good results. Four adults and 5 children have been Baptized, and 3 Confirmed.

PERSONAL REPORTS.

GENEVA, N. Y., Sept. 21, 1886.

The Bishop of Western New-York:

RT. REV. FATHER IN GOD,—I have the honor to report to you that for the past two years I have resided in Geneva, and, since April, 1885, have ministered in charge of the Church of the Epiphany, Trumansburg, in the Diocese of Central New-York. Since the death of that godly and efficient layman, the late William W. Stacey, the Mission of S. Stephen's Church, Romulus, C. N. Y., has also been placed in my care, where (by the paternal kindness of the Vestry, at Trumansburg) I minister monthly, and have been working, under the lead of the Bishop of Central New-York, in relieving it from a debt of more than a thousand dollars. I have also officiated and preached in Trinity Church, Elmira, and S. John's Church, Ithaca, in the interest of the Mission at Romulus.

Dutifully and affectionately,

JAMES PRENTISS FOSTER.

DE VEAUX COLLEGE, SUSPENSION BRIDGE, N. Y., Sept. 21, 1886.

Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., Bishop Western New-York:

MY DEAR BISHOP,—The following is my report for the last Diocesan year: On all Sundays in term-time I have officiated in the Chapel of De Veaux College. On some of the other Sundays I have assisted various Rectors or supplied vacant Parishes. I baptized seven children in Indiana and two adults in the College. Presented eleven for Confirmation in the College.

Respectfully submitted,

F. P. HARRINGTON.

SODUS, N. Y., Sept. 7, 1886.

RT. REV. AND DEAR BISHOP,—Herewith I hand you my report for S. John's Church, Sodus, N. Y., Mission Sunday-School, for the past year, from Sept. 1, 1885, to August 31, 1886. We now count twenty-six scholars on our roll. Have held Sunday-School forty-seven Sundays during the year, with an average attendance of twelve scholars. We hold Evening Service regularly every Sunday Evening, and the neighbors begin to take interest in them again, as of old.

Faithfully,

W. F. LANE.

Personal Reports.

LYONS, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1886.

The Rev. William H. Williams reports, that in January he removed from Rochester to Lyons, Wayne Co., N. Y., and that during the Conventional year he has officiated on many occasions in the offices of the Church.

SAVONA, STEUBEN COUNTY, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1886.

To the Rt. Rev. Bishop and Council of the Diocese of Western New-York, assembled in Rochester:

DEAR BRETHREN,— Having resigned my Rectorship of S. Andrew's, Bradford, and, by appointment of the Bishop, joined my labors with Rev. C. Smith, Rector of S. James', Buffalo, it grieves me to say that circumstances over which I had no control obliged me to cease work in Buffalo, April 1, 1886. Since then I have been residing with my family, in Savona. I am without a Parish, or work of any kind. Through the courtesy of the Baptist Trustees I held several Missionary Services in Savona, taking public collections, which amounted to $17.60. It would be a pleasure to me to do evangelistic work. I believe I am qualified for such work, and would be willing to go anywhere in the Diocese under the Bishop's directions, accepting such pay as the work itself would afford. Not being physically robust, evangelistic work would suit me better than the details of Parish duty.

Praying God's blessings upon His own great work, and upon our beloved Bishop, I remain yours in the Great Hope,

JEREMIAH COOPER.

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York:

MY DEAR BISHOP,— Since my last report I have been engaged somewhat in ministerial work — occasionally officiating and assisting my Reverend Brethren — regularly assisting in the Holy Communion, and sometimes wholly administering the same. I have baptized one adult, buried one adult, and united one couple in holy matrimony.

Respectfully, your most obedient in Christ and the Church,

R. O. PAGE.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1886.

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York:

During the past year I have resided in Rochester, as heretofore, and without Parochial charge. I have, however, on all the Sundays and a considerable number of week-days, been occupied in the duties of my office, by assisting in Divine Service, or preaching, or both, or by supplying vacancies, in Rochester and elsewhere. For about three months I took the Sunday duty of the Rev. Dr. Massey,

Personal Reports.

at S. John's Church, Rochester, during the period of his declining health. I have assisted the Rector of S. Paul's, Rochester, on many occasions, in the Service, and in the Holy Communion. For the past month I have been officiating at Victor, Ontario County, at your request, in which duty I am still engaged.

Very truly and faithfully yours,

ALBERT WOOD.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 9, 1886.

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York:

DEAR BISHOP,—I can say, briefly, that my health is failing; that I have suffered much with rheumatism the past six months. I am able to attend Church for Morning Service on Sundays, and occasionally on other days of the week. I have not officiated in any services of the Church the past year, on account of my voice, which is affected by chronic bronchitis. I think my time here is about finished. May I be prepared to meet its close in peace. Pray for me, your unworthy son in the Church.

G. P. WALDO.

GENEVA, Sept. 1, 1886.

To the Bishop of the Diocese of Western New-York, as the Board of Education:

The undersigned begs to report that he has performed such duties as have been assigned him in the work of the Divinity School. He is at present giving daily instructions in Hebrew and Greek. He has also, as Examining Chaplain, assisted the Rev. Dr. Rankine in the examination of several candidates for the Ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. B. EDSON,
Prof. of Exegesis, Hebrew and Greek.

ANGELICA, N. Y., Sept. 1, 1886.

The Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., LL. D.:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—The undersigned respectfully submits that since his last annual report he has rendered the Church Service 104 times, preached 77 times, administered the Holy Communion 10 times, performed 7 Baptisms, 5 Burials, 1 Marriage Ceremony and 16 Visitation Offices for the sick. From the adjournment of the last Council until November 20th, he was employed by the Wardens of Trinity Church, Canaseraga, to supply a vacancy in its Rectorship, which was in the process of being filled, rendering them 16 regular Services with two celebrations of the Holy Communion. From November 20th to January 20th he continued in Angelica, which is still his residence, where he held 9 Cottage Services, Baptized 2 infants and officiated at 1 Funeral, besides holding a Personal Reports.

Service in Belvidere. From January 29th to June 8th he had charge as Rector of S. Andrew's Church, Bradford, Steuben Co., pending the settlement of a previous engagement proposed by the Diocesan. During this occupancy, which included the whole season of Lent, the temporary Rector held 58 Services, preached 55 times, celebrated the Holy Eucharist 7 times, Baptized 3 adults, made 14 Visitations of the Sick, and gave 15 Cataphetical addresses. Returning to Angelica, he preached in the Church on Trinity Sunday, and on the first Sunday after Trinity. After this, owing to reluctance of the Wardens to open the Church for Services, and the uncertainty with reference to his own future appointments, he had the Morning Prayer at home when not otherwise occupied. He was engaged on the fifth Sunday after Trinity to preach in S. John's Church, Dresden, and on the sixth Sunday after Trinity in S. Michael's Church, Oakfield, where he celebrated the Holy Communion. Since leaving Bradford he has baptized 2 infants, solemnized 1 marriage and officiated on 4 funeral occasions. The whole number of miles traveled in performance of these duties, exclusive of journey having any other object than personal clerical duty, foots up 2,320.

Very respectfully yours,

ABRAHAM J. WARNER.

CHURCH HOME, BUFFALO, W. N. Y., Sept. 1, 1886.

To the Bishop, Rt. Rev. A. C. Coxe, D. D., etc.:

The Rev. O. R. Howard, D. D., respectfully reports: That he still resides in Buffalo, as Chaplain of the Church Home; that for the year ending Sept. 1st he has had 5 Baptisms (all children), 2 Marriages and 3 Burials. There have been also the weekly administration of the Holy Communion, and all other Services as heretofore.

AVON, Sept. 16, 1886.

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York:

MY DEAR BISHOP,—My health during the last Diocesan year has been gradually on the decline, so that at the present time, it is not as good as it was one year ago, consequently I have not been able to do any clerical work, nor to attend Divine Services only a part of the time.

Affectionately your son in Christ,

MILTON BREWSTER BENTON.

SANTA CLARA, CAL., Sept. 7, 1886.

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., LL. D.:

DEAR BISHOP,—Since my last report I have been engaged in the work of the Ministry the most of the time. I spent the winter in charge of S. Mary's Church,

Personal Reports.

SEPTEMBER 7, 1886.

Rev. Foster Ely, D. D., begs leave to report to his Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Arthur Cleveland Coxe, D. D., LL. D., that during the past Diocesan Conciliar-year, he has officiated, at the request of Rectors, twenty-five times — preaching twenty-four sermons. In the absence of the Rector, Rev. Dr. J. M. Clarke, he has had charge of S. James' Church, Syracuse, N. Y., for six weeks. He exceedingly regrets that he is not able to report more ministerial work. His physician's advice is, not to officiate at all for the present. Any official acts outside of the sanctuary will be reported by Rectors.

HAMMONDSPORT, N. Y., Sept. 21, 1886.

To the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe :

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—Up to the date of my present disablement, which began November last, I had assisted Rev. Mr. Stryker regularly at the Sunday Morning Service, officiated in full with Sermon and Celebration of Holy Communion upon one Sunday. Administered the rite of Holy Baptism twice. My report of last year, which did not appear in the Journal, contained more than my usual amount of occasional services.

Most respectfully,

J. T. CUSHING.

U. S. SHIP "JAMESTOWN,"

NAVY YARD, NORFOLK, VA., Sept. 21, 1886.

RT. REV. AND DEAR BISHOP,—I was detached from the U. S. Ship "Minnesota," the training ship for New-York Harbor, October 21st, and ordered to report at the Navy Yard, Norfolk, Va., on the 31st of the same month, for duty on board the U. S. Ship "Jamestown," one of the three vessels of the U. S. Cruising Training Squadron, then fitting out for a winter's cruise to the Windward Islands, West Indies. The Training Squadron sailed from Norfolk, Va., December 14th, and arrived in the Harbor of Bridgetown, Island of Barbadoes, January 14th. From Barbadoes we sailed, February 3d, for Port Spain, Trinidad Island, and from Port Spain we sailed for the Island of St. Kitts, and from thence to the Island of Martinique, and from the Island of Martinique to the Island of St. Thomas. From the Island of St. Thomas we sailed for Hampton Roads, and arrived within the Roads April 29th. At Hampton Roads the U. S. Ship "Jamestown" was temporarily detached from the Training Squadron and ordered to cruise for the summer with the cadets from the Naval Academy. The "Jamestown" has completed her summer cruise with the cadets, and after repairs at the Navy Yard here we will probably rejoin the U. S. Training Squadron, and make quite an extended winter's cruise in the West Indies.

Personal Reports.

While cruising with the Training Squadron last winter, I held Divine Service, and preached on board the "Jamestown," every Sunday morning. In port, in addition to my services on board the "Jamestown," I held Services and preached on board the other two ships of the Squadron, the "Saratoga" and the "Portsmouth." I said prayers every evening on board the "Jamestown," and exercised such supervision over the education of the apprentices as is required by the Regulations of the Navy. In the Harbor of Bridgetown I buried on shore from the "Jamestown," one of the apprentices. At San Pierre Island of Martinique, at the request of the American Consul, I buried a citizen of that island. During the cruise with the cadets along the coast of New England I held substantially the same services on board the "Jamestown" as I had during the cruise with the naval apprentices. In addition to the services on board naval vessels I have, during the year, officiated twice at S. John's Church, Big Flats. I believe I have administered the Holy Sacrament twice in that Parish since I last reported. I have celebrated the Holy Communion and preached once at Norfolk, Va., and I have taken part in the services and preached once at Portsmouth, N. H.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

S. D. BOOROM,
Chaplain U. S. Navy.

253 MT. HOPE AVE., Sept. 7, 1886,
ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Rt. Rev. A. C. Coxe, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York:

MY DEAR BISHOP,—Services have been continued, by God's blessing, in the Church Home the same as in former years; once on each Lord's Day and on the Holy days and more frequently in Lent, on every day in Passion week. Holy Communion was administered once a month, and on the greater festivals. The children are taught the catechism carefully in the day-school, and are usually catechised in the public services once a month or oftener. Baptisms three (3), Burials three (3), Marriages two (2), and there are twenty-eight communicants. The religious condition of the Home seems encouraging. The children learn readily their religious duties, and the old people are devout and faithful.

Very truly yours,

FORTUNE C. BROWN,
Chaplain.

FORT RENO, IND. TER., Sept. 8, 1886.

The Rt. Rev. Arthur Cleveland Coxe, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Western New-York :

REV. FATHER IN GOD,— It is my duty to report to you, that on July 1st I reported in person, pursuant to orders from head-quarters of the army, to the general commanding the Department of the Missouri, and was assigned to duty as Post Chaplain, at this post, Fort Reno, Indian Territory, and since July 7th have been engaged in the discharge of the duties of my office. This important post guards the Oklahoma Country, and the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Tribes, lately subjugated. There are about five hundred souls at the post. The nearest settlement, Caldwell, Kansas, is distant 110 miles. There are 32 children in the Sunday-School, 12 Communicants have received the Sacrament, 2 children have been baptized. The Evening Service, at which there is preaching, is well attended: that is, I am so assured, for an army post. The post schools were reopened September 6th. Three enlisted men are employed as teachers—one for the children's day-school, and the other two for the soldier's night-school.

Affectionately, your son in the Church,

JOHN S. SEIBOLD,
Post Chaplain U. S. Army.

CATAWBA, Oct. 6, 1886.

To Rt. Rev. A. C. Coxe, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York :

RT. REV. AND DEAR BISHOP,— Since the last Diocesan Council I have married one couple, officiated at one funeral, and on Sundays assisted the neighboring Clergy. Although the improvement in my health is not rapid, yet on the whole I find myself steadily outgrowing the nervous trouble which has indisposed me for so long a time. I have been urged several times of late to take work within reach of my home, at Catawba; but it seemed best to decline to do so at present, and for the reason that more services were expected of me than I felt equal to, and besides, if I waited to get my health more thoroughly established, my usefulness was more likely to be permanent.

With best wishes I remain, Right Rev. Father in God, your faithful son and servant in Christ,

WILLIAM CATTERSON.

Personal Reports.

HOBART COLLEGE, GENEVA, N. Y., Sept. 27, 1886.

A. Cleveland Coxe, D. D., Bishop of Western New-York, Buffalo, N. Y.:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR,—I have herewith the honor of submitting to you the official report of my duties as Chaplain of Hobart College for the Conventional year, ending Sept. 21, 1886. These duties have been fulfilled without interruption, and are as follows: Services in the College Chapel, Sundays, 7.30 and 9.30 A. M., with celebration of the Holy Communion each Sunday 7.30 P. M., with Sermon; week-days, 8.45 A. M. and 5 P. M., Wednesday and Saturday afternoons excepted. The College Catalogue contains the names of 66 students. Of these 50 are in affiliation with our own Communion, 46 have been confirmed, and 43 have communed at least once during the College-year. Two have been confirmed and one awaits confirmation. Holy Baptism has been twice administered in the College Chapel, of which this is the only report. I have not infrequently officiated in the neighborhood and elsewhere. In addition to these strictly clerical functions, I have also performed my regular duties in the College as "Instructor in Charge" of the departments of Mental Philosophy and Evidences.

I am, with sincere respect, your obedient servant,

W. M. HUGHES.

JOURNAL.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, BUFFALO,

TUESDAY, September 20, 1887, 9 A. M.

This being the day appointed for the Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York, the Bishop, Clergy and Laity met at the above time and place.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. S. R. Fuller, the Ven. Archdeacon M'Murray of the Diocese of Niagara, Ont., the Rev. Canon Murray of the Diocese of Nova Scotia, and the Rev. Dr. John W. Brown; after which the Bishop took the Chair and called the Council to order.

The Chair announced that on the decease of the Rev. Theodore M. Bishop, D. D., Secretary of the last Council, and of preceding Councils of the Diocese during the past seventeen years, the Rev. Charles W. Hayes had been appointed, under the provisions of the Constitution, Title Fifth, § V., as Secretary ad interim.

The Roll of the Clergy having been called, forty answered to their names, a number increased, by others reporting themselves later in the session, to fifty-nine present and entitled to seats.*

The certificates of Lay Delegates were referred to a Committee consisting of the Rev. Charles H. Smith, the Rev. A. Sidney Dealey, and the Secretary; on whose report the Roll was called, and thirty-six Delegates, representing twenty parishes, were found to be present. The whole number of Lay Delegates in attendance during this day's session was seventy-two, and the number of parishes represented, forty-five.†

IV. 15; the Rev. Archdeacon M'Murray, of the Diocese of Toronto, as Epistoler; the Rev. John W. Brown, D. D., the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck and the Rev. John Huske.

The Council resuming its session, the Chancellor of the Diocese moved that the Rev. Charles W. Hayes be unanimously elected Secretary. No other nomination being made, the ballot was dispensed with by unanimous consent, and the motion was carried.

The Bishop, on behalf of himself and Mrs. Coxe, invited the members of the Council to a reception at the See House this evening.

The Council then adjourned to meet in the Chapel of Trinity Church at three o'clock P. M.

mittee on De Veaux College, and the Report of the De Lancey Divinity School, all of which were ordered printed.*

The Rev. Dr. Windsor, from the Standing Committee on the Constitution and Canons, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Canons respectfully report that the following matters have been referred to them :

1. Adding to T. IV., Can. 2, § I., on the Registration of Communicants, a clause giving the right of appeal to the Ordinary when the name of a communicant is stricken from the list for any reason (Journ. 1886, p. 23).

2. Amending T. I., Can. 3, § I., to elect Deputies to the General Convention at the second Council preceding each General Convention, instead of the next preceding (Journ. 1886, p. 56).

3. Amending T. I., Can. 3, on the Registrar of the Diocese, by adding a section to require all Clergymen to report their Baptisms, Marriages and Burials to him for a Diocesan Record (Journ. 1885, p. 33, and 1886, p. 31).

4. Further Canonical provision in regard to Parish Limits and the organization of new Parishes (Journ. 1886, p. 59).

In the judgment of the Committee, the first and second of the above canonical provisions ought to be adopted, and the third and fourth are inexpedient.

They offer the following resolutions :

1. Resolved, That the following words be added to T. IV., Can. 2, § I.:

All cases of striking out a name from the Parish Register of Communicants, respecting which doubts may arise or objections be made by the parties interested, shall be referred to the Ordinary for his judgment, and his decision shall be final.

2. Resolved, That T. I., Can. 3, § I., be amended by substituting for the words "the annual meeting next," in the first line, the words, "its second annual meeting," so that the first clause of the Section shall read : "The Council shall at its second annual meeting preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect," etc.

3. Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from the consideration of the above proposed amendment to T. I., Can. 3, on the Registrar, and of the proposed legislation on Parish Limits and Organization.

CHARLES W. HAYES,
C. THEODORE SEIBT,
JAMES M. SMITH,
HERBERT P. BISSELL.

* See Appendix II., A, B.

On motion of Mr. Alfred Ely, the resolutions accompanying the above Report were adopted, and the Canons amended accordingly.*

The Council proceeded to the order of the day, the election of officers. The Chair appointed as Tellers:

For the Clerical Vote, The Rev. James H. Dennis, Mr. Edward Sheck.

For the Lay Vote, The Rev. A. P. Brush, Mr. Thomas Dennis.

Mr. Wm. H. Walker,

The Rev. Walter North,

Mr. E. S. Dann,

The Rev. Charles H. Smith,

Mr. Geo. Barker,

Mr. G. B. Worthington.

By like unanimous consent and without ballot, Mr. Henry P. Knowles was elected a Trustee of the Christmas Fund for three years;

Messrs. Thomas M'Blain and S. S. Graves, Trustees of the Parochial Fund for three years; and

Mr. C. Henry Amsden, Treasurer of the Diocese.

Dr. Brown, the subject was laid upon the table.

The Annual Report of the Diocesan Missionary Board was read by the Financial Secretary, Mr. D. M. Dewey.*

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Brown, the portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the Cathedral of the Diocese was referred to a Special Committee of five, to report at the next Council; and the Bishop appointed as such Committee, the Rev. * Appendix II., D.

The Rev. Eliphalet N. Potter, D. D., LL. D.; the Rev. Francis Lobdell, D. D.; the Rev. Warren W. Walsh, and Mr. B. F. Young.*

The Rev. C. W. Camp, from the Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, made the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, respectfully report:

They fully concur with the Report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese on De Veaux College,† except as hereinafter mentioned, and consider that what has been so ably set forth before you already, need not now be repeated.

Your Committee gladly take note of the statement of the Trustees‡ that "the erection of other buildings is absolutely necessary," because the absolute limit of accommodation for students in the present buildings has been reached. The Trustees further add:

"Recognizing this fact, the Alumni of the College have appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions for a new chapel, and the foundations of this building have already been laid and paid for with money already raised. When the new edifice shall be completed, the room now occupied as a chapel—which is much too small for its present use—can be converted into a dormitory that will afford accommodation for twenty boys. But the Alumni, though full of zeal for the work, are yet young and comparatively impecunious. Relying upon their efforts alone, it may be years before S. Ambrose's Chapel can be consecrated. A proper regard for the business interests of the College would seem to require that a portion of the twenty thousand dollars that have been added to the Endowment Fund during the last five years, should be devoted to the completion of this new structure: it would appear imperatively to demand that at least the net earnings of the Term Pupil Department should each year be set aside for this purpose." |

It is not necessary for your Committee to remind this Council that the Trustees have the power to follow the course foreshadowed in their Report. That they have not done what they believe proper and imperatively demanded, is only from a wish to hear from this Council such advice as its wisdom may have to offer. But, without discussion of some sort, without advancing theories, facts, arguments and perhaps prophecies, what opinion of any value can we have to offer to the Trustees, who are thoroughly familiar with the bearings of the case?

In our country, endowments are so rare, that when one is found in existence, the first impulse of conservative wisdom is to protect it, as one would protect a rare orchid in a green-house. Remembering the past, it is quite possible that the heroes of many a battle over De Veaux College may have their blood stirred at once by the mention of the words "Endowment Fund," and may be impelled to charge to its relief from a threatened attack. Your Committee acknowledge to have felt the same sentiment themselves, and gladly put on record their conviction that it is high time that dioceses and parishes should, in some way, seek to convince the members of the Church that bequests to corporations shall be kept sacredly, for the purposes intended by the testator, for all time, suffering no impairment through negligence or bad faith.

Were this done, and we think it could be done—if the present generation could be led to have faith in the generations to come, could public sentiment, and the law of the land, and the canons of the Church, be so united in this purpose as to make it comparatively impossible to divert funds left in trust to religious corporations, we believe that endowments of our institutions would be far more common than they are. In the case before us, we understand that there is no question of the impairment of the funds left by the honoured Samuel De Veaux. It is a question as to the investment of the profits of De Veaux College. It is no unusual thing for business men to use their profits in enlarging their mills or factories; why should it not be business-like and right to use the profits of the College to enlarge the College?

The question arises here, what do the Trustees mean by the expression, "a portion of the twenty thousand dollars that have been added," etc.? Inquiry has developed the fact that about ten thousand dollars from this source would suffice to put the authorities in possession of room sufficient to accommodate twenty additional students. If this ten thousand dollars were drawing six per cent. interest (which is not the case), its withdrawal would cause the loss of $600 annually in the item of interest. But its investment, as the Trustees suggest, would afford room for twenty students now knocking at the closed doors of De Veaux, who are ready to pay $400 per annum, each, or a sum total of $8,000, of which, largely understating probabilities, $2,000 would be profit. To re-state the question, then, the Trustees are now lending $10,000 for an annual profit of $600. They ask if you would approve their action in placing it where it would bring $2,000 profit.

But the Trustees do not consider De Veaux College merely as a money-making institution. They are also keenly alive to its value as an educational establishment and as an honour to this Diocese. They are moved by the consideration that forty applicants have been rejected during the year last past. They are anxious to be able to take twenty more students, to help twenty more aspirants for a higher and better life; they realize, perhaps, better than we do, that the childhood of De Veaux is rapidly passing away, and a lusty youth is clamouring for recognition, with enlarged views and enlarged demands.

All which is respectfully submitted.

C. W. CAMP,
A. P. BRUSH,
A. O. COMSTOCK,

Committee.

He also, on behalf of the same Committee, offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Council approves the plan of the Trustees of De Veaux College as set forth in their Report to this Council, to devote a portion of the twenty thousand dollars added to the Endowment Fund during the last five years, to the enlargement of the accommodations of the College, and refers the whole matter to them with power.

On motion of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, the above resolution was made the order of the day for half-past three o'clock this afternoon.*

The Rev. E. W. Worthington, from the Standing Committee on Beneficence and Works of Piety, presented the following

REPORT :

To the Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

Your Committee on Works of Charity and Beneficence respectfully call the attention of the Council to the following interesting facts:

Two lots have been given for a Mission Church in connection with S. James' Church, Buffalo; and also money to the amount of $1,500. The mortgage on S. James' Church, Buffalo, has been reduced $400, and several minor gifts of Church Furniture have been made to said Parish by Mrs. Charles B. Adams.

S. Mark's Church, Newark, has received $100 from the estate of the late Mrs. Lucy F. Williams, and the Ladies' Guild of that Parish have raised $250 toward the erection of a new rectory.

In Grace Church, Buffalo, an Easter offering of a pair of handsome brass altar vases was received in memoriam of a grandfather, W. A. B.

The following gifts have been made to Grace Church, Scottsville: an alms box for the vestibule; a surplice and stole, with embroidery for the same; purple and green altar hangings, chant books and music for the choir, and brass vases for the altar.

The Mission lately begun by the Rector of Trinity Church, Rochester, has received from Mr. Charles Burke, of Rochester, a fine building lot for the edifice which they hope to erect this autumn. This lot has been deeded to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund. It is valued at $2,000.

Christ Church, Pittsford, has received in memory of a deceased member, the late Mrs. Hargous, a very superior bell and town clock.

The following gifts have been received in S. John's, Canandaigua: Brass altar cross, receiving alms basin, and altar vases, all of which are in memoriam; also a white silk embroidered stole and brass altar desk.

* See p. 34, infra.

In S. Peter's, Geneva, an addition has been made to the Rectory, and a wing has been added to the chapel. An endowment fund for repairs on the Church building and bells has been begun by the gift of $500 from the widow, children and grandchildren of the late L. G. Townsend.

A Church edifice, valued at $3,500, has been secured for S. Luke's Parish, Fairport.

Subscriptions to the amount of $225 have been received for the purchase of a lot on which to erect a Church edifice in Attica.

New chancel windows, of exceptional value and merit, have been placed in S. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo, in memory of the late Dr. Shelton.

A hospital building valued at $1,500, the gift of Admiral Craven in memoriam, has been erected in Geneva, in connection with the Church Home.

In Trinity Church, Fredonia, a beautiful and costly brass mural tablet has been erected in memory of the late William Risley, for nearly forty years a Warden of said Parish.

New stained glass windows have been provided for S. Mark's Church, Hunt's Hollow.

The liberality of a generous layman of the diocese has enabled Grace Parish, Nunda, to re-roof its Church.

Christ Church, Rochester, has received a pair of solid silver vases for the altar, and to the Rector has been given a costly set of altar cloths, in memory of three beloved sisters.

A Parish building for social and Sunday School purposes is being erected in Grace Parish, Lockport, at an expense of $10,000, all of which has been subscribed. Miss Laura B. Skeels has given a solid and magnificent brass pulpit vase to the same Church.

A memorable work has been done in Wellsville, viz.: the recovery of the Church building, lost some years ago by the foreclosure of a mortgage. This has been accomplished mainly through the efforts of pious women, at an expense of about $2,400, which amount includes the cost of remodelling and repairs.

The building of the Ingersoll Memorial Church in Buffalo is now an accomplished fact, and calls for grateful mention. Provision was made in the will of the late Elam R. Jewett for the erection of this handsome and costly edifice. It is now approaching completion, and in the near future will be a centre of Church interest and activity, a fitting memorial to the worthy donor, as well as to the godly servant of Christ, in whose memory it is erected.

A mural tablet has been placed in S. John's Church, Rochester, in memory of its late Rector, the Rev J. A. Massey, D. D.

S. John's Church, Medina, has been furnished with brass alms receiver and carved altar desk; and has also received $200 toward the erection of a stone tower.

An addition to S. Mary's Church, Buffalo, is now in process of construction, at an estimated cost of $2,000.

We call especial attention to the fact that S. Stephen's Parish, Olean, has contributed the gratifying amount of $25,000 toward the erection of a new Church fabric.

Respectfully submitted,

E. W. WORTHINGTON,
JOHN H. BUCK,
DANIEL BEACH,

Committee.

The Council took a recess till three o'clock, P. M.

WEDNESDAY, 3 P. M.

The Council resumed its session.

The Rev. Dr. Doty, from the Standing Committee on the Reports of the Board of Education, and the Board of Diocesan Missions, made the following

REPORT:

Your Committee, to whom had been referred the Report of the Board of Education of the Diocese, respectfully report, that they have carefully reviewed the above-mentioned document, and find it in all respects satisfactory.

They have also had for their examination the Report of the Diocesan Missionary Board, and are gratified with the exhibit of the missionary work of the Diocese therein contained; and would respectfully call the attention of this Council to the vigorous measures which, during the past year, have been carried out by the Board in the extension of the kingdom of our Blessed Lord.

WM. D'ORVILLE DOTY,
GEORGE W. KNAPP;
JOHN LEWIS,

Committee.

The Rev. J. E. Goodhue, from the Standing Committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with the Council, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on the Admission of Churches into Union with the Council respectfully report:

That they have examined the application of certain residents of Canisteo, Steuben County, in this Diocese, to be received as an Organized Mission in accordance with T. I., Can. 13, of the Canons of the Diocese, under the name of "The Mission of the Holy Communion, Canisteo;" that the above application is in proper form and has had the canonical consent of the Bishop. We therefore recommend that the Council approve of the organization, as provided by T. I., C. 13, § I. (7), so that the mission may be entitled to representation by its Warden.

J. E. GOODHUE,
JOEL H. PRESCOTT,
THOMAS AGAR,
Committee.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the Council approve of the organization of the Mission of the Holy Communion, Canisteo.

The Rev. Dr. Anstice, from the Standing Committee on Finance, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Finance respectfully report :

There have been placed in their hands,

The Report of the Treasurer of the Council : *

The Report of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Christmas Fund : † and

The Report of the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund. ‡

These Reports have been duly examined and audited by Committees appointed by the Bishop, and found correct, as certified by them, except the Report first named, which has been duly audited by this Committee. The acceptance by the Council of these Reports is therefore recommended.

Your Committee would reiterate their recommendation of last year, that the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese be audited by a Committee to be appointed by the Bishop in advance of the meeting of the Council, as has been done in the case of the other Reports referred annually to this Committee; as the work can in that way be more efficiently and satisfactorily done, than during the session of the Council, by this Committee.

With regard to the Christmas Fund, your Committee find that the receipts for interest during the year amounted to $1,165.40, and from parishes to $1,289.12. in all $2,452.52. There was paid to beneficiaries, (including $200 disbursed by the Bishop,) the sum of $1,575, leaving a balance of $879.52. There seems to have been an excess of receipts over the preceding year, from interest, $233.40.

and from parishes, $32.05, in all $265.45 ; and the excess of receipts from all sources over the amount paid beneficiaries was, as above stated, $879 52.

All which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY ANSTICE,
J. J. LANDERS,
PETER RICHARDS,
ALFRED ELY,
Committee.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Anstice, the recommendations of the above report were adopted.

The Rev. A. Sidney Dealey, from the Standing Committee on Non-reporting Clergy and Parishes, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Non-reporting Clergy and Parishes respectfully report : That eight Parishes failed to make any report to the Bishop at the Council of 1886, viz.: S. Paul's, Angelica ; S. John's, Ellicottville ; Grace, Randolph ; S. John's, Buffalo ; Epiphany, Suspension Bridge (called "Ascension" in the Journal of the Council); S. Paul's, Allen's Hill; Redeemer, Addison, and S. John's, Dresden. Of these, four were non-reporting Parishes in 1885, viz.: S. John's, Ellicottville ; Grace, Randolph ; S. Paul's, Allen's Hill, and S. John's, Dresden. Some of these Parishes were without a Rector, but that would not seem to exonerate the Wardens from the duty of reporting the condition of their parishes to the Bishop. S. John's, Ellicottville, seems to be a chronic non-reporting parish, and it seems a pity that the Rector, who is said to be doing a good work there, should be so unwilling to let the Church know of it. The Church, too, would have been glad to see, in figures, the facts of the labours of the Rector of S. John's, Buffalo. No doubt this year atones well for the omission of the last.

The Rev. William A. Coale, from the Standing Committee on the General Theological Seminary and the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee, whose duty it is to report concerning the General Theological Seminary, beg to submit the following :

We are glad to learn, upon inquiry, that the present condition of the institution is prosperous; and this is, or ought to be, a source of great gratification to all the members of the Church in this country. It is very desirable that a sincere and deep interest should be felt and manifested in its behalf—an interest deeper and more sincere in any really practical way than would seem, in this Diocese at least, to have been manifested in the past.

As a seat of learning in the Church, moulding and directing, more or less, the theological thought of a large proportion of the consecrated and commissioned teachers of the Church, it has been no unimportant factor in the life of the Church, heretofore ; but with its present largely increased facilities, under the fostering management of its admirable Dean, the Rev. Dr. Hoffman, to whom it owes so very much in every way, and supported by the encouragement and practical aid of the members of the Church everywhere, which we sincerely trust may be accorded it more and more fully and heartily, henceforth it ought to be, and doubtless will be, a factor vastly more important still—most surely in the Eastern Dioceses of our land.

As indications of a reviving interest in the material welfare of the Seminary, we would call your attention to the following very gratifying facts:

In addition to the gift of a Deanery, costing $50,000; the fire-proof Library Building; and the new Chapel, costing $100,000, and now well-nigh completed—all of which were mentioned in the Report of the Committee on this subject in 1886—the sum of $40,000 has been given by Mr. Jarvis, a munificent Churchman of the city of Brooklyn, toward the erection of a structure much needed, which the Trustees have very properly determined to name Jarvis Hall ; the Library has been increased during the past year by the donation of valuable books to the number of 651 volumes ; and many important additions have been made to the really very valuable and interesting collection of portraits possessed by the Seminary.

As was truly said in the Report made to the last Diocesan Council : “ Such an institution as this is designed, and, if properly supported, well fitted to become a bond of union to the whole American Church.” That it is properly designed, we think there is no doubt; and we again earnestly express the hope that everywhere, by encouraging word, by sincere prayer, and by generous gift, it may not fail to receive a proper and liberal support.

Ambrose's Chapel.

The amendment being under discussion, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Anstice, the whole subject was laid upon the table.

The Rev. Dr. Windsor, from the Committee on Canons, reported in favor of the adoption of the Canon On Lay Readers, presented by the Bishop and referred to the Committee; and on his motion the Canon was adopted, as follows:

TITLE IV. CANON 4.

OF LAY READERS.

SECTION I. [1] A Communicant of this Church, being a layman of full age, may receive from the Bishop a written license, terminable at his discretion, or by act of the Ecclesiastical Authority, in case of a vacancy, to conduct the public worship of the Church, in a Congregation convened for public worship, as a Lay Reader; but such license shall not be granted for conducting the service in a Congregation without a Minister, which is able, and has had reasonable opportunity, to secure the services of an ordained Minister. Such license may be given by the Bishop, of his own motion, for service in any vacant Parish, Congregation, or Mission; but where a rector is in charge, his request and recommendation must have been previously signified to the Bishop. Such license shall continue in force for three years at least, unless otherwise provided in the written license, or unless it be at any time revoked by the Bishop himself.

[2] Any male Communicant of this Church, in good standing, may read the Book of Common Prayer, aloud, for the spiritual benefit of persons disposed to avail themselves of his aid in their devotions; but he must conform to all the prescriptions herein contained to govern the licensed Readers of the Church; and he must further conform to all the Canons which regulate the Ministers of the Church, as to parochial rights and those of Rectors and other Clergy in cure of souls.

*See p. 27, supra.

SEC. 2. A Lay Reader so licensed shall not act as such in any Diocese other than his own, unless he shall have received another license from the Bishop of the Diocese in which he desires to serve. If he be a student in any Theological Seminary, he shall also obtain the permission of the presiding officer of such institution.

SEC. 3. Every Lay Reader shall be subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Ecclesiastical Authority. In all matters relating to the conduct of the service, and to the Sermons or Homilies to be read, he shall conform to the directions of the Minister in charge of the Parish, Congregation, or Mission in which he is serving, or, where there is no Minister in charge, to the directions of the Bishop. He shall not use the Absolution, nor the Benediction, nor the Offices of the Church, except those for the Burial of the Dead, and for Visitation of the Sick, and of Prisoners, omitting in these last the Absolutions and Benedictions. He shall not deliver Sermons of his own composition; but he may deliver instructions as a Catechist in vacant Parishes, Congregations, or Missions, if he be specially licensed thereto by the Bishop. He shall not assume the dress appropriate to Clergymen ministering in the Congregation; but he may wear any academic costume to which he is entitled, or any gown appropriate to under-graduates in any college under the control of the Clergy and Laity of this Church.

SEC. 4. The Lay Reader, whether licensed under [1] § I., or reading under [2] § I., of this Canon, does not officiate, or minister in the Congregation, but simply aids the devotions and conducts the worship of the faithful, as the head of a family reads the offices of Family Prayer in his household.

Mr. Alfred Ely, in behalf of the Special Committee of the Diocesan Council of 1886 to report to the Joint Committee of the five Dioceses of New York, the action of that Council on the amendments proposed by the Joint Committee to the Act for the Incorporation of Parishes in the State of New York, (see Journal of 1886, pp. 46-51, 55,) moved that the whole subject be referred by this Council to the Federate Council of the Five Dioceses of the State of New York; and the motion was adopted unanimously.

The Rev. Dr. Rankine offered the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, It is well known that our revered Diocesan has now completed, amid all his varied and arduous labours, the important work of editing an American republication of the Edinburgh English translation of the ANTE-NICENE CHRISTIAN FATHERS, thus bringing these authors within the reach of all clergymen and of the general public; and

WHEREAS, At this time of generally awakened interest in a true basis of Church unity, and of increasing need of a knowledge how the Divine Revelation of Christianity was held at and from the beginning, the value of such knowledge cannot be too highly estimated ; therefore

Resolved, That the Diocese of Western New York, now represented in its Fiftieth Annual Council, places upon record its profound appreciation of the value of this great service rendered by its present Bishop to the cause of Christian truth ; and congratulates itself and him, that in the providence of God, he has been enabled to mark the first Jubilee of the Diocese by the consummation of a work so important for the defence of Christianity in its integrity and purity.

Mr. G. B. Worthington, from the Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, made the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, respectfully report as follows :

The Report submitted to them has been duly audited by the Committee appointed for that purpose by the Bishop. It shows that the securities consist at this time of

Mortgages.....	$34,903 33
Notes of Parishes.....	6,205 00
Railroad Bond.....	1,000 00
Cash in hand.....	283 45

Amounting to.....$42,391 78

There are also pledges of Parishes for the annual payment of $190.00.

The income for the past year is as follows :

Interest on Securities.....	$ 2,475 17
From Parishes on Assessments.....	2,760 22

Total.....$ 5,238 39

The expenditures were :

For the Bishop's Salary.....	$ 5 000 00
For taxes on the See House.....	403 98

Total.....$ 5,403 98

Making a deficit for the year of.....165 59

There is also due the Treasurer for amount advanced the previous year.....583 52

Making now due the Treasurer.....$ 749 11

This deficit arises entirely from the failure of Parishes to meet their assessments for the Bishop's salary; the annual amount of these assessments being.....$ 3,776 00
While the amount received from Parishes during the past year is.... 2,760 22
And the unpaid assessments for the year amount to..... ..$ 1,015 78

Your Committee most earnestly call the attention of parishes in arrears to the necessity of their paying their arrearages without delay, and to the desirability of their promptly meeting their assessments in the future, as they fall due.

Your Committee notice with regret that no part of the money advanced by the Treasurer last year has been made up, but that, on the contrary, the amount due him has been increased, and is now $749.11. We recommend to the Council that the Diocesan Treasurer be requested to notify all parishes in arrears for last year's assessment, of the amount due from them. We further recommend that the Diocesan Treasurer furnish, with his Annual Report, a list of all parishes which have not met their obligation to this Fund.

Your Committee deeply regret to find that no additions have been made during the past year to the important Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, and would urge upon the Diocese the necessity and duty of increasing this Fund by means of donations and legacies.

On motion of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, it was ordered that the list of delinquent Parishes for assessments for the support of the Episcopate, and for Diocesan Expenses, be appended to the Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and printed in the Journal.†

The Rev. Dr. Hitchcock, from the Special Committee on the portion of the Bishop's Address relating to Deceased Members of the Council (see p. 33 above), made the following

REPORT:

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to members of the Council deceased during the past year, beg leave respectfully to report, that after the most beautiful and tender language in which the life, the work, and the character of each of those severally were spoken of by the Bishop, they feel that to add anything to those words, in the limited time at their disposal, and with the means of information at their command, would be impossible, and after such a tribute, unnecessary.

To the long and ever increasing list of the faithful dead, who have laboured in their several spheres and stations in this Diocese, none have been added more worthy of commemoration than those of the past year.

For faithfulness, earnestness and devotion, we may each of us, in his own special position in the Church, find examples worthy of emulation ; and we can none of us ask for higher commendation when our life's work is ended, than we believe can be fairly said of those recently called from earth to the rest of Paradise, " FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH."

Committee.

The Rev. L. B. Van Dyck moved that the Treasurer of the Diocese be directed to pay to the widow of the Rev. Theodore M. Bishop, D. D., his full salary as Secretary of the Council to the end of the Diocesan year, September 1, 1887. The motion was adopted unanimously by a rising vote.

The attention of the Council was called by the Secretary to the fact that the Feast of All Saints, 1888, would be the completion of Fifty Years since the organization of the Diocese of Western New York ; and on his motion, a Committee of three clergymen and three laymen was appointed to act with the Bishop in making arrangements for the suitable commemoration next year, of our first Half Century as a Diocese.

The Bishop appointed as such Committee,

The Rev. Charles W. Hayes,	Mr. James M. Smith,
The Rev. James Rankine, D. D.,	Mr. Alexander L. Chew,
The Rev. Henry W. Nelson, Jr.,	Mr. Davis L. Stacey.

The Rev. Leonard W. Richardson, from the Special Committee on the portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the Diocesan Colleges,* made the following

The Report of the Deanery of Geneva was read by the Rev. L. W. Richardson, Secretary.

The above reports were received and placed on file, and brief addresses on their statements and suggestions were made by the Bishop and other members of the Council.

The Secretary, on behalf of the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, reported that the only such business before the Council was: First, the report of the Special Committee appointed by the Council of 1886, to obtain legislative authority for a bond to be given by the Treasurer of the Diocese (see Journ. 1886, p. 56); and second, the amendment proposed to T. I., C. 6, on Diocesan Expenses, and referred to the Committee on Canons (see p. 33 above).

Mr. Alfred Ely, from the Special Committee on Legislative Action in regard to the Treasurer's Bond, reported no action thereon as yet. The report was accepted, and the Committee continued to report to the next Council.

The Rev. Dr. Rankine moved that the Diocese undertake to raise for Diocesan Missions this year, the same amount as was voted last year, six thousand dollars, of which sum one thousand dollars should be devoted to aggressive work under the direction of the Bishop. The motion was adopted.

On motion of the same, the Standing Committee of the Diocese were authorized to place the American Church Building Fund on the list of Canonical Collections for the present year.

The Rev. Canon Murray, of the Diocese of Nova Scotia, took leave of the Council in a brief address, to which the Bishop responded in behalf of the Council.

The following resolutions were offered by the Rev. E. W. Worthington, and adopted unanimously :

The Council then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the usual devotions.

The Bishop briefly addressed the members in farewell, and after uniting with him in the Doxology, and in appropriate Collects, and receiving his Benediction, the Council adjourned sine die.

APPENDIX I.

William Cleveland Cape D.D. THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

TO THE FIFTIETH COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE.

My Reverend Brethren, and Brethren of the Laity:

The first thought of every one when we gathered this morning was, no doubt, suggested by the absence of the manly figure and the familiar voice of our late Secretary. To him has been committed, for many years, the first duty of our sessions; he called the roll of his brethren, and informed the Chair when a quorum was secured. Year after year the first vote of the quorum has called him with unanimity to this honourable office. Successive volumes of your Journal attest his labours and his eminent qualifications for the work. I rejoice that I was able to summon to the vacant post my Reverend brother who had so faithfully seconded his efforts, and whose claims to be his successor have been recognized by your election accordingly.

THE REV. DR. BISHOP.

I shall ask for a committee to record your testimony to the character and eminent worth of Dr. Bishop. He was a man of learning as well as of true godliness, and has served the Church with success as well as diligence in divers places. I counted him among my intimate friends, as one on whose honour and rectitude I could rely, and who was ever prompt to aid me in my annual work of preparing for our Councils and publishing our Journals. He loved the Church because he loved Christ, and because he recognized the Church as Christ's own creation by the Holy Spirit. In this the Catholic spirit is distinguished from the spirit of sect that clings to some man-made system and glorifies a human master. He could not be a sectarian. I believe all who knew him will accept my testimony, however, that he was not a Catholic with any of that spirit which is equivalent to sectarianism ; the spirit that "despises others" and magnifies one's own merits. He loved all good men, and delighted to honour and imitate their good works, instinctively carrying out the Master's precept, when He taught the priest and Levite by the example of a Samaritan, and said go and "do likewise."

THE REV. CYRUS PECK LEE.

With this tribute to a most worthy presbyter, I must couple another to a most worthy deacon. In divers offices and labours of public trust, he had led a most useful life, and was eminent among us for the success and fidelity with which he had built up one of our largest monetary corporations. At the same time he had been a faithful lay-helper in his parochial and diocesan relations to the Church. I called him to the work of a licensed lay-reader, and gave him a mission to Lancaster, where he was well known and received a cordial welcome. His devotion to the duties he thus assumed was remarkable. They received no financial reward. He desired none. Summer and winter he went out to his Sunday work with a zealous self-sacrifice which even in a young man would have been remarkable ; but he was advanced in years at the time. Suffice to say, the church at Lancaster, built under his missionary superintendence and liberally helped by his purse, is a monument of his life. This work was crowned with such tokens of the Divine blessing that after years of probation, in which he searched and examined himself most conscientiously and made due preparation, I admitted him to the Diaconate. I regarded his position in a Savings Bank as no impediment, for the guardianship of the poor in their temporal concerns is part of a Deacon's work. He adorned his office, and served the Church as a missionary with marked success. In reading the service he was an example of dignity and of admirable elocution. He exercised the office of Deacon with primitive simplicity, and his occasional sermons were heard with interest. Greatly do I feel the loss of such a man, and you will not forget to respond to my words.

On the eighty-eighth page of our last year's Journal you will find data concerning the life of our beloved brother, the late Dr. Massey, such as every clergyman of the Diocese is required by Canon to supply to our Registrar, of his own antecedents. Why is not this requisition more fully complied with? Will my reverend brethren see that at least such details, each in his own case, are filed with our Registrar? For lack of such an outline last year, in the case of our deceased brother, who was probably too modest to think it of any consequence, there was no material for the Committee when I desired to draught a tribute to his memory.

DEPARTED LAITY.

When I come to the thought of the prominent men and women we have lost during the past year, my spirit sinks within me. It has been a year very fatal to our laity, and I have asked for special notices, from the clergy, of the losses which have fallen so heavily upon their parishes. These shall appear in our Journal; but, here in the city of Buffalo, there is an obvious propriety which calls for the mention of two names long identified with every interest of the Church among us, and, at the same time, sustaining relations with the whole Diocese. The late Thomas F. Rochester was the honoured son-in-law of our own beloved Bishop De Lancey, and is survived by his wife, the daughter of that eminent prelate, to whom, with her afflicted household, I tender in your name and behalf the profoundest sympathy. Cut off, somewhat prematurely, while yet discharging his varied duties as a practitioner and as the Dean of our Medical Faculty in Buffalo, where he was distinguished as a professor in a college to the creation and development of which he largely contributed, his loss has been felt and his worth attested by the whole community with a spontaneity and cordiality of tribute very rarely elicited. He was a faithful son of the Church, and his purse was never closed when her welfare invoked his aid. I owe him personal obligations for his frequent ministrations to me and to my family, as a most able physician, and under God, I doubt not that I owe to his skill my prolonged ability to labour in your service, in spite of sharp and serious attacks which from time to time have menaced my soundness of body, if not, also, my life. May his memory and example never cease to be cherished among us.

You anticipate me when I turn to the name of Mrs. James Murdock Smith, whose death has fallen so heavily upon the house and home of the Chancellor of the Diocese. That eminent jurist, who has lately retired from the bench which he signally adorned, and to whom your Bishop and the whole Diocese owe so large a debt of gratitude for professional services constantly rendered without fee or reward, had decided upon an extended tour in Europe, as due alike to his own need of rest and to the impaired health of his beloved wife. A happy family party, we saw them set forth on their journey, cheered by the good wishes of the whole city and followed by many prayers of the Church. But in a few weeks the lifeless form of the wife and mother was brought home by heart-stricken survivors, and it was my sad duty to share in the solemnities of her burial. Long will she be remembered by her fellow-Christians here as one who nobly bore her part in every effort of Christian charity and beneficence, and who was endeared to the inner circle of her more intimate friends by those graces of true womanhood which shrink from publicity, and court only the hearts and the homage of those whom God has made the immediate partakers of its love in the sphere of private duty.

The Hon. Benjamin Pringle, for more than forty years a Vestryman of S. James' Church, Batavia, representing it often in our Council, and contributing largely to the interests of the Church in the Diocese by his wise counsels and earnest spirit, had lately removed to Hastings, Minn., where he entered into rest in June last, in a ripe old age. His life and his memory belong to this Diocese.

Miss Nancy M. Stanley entered into rest at Phelps, the home of her childhood, on the twenty-third of October last, after a long life given most unselfishly, faithfully and successfully to the work of Christian Education; at first in Canandaigua, then in New York, and finally, for thirty years, as Vice-Principal of S. Mary's Hall, Burlington. It has been truly said of her, that she and her noble fame belong to the Church at large; but she should be especially and gratefully remembered by the Diocese in which her earliest and latest years were spent, and with which she always identified herself.

Among others most worthy of eulogy, were my time less restricted, special considerations induce me to name Theodore Hinsdale Whittlesey, who, as a Warden and Lay-reader in the Church at Dunkirk, so long proved himself a son and servant of Christ, and Nicholas L. Somers, who, for fifty years as a resident of Corning, has advanced, by his character and good works, the Parish which he helped to found, and of which he was chosen on the first Vestry, in 1841. With this name, I must not fail to connect those of companions and friends in the same Parish, David Curtis and Zerah Todd, and now, as more recently departed, of Mrs. Todd, who was a most liberal giver and a consistent Christian. You will recall the exceptional history of the Church at Scottsville, as reported to the Council last year,* and the munificent gifts to the same of Major Brown, whose public life is so generally known in this State. I grieve to say that his life and works came to an end in January last.

* See Journal, pp. 41-42.

He has been greatly lamented, and most worthily commemorated in many tributes to his memory.

DEPARTED BISHOPS.

Five of our Bishops, as you know, have fallen asleep since the Council at Chicago. The meek and saintly Green of Mississippi, the justly venerated Potter of New York, the holy Presiding Bishop Lee of Delaware, the able and popular Stevens of Pennsylvania, and now, in his comparative youth, the pure and lovely Elliott of Texas. What a list of worthies; what varied characters; what useful lives; what pious examples! It is a glory to any Church, that she has had such bishops and has given them back to God, to shine as the stars forever. Let us emulate their excellencies, and in the great and responsible duty of choosing the future bishops of this Church, may she ever be guided to the choice of men not less conspicuous for piety and devotion to their work, and equally qualified by attainments in sound learning to be guides and teachers of the flock of Christ.

I wish time were allowed me to add a proper tribute to each of these honoured names, but, though my relations with the others were longer and more intimate, I cannot deny myself the privilege of paying a special testimony to the worth and character of Bishop Elliott, because he was less known in this part of the country, and because, as a missionary bishop, he was a hero, and in spirit a martyr. During the past two years he honoured me by a correspondence which opened to me new views of his inner life and fervent piety, and which are evidence of zeal for his flock and tenderness towards his clergy, the most disinterested and exemplary. When the Bishops at Chicago urged him to spare himself and take a vacation in Europe, as a remedy for his premature decline, he expressed his gratitude, but at the same time refused such advice. He was content to die at the post of duty. He was subsequently prevailed upon, however, to obey his physician and spend the winter in Europe, thanks to a noble layman who volunteered to meet the expenses of the voyage, and who thus testified to the Church and to the people of his jurisdiction his sense of what the whole Church owes to such an apostolic missionary. It was too late. His work was done, and he rests from his labours. Brethren, we call such men to do our work, and when they fall in the high places of the field, the question we ought to take home to our consciences is a serious one: How have we sustained them? Were they daily remembered in our prayers? Did our hands attest the sincerity of our intercessions? In the last and great account, shall it be said to us that by our interest in such labourers, we, also, have had part in their efforts, and shall not fail of a share in their reward? That a single Christian among us should pass a year of his life without contributing to the missionary cause in some due proportion to his means, is a scandal that turns into a mockery his every recital of the petition "Thy Kingdom come."

WORK OF THE YEAR.

It would be gratifying to my heart to enlarge my tributes of esteem and regret to the departed faithful, but I must proceed to the more practical matters which demand the consideration of the Council. My visitations in the Diocese have been continued with only transient intermissions up to the beginning of this week, and when I have been absent from my immediate sphere of duty, it has never been without reference to public as well as private duties elsewhere. I was able to attend the sessions of the General Convention in Chicago, last autumn, and on my homeward journey I began my course of lectures on the "Baldwin Foundation," at Ann Arbor, in the service of the "Hobart Guild," in the University of Michigan. I was called to the task by the partiality and friendship of the Bishop of Michigan, and had the honour of being the first "Baldwin lecturer." I shall be succeeded, I trust, by many abler and better men, as time goes on, year after year, in furtherance of the admirable plan of the Bishop, seconded by the munificence of the distinguished layman whose name is perpetuated by the Bishop's gratitude in connection with the series. Thank God that the Hulsean and Bampton foundations of the Church of England are beginning to be imitated by the beneficence of our own affluent laity. I venture to invite your attention to my own contribution, in a volume which will soon be published, and which I call "Institutes of Christian History." It contains my eight lectures, three of which I have since delivered in Hobart College. I do not affect to conceal my desire that this work should become familiar to the clergy and laity of my own Diocese; for it was suggested by wants universally known to intelligent Christians, who keenly feel their share in that prevalent ignorance of historical Christianity, out of which spring all the disorders of Christendom, and which is the chief support on which the frauds of the Papacy rely for their perpetuation. Whether I have succeeded in reducing to a reasonable outline all that is requisite to clear ideas on such subjects, you only can decide for yourselves. But, while I thus confess my desire to meet the mind of my own flock, and to make our people masters of historic truth, my apology for mentioning the work here is something different. I wish you to read in it the plan and project of Bishop Harris, and to observe their original features as applicable to the great schools and colleges of the land. The "deed of trust" by which Gov. Baldwin founded this Lectureship is given entire, and is worthy of all imitation. When I observe the senseless waste of treasure upon dreary monuments in our "cemeteries," and think what desirable memorials might have been erected, by the same expenditure, guided by such wisdom as is here conspicuous, I cannot but wonder that even the most selfish of men are not guided by common sense to commemorate themselves in this less ignoble way. The only Christian method, however, is to do the same thing unselfishly, as I am convinced Gov. Baldwin has done. The rest may be left to the Lord :

“ Renown the meed, but self-applause the aim.”

OUR VISITORS.

This Fiftieth Council of the Diocese is honoured by the presence of the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Niagara, and by the loving counsels imparted to us in his sermon. With him we are also favoured by the visits of two dignitaries of the Canadian Church, the Ven. Archdeacon M'Murray of Niagara, and the Rev. Canon Murray of the Diocese of Nova Scotia. I thank them for the part they have borne in the solemnities of the day, and I am glad that you have expressed your gratification by inviting them to honorary seats. I am sorry that they, and that you, see our beautiful city under some disadvantages. Never have I seen it so disfigured, everywhere, by streets uptorn and unswept. But I hold that, in spite of these culpable tokens of somebody's neglect, it is a very pleasant city to explore. I am anxious that our visitors should see the Park, our belt of boulevards and the avenues. But more especially, I trust that every visitor who drives through the Park will ask for the chapel which stands hard by it on “the Jewett Farm,” where, by the private munificence of the late E. R. Jewett, and that of his family, it has been erected as a memorial of our beloved Dr. Ingersoll. It must be an object of great interest to all who hear me. It will specially gratify us, I am sure, if our eminent visitors, before we adjourn, should find themselves disposed to say something to us about our sister Church.

DIOCESAN MATTERS.

Reduced to a brief statistical table, my work of the past Diocesan year is thus summed up :

Confirmed.....	1,247
Pastoral visitations.....	58

Academic visitations	18
Churches consecrated	2
Opened or restored fabrics.....	5
Corner-stones laid.....	4
Convocations and Clergy meetings.....	13
Clergy transferred.....	4
Clergy received.....	7

The number of our clergy is 106, and two have departed this life. I have delivered lectures in Hobart College and the Divinity School, besides similar work elsewhere, which I have already mentioned. And I have constantly ministered and preached for my brethren, and in vacant parishes, in addition to the work of my official visitations. I was able to attend the General Convention in October last, and to partake actively in its important work. At the funeral of my former Diocesan I was called to officiate as the senior Bishop of the five dioceses in the State of New York, and pronounced the committal over his venerable remains.

MISSION WORK.

The Missionary statistics which will come before you in the report of your board demand especial attention. You will see that much has been effected, with very insufficient means. I am happy to say that in opening fresh fields, and going into "next towns," considerable voluntary work has been done by parish clergymen, in connection, generally, with abundant labours among their own flocks. I reserve further remarks till another hour, but would here express my sense of obligation to the "Woman's Auxiliary," which continues to render efficient aid to the general missionary work of the Church in the home and foreign field. I have met with it whenever I could, and have observed, as a secondary benefit of these meetings, that it greatly promotes our local work as well. Christian women in various parts of the Diocese become acquainted with one another, and learn to take an interest in the affairs of parishes other than their own, and to promote their welfare.

EDUCATIONAL INTERESTS.

The educational interests of the Diocese were never in so flourishing a condition. In this city, a very precious institution is S. Margaret's School, duly incorporated, and now in its fourth year of successful operation. I can sincerely say that I know of no school in New York to which I should prefer to entrust the education of a daughter. The very able and efficient principal, Miss White, bears the honoured name of the Rev. Dr. J. C. White, her venerable father, whose fifty years of ministration as a faithful Presbyterian of the Church have lately been appropriately celebrated in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Her staff of instructors is large, and consists of accomplished ladies, with whom it is delightful to spend an hour, occasionally, while they are engaged in their daily tasks of instruction. I must be allowed to add a word of commendation for the private school of the Misses Bridge in Geneva. Though not an incorporated institution of the Diocese, it is yet a very useful and valuable adjunct of our educational forces. What I have said of S. Margaret's I can truly apply to the "De Lancey School" in Geneva, though proportionally of course, for private schools, though often preferable in special cases for the education of girls, do not aim to compete with institutions endowed and worked under an efficient and zealous corporation. In this school, at Geneva, will be found a worthy counterpart of S. Margaret's, each adorning one of the foci of my jurisdiction.

The Cary School, at Oakfield, continues its unostentatious but useful work, under the care of Mr. Reginald Coe, and the erection of a parish church, nearly contiguous to its site, adds greatly to its promise of future development, as well as to the means of grace afforded to its pupils.

THE COLLEGES.

It is most gratifying to me that I can now direct attention to the fact that the aspirations of my heart, and some of the heaviest labours of my Episcopate, are in a fair way to be crowned with a realization of their great object. It was my duty at an early period of my work in this Diocese to point out to you the importance of De Veaux College and Hobart College as affording opportunities for development in mutual relations; the former preparing youth for the latter; the one giving careful instruction up to the point where a boy is ready for college, the other completing his classical or scientific education, and enabling him to pursue a professional course in any American or foreign university of high character, or in any polytechnic or specialist seminary here. The points now reached are as follows: It is conceded that the purposes of Judge De Veaux cannot be realized, except on the plan of admitting pay-pupils with the foundationers; the former by their fees will sustain the entire expense of a full corps of instructors, the latter will receive the entire income of the Judge's bequest. If, then, the pay-pupils can be multiplied to at least a hundred in number, it is obvious from actual experiment, which will be duly reported to you, that the number of foundationers can be increased proportionally. There is no reason why a hundred foundationers should not be sustained at De Veaux, if only the merits of the school can be raised so high as to insure the popular support, in like degree as it is now given to several schools at the East. Mr. Munro is successfully engineering the school in all its departments, and we owe to him a tribute of gratitude for giving to the financial problem his devoted attention, and for solving it most satisfactorily.

HOBART COLLEGE.

Hobart College is now adorned with such a Faculty of Arts, under its admirable president, as enables it to give an education which, save in exceptional cases, even our older and higher colleges fail to afford, because of the system of tutorship which so largely obtains in them, and the consequent estrangement of students and professors. This praise is due to Hobart, but not so eminently in its scientific departments. These are not properly endowed, and young men aiming to be proficient in chemistry, and other sciences preparatory to a scientific career, can only make a beginning with us. To say that we could profitably use half a million of dollars, and that if we had such an endowment we could present claims to the further munificence of our countrymen, is a mere truism. But I invoke aid in the building up of a library and in the endowment of scientific chairs; these are our immediate wants. The Rev. J. P. Foster has been appointed to solicit funds for these objects. We have another great necessity, which makes itself sorely felt. The older universities are now able to pay young men for coming to their halls, so liberal are their endowments. We have few scholarships of this kind, and hence young men of small means must turn to other colleges, even when anxious to be enrolled in ours. I see no prospect of large increase in our numbers, therefore, until this difficulty is overcome, unless, indeed, rich men shall wisely prefer this college for their sons, as a resource against the extravagance and vice into which so many of our wealthy young men are initiated elsewhere.

Now, to bring these twin institutions of the Diocese into complete working order and harmonious relations, I ask, would it not be well to draw together the authorities and educational bodies of each so as to produce a thorough understanding between them, and to develop unity of plan and of co-operation? I add no more on this point. I have recently laid the corner-stone of a chapel on the grounds of De Veaux, which the alumni have undertaken to erect. It is pleasing that the alumni begin to be sufficiently numerous and successful in various callings to gratify their honourable interest in their Alma Mater by such effort. Might it not be well now and then to choose an alumnus into the Board of Trustees?

I am happy to say that the De Lancey Divinity School is now rendering efficient service to the Diocese, and begins to be appreciated by the Bishops of other Dioceses as a very useful resource for the preparation of candidates turning from secular pursuits to the work of evangelists, or of another increasing class which comes to us from the ministry of our fellow-Christians.

DEACONESSES.

I rejoice to add that we have now three Deaconesses in Buffalo, two of the Sisterhood being in charge of our Church Home, as heretofore. These have long been identified with our work and service, but their aid was borrowed from the Diocese of Long Island. My esteemed brother of that Diocese has kindly transferred them to my jurisdiction, and I trust this most useful order will now begin to grow. In point of fact, we have perhaps a hundred Christian women who do the work of Deaconesses. The Church Homes in Rochester and Geneva are admirably furnished with intra-mural and outside helpers of this description. But it has not been easy for me, without means, to organize an educational house, and to invite into it candidates for life-long professional devotion to the work in its several departments, according to the project which is embodied in one of your Diocesan Canons. I pray for the fuller fruits as time goes on, and I look for them as sure to follow by the blessing of God. The names of our Deaconesses shall be placed in the Journal of this year, and God grant that the list may grow. To the Diocesan Canon respecting this order of Christian women I ask you to refer, and the clergy will perform a duty to the Church, in my opinion, by reading it to their congregations, and expounding woman's work and duty with reference to it.

LEGISLATION.

Let me ask your attention to the results of the conferences on legislation, of which you know something from our last year's proceedings. I am afraid that a unanimous monument, indeed, worthy of the most endeared or the most honoured of our race.

LAY-READERS.

For years I have wished to see the policy of the Canons, touching Lay-readers, absolutely reversed. It now discourages the multiplication of such workers and their function in the Church. I would see the exceptional turned into the usual, and would promote lay-effort of this kind in every Church-like way. A Canon which I laid before the Bishops, at Chicago, failed to secure a timely report and was laid over for further consideration; but I cannot wait, and perhaps for our local needs it will answer just as well if considered by you at this Council and made into a Canon of the Diocese.*

THE LATE GENERAL CONVENTION.

The General Convention which met in Chicago, in October last, has been so freely and fully discussed in other places that I feel no disposition to enlarge upon the subject, save in one or two points, just now. The words of the Bishops on the subject of Christian unity, I think, were timely, and I have been touched by the predominance of a truly Christian tone and sentiment in what has been said on the subject in response to our appeal by our brethren to whom it was addressed. By the favour and blessing of God it may awaken inquiry, but in the nature of things the results cannot be immediate.

* I quote from the local organ of the Bishop of Indiana, as follows: "The Diocese of Indiana has between thirty and forty Lay-readers. They should be a great help to their respective Clergy in aiding them in mission and outlying services, in organizing mission Sunday Schools, in visits and services at poor-houses, jails and infirmaries. Every Parish and every Clergyman should have its outlying missions and Sunday Schools. The subject of lay work and lay co-operation is receiving a good deal of consideration from the Clergy. Mr. William Cornwall of Kentucky, and Judge Stotsenberg, of our own Diocese, have written wisely and well upon the subject. We trust the Committee on Lay Work, appointed at our last Convention, will give the subject careful thought and attention, in view of the great needs of our own Diocese, and will evolve some plan that shall interest the Laity in Church work to a far greater degree than has yet been done."

A FINANCIAL SYSTEM PROPOSED.

I was very sorry that "the Enrollment Plan" of providing a substantial base for Missionary finance received such meagre attention. It is the first earnest effort of our Laity to put Church finances upon a "business foundation." Why should every club and debating society in the land impress its monetary interests on every one of its members, making them understand "their dues" and pay them, while this great American Church is either too weak or too indolent to do as much for her work, in the name of Christ, her Master? I like this good beginning. It is the harbinger, I trust, of a competent financial system so essential to the Church in its present position. It has the healthy characteristic of originating with the Laity; it realizes the Anglo-Saxon idea that "money bills" pertain to the "faithful commons" for inception and for practical results. I have felt a great interest in this movement from the first moment of its proposal, but I felt it prudent and becoming to wait for the action of older and wealthier dioceses before deciding to bring it before my own. I wish you would now take it up and consider what may be our duty with respect to it.

COURTS OF APPEAL.

The attempt to establish an Appellate Court defeated itself by the absurdities which it evoked, and by the utterly conflicting theories on which the scheme was sustained. The discussion demonstrated the ruinous consequences which must result from picking up the coals of a local fire and scattering them over the whole Church. In very rare cases it is possible that injustice may be done by a Diocesan Court, but where the Canons of this Diocese, or their equivalents, are in operation, it is hardly conceivable that an innocent man should be a sufferer. Every motive protects him, and the provisions are all framed to secure the utmost prudence, even in dealing with the most criminal. It is not the innocent, but the intolerably wicked or the unutterably offensive convict, who would be sure to appeal, and the noisy and perpetual clamours of a single character of this sort would make the whole Church sick of "Appellate Courts," and as glad to get rid of them as some are now eager to see them established. Good men do not need them. They do not distrust their brethren, nor doubt that the love of God is singularly manifest in the protection of His faithful servants who strive to keep a conscience void of offence toward God and toward men.

OUR CIVIL NAME.

As you are aware, there was a proposal to change the civil name, which, with meek respect to our equal laws a hundred years ago, this Church accepted; previously it was known as "the Church of England," in the American colonies. Now it is justly objected that this name is neither historic nor descriptive; it seems to conflict with the language of the Creed, though it does not in fact; it conveys wrong impressions to foreign Churches and peoples, among whom "Protestant" is a word covering ideas to which every page of the Prayer Book is opposed; and it deprives us of the use of the Prayer Book as a tract, just where it is most likely to be useful. Thousands of our foreign population would gladly accept it and study it, but the word "Protestant" on the title page (where, by the way, it is unauthorized by the act of "Ratification") is a bugbear, which leads them to throw it down, unexamined. In our prisons and hospitals this is artfully made to operate against us. It is said, "You see it is a Protestant book; don't look at it." All this is urged, I admit very forcibly, against the feeble title "Protestant Episcopal." I call it feeble because a protest is the last resource of an unsuccessful cause. Men enter a protest when they give up a case they are not able to maintain. Also, because it has "lost its savour," if ever it had "salt in itself." In our days "Protestant" means nothing in particular. In Europe it means, too commonly, one who protests against the Bible itself. In America it describes great masses of indifferent people, who have not spirit enough to protest against anything. If the Pontiff should announce, as a special proof of his interest in our Republic, his intention to establish the Inquisition among us, I have no doubt thousands of nominal "Protestants" would hail it as evidence of his enlightened devotion to Republican institutions. Our political parties would probably vie, one with another, to be the earliest in the field with a bill to make it a feature of the "reformatories," and to lend the secular arm to the enforcement of its penalties. If things go on as they are now in daily progress, sapping our political, educational and religious systems, I suspect Protestants, in due time, may be treated to all the blessings of a Papal interdict, but I doubt whether even this would find vertebrate statesmen among us to venture a protest; certainly not in a year of presidential nominations or elections.

MY OBJECTIONS.

Notwithstanding, I have earnestly objected to the proposed change of name as singularly inopportune. We should wait for some event which might be recognized as Providentially calling for such a revise, and even as forcing it upon us. An "old Catholic" movement is not improbable, but may be looked for in a near future, especially if Jesuit and Ultramontane theories are forced upon those Roman Catholics who are resolved to be American citizens in good faith. When this shall come about, by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, it will be time enough, in my opinion, to discuss the proper name for our enlarged Catholic Communion. Meantime, as I have said, no Catholic principle is invaded by the local name of a local church. No portion of the Church has refused to sanction this idea as a measure of expediency. The Eastern or mother churches of Christendom all confess the "Catholic and Apostolic Church" of the Creeds, but have local names, as, e. g., "the Orthodox

Russian Church," "the Holy Orthodox Church," of Greece, or Syria, etc., for their divers autonomies. And surely the "Roman Catholic" Church furnishes us no exception, with its awkward identification of locality with universality. Even about this there is a stubborn disputation between the Gallicans and the Ultramontanists, the latter always asserting themselves in the formula "the Catholic Apostolic Roman Church," while the former insist upon inserting a conjunction, so that it reads in all French law and documents "the Catholic Apostolic and Roman Church." This little word is the hinge of the great truth, that Catholic and Apostolic Churches exist which are not "Roman." Hence it is odious at the Court of Rome. But further, the Roman Catholics of the East call themselves "Uniat Armenians," "Uniat Greeks," and the like. They are even known as "Melchites" in Syria, while on the Libanus they call themselves "Maronites," after one "Maro," said to be as much a heretic as Luther himself. All this being true, why need we reproach ourselves, and who else can reproach us, because of our local name? Ah, my brethren, if we would only study the Holy Scriptures more and love them better, and if only we would be more true to Primitive Catholicity, frowning down Mediævalism and all its senseless fopperies, as foreign to the very nature of Catholicity, we should do more good, command more universal respect, and enjoy more contentedly the inestimable blessings which were restored to us by the Anglican Reformation. Anxious to promote these ideas, I have asked you to read my "Institutes of Christian History," which covers the whole ground in outline, and enables even a young pastor to instruct classes, very readily, in matters heretofore confined to theological seminaries. And so I drop the subject for the present. Men may call me what they please, but my position is best expressed in the words of one of the most genuine Catholics that ever lived, the holy Bishop Ken. "As for my religion," he says in his last will, "I die in the Holy Catholic and Apostolic Faith as professed by the whole Church before the disunion of East and West ; more particularly I die in the communion of the Church of England, as it stands distinguished from all papal and puritan innovation, and as it adheres to the doctrine of the Cross."

Of the other matters connected with Prayer Book revision, I speak less in detail, because I propose addressing my Diocese in a Pastoral Letter on the subject. Let me congratulate you that the wisdom and moderation of the Church are conspicuous in the very slight changes which have thus far been authorized. It will not be possible to get all things harmonized and ready for final action until 1892, unless the work is to be slighted and left so incomplete as to threaten another revision very soon—a possibility not to be thought of with composure. Marvellous book, this precious Common Prayer! The more it is studied, the more will it be felt that no merely human wisdom has created it; the more will every one dread to subject it to sentimental or unlearned revision, or to any theoretical process of improvement. Let us have nothing but Scripture and antiquity for our guides; let us not patch cloth of gold with cloth of frieze.

PUBLIC INTERESTS.

But, as I have often reminded my Council, we do not meet annually for ourselves only, much less for the transaction of a routine of mechanical work. We come together as Christians to discharge high duties to our countrymen, and to qualify ourselves for a wise performance of our part in maintaining the religious and moral institutions of our Nation. I had intended to direct your attention to some considerations appropriate to the hundredth anniversary of the American Constitution, to the grateful and solemn thoughts with which it ought to inspire us. Time fails me, but indulge me for a few minutes more. Was there ever a Nation so long and so signally blest with the enjoyment of Liberty regulated by Law, and secured to them by an instrument so simple, yet so marvellously adapted to its end? It is no theoretical compilation of ideas originating with "philosophers," but we receive it as a growth, and as embodying the results of the experience and time-honoured convictions of the Anglo-Saxon race, so-called. No other race has wrought out such results; no other people seems capable of perpetuating them. So, then, the pensive thought comes over me—what is to become of it, during the next hundred years, if perils increase upon us, at the formidable rate and with the rapid development which have begun to alarm all true Americans? The conditions for which the Constitution was framed are rapidly changing; a new population is taking the place of that with which it originated. We are overwhelmed by a gross immigration, which has greatly impaired the kind of civilization our forefathers intended to make perpetual. The foundation principles of our Constitution are utterly unknown to thousands of our voters; they are entirely misunderstood by thousands more.

THE CONSTITUTION AND ITS FESTIVAL.

Mr. Gladstone has shown in an elaborate dissertation that the recent "Syllabus" of Pius IX. is not only in conflict with free constitutions, but subversive of the same. Yet those whose lives and labours are devoted to no other object than the propagation of these subversive principles, and who pursue that object with an unscrupulous perseverance, at all times and by any means, are actually endowed by us with a "balance of power" and made the arbiters of our future destinies. What a spectacle was exhibited last week in Philadelphia, amid the rejoicings of that great Constitutional Festival! The Chief Magistrate of the Nation, to whom our citizens are wont to pay their respects on such occasions with plain democratic simplicity and unceremonious cordiality, was confronted by a class of citizens who, instead of honouring him, contrived to make him pay homage to them. The Chief of the Republic was subjected, innocently, on his part, to an artifice to which no other Government could have submitted. The representative of a foreign potentate, known to be hostile to the whole spirit of our Constitution, decked in the insignia of a foreign court, and maintaining the sort of parade which indicates the presence of a Prince, received the President of the United States as a secondary figure, and humiliated the Republic by this indignity to its greatly respected Head. It was either a civil or an ecclesiastical performance; if the former, it was undiplomatic; if the latter, it was an insult to the religious convictions of nine-tenths of the American people. No other class of religionists give themselves such airs, or seize public occasions to glorify themselves, as if they were an established Church. It is only a foreign hierarchy that continually thrusts itself before the Government and strives to invest itself with National importance. Ridiculous and empty though it may be, it ought not to be permitted to go further. A single concession leads to the exaction of more; and this ceremonial, disfiguring a great festival of the Nation, shows what will be done on a larger scale when the Jesuit University at Washington makes its halls the centre of intrigue and of artifice, and not less the seat of a Cardinal's court, with its corrupting display and all the mock majesty of foreign forms and ceremonies:

“'Twill be recorded for a precedent,
And many an evil by the same example
Will rush into the State.”

I feel that I am performing a great duty in not permitting it to pass without reproof. These folk have said that “Americans will stand anything,” but they must find out that there are limits to our endurance. This Church has a right to be heard; her history is inseparable from that of our country. Remove from the narrative of our birth and progress as a Nation all that was contributed by her children, and there would be little left. Among the framers of the Constitution they bore a conspicuous part. To those who have since introduced a foreign hierarchy among us, and who have so indecently interfered with our political affairs, I speak as having a right to point them to the contrast afforded by the life and conduct of the first American Bishop, the pure and exemplary White. He was the personal friend of Washington; his pastor, and one who had served as Chaplain to Congress and identified himself with his countrymen in their revolutionary struggle. In plain citizen's attire, he was accustomed to pay his respects to the President on terms of entire equality with all the American people. He was one of them, and desired not to set himself above them; much less to fail in deference to their Chief Magistrate. He exacted no homage in return. He delighted in a republican simplicity, which he regarded as not less the law of Christ than the law of the land.

Let me ask you, my reverend brethren, on the coming Thanksgiving Day to praise God for our National Constitution, and to pray that it may never be overthrown. Give all the glory to Him for its history in the past, and teach the rising generation a practical loyalty to its spirit as well as to its letter. The Holy Scriptures are full of texts for such a sermon, and for the practical part take our Thirty-seventh Article of Religion, which reads thus: "We hold it to be the duty of all men who are professors of the Gospel, to pay respectful obedience to the Civil Authority regularly and legitimately constituted."

N. B.—Though a candidate for Deacons' Orders was transferred and ordained elsewhere, and though there would have been other ordinations had I not refused the applications of several who had offered themselves as postulants in past years, yet the sterility of the Diocese in respect of candidates for Orders marks a limit which, I trust, may never be touched again, now that we have placed in the Litany our Blessed Lord's own suffrage—"that He would send forth labourers into His harvest."

(A.) REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

To the Fiftieth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

The Standing Committee respectfully reports its official acts for the Diocesan year 1886-7, as follows :

SEPT. 22d, 1886.

The Committee met in the Vestry Room of Christ Church, Rochester, and organized by the election of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, President, and the Rev. Walter North, Secretary.

The Rev. Edward Phelan Hart was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood.

SEPT. 28th, 1886.

A List of Offerings for the ensuing year was directed to be printed and sent to the parishes.

The bill of the Sexton of Trinity Church, Geneva, for services at the Council, was ordered to be paid.

The Assessment for Diocesan Expenses was fixed at one and one-half per cent. of their Parochial expenses.

The Assessment for the support of the Episcopate was fixed at three per cent. of the Parochial expenses.

DEC. 14th, 1886.

The bill of Mr. W. W. Astor, Treasurer of the General Convention for the Diocesan quota of expenses, amounting to $324.00, was directed to be paid.

The bill of the Sexton of Christ Church, for services at the Council, was ordered to be paid.

The Standing Committee heard the Bishop upon the case of the Rev. Sidney Wilbur, and respectfully advised the Canonical investigation.

The sum of one hundred dollars was appropriated from the General Fund for Diocesan printing in The Kalendar.

Mr. Charles Homer Boynton was recommended as a candidate for Holy Orders.

MARCH 3d, 1887.

Consent was given to the consecration of the Reverend Elisha Smith Thomas, assistant Bishop-elect of Kansas.

The Secretary was directed to issue notices to the Parishes of the payments for Diocesan Expenses which came due April 1st.

The bill of Matthews, Northrup & Co. for $517.00, for printing journals and Council papers, was ordered to be paid.

JULY 25th, 1887.

Canonical consent was given to the election of the Rt. Rev. William Forbes Adams, D. D., retired bishop, to the Bishopric of Easton.

Consent was given S. Stephen's Church, Olean, to destroy its wooden building and erect a new one of stone.

The President presented a minute, expressive of the sympathy of the Standing Committee for the Honourable James Murdock Smith, Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York have heard with sorrow of the death of the wife of the Chancellor of the Diocese, while accompanying her husband and family in quest of health and recreation in Scotland, and they would tender to Judge Smith, who was so long a member of this Committee, this expression of their deep sympathy with him in his sad loss, and would commend him prayerfully to the loving care and ministration of the God of all comfort in this day of his bereavement.

The Bishop gave notice of the appointment of the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, Assistant Secretary of the Council, to be Secretary in place of the Rev. Theodore M. Bishop, D. D., deceased. The appointment was confirmed.

A Sub-Committee was appointed to receive and report upon the Trustees' Report of De Veaux College.

The Committee approved the blanks of Parochial Reports presented by the Rev. C. W. Hayes.

SEPT. 19th, 1887.

The Sub-Committee made the following report upon the Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College, which, after discussion, was directed to be presented to the Council as the Report of the Standing Committee.

The Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College is very gratifying, and gives renewed confidence in its President, not only as a competent instructor, but also as a successful administrator of the temporal affairs of the College. The Report shows that the whole number of pupils during the year has been eighty-four, of whom fourteen were Probationers and Foundationers, two day scholars and sixty-eight Boarding Pupils. It is a satisfaction to note the gradual increase in the number of Foundationers—this year one more than last, and last year one more than the preceding. It is gratifying, and at the same time almost surprising, that the number of Boarders has increased from fifty-eight last year to sixty-eight this, especially as the rate was raised from $350.00 to $400.00 per annum.

It may well be regarded as an evidence of the growing reputation which the College has acquired for imparting a thorough education. Not only were the rooms all full, but many—about forty applicants—had to be refused admission for lack of room, though, as the Trustees particularly note, "no applicant for appointment to the Foundation whose case came within the rules laid down by the first Board of Trustees, and who was able to pass the very simple examination required for entrance, has been refused admission to the College during the last five years."

The suggestion of the President to build a chapel outside of the present structure has been inaugurated, and the foundations of this building have been already laid, and the work carried forward as far as the funds already raised by the Alumni would permit. The completion of S. Ambrose's Chapel will make the room now used as a chapel available for a dormitory, which will afford accommodation for twenty more boys, and the Trustees in their report suggest that, as a matter of business, it would be advisable to devote a portion of the twenty thousand dollars, added to the Endowment Fund during the past five years, to the completion of this new structure. We should be unwilling to accede to this proposition, though we would favour the minimum requirement, that the net earnings of the Term-Pupil Department should be set aside each year for this purpose, and we would further earnestly commend the efforts of the Committee, appointed to solicit subscriptions, to the friends of the College and to the men of wealth of the Diocese. Let the noble example of the Founder and the good results already attained, as exhibited in the character and standing of many who have been educated within its walls, be a stimulus to others to aid in enlarging its usefulness and enabling many more to enjoy its advantages.

Accompanying the Trustees' Report is a certificate of the Auditing Committee attesting the correctness of the accounts as presented therein. From these it may be seen that the Endowment Fund of the College is now $119,858.75, being an increase over last year of $11,725.00. This increase arises from the transfer of $2,000.00 from the Income Account, as directed last year, and the sale of lots; cash, $1,325.00; land contracts, $8,400.00; total, $11,725.00.

$92,300 76 are invested in bonds and mortgages; $2,500.00 in Suspension Bridge stock; $12,537.30 are in land contracts; $5,467.36 in real estate in Lockport; and there is cash awaiting investment to the amount of $7,053.33.

The Income Account shows an increase of $6,342.11 over last year, more than one-half of which comes from the Term-Pupil Department. The profits from the farm have been over $400.00 better than last year, and that notwithstanding the unfavourable season in Niagara County. The Whirlpool has also yielded nearly $200.00 more than last year, and the income from the Endowment is $424.22 greater. On the other hand, the expenses have been greater, as might be expected from the larger number of Boarding Pupils. The amount due from Term Pupils is less now than a year ago by about $400.00. The College owes bills to various persons to the amount of $213.04. $2,000.00 have been transferred to the Endowment Principal, as above noted; $1,900.00 appropriated to the erection of a barn ; and $889.05 to the payment of the bill of J. Spalding, assignee for Witmer Bros.

The profits for the academic year have been $4,580.82, exceeding last year's by $840.21.

All which is respectfully submitted.

Secretary of the Standing Committee.

(B.) REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

(1.) PROCEEDINGS.

To the report of the Rector of the De Lancey Divinity School herewith presented, the Board would add that in addition to providing support of Postulants and Candidates for Holy Orders, they have passed the following resolution :

At a meeting of the Board, held on September 19th, 1887, it was

Resolved, " That the grant of one thousand dollars ($1,000) from the income of the De Lancey Divinity School to the Trustees of Hobart College, in accordance with the resolution of September 14th, 1885, as recorded on page 26 of the Journal of 1885, be and is hereby renewed for the coming academic year."

All which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH,

Secretary of the Board of Education.

BUFFALO, Sept. 19th, 1887.

(2.) REPORT OF THE DE LANCEY DIVINITY SCHOOL.

To the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York, as Education Board :

The Rector of the De Lancey Divinity School would respectfully report :

Soon after the adjournment of the last Council of the Diocese, the Rev. E. P. Hart, a student of the school, having passed satisfactory examinations, was ordained to the Priesthood.

November 30th, S. Andrew's Day, the Annual Day of the De Lancey Divinity School as established by the Bishop of the Diocese, appropriate services were held in S. Peter's Church, Geneva, with the Holy Communion, the Revs. J. H. Perkins, W. M. Beauchamp, Prof. W. B. Edson and the Rector officiating. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Beauchamp. In the evening, services were held in the Chapel of Hobart College, when President Potter delivered a lecture on Christian Ethics, of which department he has charge in the School.

On this occasion the degree of S. T. D. was conferred upon the Rev. Mr. Beauchamp, one of the early students of the Divinity School. The Revs. Prof. Edson, J. P. Foster, W. M. Hughes, P. Gallagher and the Rector of the School assisted in the exercises.

In the month of May, the Bishop of the Diocese delivered before the School a course of lectures in his department of Ecclesiastical History. These lectures were given in the Chapel of Hobart College, and were open to the students of the College and to the general public.

The Hon. Wm. Prall, Ph. D., a candidate of the Diocese of Northern New Jersey, and admitted to the School in November, 1885, has been ordained to the Diaconate by his Bishop, and is now the assistant in S. Paul's Church, Albany. In this connection I would take occasion to state that the Rev. Prof. Edson has had an unusual amount of work in his department the past year. Through his devoted care and assistance—though very much is due to the candidate's remarkable ability and industry—Mr. Prall, totally unacquainted with the Hebrew and but little advanced in the Greek, was enabled to pass his full first examination for the priesthood, and to be ordained Deacon on the 27th of February last. Since the College Commencement, the Professor has been engaged in giving special instruction in Greek to undergraduate candidates for the holy ministry. This suggests a new field of usefulness for the School in its recently established relations to the College.

There are still three students under our charge. During the year three persons have received assistance from our scholarship funds.

Inquiries about the School are constantly received. Several applications for admission are waiting the decision of the Bishop of the Diocese.

It gives me pleasure to report that by action of the Board of Trustees of Hobart College, the ordinary degrees in Divinity can be conferred upon students of the School who shall satisfactorily meet the usual proper requirements, upon the recommendation of the Bishop of the Diocese and the Faculty of the School.

Through the aid of Bishop Coxe, the following most valuable additions have been made to the Library of the School since my last report: 88 vols. of the Anglo-Catholic Theology; Bishop Andrewes, 11 vols.; Bishop Beveridge, 12 vols.; Archbishop Bramhall, 5 vols.; Bishop Bull, 5 vols.; Bishop Cosin, 5 vols.; Dr. Hammond, 4 vols.; Dr. Hickes' Treatises, 3 vols.; John Johnson, 2 vols.; Archbishop Laud, 9 vols.; Marshall's Penitential Discipline, 1 vol.; Bishop Nicholson's Exposition on the Catechism, 1 vol.; Bishop Overall's Convocation Book, 1 vol.; Pearsoni Vindicia Ignatiana, 2 vols.; Thorndike's Works, 10 vols.; Bishop Wilson's Works, 8 vols.; Bishop Forbes' Considerationes Modestæ, 2 vols.; Johnson's English Canons, 2 vols.; Frank's Sermons, 2 vols.; Crakenthorp's Defensio, 1 vol.; L'Estrange's Alliance of Divine Offices, 1 vol.; Gunning on Lent Fast, 1 vol. Also 2 copies Vol. 8th Ante-Nicene Fathers, 2 vols.; Lechler's John Wiclif and his English Precursors, 2 vols.; Lewin's Life and Epistles of St. Paul, 2 vols.

It has been my sad duty to record the deaths, during the past year, of two of the old students of the Training School, the Rev. L. L. Rogers, Rector of S. Jude's Church, Fenton, Mich., and the Rev. M. L. Kern of Grace Mission, Menomonie, Wis. They both had been Methodist ministers. They came into the Church about the same time. They removed their families to Geneva in 1863, and pursued their theological studies together there. Nearly at the same time they have ceased from their labours, after twenty-four years of service in the ministry of the Church.

JAMES RANKINE, D. D.

(C.) REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

To the Fiftieth Annual Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Western New York :

GENTLEMEN,—The Trustees of the De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children, pursuant to the terms of their Charter, respectfully submit the following report for the year ending June 30, 1887 ; also a copy of the College Register for the academic year 1886-87.

During the year there have been instructed fourteen (14) Probationers and Foundationers, two (2) Day and sixty-eight (68) Boarding Pupils, making a total of eighty-four Pupils.

On the thirtieth day of June the funds of the institution consisted of $119,858.75 of principal yielding income, which funds are invested in and consist of bonds and mortgages, stock, land contracts, real estate in Lockport, and cash awaiting investment, as per Schedule A, hereto annexed. $11,725.00 have been added to the principal during the year—from the earnings of the previous year, $2,000.00 ; from the sale of village lots, $9,725.00.

The collections and disbursements of income during the year are shown in Schedule B.

Schedule C presents a condensed statement of resources and liabilities June 30, 1887. The net profit of the operations of the academic year was $4,580.82. (The farm inventories are not included in this statement. The Trustees call attention to the fact that the amount realized from the farm shows a steady increase from year to year. They still adhere to the policy of returning to the farm almost all that comes from it—believing that thus only can it be brought into a state of permanent productiveness. Thus, while the year was one of unusual distress to the farmers of Niagara County, the College farm shows a slight increase in its receipts as compared with those of the preceding year.) The estimated value of the real estate held for sale on the thirtieth day of June was about $6,000.00.

During the year ending June 30, 1886, many would-be pupils were refused admission to the College because all its rooms were filled. Additional accommodations for ten (10) boys were therefore provided during the following summer. But at the opening of the fall term all the alcoves were again occupied, and about forty applicants for admission have been rejected during the year just past. It should be noted in this connection that no applicant for appointment to the Foundation, whose case came within the rules laid down by the first Board of Trustees, and who was able to pass the very simple examination required for entrance, has been refused admission to the College during the last five years. No further enlargement of accommodations is possible in the present buildings. At the beginning of the last Easter Half, the charges for boarding pupils were raised to $400.00 per annum, and yet, with this increased charge, all the alcoves are engaged for the coming year. The erection of other buildings is absolutely necessary.

Recognizing this fact, the Alumni of the College have appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions for a new chapel, and the foundations of this building have already been laid and paid for with money already raised. When the new edifice shall be completed, the room now occupied as a chapel—which is much too small for its present use—can be converted into a dormitory that will afford accommodation for twenty boys. But the Alumni, though full of zeal for the work, are yet young and comparatively impecunious. Relying upon their efforts alone, it may be years before S. Ambrose's Chapel can be consecrated. A proper regard for the business interests of the College would seem to require that a portion of the twenty thousand dollars that have been added to the Endowment Fund during the last five years should be devoted to the completion of this new structure—it would appear imperatively to demand that at least the net earnings of the Term-Pupil Department should each year be set aside for this purpose.

All of which is respectfully submitted. By order of the Board of Trustees,

WILFRED H. MUNRO,

Secretary.

(D.) ⁽¹⁾ REPORT OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY BOARD.

To the Fiftieth Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York, the Missionary Board of the Diocese would respectfully report :

That, while the Bishop has not as yet had the satisfaction of seeing his great missionary work properly sustained, the Board take pleasure in reporting that sufficient means have been contributed to carry on the present work ; and also to place in the hands of the Bishop a portion of the sum promised for his special use in Aggressive Missionary work. This is mainly due to the fact that we had a surplus or balance over of $500.00 from last year. It was expected that $1,000.00 more would have been contributed the past year than was received the previous year, whereas the collections from the Deaneries this year fell short of collections last year $250 00. To carry out the plan of appropriating $1,000.00 annually from the interest on the Permanent Fund, for the use of the Bishop, as was inaugurated at the last Council and adopted by this Board, it will be necessary to increase the collections about $250.00 in each Deanery.

The work of the past year, as will be seen by the reports of the Secretaries of the Deaneries, shows progress. New stations have been opened. Faithful and self-denying missionaries are labouring for the extension of Christ's Kingdom in all parts of the Diocese. Especial mention should be made of the work at Fairport by the Rev. G. T. Le Boutillier, where a good Church building has been purchased and a congregation organized, promising a successful future.

All that is now required is more generous contributions for missionary work. To that end we must have the careful supervision of the work in the Deaneries, and especially in the congregations by the Reverend Clergy.

The Board would respectfully request the Reverend Clergy to read this report and the financial statement to their congregations as soon as the Journal of the Council is received containing the printed copy.

REMARKS

DEANERY OF BUFFALO.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, BUFFALO. The Rev. John W. Brown, D. D.

New Chancel windows, in memory of the late Rector, were unveiled on Easter Day. Other memorial windows are ordered, and other chancel improvements are contemplated. The Church, beginning with September 1, will be open all the time for private devotion, and Daily Morning and Evening Prayer said throughout the year. The Parish laments the death of several esteemed members, among whom the name of Mrs. Margaret L. Smith, the wife of the Chancellor of the Diocese, is to be mentioned as one noted for her benevolent works.

S. Paul's Free Chapel has been reorganized as S. Andrew's Chapel, and is now in the care of S. Andrew's Brotherhood. The Rev. Charles H. Brent, our assistant minister in the Parish, has been placed in charge of this work.

It is to be regretted that parishioners do not make return of individual gifts in different channels of Church work, in order that they may be duly reported to the Bishop, and Parish and the Church at large have the credit of them.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION, BUFFALO. The Rev. Wm. A. Hitchcock, D. D.

The present Rector entered upon his duties on Ascension Day last.

GRACE CHURCH, BUFFALO. The Rev. L. B. Van Dyck.

The Parish Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary have prepared and sent to Mrs. Brent, at Gardenville, Va., a barrel valued at $45.00, and have collected for Miss Skellie, in North Carolina, $4.00, besides making up for the Newsboys' Home, in Buffalo, a package valued at $8.00, and distributing an equal sum in garments to needy families in the parish. So they steadily work.

S. JAMES' CHURCH, BUFFALO. The Rev. Charles H. Smith.

The Report of S. James' Church for the past year includes S. Matthew's and S. Peter's Missions, which have been carried on hitherto in this parish, but hereafter will be separated.

The need of a mission in the extreme eastern suburbs of the city has been felt for some time, and two lots having been offered as a gift, an effort was made to raise money to build a small church. This was accomplished, and now we have a very neat structure of wood, costing $1,500, which is paid for within about $200. We are indebted to Trinity Church for benches and a lectern, and to the Church of the Ascension for some pews. We have a flourishing Sunday School, and a growing attendance at the services, which are held Sunday afternoon and Friday evening. This Mission has been named S. Peter's.

S. Matthew's Mission is growing steadily, and the field is most encouraging. Our confirmation class last spring numbered fifteen, and the Sunday School is in a vigorous condition. Services are held each Sunday and Wednesday. There is pressing need for another Mission at East Buffalo, and it is hoped that a Church similar to S. Peter's may be built there this year.

The Rector resigned S. James' Church, September 1, and with the Rev. Thomas Duck as Assistant, will carry on the work of S. Thomas' Church and the Missions. The Rev. John E. Bold, Assistant Minister of S. James, becomes Rector of the Parish.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, BUFFALO. The Rev. S. Richard Fuller.

The payments to Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign Missions were made with other general payments after September 1, 1887, and therefore are not included in this statement.

For reports of the Parish Visitors, the General Society of Woman's Work, the Young Woman's Mutual Benefit Society, the Sewing School, with a membership of nearly 800, the Sunday School, the Normal Class, the Rector's Bible Class, the Men's Club, the Golden Cord Society for Boys, the Newsboys' and Boot-blacks' Club, the Altar Guild, the Mission League of Young Girls, and the Mother's Meeting, reference must be made to the "S. John's Year Book of 1887."

S. LUKE'S CHURCH, BUFFALO. The Rev. Walter North.

The new church was opened at Easter, 1887. The old church has been sold. From Christmas to Easter, the Parish had no church building, and the Rector officiated at Trinity Church, Buffalo; many of the offerings are therefore included in the report of Trinity Church.

S. MARY'S CHURCH, BUFFALO. The Rev. C. F. J. Wrigley.

An addition to the church is now in process of construction, at an estimated cost of $2,000.

TRINITY CHURCH, BUFFALO. The Rev. Francis Lobdell, D. D.

The new church was opened for Divine Service on Easter Day, 1886. A large portion of the amount designated for "Church Property" was contributed last year, but was not reported. The present Rector took charge of the Parish on the First Sunday after Easter, 1887.

TRINITY CHURCH, LANCASTER. The Rev. William H. Capers.

The present Rector assumed charge on the Fifth Sunday in Lent, March 27, 1887.

S. STEPHEN'S CHURCH, OLEAN. The Rev. James W. Ashton.

I neglected to state in my last report, that during the winter of 1885-6, I held numerous services at Hinsdale, baptized both adults and children, and made many pastoral visits. I have continued to perform official duties, as occasion has required, at that place. But the services of a Missionary who can devote some portion of his Sunday work to such a field are necessary to its further fruitfulness. I have also preached frequently at the Erie Depot. The contributions of our congregation towards the erection of a new church have reached the gratifying amount of $25,000, and plans for the proposed edifice have been adopted.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, FORESTVILLE. The Rev. P. P. Kidder.

The little handful of earnest Churchmen belonging to this Parish still manifest their wonted interest in the appointed services, without abatement. The Sunday School maintains its zeal and interest, and an adult Bible Class under the Rector's care is well attended. But the Church has suffered greatly in recent years, and especially during the last year, in the loss of members by death. The Junior Warden has died during the year past, and two other communicants, and two years ago the Senior Warden was called to rest from his work in the Church Militant. Both of these men, David Parsons and Andrew J. Webb, were most exemplary and active officers, and the Parish deeply feels their loss.

It should be stated that my services were given to S. Paul's Church, Mayville, on alternate Sundays, from September 1, 1886, to January 1, 1887.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, MAYVILLE. The Rev. P. Macfarlane.

The report embraces the Rector's work since January 1, 1887, when he took charge of the Parish, and includes S. George's Chapel, Hartfield.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, WESTFIELD. The Rev. Charles W. Hayes.

The two Mission boxes were sent by a little branch of the "Girls' Friendly Society" organized in the Rectory. The Church lot has been enlarged on the rear and south side by the liberality of two members of the Parish, and the rectory thoroughly painted through the contributions of the Ladies' Guild.

CHURCH OF THE EPIPHANY, SUSPENSION BRIDGE. The Rev. H. S. Huntington.

Official acts since September 1, 1886, not included in the above Report, are, Baptisms, 5, of which 3 (1 ad., 2 inf.) were in Lancaster, and 2 (inf.) at Niagara Falls. Marriages, (in Lancaster 1, Buffalo 1,) 2; and Burials, (Niagara Falls 5, Buffalo 1,) 6. The report of Parochial offerings is for the year ending June 1, 1887.

DEANERY OF BATAVIA.

S. JAMES' CHURCH, BATAVIA. (Vacant. Reported by the Wardens.)

The Rev. Wm A. Hitchcock, D. D., resigned this Parish on Ascension Day last, since which time no Rector has been appointed.

S. LUKE'S CHURCH, CORFU. The Rev. A. A. Brockway.

Average number communicating, 20; average attendance at all services, 70. The Sunday School was organized in April, and the church consecrated May 12, 1887. I have held a service at Bethany Centre; attendance 50, offerings $2.88. There are 3 families, 15 individuals and 4 communicants.

S. MICHAEL'S CHURCH, OAKFIELD. The Rev. A. J. Warner.

Not all the communicants reported last year have been identified. Regular services were begun in Nov., 1886. No separate account has been kept of Communion Alms.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, STAFFORD. (Reported by the Rev. B. F. Miller, late Rector.)

The Parish decreased its debt of $500 one-half during my Rectorship of two years and three months. Services outside my parish duties during the last year are, Sundays 7, weekdays 4, Marriages 2, Burial 1. Of the Communion Alms $12 was appropriated to the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society.

S. PHILIP'S CHURCH, BELMONT. The Rev. Wm. W. Rafter.

The Report is from June 1, 1887.

TRINITY CHURCH, CANASERAGA. The Rev. C. J. Clausen.

The Rector has held 22 services on Sunday afternoons at Garwood's Station, where there is a Sunday School of 6 teachers and 35 children. Catechising every Sunday.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, WELLSVILLE. The Rev. E. H. Edson.

This Parish having lost its property by a foreclosure of mortgage some years ago, pious women of the congregation undertook its recovery; their efforts were ably seconded by our few men, and, by the blessing of God, were successful. The church, which had been sadly desecrated, was redeemed Jan. 5, 1886, by the payment of $2,200; the work of remodelling was begun in July of the same year, and the church consecrated Jan. 25, 1887, the cost of the restoration being $2,314 07. The present Rector took charge on the first Sunday after Easter, 1887. A comfortable home has been provided for his family till the parish can build a rectory.

ZION CHURCH, AVON. The Rev. H. F. Darnell, D. D.

The past year has been one of patient and persistent effort. If no great progress can be reported, the Church has certainly held her own in face of many and great difficulties, and with only limited resources. The services have been well attended, Church feeling is deepening ; and with the exception of a small sum for current expenses, the parish is wholly out of debt. For many years matters have not stood on so sound a basis.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, DANSVILLE. The Rev. Wm. P. Case.

The present incumbent has been in charge only three months. Congregations have been very good, and the outlook is quite encouraging.

S. MARK'S CHURCH, HUNT'S HOLLOW. The Rev. A. A. Brockway.

A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has been formed. An order for stained-glass windows for the church is now being filled.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, MOUNT MORRIS. The Rev. E. W. Worthington.

The free seat system was adopted at Easter.

GRACE CHURCH, NUNDA. The Rev. A. A. Brockway.

In Caledonia, the same county, I have held 2 services; average attendance 90, communicants 3; in Belmont, Allegany Co., 1 service, attendance 80, Baptism 1, Offerings, $7.12 ; at Angelica, same county, 1 service, attendance 80; Offerings, $3.79.

S. LUKE'S MISSION, ATTICA.

MISSION AT CASTILE.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY APOSTLES, PERRY.

S. PAUL'S MISSION, WYOMING.

} The Rev. A. A. Brockway.

(All in Wyoming County.)

As General Missionary for the Deanery of Batavia, I have held services at a number of missions and places besides the above; and travelled in this duty by rail 3,590 miles, with horse 360, and on foot 96.

S. CLEMENT'S CHURCH, WETHERSFIELD SPRINGS. The Rev. John E. Battin.

The taxes reported above absorbed the available funds arising from the rental of two houses, and $12 besides, leaving nothing for much-needed repairs. The buildings are now without tenants, and so will have nothing with which to pay the taxes falling due in January next; and the Parish has therefore been unable to meet its assessments for the Support of the Episcopate and Diocesan Expenses.

DEANERY OF ROCHESTER.

CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, ROCHESTER. The Rev. John H. Perkins, Deacon.

This feeble church is made up of working people, some aged persons and several widows. Its indebtedness is small, and will doubtless soon be discharged. Both this Parish and the Mission at Charlotte should have more frequent Communions—there having been for the year past but four celebrations here, and none at Charlotte.

The somewhat smaller number of services reported, and decreased offerings for Diocesan Missions and some other objects, may be attributed to a six weeks' closing of the church for extensive repairs.

S. MARK'S MISSION, ROCHESTER. The Rev. E. P. Hart.

The Report of Communion Alms is only approximate, one or two collections having gone to the General Church Objects, and one or two were accidentally omitted from the account book ; they average about $2 a month.

ADVENT MISSION, ROCHESTER. The Rev. F. S. Hyde.

This mission was begun in Oct., 1886, by services in a private house ; since then it has occupied a building on Lake Avenue, seating 125, and suitably fitted and furnished. Attendance has averaged from 80 to 100, the Sunday School 50. The Mission is self-supporting ; a chapel is soon to be erected on a fine lot given by Mr Charles Burke, of Rochester, and located in a desirable and growing part of the city, overlooking Lake Ontario and the intervening country. The lot is deeded to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund. One Sunday and one weekday service are held each week.

MISSION AT CHARLOTTE. The Rev. John H. Perkins, Deacon.

The work in this village is slowly progressing, and calls for much patient effort, prayer and faith.

S. LUKE'S CHURCH, FAIRPORT. The Rev. Geo. T. Le Boutillier.

The Mission was organized as a Parish, July 7, 1887. The church property, admirably situated, and worth, with some improvements, $3,500 at a moderate valuation, was bought for $2,300.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, HONEOYE FALLS. (Vacant. Reported by the Wardens.)

The Report is incomplete on account of the illness and death (June 25, 1887) of the Rector, the Rev. Theodore M. Bishop, D. D. Since then lay services have been regularly held, and the Sunday School continued.

CHRIST CHURCH, PITTSFORD. The Rev. Geo. T. Le Boutillier.

The Parish has been provided this last year with an unusually fine bell, weight 3,540 lbs, and a very superior town clock, both presented in memory of the late Mrs. Hargous, by her children.

GRACE CHURCH, SCOTTSVILLE. The Rev J. D. Ferguson.

The Vestry have adopted suitable resolutions expressing our sadness and loss in the death of Major D. D. S. Brown, January 11, 1887,—a good man and a Prince in our Israel. He gave the land on which the church stands, contributed largely to the building fund, and crowned all by presenting an organ of tone and quality unsurpassed. May his memory inspire others to follow in his steps of wise and generous doing and giving !

S. THOMAS' CHURCH, BATH The Rev. A. P. Brush.

Of the Sunday services reported, 11 were at the Soldiers' Home, 8 at the Davenport Institute, and 3 at Avoca ; of the Burials, 9 at the Soldiers' Home.

S. JAMES' CHURCH, HAMMONDSPORT. The Rev. J. V. Stryker.

Long continued sickness and absence of the Rector cut off many services, lessened much the offerings, and suspended for months nearly all parish work.

DEANERY OF GENEVA.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, GENEVA. The Rev. James Rankine, D. D.

Of the contributions for the poor, $136 have been paid into the Church Home of this place. The Vestry has become possessed of two burial lots in Glenwood Cemetery, with a beautiful and appropriate monument. A small addition has been made to the rectory. A wing half as large as the main building has been added to S. Peter's Chapel, to accommodate the increasing demands of the Sunday School. After nineteen years, the church has had to be re-carpeted, repainted, and extensively repaired. After these large and necessary expenditures, the church buildings are now in good and substantial condition, and, we trust, will continue so for many years to come.

The widow, children, and grandchildren of L. G. Townsend, one of the first Wardens of the Parish, have started, with $500, a foundation, the annual income of which is to be expended for repairs on the church building and bells.

TRINITY CHURCH, GENEVA. The Rev. H. W. Nelson, Jr.

I regret to say that owing to an enforced absence from the Parish during more than half the year, it has been impossible for me to give all the figures in the above Report with absolute accuracy. But in each case I have tried rather to underestimate them. A new building of stone adjoining the church has been begun, and a portion of it completed, including a proper robing-room, and several Bible-class and Guild-rooms ; the alleys and vestibule of the church have been tiled ; an addition has been built to the Church Home, and opened as a Hospital, in charge of a trained nurse ; a Coffee House has been established in the village as the direct outcome of the Church Temperance Society's work, a branch of which exists in the Parish ; and lastly, besides the two Guilds for women, which have been working for some years, a third Guild, for boys, has been started, this last owing its success to the warm interest of the Rev. J. W. Van Ingen, whose departure from the Parish is generally and deeply regretted.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, CANANDAIGUA. The Rev. E. J. Babcock.

Among members of the Parish deceased during the past year are, Mrs. Sarah P. Chidsey, Jan. 24, 1887, aet. 78 ; Mrs. Cornelia A. Brush, May 14, 1887, aet. 66 (in whose memory her sisters have presented a pair of vases of brass for the Altar) ; Miss Sarah M. Crowley, May 25, 1887, a faithful and successful teacher in the Sunday and Public Schools (in memory of whom the Guild, to which she belonged, and some personal friends, have given a beautiful receiving alms-basin inscribed " Faithful unto Death ") ; and Miss Nancy T. Chapman, aet. 64, a convert to the Church, and an earnest inquirer after the Church's ways, full of faith in God, and with great sympathy for her Pastor's work.

Besides these, I have buried four " lambs of the flock."

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, CLIFTON SPRINGS. The Rev. L. P. Clover, D D.

The present incumbent accepted the Rectorship of the Parish, May 25, 1887, having been in charge by the Bishop's appointment since Jan. 1. The Parish is united and prosperous ; the services and Rector's Bible-class are well attended ; a large and sweet-toned bell has replaced the old one in the tower ; a beautiful font of brown stone, a large and handsome Bible, and other articles of church furniture provided ; between $400 and $500 added to the Rectory Fund ; and the entire community as well as Church-people have received the Rector with marked evidences of kindness and confidence. To Dr. Henry Foster, and the other physicians of the Sanitarium, he has much reason for affection and gratitude.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, EAST BLOOMFIELD. The Rev. James H. Dennis.

Services have been held since June 19, 1887, every Sunday, at 10.30 A. M., with Sunday School.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, CLYDE. The Rev. S. C. Thicke.

The statistics are necessarily incomplete, owing to two changes in the Rectorship of the Parish within the last year.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, DRESDEN. (Vacant. Reported by the Wardens.)

Lay services have been maintained throughout the year by a student of Hobart College. In addition to the communicants reported, there are 16 on the list, some of whom would have made their Communion had there been greater opportunity. Two adults and 6 infants were baptized on the first Sunday in September. Thanks are due to generous laymen in Geneva for $50 towards repairs and improvements.

PERSONAL REPORTS.

The Rev. MILTON B. BENTON, residing at Avon, reports that he has been during the last year too feeble to undertake any ministerial work, or even to attend the services of the Church except infrequently.

The Rev. FORTUNE C. BROWN, Chaplain of the Church Home, Rochester, reports one service at the Home on all Sundays and Festivals, and two on Communion Sundays and many other days ; Holy Communion monthly and on greater Festivals ; the children carefully instructed and regularly catechised ; five of them confirmed ; 31 communicants ; and 4 Burials, 3 of these without the Home.

The Rev. WILLIAM CATTERSON, residing at Catawba, reports that he has assisted frequently in Divine Service, and solemnized two Marriages during the past year ; and that he is still engaged in the grape culture, the state of his health not yet permitting him to resume parochial work.

The Rev. EDWARD DOLLOWAY, residing at Oswego. N. Y., reports that he has assisted in Divine Service, solemnized one Marriage, and once celebrated the Holy Communion, all in Washington, D. C., where he is employed in the Pension Bureau, still debarred from the work of the Ministry by weakness of voice.

The Rev. FOSTER ELY, D. D., New Haven, Ct., reports 60 services, 53 Sermons, Holy Communion, public 14, private 1, Baptisms 2, Marriage 1, Burial 1, —all these mostly in weak, struggling parishes and missions in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

The Rev. O. R. HOWARD, D. D., Chaplain of the Church Home, Buffalo, reports 1 adult and several infant Baptisms ; 59 celebrations of Holy Communion ; a class preparing for Confirmation ; 25 communicants in the Home Family of 90 ; an offering for the Christmas Fund ; and that the Home has been singularly free from sickness, the last Burial having been that of Jane Walsh, aet. 82, in October, 1886

The Rev. WILLIAM O. JARVIS, Rensselaerville, N. Y., reports that owing to circumstances beyond his control, he cannot be settled as yet in any regular Parish work, but performs ministerial services as opportunity permits in this parish and elsewhere.

The Rev. WILLIAM F. LANE, Deacon, Sodus, reports that he has had a Mission Sunday School of some 26 pupils; has held 51 Evening Services on Sundays, and baptized 4 infants.

The Rev. E. N. POTTER, D. D., LL. D., President of Hobart College, reports that in addition to his College duties, he has officiated as there has been need and opportunity, in the Deanery of Geneva and elsewhere.

The Rev. MICHAEL SCOFIELD, Rochester, reports that on account of failing health, he resigned the Rectorship of S. Philip's Church, Belmont, June 1, 1887. During the first three months of the Diocesan year he officiated once each Sunday in Christ Church, Belvidere. Summary, Baptisms (inf.) 4, Marriages 3. Burials 4, Services 51, Holy Communion (Belmont 9, Belvidere 4, Honeoye Falls 1,) 14.

The Rev. JOHN S. SEIBOLD, Chaplain U. S. A., Fort Reno, Ind. Ter., reports a Sunday School and class for religious instruction—Sacraments and Offices frequently administered—attendance at Divine Service largely increased—Schools to be opened on the completion of a new building. At the request of the Bishop of Arkansas, (Missionary Bishop of the Indian Territory,) he has taken charge of the Indian Mission work in this part of the Jurisdiction, assisted by two Indian deacons, and with the hearty support of the Indian Agent and the Superintendent of the Government Arapahoe School, both Churchmen. He holds a service here each Sunday, sung by the Indian children, and attended by their relatives and the Government employees.

The Rev. L. VAN BOKKELEN, D. D., Buffalo, reports that since resigning the Rectorship of Trinity Church in that city, he has not had any pastoral charge, but has been constantly engaged in the various duties of his calling, and is ready to render any service desired and for which he is qualified.

The Rev. WILLIAM H. WILLIAMS, Lyons, reports a continued residence in that place.

The Rev. ALBERT WOOD, Rochester, reports that his principal work during the year has been the supply of parishes vacant or whose rectors were absent. He has thus officiated in S. James' Church, Rochester, Ascension, Buffalo, Batavia, Scottsville, and elsewhere; and at other times has generally assisted in Sunday services in Rochester, particularly in S. Paul's Church, frequently in the Holy Communion; has baptized three children, married two couples, and attended five burials, all in Rochester.

The Rev. Dr. Windsor, from the Committee on Constitution and Canons, to whom was referred last year the expe-

They heartily reciprocate all the affectionate expressions of regard contained in his Annual Address at the opening Service of the Council. They cordially appreciate his important part in the able representation made by our branch of the Church at the Lambeth Conference, in behalf of living issues, especially those of Christian Fellowship and Church Unity, as well as his untiring labours, and successful administration of his Diocese, to whose Semi-Centennial Commemoration he now returns.

The Rev. Dr. Anstice offered the following Resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, As the sense of this Council, that the phraseology of T. I., Can. 9, § 3, should not be understood as debarring the Bishop and Trustees of the Christmas Fund from extending to a disabled clergyman who "has laboured within the limits of this Diocese," or his widow, the benefit of an appropriation, on the ground that at the time of disability or death, such clergyman was not canonically connected with this Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Spalding, the Committee on Canons were instructed to inquire into the expediency of amending T. IV., Can. 2, § 1, "Of the Registration of Communicants," so as to provide for a proper entry to be made in the Parish Register under the provisions of said Section.

* See pages 11 and 15.

LANCEY, D. D., LL. D., D. C. L., as the Founder of our Diocese; and whereas we realize more than ever in the wonderful growth and development of the original jurisdiction during the last half century, his clear-sighted, far-reaching wisdom in laying foundations, and how precious are the fruits of his self-sacrificing zeal, which spared neither time, nor strength, nor comfort, nor private means, in fostering the educational institutions and building up the missionary work of his Diocese; and whereas we recognize the lasting impress of his loving firmness, and of the symmetry and dignity of his character, upon the work which he accomplished: therefore

Resolved, That most thankfully do we remember him at this special time, as our first Bishop, and delight thus to transmit our testimony to his distinguished virtues, rejoicing with all connected with him in the rich legacy he has left us, of his honoured name and bright example.

Resolved, That this action of the Council be communicated to Mrs. Margaret Munro De Lancey Rochester,—widow of the greatly-honoured Thomas F. Rochester, M. D., LL. D., late of Buffalo—still residing in the Diocese, and to the other surviving children of the First Bishop of Western New York.

The Rev. George T. Le Boutillier, from the Standing Committee on the Admission of Churches, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on the Admission of Churches into union with the Council respectfully report :

That they have examined the application of certain residents of the city of Rochester to be received as an Organized Mission, in accordance with Title I., Canon 13, of the Canons of the Diocese, under the name of the Mission of the Ascension; that the above application is in proper form, and has the Canonical consent of the Bishop. We therefore recommend that the Council approve of the organization, as provided by T. I., Can. 13, § 1 (7), so that the Mission may be entitled to representation by its Warden.

The Rev. George W. Knapp, from the Standing Committee on the Reports of the Education and Missionary Boards, made the following

REPORT :

Your Committee, to whom was submitted the report of the Board of Education, respectfully report that they have examined it, and are pleased to find that so many students have been assisted during the past year.

The Report of the Diocesan Missionary Board is certainly far more gratifying than when, as in past years, they have been called upon to report a deficiency. We can, however, but express our regret that the amount realized should have been so much less than the Council decided should be devoted to this most important work. We feel that no words of ours can add to what has been so forcibly stated on the floor of this house, and we would unite with the Council in urging upon all the necessity of making a special effort, that the amount voted may be raised this year in full. It is certainly the least that we can do, to see that those who are striving to enlarge the borders of the Church shall be relieved of all anxiety for their own personal support.

GEORGE W. KNAPP,
J. H. DENNIS,
P. D. WALTER,
Committee.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Doty, a Special Committee of three Laymen was appointed to report to the next Council on the portion of the Bishop's address relating to the Missionary Enrollment Fund.

The Chair appointed as such Committee, Messrs. James P. Mellen, Clinton Rogers and George A. Stringer.

The Rev. Dr. Anstice, from the Standing Committee on Finance, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that there have been placed in their hands the Reports of the Treasurer of the Council, of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Christmas Fund, and of the Treasurer and Trustees of the Parochial Fund. These Financial reports have been duly examined and audited by committees appointed by the Bishop, and found correct, as certified by them.

The report of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund makes a very gratifying exhibit as showing a marked increase both in the amount of contributions from the parishes and the amount of aid given to a larger number of beneficiaries, the increase in contributions being $324.62, and in payments to beneficiaries $277.50.

Your Committee have also had under consideration the resolution of the Rev. Dr. Hayes, instructing the committee to inquire into the expediency of amending T. I., Can. 6, "Of Diocesan Expenses," so as to provide for the more effectual collection of such expenses. It does not appear that the remissness on the part of the parishes can be cured so well by an amendment to the Canon as by some practical appreciation on their part of the unrighteousness of laying an additional burden on such as fulfill the Diocesan requirements, but whose obligations in the matter are no more imperative than theirs. It appears from the Journal of last year that no less than thirty-five parishes and organized missions contributed nothing for Diocesan expenses, while twenty-eight contributed nothing to the support of the Episcopate. It can be understood that circumstances might, in certain cases, justify a contribution less than the assessment, but failure to honour in any way such obligations to the Diocese seems utterly without excuse. As a means of calling general attention to this matter, your Committee recommend that the Standing Committee restore Diocesan Expenses to the list of Canonical Collections, to correspond as near as may be with the time specified for payment in the Canon, and also, in discharging the duty laid upon the Committee by the Canon, of notifying each parish of the amount due therefrom under the assessment, that it accompany such notification with a statement of any arrearage which may be due, and such other reminder of duty in the matter as shall seem to it expedient and wise.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY ANSTICE,
S. RICHARD FULLER,
JOHN H. BUCK,
JOHN S. MACKLEM.

The Report of the Committee was accepted, and the recommendations therein contained, adopted.

Mr. William J. Ashley, from the Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, made the following

REPORT:

The Standing Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, respectfully report:

That the report submitted to them has been duly audited by the Committee appointed for that purpose by the Bishop. It shows that the Securities consist at this time of

Mortgages	$33,250 00
Notes of Parishes.....	6,361 66
Railroad Bond.....	1,000 00
Cash... ..	1,943 45
Amounting to	$42,555 11

The De Lancey Fund consisted of

Mortgages.....	$2,200 00
Cash.....	200 00
	$2,400 00

The Income for the past year is as follows :

Interest on Securities.....	$2,297 88
From Parishes on Assessments.....	2,836 98
Total.....	$5,134 86

The Expenditures were :

For the Bishop's Salary... ..	$5,000 00
For Taxes and Insurance on See House.....	435 52
Total.....	$5,435 52

Making a deficit for the year of.....	300 66
There is also due the Treasurer for amounts advanced in previous years.....	749 11

Total now due Treasurer.....	$1,049 77
-------------------------------------	-------------------

The Assessments of Parishes for support of the Episcopate were.....	$3,776 00
Amount Collected.....	2,836 98

Unpaid Assessments for year.. ..	$ 939 02
----------------------------------	------------------

The neglect of Parishes to provide for the amounts assessed to them is still, as heretofore, the cause of the steadily increasing deficit, virtually an impairment of the principal of this fund. The amount paid by the Parishes to the Treasurer of the Diocese, shows a small increase ($76.76) over last year. The interest on securities is ($180.29) less than last year, owing to the decline in rate of interest, and the payment of principal of mortgages not yet reinvested.

We would respectfully recommend that an increased assessment be laid upon the Parishes for the present year, to make up the amount due to the Treasurer of the Episcopate Fund, viz., $1,c49.77 with interest.

A. O. COMSTOCK,
W. J. ASHLEY,
THOS. G. MOULSON,
Committee.

The Report was accepted, and the Committee discharged.

On motion of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, it was Resolved, That it be referred to the Committee on Canons to report to this Council what changes in the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese are necessary to make lay membership in this Council dependent on the payment of Diocesan Assessments by the parishes represented.

On motion of Mr. Alfred Ely, it was

Resolved, That the Committee on Canons be hereby instructed to report to the next Council, as to what measures can be taken with a view of securing that the Presidents or Heads of Church Colleges be called to seats in the General Convention, as in the case of Deputies from Missionary Jurisdictions, or Representatives from Territories, or otherwise.

The Rev. Walter North, from the Special Committee of last year on the Cathedral of the Diocese, made the following

REPORT:

At the last session of the Council of the Diocese, on motion of the Rev. John W. Brown, D. D., Rector of S Paul's Cathedral Church, Buffalo, that portion of the Bishop's Address which related to the Cathedral of the Diocese, was referred to a Special Committee of Five, with directions to report at the next Council.

On account of the removal from the Diocese of its learned and eloquent Chairman, your Committee feels embarrassed in preparing its report, and sees its way only to stating the present conditions of the Cathedral organization, and diffidently suggesting such measures as in their judgment seem best for the increase of that primitive centralization of power, which makes the Bishop the head of all Church work in his See City.

On the 25th of May, 1880, the Legislature of the State passed an act empowering Arthur Cleveland Coxe, William Shelton, Edward Ingersoll, John M. Henderson, Libertus Van Bokkelen, Israel Foote, Henry Anstice, Lloyd Windsor, James Murdock Smith, William H. Walker, Cyrus P. Lee, William M. White, William B. Douglas, Peter Richards, Thomas C. Montgomery, De Witt Parshall, and Gad B. Worthington, to become a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of the Cathedral Chapter and Corporators of the Diocese of Western New York, with authority to establish, erect, maintain and manage a Cathedral Church, together with foundations, chapels, missions, schools, and other religious and charitable works, together with a See House for the residence of the Bishop and his successors in office. They may adopt a Constitution and By-laws providing for their election and government, under the approval of the Bishop and Council of the Diocese, and until that time shall fill vacancies occurring in their number by removal or death.

The Cathedral Chapter of Western New York embodies the same general features in its Act of Incorporation as the Acts incorporating the Cathedrals of New York, Long Island, and Albany, in all of which the Bishop is practically the Dean and Head of the Cathedral Staff.

The Chapter has had three meetings—one on the 26th of July, 1880, when it was organized by the election of the Bishop as President. One on the 18th of September, 1884, when vacancies on account of death were filled. One on January 12, 1886, when resolutions were passed which resulted in the transfer of the See House by the surviving trustee, to the care of the Chapter.

The Bishop has also given to it the charge of the sum of $1000, a legacy of Phineas L. Tracy, placed by his will at the disposal of the Bishop, which has been made the nucleus of a fund for the increase of the Cathedral Library.

There are now awaiting transfer the Title Deeds of S. Philip's Church, Buffalo, and of S. Matthew's, S. Peter's and S. Bartholomew's Churches, on the east side of the city, owing their existence to the zeal of the Rev. Charles H. Smith, and S. Mark's, on the west side, the result of the self-denial of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck.

At present all these mission chapels are held by individuals, who must personally provide for their preservation and continuance as houses of worship. It is, therefore, much to be desired that these may be accorded that strong support and wise direction which can come from a body interested, not in parochial, but in general missionary work; and may recognize in the Bishop their chief Pastor and Rector.

By a personal arrangement with the Diocesan, the Corporation of S. Paul's Church, Buffalo, has courteously permitted the temporary and occasional use of their building as a Cathedral, especially at such times as it was not needed for parochial purposes. It was the intention of the late large-minded Rector to still further enlarge these privileges, making S. Paul's, in some sort, a centre of city missionary work in addition to its wide parochial work; but his removal from the Diocese, and the lamented destruction of the building by fire, have prevented any further action.

Your Committee feel it to be their duty, without specifying any exact line of procedure, to suggest the immediate calling together of the Chapter for the drafting of Constitution and By-laws, and for the election of such officers as are needed for the control and direction of all missionary work in the See City, and its centralization under the chief Pastor; while they would commend "The Cathedral" as a suitable object for such foundations and memorials as may bespeak the piety of all stewards of God's bounty.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH,
JAMES M. SMITH,
M. B. FOLWELL,
HENRY C. FISKE,
Committee.

The Report was accepted, and the Committee discharged.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Windsor, it was Resolved, That the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese be a Committee to express, on behalf of this Council, to the Chancellor of the Diocese, our sense of the value of his services as its legal adviser for so many years, and our thanks for the faithfulness and efficiency with which he has discharged the duties of his responsible office.

On motion of Mr. Alfred Ely, it was

Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to the relations of this Diocese to the "Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning in the State of New York," be referred to a Committee of two Clergymen and three Laymen, to inquire into the history of these relations, and on duties and claims with respect to the same.

Adjourned to seven o'clock, P. M.

WEDNESDAY, 7 P. M.

Evening Prayer was said by the Rev. Messrs. Armstrong and Knapp.

The Minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

Mr. John N. Macomb, Jr., from a Special Committee on the Historical Statistics of the Diocese, appointed in 1883, and continued from year to year, made the following

REPORT:

The Special Committee on Historical Statistics would respectfully report:

That by resolution of the Council, this Committee was continued, and directed to report any further data, connected with the subjects which have been referred to them, that they may obtain. (See Journal of 1883, page 51.) That in addition to the dates of Consecration of Churches, the Bishop has directed them to tabulate the attendance of Lay Delegates on the Councils of the Diocese. In pursuance of these directions, we herewith present two tables. No I. is a continuation of the record of Consecrations on page 51 of the Journal of 1883. No. II. gives the attendance of Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Councils, with some degree of limitation. We find that the insertion of every name would make the table too bulky for the Journal, and have therefore confined our record to those who have attended not less than five Conventions since the Primary Convention in 1838, or who attended the Primary Convention, or some preceding Convention of the Diocese of New York. In this way is given the whole

Lay attendance from the present Diocese of Western New York in the Primary Convention, as well as in each of the Conventions of New York prior to All Saints' Day, 1838. These are all credited to the parishes represented. We find that in 1838, there were four Conventions; and to prevent confusion, they have been designated as follows: A Special Convention of New York was held in Utica, August 22, 1838; this is marked "1838, Sp. N. Y." This Convention adjourned to Sept. 11, 1838, and the attendance was somewhat changed; this is marked "1838, Adj. Sp." On the fourth of October, 1838, the Annual Convention of New York met in New York City; this is marked "1838, N. Y." And on Nov. 1, 1838, came the Primary Convention of this Diocese; this is marked "1838, Pr." Special Conventions in 1811 and 1839 are marked "Sp."

Your Committee would respectfully recommend that these tables be printed in the Journal of this Council, and that the Committee be continued, with power to report additional statistics to the next Council.

All which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN N. MACOMB, JR.,
WILFRED H. MUNRO,
Committee.

The Report was accepted, and the Committee continued.

On motion, it was ordered that the tables of the Consecration of Churches, (in continuation of the table printed in the Journal of 1883, p. 51) and of the attendance of Lay Delegates, accompanying the above Report, be printed with the Journal of this Council, and that the thanks of the Council be given to Mr. John N. Macomb, Jr., for his great care and labour in compiling them.*

Mr. Alfred Ely, from the Special Committee on State Legislation, to whom was referred the matter of obtaining legislation for requiring a bond from the Treasurer of the Diocese, reported that the Committee had not hitherto been able to take any action, and at his request the Committee was continued to report to the next Council.†

The Rev. Edward P. Hart, from the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, made the following by the Joint Committee of the Five Dioceses of New York to the Act for the Incorporation of Churches, with the action of the Council of this Diocese in 1886 thereon, was referred to the Federate Council of the Five Dioceses of the State, and that the amended Acts as proposed by the Federate Council of last February are before this Council for consideration. Committee.

The Amendments proposed by the Federate Council of 1888 were read and considered, so far as they differed from those approved by the Council of this Diocese for 1886;* after which, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Hayes, it was Resolved, That the Deputies from this Diocese to the Federate Council of New York, be hereby instructed to state to that Council at its next session, that this Diocese is opposed to the adoption of such provisions of the proposed Acts for the Incorporation of Churches, as require voters at the organization of Parishes, and at annual elections, and vestrymen, to be baptized members of this Church, until further action shall be taken by the Council of this Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Rankine,

Resolved, That this Council approve of the transfer of the Centrefield Church Fund by the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, to the benefit of S. Peter's Church, East Bloomfield.

On motion of the Rev. James H. Dennis,

Resolved, That in case of the loan of the Fund from the sale of the property of Trinity Church, Centrefield, now in the hands of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Peter's Church, East Bloomfield, it is expected by the Council that the three Parishes of S. Peter's, East Bloomfield, S. Paul's, Allen's Hill, and the Good Shepherd, Victor, will remain permanently connected.

The Rev. Leonard W. Richardson, from the Standing Committee on Works of Beneficence and Piety, stated that the Report of the Committee was not yet complete, and asked permission to print the same with the Journal, which permission was granted by the Council.†

† Appendix, II. K.

The Bishop brought before the Council the subject of the Diocesan paper, The Church Kalendar, which had been edited and published for the past four years, under his appointment, by the Rev. Dr. Hayes, who now resigned that duty ; and urged that the paper be continued and fully supported by the Congregations of the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. Pierre Cushing, the subject was referred to the Standing Committee of the Diocese for such action as they may deem proper.

The following Resolution was offered by the Rev. Dr. Anstice, seconded by the Rev. Dr. Rankine, and unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That the Standing Committee be instructed to act with the Bishop of the Diocese, in securing from the family and heirs of the late Bishop DE LANCEY, consent to the removal of his remains, and those of his wife, to a suitable place to be prepared for their reception beneath the chancel of S. Peter's Church, erected to his memory in the village of Geneva, in accordance with such conditions as shall meet the views of all concerned in the removal.

On motion of the Rev. Edward P. Hart,

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council are due :

To the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Peter's Memorial Church, Geneva, for the use of their Church for the opening services and session of this Council :

To the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, Geneva, for the very excellent arrangements made for the sessions of the Council and for the work of its Committees ; and

To the President, Faculty and Corporation of Hobart College, and to the Churchmen and citizens of Geneva, generally, for the abundant and delightful hospitality received at their hands.

Resolved, That one thousand copies of the Journal be printed and distributed under the direction of the Secretary, two copies to be sent to every Clergyman having charge of a Parish or Mission, and to the Wardens of each vacant Parish, one copy to every other clergyman of the Diocese, and to any layman requesting it ; and copies to the Bishops, Secretaries and Registrars of other Dioceses as heretofore ; the copies remaining to be placed in the Registry of the Diocese.

Resolved, That the Historical Sermon to be delivered to-morrow by the Bishop's appointment, be appended to the Journal, and that five hundred additional copies of the same, with the Proceedings of the Semi-Centennial Anniversary, be printed, and a copy sent to each clergyman and parish of the Diocese.

The Council having completed its ordinary business then adjourned to Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS.
THURSDAY, NOV. 1, 10 A. M.

The Special Service appointed by the Bishop for commemorating the completion of the First Half Century of the Diocese, was held at the above time in Trinity Church.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. Dr. Windsor and the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, of this Diocese, and the Rev. Dr. G. H. M'Knight, of the Diocese of Central New York. The Bishop was assisted in the celebration of the Holy Communion by the Very Rev. Dean Geddes and the Rev. Canon Read, of the Diocese of Niagara, Ont., the Rev. Drs. Babcock, Wilson, Brainard, Beauchamp and Duff of Central New York, and the Rev. Dr. Rankine and the Rev. H. W. Nelson, Jr., of this Diocese.

The Historical Sermon was preached by the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, D. D., Secretary of the Council.

The Special Psalms, Lessons, Hymns, Commemorative Prayer and Thanksgiving, and Offertory, appointed by the Bishop, are noted in the full account of this service, appended to this Journal by order of the Council.

At the close of the Service, the Bishop called the Council to order.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Anstice, it was unanimously

Resolved, That for his able and most instructive Historical Sermon, this day delivered before this Council, under Episcopal appointment, by the Reverend Dr. Hayes, (a copy of which has been already requested for publication in the Journal,) our special thanks are due to the preacher, whose patient research and masterly compilation of facts have enabled us, and those who may come after us, to understand the Providence of God in our past, and our great occasion for gratitude to Him for the precious instruments through whom He has wrought, in founding His Holy Church in the Western region of New York.

The Bishop announced to the members of the Council and visitors present, an invitation to a collation at Alumni Hall of Hobart College, at 2 P. M., to-day.

Closing devotions were then said by the Bishop, and receiving his Blessing, the Council adjourned sine die.

A. CLEVELAND COXE,

Bishop and President.

CHARLES W. HAYES,

Secretary.

APPENDIX I.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

TO THE FIFTY-FIRST COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE.

My Reverend Brethren, and Brethren of the Laity:

The close of another Diocesan year brings to us the grateful commemoration of half a century of mercies. I well remember, in my childhood, with what enthusiasm the Fiftieth Anniversary of our National Independence was observed, and how very old and long gone-by seemed the date of that event to my inexperience. But now, in view of a like period, I remember the formation of this Diocese and all the preliminary measures that ensured it as a thing of yesterday. Fifty years have done great things for us, whereof we may be glad. I will not anticipate what you will hear from another, but I will say here that, in God's gift to the Diocese of such an Apostolic man as De Lancey, and in his long Episcopate, blessings were conferred upon the whole American Church, as well as upon ourselves, which ought, often, to be brought to mind. He started us right, and upon the lines he laid down we have made our progress since. Oh! had we only been more zealous, more devoted, what might we not have seen about us to-day here in our academic seat, and where he dwelt so many years in godliness and in the patient discharge of duty.

On many accounts it is worth all it may exact to celebrate such an epoch. There is a new generation in the field, and they must not be left in ignorance of our antecedents. Those who come after us must be able to say: "Our fathers have told us." Such is the value of commemorations, and because they are useful, they are made a duty by the example and precept of Scripture. "What we have heard and known and such as our fathers have told us, we should not hide from the children of the generations to come."

I have invited you to Geneva for this feast of commemoration for obvious reasons. We open the festival in this Memorial Church, and where Hobart College stands as our golden link between the present and the past. Of the progressive value of the College to our country, as well as to the Church of Christ, I shall add a few words before I close. You will be invited to a social gathering on the College grounds, and you cannot but feel gratified by what you will see of recent improvements. I am happy to add that a delegation (the Very Reverend Dean Geddes, the Venerable Archdeacon McMurray, and the Reverend Canon Read,) has been named by our neighbouring Diocese of Niagara to visit us and assure us of their cordial interest in our Semi-Centennial. You will find an opportunity to welcome them to seats of dignity as our honoured guests. From the Mother Diocese of New York we have a veteran presbyter, a learned divine and a true Hobart Churchman in the Rev. Dr. Spencer, of New York, who comes to congratulate us; let him, also, be personally greeted. From the Bishops of Minnesota, New York, Nebraska and Albany, cordial letters have been received. To my great regret the Bishop of Central New York is not able to be with us, but his Diocese is represented by a goodly band of presbyters, over which it was once my privilege to preside in the Diocese as originally constituted. To one of these presbyters I shall assign the honour of representing his Bishop as Celebrant in the Holy Eucharist.

The labours of your Bishop have been interrupted, as you know, by his going abroad; but for some time previously he felt the great disadvantage of impaired health, and though he was obliged to omit very little of his customary routine, he is conscious of a very imperfect discharge of his work. Conflicting duties which might have overtaxed a man in the prime of life, were a sore trial of mind and body. Several times he was warned to stop working by experienced medical advisers, and therefore he felt the less doubtful as to his duty when his constitutional counsellors favoured his acceptance of the invitation to Lambeth. But extraordinary rains and prolonged cold prevailed in Europe, and the exacting demands of the Conference afforded him little refreshment while he sojourned in England. After resting a few weeks in Germany, however, and enjoying the sea-air in the homeward voyage, he reached his Diocese on S. Luke's Day, and resumed his official duties in this village, with no sense of physical incapacity. He felt profoundly that he had reaped the benefit of multiplied prayers in his behalf. His return trip was like an excursion of pleasure on the lake that beautifies the shore on which we are now gathered. Day by day it seemed to give vigour and tone to returning health. May not your grateful Bishop rely on continued prayers in his behalf? that he may prove for a little longer period of life a fruit-bearing tree in God's husbandry, and not a "cumberer of the ground."

During my absence, my beloved friend and brother, the Bishop of Nebraska, has laid me under great obligations by supplying my lack of service in a considerable number of the parishes that would otherwise have suffered by my absence. To my request for this help he kindly responded before I left, and so greatly relieved my mind. I am truly grateful to him for his most acceptable work among us. He is, in some sense, a son of the Diocese, as a graduate of Hobart, and is beloved for his kindred and his family name, so highly esteemed in Western New York. As the venerated De Lancey was my consecrator, so, in turn, I was privileged to consecrate Bishop Worthington; and the filial spirit he cherishes toward the Diocese has doubly endeared him to those who were so happy as to receive his ministrations, and not less to me his elder brother in the Episcopate.

The Bishop of Nebraska administered confirmation in my behalf to 116 souls. This number is added to the number confirmed by myself in the table of Diocesan work appended to this Address in the Journal.

For the well-ordering of your affairs in my absence, my first acknowledgments are due to the President of the Standing Committee, and to the Clergy and Laity of that Committee as well. So wise and prudent is the judgment, and so efficient the action of my Reverend Brother Van Dyck in his relations to the Church, that I felt confident that all would be well done in my absence under his direction. He was virtually the Vicar-General of the Diocese—for such is the nature of what our Canons assign to his office in the absence of the Bishop. Next, my acknowledgments are due to the Reverend Deans of the Convocations, who have watched over the sacred interests of our missionary stations. My thanks are especially due to the Rector of this Church, who, as Chief of this Deanery, has been called to a hard task, though a pleasant one, in reconstructing an important missionary district, and in securing for it a handsome legacy, of which you will hear more by and by. For his labours at East Bloomfield, making it the point of operations on three important stations, dear to me and to the Diocese for their interesting history, and opening for it a prospect of enlarged as well as renewed usefulness, he merits our grateful acknowledgments. But to all my reverend brethren and to the working Laity I offer my own appreciative homage for the due progress of affairs during the months in which, under God, the Diocese has gone on in its orderly course without Episcopal direction.

I have to lament an unusually large death-list among faithful laymen and Christian women of the Diocese. One of my reverend brethren (the Rector of Christ Church, Albion), writes: "It has been a sad summer and autumn for our sorely afflicted Parish. Among those gone to their eternal reward are some of our noblest and best; among them Zephaniah Clark, our Senior Warden for nearly forty years, and H. W. Preston, Warden and Vestryman for many years. You have lost your devoted friend, Mrs. Sterling." This is indeed a serious loss to me. He adds: "Mrs. Moore, a sister of the late Mr. Harrington, and a number of other faithful communicants (28 in all during the past year), have rested from their labours." When the clergy send me such reports, sad as they are, they aid my memory in making mention of those whom it gives me delight to honour. With pain I must here record, besides, the names of some from whom I have accepted pleasant hospitalities, and who have aided me in Church work, such as were my lamented friends, Augustus Porter, and Stoughton Pettibone, of Niagara Falls; E. D. Sanders, of Stafford; William Woltge, Mrs. James N. Matthews, of Buffalo; George P. York, many years Warden of S. Peter's, Westfield; J. F. Bly, Warden of S. Paul's, Mayville; Thomas Agar, Warden of Trinity Church, Warsaw. I shall find, I fear, that other beloved names have been omitted; but I must not forget that of a saintly child, a choir-boy in Trinity Church, Frederick Betts Foster.

For every day of my absence from my Diocese I feel that I am accountable to you, as well as to my own conscience and to my Master, Christ. I trust the record which will appear in your Journal will show that I have not been as "the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock." Absent in the body on business not less yours than my own, I have been with you daily in spirit, and I have hastened homeward as soon as I could without damage to the strength required for your service. I say this the more earnestly because there is a growing popular feeling against what are called "clerical vacations," which even where it is exaggerated, ungenerous and unjust (as it really is in many cases), the conscientious pastor is bound to consult, "giving none offence that the ministry be not blamed." A large majority of our devoted clergy work on, year after year, with rare intervals of rest. Separated, in most cases, from kindred and friends of youth, they are often forced, by lack of means, to deny themselves even an annual visit to aged parents or others dear as their own lives. Yet who considers all this and what it costs the heart and the spirit of a man, an only son, perhaps, or a loving brother? But let Providence open to one such sufferer an exceptional chance to visit his early home and for a few Sundays to rest from wearing and ill-requited work, you will find men base enough to pillory him in newspapers as a self-indulgent shepherd caring not for the sheep. I wish every day-labourer, and the toiling workmen, called "hands," in mines and mills, might have their summer "outing." Christian charity is at least working towards this, and giving children a taste of sweet air and a sight of woods and streams. But no less, now and then, when a faithful pastor gets a few weeks for a sea-voyage and a sight of foreign lands, we rejoice in the well-earned respite from mental fatigue, and the constant and conflicting cares of pastoral life. Only let no pastor ever close his church in order to such refreshment. Brethren in Orders, or at least lay-readers, may always be found for a supply. If the Rector cannot provide for a church always open on the Lord's Day, if not also on week-days, let him stick to work. Closed churches are a scandal which may well excite the infidel's mockery and the people's hate. There is no excuse for such disregard of holy days and holy work, and surely if one's absence is to inflict spiritual harm and peril on a single soul, the priest of God must die at his post. God has spared the lives of the Clergy of this Diocese, and strengthened many of advanced years to "bear more fruit in their age," in a proportion which claims our devout gratitude. I am called to lament the death of one, however, who belonged to this latter class of venerated brethren. The Rev. Fortune C. Brown, of Rochester, was a man of no inconsiderable attainments in theology, who, as such things are now dispensed, merited academic honours which he never received. Quite recently he published a work on the Apocalypse which well repays examination, and which is written in the spirit of one who believes that he is blessed indeed who "readeth . . . the words of this prophecy and keepeth those things which are written therein." I have often noted the calm and holy contentment with which his study of this precious book had suffused his temperament. He was long a parochial pastor in this Diocese, and to the last he rendered efficient service as Chaplain of the "Church Home," in Rochester. Precious, indeed, should be the memory and the example of this man of God to me first among his brethren, and then to all the clergy and laity of the Diocese.

Last year I read the names of five of our Bishops who had been summoned to their solemn account since the Convention of 1886. And now the death-roll is lengthened by the names of four others, all numbered among our younger Bishops. I mention in the order of their several consecrations the honoured names of Welles and Brown and Harris and Dunlop, one and all taken from Western and Missionary regions of the Church; for even Michigan has exacted the most exhausting labours from the beloved apostle whose death is so universally lamented. Of this last mentioned brother I must be pardoned for adding a tribute of my private friendship, because he was endeared to me not only "for his works' sake," but by multiplied personal ties. Walking with an English clergyman, near Westminster Abbey, I saw the soldier-like figure of Bishop Harris at a little distance, evidently coming away from the office of the S. P. G., in Delahay Street. "Look," said I, "look at that man! It is the Bishop of Michigan; one of whom we are all proud, if one may use a bad word to express a good thought, 'in honour preferring one another.' You must not lose a chance to know him." So I introduced my friend, to whom I explained the reasons which led me to believe he was destined to be a power in the American Church for years to come. How little we can foresee; how unsearchable is the wisdom of God. I never saw him again, though I called on him repeatedly after the fatal attack, only to learn that he was not allowed to receive any visitors, and was, in fact, usually unable to recognize a friend. In that last casual interview our conversation turned, almost exclusively, upon the severe illness of our common friend, Governor Baldwin, who had been stricken down at Constantinople and was not expected to survive. This, of itself, was a terrible blow to the Bishop, for oh! how such a layman endears himself to a chief pastor. Let us thank the Lord that he who was sick beyond all hopes is spared to us, though the Bishop who had seeming promise of many years to come is so mysteriously removed. But I have elsewhere spoken concerning both these faithful servants of Christ and His Church, and I must add no more. When I speak of Bishop Harris it is hard to stop. Blessed be his name and the memory of his work in the Church below, as I feel assured it is among the saints in light.

I must make exceptional mention of one whose death was to me a severe personal affliction, and whose services in the Church of Christ can never be forgotten. Dean Burgon's learning and fidelity have saved from the rapacity of spoilers, the last twelve verses of the Gospel of S. Mark, which hasty and superficial critics had well nigh erased from Holy Writ. He has, also, as a secondary result of his processes of research, induced a general distrust of those two ancient Codices, which, because they are the oldest now extant, have been rashly credited with commensurate authority, even where the authority of Fathers quoting even older MSS., sustains the Received Text. It is now the probable verdict of scholars that these two ancient Codices may have owed their preservation to their comparative worthlessness: they have been thrown aside, while more faithful records of the Scripture were thumbed to shreds by students and copyists.

We owe it to Dean Burgon, also, that the dear old English Bible retains its unshaken position among all the English-speaking peoples of the earth. For without any unkind reflection upon the Revision, it is evident that as a whole it can never become "The Bible" among these peoples—the mighty nations of a no-distant future. And be it remembered, that we owe this great blessing, not so much to the fervid rhetoric of the Dean's defences of God's holy Word, as to the long years of unselfish and patient toil, in which he had laid up in store such a magazine of citations from the Fathers as made him master of the controversy. I have seen his rich collection of patristic authorities, and it is safe to say that it would take a dozen years of hard labour even to examine and compare them. He made himself autocrat of the discussion, by his seizure of the positions on which Textual Criticism must be based. In this domain, he has shown himself inferior to no scholar of our time; and he will be remembered with Brian Walton and other great ornaments of the University of Oxford, who have given their lives to the task of preserving in its integrity, the priceless treasure of the Sacred Scriptures. Nor can I conclude without a tribute to the importance of those volumes of Sacred Biography which come to us, as it were, out of his sepulchre, a legacy to the Church; a true history of the period in which he was called to be a witness for Truth amidst apostasies and treacheries which must leave a stain of infamy upon the England of the Victorian Period. God forgive the men who have turned their back upon the Anglican Reformation; who have proved themselves incapable of estimating the blessing which it has accumulated upon their nation and their race; and who, with circumstances of unexampled perfidy, have gone over to the prostitute embrace of Rome, at the very moment when Latin nations have found her tyrannies insupportable, and when the greatest of her theologians have been forced to fly from her as the mother of new heresies, the fomenter of schisms, and the fabricator of a system of morals, not less corrosive than the ethics of paganism itself. Everyone who wishes to understand the times and some of the greatest perils of the epoch, should read "The Lives of Twelve Good Men," the posthumous publication to which I have thus referred. It is a comfort to compare the faithful with the faithless, in such a generation; to look at the Church of a Routh, a Wilberforce and a Wordsworth, in contrast with that of the Jesuits who made poor Pio Nono the instrument of their iniquities, and then persuaded him to pronounce himself infallible in order to rivet their own ascendancy upon the Nations. Upon the Nations, I say, for that is what they think of; that is what they have just forced the comparatively respectable Leo XIII. to demand in their behalf, though he and they well know that the temporal power of the Papacy destroyed itself by its superlative infamy, and that it cannot be regained without a deluge of bloodshed and the ruin of free states. In the next ages, Dean Burgon's biographies, which breathe no spirit of controversy, and do justice even to all that can be said for the most unworthy of delinquents, will ensure the verdict of candid men in honour of those who withstood the mysterious apostasy of the Victorian Period. And foremost among these will be found Hugh James Rose, an ally of Hobart, and the early friend of the American Church. He was a great witness to the Primitive Church of England, and the real author of the Catholic Revival of "'Tis Sixty Years Since."

Of the Lambeth Conference you have heard enough from many sources, and much remains to be learned about it, from documents and elucidations which will be sure to appear. I ask your attention to the one feature of its results which, in my opinion, is its great characteristic, and which makes the year of Grace 1888 an important epoch, not merely for the Anglican Communion, but for the whole of Christendom. Hear, once more, what was wrung out of the conscience of one of her most hostile assailants as long ago as A. D. 1796, when as yet the contemporaries of Dr. Johnson were on the stage. Just then MARTIN JOSEPH ROUTH, who connects that age with our own, produced from the University Press the Vulgate version of the Scriptures, as a gift to the Gallican refugees of the period. And then, when very little else that superficial minds could appreciate seemed to justify his oracle, the cynical DeMaistre uttered a remarkable conjecture or prediction, which I quoted in a contribution to Blackwood's Magazine, in May, 1849, as follows:

"If ever Christians reunite, as all things make it their interest to do, it would seem that the movement must take rise in the Church of England. We are too far removed from sectarians, and there is no means whereby they may comprehend us, but the Church of England, which touches us with one hand, touches with the other a class we cannot reach. And although in a certain point of view, she may on this very account be made the butt of both parties—as being herself rebellious while preaching authority—yet, in other respects, she is most precious, and may be regarded as resembling those chemical intermèdes which are capable of bringing into unity elements in themselves the most discordant."*

Now, what De Maistre saw in this great Church, even so long ago, has ever since been ripening for God's time of action. His Providence has, meantime, cast her "seed upon many waters" and reproduced her, in all parts of the earth. All things are now ready, and with equal prudence and decision the Lambeth Conference of 1888 has recognized this great mission of the Anglican Churches and this call of God. Never before has she uttered a voice which has elicited such immediate responses. Well has the venerable Döllinger pronounced her present position enviable; and the Congress at Heidelberg, where the Church of Holland took part with the German Old Catholics, in progressive measures for restored unity, has not less paid tribute to her fraternal appeal and her high Christian influence. Our great Anglo-Catholic Communion is now seen in her true position, and will be felt more and more. Such is my estimate of what this Conference has done for the whole family of Christ, apart from all other features of its work: and ardently do I trust that every one of us will rise to the grandeur of our Catholic relations and the inspiring nature of our task. So long as the breath is in my body, I pray, God, I may not be found unworthy of a humble share in the efforts to which we are thus invited. I trust our American Church may be led by His Holy Spirit to understand her duties and her opportunities, and to prove her Apostolic claims, by a Primitive Faith, a holy Hope, and a discriminating but all-embracing Charity.

Now let me briefly and rapidly touch upon matters of practical importance to the great interests you are assembled to promote. First, let me speak of the "Enrollment" plan, devised by wise and pious Laymen for the purpose of securing a systematic Financial system. I refer you to what I said on the subject last year, only adding that, soon after our last meeting, I obtained by personal solicitation the valuable aid of the Reverend Dr. Doty as Treasurer for an extemporized experiment as to the feasibility of the scheme among our clergy and people. To the not unfruitful product of his kind interest in the matter I invite your attention, should Dr. Doty be prepared to make a report to you of his experiment and its encouraging results. It will be carried forward during the coming year under his practical skill, and, I trust, will make at least, a respectable showing for the Diocese, before we report to the General Convention of 1889.

Your Diocesan Board of Missions will present statements of which I propose to speak particularly, when it comes before you in order of business. Its faithful and zealous Financial Secretary, Mr. D. M. Dewey, confined to his chamber by serious illness, has nevertheless draughted his annual statement with his own hand, and sent it to me with expressions of poignant regret that he is not permitted to be with us at this Semi-Centennial meeting. He is one of those veterans who remember the entire history of the Diocese from a personal share in its work. Nobody equals him in the intelligent thought he has given to aggressive Missionary effort in Western New York. Had we only a score of laymen equally devoted to the Diocesan Missionary work, your offerings would be doubled, and flourishing churches would soon be established in a score of stations now languishing for want of your aid and sympathy. I beseech you, look after "the next towns."

Last year I spoke a few earnest words on the subject of our Deaconesses, and the need of a larger number. One has been added, and is doing good in her office and ministry in the Parish of S. Luke's, Rochester. But it is a reproach to the Christian womanhood of this Diocese that it has furnished volunteers so few among those who might do woman's work for their Saviour in this calling. It has failed to recognize its opportunity by holy example and self-devotion to establish a great instrumentality in the American Church, such as was glorified by Phœbe and others, among S. Paul's disciples, who carried into another form of fidelity to Christ that same ardent love which when even "apostles shrunk" and forsook their Master, led holy women to be "last at the cross and earliest at the grave."

Circumstances of a painful character have forced upon my attention the great value of the Canon which established the Ecclesiastical Court of this Diocese, as a permanent institution. Experience, and not theory, has led the Court to practical conclusions about the existing "Rules of Procedure" which they have been expected to revise and to offer for your consideration. The learning and sound judgment of the Chancellor of the Diocese, it is hardly necessary to add, have been conspicuous in his official relations with the Court, and any recommendation which may be made to this Council will no doubt have been submitted to his judicial sanction, if not suggested by his own long experience and wisdom. I invite your serious attention to this subject, if the report should be made, at this session; and I think some grateful recognition of the Chancellor's long, unwearied, and unrecompensed services to the Diocese, and to its Bishop, in his very responsible office, ought now, at this Semi-Centennial period, to be recorded upon your journals.

Your attention must here be directed to the relations of this Diocese and of Hobart College, with "the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning in the State of New York." Finding the late Bishop of New York intensely opposed to views which I was forced to present for his consideration, at a great crisis in the history of Hobart College, I resolved to act on the Divine precept of forbearance, and to move no further in this matter till he might himself open to me the mollia tempora fandi. This the venerable prelate never did, and I could not disturb the tranquility of his dignified decline by any agitation of business so distasteful to him. I should fail to perform a great duty, however, now when God has made me the Senior Bishop of the Five Dioceses, and when I am sure the present Bishop of New York will listen with his accustomed candour and fraternal charity to a calm statement of our case, should I fail to promote a thorough reviewal of claims in which all these Dioceses have an equal interest.

I have mentioned the honoured presence with us of the Rev. Dr. Spencer, and shall ask him to favour us with some account of the actual state of a Fund on which, also, this Diocese has a recognized claim; "the Corporation for the Relief of the Widows and Children of Clergymen Deceased." I have already urged the parishes to invest $8.00 annually, at Christmas, to afford their rectors, or missionaries, this great resource, in case of "premature decease"—as it is commonly called. What a comfort to the Christian pastor to feel in such case that something is provided by Christian love, or at least by the recognition of Christian duty. This noble and now wealthy Corporation received its charter, in Colonial days, from King George III.; and the entire State of New York, and not merely the city, is the recognized field of its operations. My friend, Dr. Spencer, has been for many years the Secretary of this Society, and indeed I may say a zealous and efficient chief in its practical direction.

It is not too early to begin consideration of the topics which must, next year, be carried up to our great General Legislature, which is to meet in New York. Let me name, first of all, and as of vital importance, the necessity of reforming the Constitution of the Lower House, by giving to each diocese a proportionate and not a less equitable representation. Those who contribute largely should be allowed to dispose of their gifts, and so should those who give less; but certainly the less should not override the greater in this matter. Yet it is said that "the twenty-five smallest dioceses have 79,227 communicants, and can outvote the other twenty-four with 225,943 communicants. New York, with 44,256 communicants, counts no more than Arkansas with 1,364. The twenty-five smaller dioceses gave last year $8,025 to Foreign Missions, and they can outvote, on a question of the expenditure of missionary money, the other twenty-four which gave $314,296." But the perpetual exclusion from our great Council of some of our wisest and most laborious, as well as most beneficent clergy and laity, makes a sufficient call for reform. That the great Diocese of New York should be liable to be neutralized by the vote of some new diocese, supported in large measure, perhaps, by its beneficence, and that a diocese of three or four hundred Clergy should be condemned to see some of its ablest clergy sentenced for life to exclusion from our great Council, while contributing in the largest degree to the carrying out of its canons and practical measures, is an enormity totally out of harmony with our American and Anglo-Saxon principles of representation and taxation.

Something should be done to preserve the sanctity of the Historic Episcopate, as a trust committed to us by God Himself, from the humiliations which have been recently inflicted upon it. By hasty and unwise elections of persons who could not have been expected to consider such an election as the call of God, or by refusals to take up the yoke and burthen when the election has borne every token of being like the lot which "fell upon Matthias," a grievous fault has been incurred, somehow. Some must give account for rashly handling the Pentecostal ark, in which the Holy Spirit has committed the Ascension gift of Christ Himself to our stewardship. The canon of this Diocese, which provides for such elections as a religious solemnity and a Christian rite, embodies much of what seems to me due to our doctrine of the Episcopate, as written in the Ordinal. I wish the whole Church might enact as good a canon or a much better one, and I wish, also, that, to prevent the scandal of long and heated conflicts in diocesan elections of this class, any diocese might have the privilege of referring to the House of Bishops, three good names, with a pledge to accept the one on which the choice of that Apostolic College might fall. Let the deputies you are about to select think seriously of this great matter.

On the subject of Prayer Book Revision, the Lambeth Conference has thrown out a caution which I trust we shall lay to heart. No such revision should bear the impress of the moment, or of a passing fashion in thought or expression. Everything added should come back to us from the Liturgic treasures of the whole Church. Happily, most of what has been done in this matter, has been a return to the wisdom of the past, and not an experiment in favour of novelties: and so may it ever be, if ever revision seems desirable.

Our Hymnal is also undergoing revision, and surely it is a sore necessity. I have never asked my Diocese to accept the present Hymnal, and our old "prayer-book hymnal" was so much better that its lawful use was one condition on which I consented to vote for permission to use the new book. In my opinion, a Church Hymnal should provide Introits, and Antiphons, from the Psalter, for every Feast and Fast of the year, and an Anthem for every day which has a Collect. Then, about 150 hymns or spiritual songs of long-tried merit, and suited to our grand old Anglican tunes, should be added. Certainly no more. Away with the nauseous ditties and jig-songs which so sadly contrast with the Te Deum and the other hymns of the service itself. They have greatly degraded our solemnities of late, letting us down to the level, almost, of "camp-meeting" melodies or the minstrelsy of a strolling "Salvation Army."

As to the Revision of the English Bible, something should be done to amend the margin, in my opinion, and there it should end, but this is a matter in which, I think, the initiative should be taken by the House of Bishops. To each Bishop, at his consecration, the Holy Scriptures are committed as a depositum; and "the witness and keeper" of the Sacred Canon fulfills her trust, primarily by their faithful stewardship.

And here, had I time, I should say something with reference to more decided action by the whole Church in behalf of our schools and colleges, their lavish endowment and their practical employment to educate our children. Grateful am I to God for what has been done in Buffalo by a voluntary effort upon the part of a few laymen, sustained, of course, by their pastors, but begun and operated by themselves for the education of girls. S. Margaret's School, in Buffalo, seems now to be placed on a firm foundation, and, under God, is already doing much for young Christian women in a great and greatly improving city. The age is corrupting the youth of both sexes, and seems inclined to return to barbarism if its loose ideas of marriage and the grossly immoral literature of the period are not soon rebuked by some moralist who will be heeded or by some terrible chastisements of the Most High. At such a period our oldest and best endowed University is openly arraigned by a popular periodical for the excesses which are said to be more than tolerated among its pupils, and for the influences that surround them and encourage their debauchery. Greatly have I honoured Harvard, not only because some of my forefathers were there educated, but because, in many respects, it is the noblest seat of learning in America. I trust it may be able to refute the assailant; but, I know from my own observation, that young men, and especially those who have had a free allowance of money, have been exposed to perils the most fatal to youthful character. The extravagance which is there indulged, and the habits, inconsistent with study and with good morals, which are there too frequently formed, with no counterbalancing Christian principle or Church influences to arrest the inevitable consequences, would make me afraid to subject a son to such an institution as Harvard is just now. The other Colleges of New England have remonstrated with its regents, for debasing the current-coin of academic degrees, and making its B. A. mean something less than what it professes to be, on its face, according to the universal use of words. But this is a minor offence, and will correct itself, unless Harvard prefers to become a vast polytechnic "Lyceum" instead of the grandest University on this continent; an honour to which she may lay claim, if she chooses to level up instead of leveling down. The graver question is: Has she driven out Discipline and let mad Riot in, thus debasing her ethical standard? If so, we need the old Athenian Law, though not administered as it was to Socrates. Some of its doctrinaires should be made to drink the hemlock of a righteous popular reprobation for corrupting the morals of youth.

Here, in Hobart College, we have the resource of parents whose first inquiry is: How can I do my duty to my baptized sons, for whom I must answer to God at His bar, as I have done at the Font? We have a college where no youth need go astray, and where he lives secure at least from unnatural and artificial exposures to temptation, under the uplifting and educating maternity of the Church. Parents must reflect that had we fifty professors, an undergraduate could only attend the instructions of a few of them, and all the instruction that such a student can profitably receive is here supplied. In its chief departments, at least, the supply is not defective, and nowhere in the land are more thoroughly furnished professors to be found. Under President Potter many advantageous improvements have been secured. Greater things remain to be done; but a youth who earns his B. A. in this College, as it now is, and then pursues his "specialty" in Europe or America at some school more largely endowed, will be fortunate, in my opinion, for he gets his education in the safest and wisest way. No mere lad is fit to become a "specialist," or to choose for himself his future course. At Hobart College a youth will be gradually formed into a capacity for choosing his course of life, and will thus escape the characteristic perils and mistakes of the American boy.

I have invited the "Church Congress" (so called) to meet next month in our See-City of Buffalo, and I should rejoice to see there, in attendance on its sessions, every member of this Council. This voluntary adjunct of our Church Councils has suffered greatly of late by reason of certain indiscretions in its management which have threatened it with extinction. I might (were it not a mean thing to say I told you so) very consistently decline to take any share in its further fortunes. Some of you will remember that, at its first start, I incurred its displeasure by pointing out the inevitable drift of all such organizations if suffered to assume a virtually presbyterial form, and to throw off the Divine checks and restraints of our Apostolic régime. My objections may have had no weight with the managers of this Institution ; but, nevertheless, they were met by the requisite remedies, which I am happy to believe were suggested by the instincts of Churchmen, and their own delicate sense of propriety and consistency. The "Church Congress" became a power, and, I think, a power for good. Notably, in Boston, in Detroit, in Philadelphia, and New Haven, their meetings gave a happy impulse to Church work. I am unwilling to see an experiment which had so much to say for itself, ignominiously perishing by suicide. In England, the like Institutions have been signally successful in moving the masses and awakening the people. In the neighbouring Diocese of Niagara, whose delegates are with us to-day, I attended a "Church Congress," which was admirably directed, and from which I gathered instruction, and, I trust, spiritual help. The rule is, to give every respectable school in the Church its chance to show itself and to set forth its case. But, obviously, this rule must not be stretched to the verge of fatal inconsistency with the Constitution and Canons of the Church, which every Churchman is bound to honour, and to which every clergyman has sworn a solemn oath of conformity. These are my ideas of this matter, and by them I have been influenced, in consenting to preside over a meeting of the Congress in my Diocese. I think the great city of Buffalo just the place in which such an Institution may exert a most beneficial influence, provided the Blessed Spirit affords us His presence and His holy help. We are a most worldly and self-indulgent city. Matérialism, the bane of American progress, here as more repulsively elsewhere, reigns supreme, and inflicts the most serious and corrosive impressions on our social state. The principle of action and re-action is too commonly exhibited in violent tendencies to extremes. Imitative caprice starts a fashion, all are whirled forward in one direction; then succeeds disgust, which suddenly throws the current in an opposite line and forces it far beyond the limits of propriety. Yet, Buffalo has many noble characteristics, and many of its citizens are wisely disposed, at this crisis in its history, to "approve things that are excellent," and to aspire to what is pure and of good report. I trust, therefore, that our more frequent intercourse with all that is best among men will decide our future, and make us a polite as well as a prosperous city; a centre not only of railways, but of Art and Letters and Social Refinement: in a word, a Christian "Queen City of the Lakes," and a source of light and moral elevation to all that lies beyond, in that world of problem and enigma, our Titanic "cloud-compelling" minatory West.

III FOREIGN.

Sunday, June 3. First after Trinity. At sea. Steamer "Champagne," in an apartment kindly lent for the purpose, Evening Prayer. Officiated (assisted by the Rev. Abbot Brown), and an exhortation.

Sunday, 10. Second after Trinity. At sea. Off the coast of France, in a dense fog, with "two or three" in a state-room. Morning Prayer (unofficially) read.

N. B.—Afterward, visited the steeragers—mostly Italians and French. Exhorted them to hallow the day and feel their dependence upon the Lord. I here record my thanks to Mr. Wm. H. Bogart, the life-long friend of Hobart College (since deceased) who had given me tracts in the French language, which I distributed to the French (men and women) who were willing to accept them. To my great joy, those who could read them did so, and groups gathered about them, to whom some read aloud. Let Christians going abroad imitate the forethought of my lamented friend, Mr. Bogart, now with God as I gratefully and tenderly trust.

Monday, 11. Havre. Entered a church and prayed for the Church in France, and for my own work among "Gallicans" Did the same on the following days, and always on visiting the churches of the Roman Rite, while travelling in France.

Wednesday, 13. Paris. American Church of the Holy Trinity, in the Ave. de l'Alma. Attended morning service, gave thanks for return from sea, and commended my work to the Great Head of the Church. Afterwards, with the rector, and subsequently with others, devoted the morning to examining the condition of the "Gallican" work in France.

Thursday, 14. Neuilly. Conference with the Père Hyacinthe.

N. B.—After this, while in Paris, devoted several hours daily (or exceptionally, at least, one hour), to important measures of inquiry and effort, as visiting the Gallicans of Paris, by invitation, and as chairman of a committee authorized by the American Bishops.

Sunday, 17. Third after Trinity. In the Gallican Church, Rue d'Arras. Presided at the morning office. Conference with the clergy and people.

Same day. In the American Church. Evening Prayer. Officiated, preached and administered confirmation.

Thursday, 21. Met the confirmants on whom I laid hands on Sunday last, for fatherly instruction and counsel.

Sunday, 24. Fourth after Trinity, and S. John Baptist. In the American Church. Early Communion. Officiated. Afterwards, at morning service, officiated and preached.

Same day. Gallican Church. Administered confirmation according to the Gallican Rite (with a brief address in English to American and English Christians who were present), with prayers, etc.

N. B.—The Rector (Père Hyacinthe) read to the congregation my letter to the Archbishop of Paris, recognizing his jurisdiction, but, also, stating my resolution, after Catholic example, to administer confirmation to young members of his flock (whom he had treated as excommunicated, not because they were heretics, but because they had refused to become such, at the bidding of the Court of Rome) unless he should prevent me by undertaking to do his duty to them as a Bishop of the Gallican Church. I left Paris on S. Peter's Day, and arrived in Canterbury.

Saturday, 30. Canterbury. Cathedral. The Archbishop received the Bishops from all parts of the world, at Evening Prayer, and gave them an address of welcome. I attended in my place.

N. B.—This day, 200 years ago, "the Seven Bishops" were acquitted, and a great epoch in English History was made by this event. (1.) It was to ancient Bishops that England owed her existence as a State. (2.) To the same order she owed the Magna Charta and the Anglican Liberties. (3.) To the same order, the testimony of martyrdom and the English Bible and Catholic Restoration. (4.) To the same order, the extinction of the Puritan Rebellion. (5.) And the expulsion of a Romanist Dynasty. (6.) And to the same order, the founding of Colonial Churches, and the extension of Nicene Catholicity into all parts of the world.

Sunday, July 1. Fifth after Trinity. After duly attending Divine Service with several Bishops, Canon Fremantle and others, a conference concerning the Gallican Church and our duties to the same. Also, a visit to S. Augustine's College and its Warden, Dr. Maclear, whose useful manuals I have commended to my Diocese. See Journal of 1879, p. 82.

Monday, 2. Westminster Abbey. Evening Prayer. Attended with the Bishops of the Lambeth Conference, the solemn preliminary service, at which the Primate delivered his memorable sermon to them and others.

N. B.—The residue of the week devoted to my duties at Lambeth, and to numerous committees and conferences thereto pertaining.

Sunday, 8. Sixth after Trinity. Westminster Abbey. Morning Service. Officiated and preached, and celebrated the Holy Eucharist.

N. B.—The Rev. Charles H. Smith, of Buffalo, assisted at this solemnity, the Dean officiating in all parts special to his office. The week was devoted to committees at Ely House and elsewhere. I was not well enough to accept other engagements.

N. B.—This week devoted to the closing services of the Lambeth Conference.

Sunday, 29. Ninth after Trinity. Lea. (Gainsboro, in the Diocese of Lincoln.) Evening Prayer, officiated and preached.

Tuesday, 31. Durham. Cathedral. At a special service (and administration of Minor Orders by the Bishop), about 60 bishops present, with an overflowing congregation of clergy and laity, preached the sermon.

N. B.—There was a Choral Festival at Evening Prayer, and this, with university ceremonies and hospitalities, filled up the day and evening.

Friday, August 3. Farnham Castle. Meeting of the Anglo-Continental Society, the Bishop of Winchester presiding. I made an address.

Sunday, 5. Tenth after Trinity. London. Savoy Chapel. Morning Service. Officiated and preached.

Same day. S. Thomas', Regent St. A sermon to "Working Men." Preached.

N. B.—Not recognizing the service as in any respect the worship of the Prayer Book, I quietly left the church on descending from the pulpit, having kept my engagement, made in entire ignorance of the extraordinary proceedings to which I was introduced.

The week was devoted to conferences and committees, at which, among others, I met Bishop Herzog, of Switzerland, and the Reverend Presbyterian Van Santen, of the Church of Holland (called "Jansenist"), and Cabrera, of the Reformed Church in Spain, with divers Bishops and Clergy of England and Ireland.

Saturday, 11. Oxford. Attended the funeral of the great and good Dean Burgon, in Holywell Churchyard, paying the last solemn rites to one of the most brilliant lights of the Church of England that has illuminated this century.

Sunday, 12. Eleventh after Trinity. London. Attended Divine Service at St. Paul's, and at All Souls, Langham Place, but did not officiate. Made my last attempt to see the beloved Bishop of Michigan.

On the following day, a further (informal) conference with Old Catholics.

Sunday, 9. Fifteenth after Trinity. Heidelberg. Attended Divine Service and the Holy Communion, in the English Chapel. Afterwards, at the Old Catholic Service in the H. G. Kirche, Dr. Stubenvoll preaching and officiating. Afterwards, conference with Old Catholics, and especially with Professor Holzer, one of the secretaries of the recent Congress.

Afterwards, with the same dignitaries, attended the Old Catholic Service in the Spital Kirche (S. Anna's) and preached, by aid of an interpreter, on the text "Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason, etc." I. Pet. iii. 15.

Wednesday, 19. Ember day. Heidelberg. At the English Chapel. Celebrated the Holy Eucharist; an exhortation.

Same day. Trinity Church. Meeting of ladies in behalf of the Gallican work. Organized a committee.

Attended Evening Prayer, in the same church, to "commit my way unto the Lord."

N. B.—In all this work in Paris, the Reverend Dr. Morgan, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, has shown himself a devoted friend and ally of the efforts thus made, in behalf of the Gallican Church. And I gratefully record his constant kindness and attentions to myself. On the 6th of October, I embarked for New York, in the "Bourgoyne," from Havre. On the 7th (Nineteenth after Trinity) read the prayers of the Church morning and evening in my state-room. On the 14th (Twentieth after Trinity), landed at New York, after a "prosperous journey by the will of God."

WITH ACCOMPANYING PAPERS.

(A.) STANDING COMMITTEE.

To the Fifty-First Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

The Standing Committee respectfully reports its official acts for the Diocesan year 1887-8, as follows :

SEPT. 21st, 1887.

The Committee met in the Guild Room of Trinity Church, Buffalo, and organized by the election of the Rev. L. B. Van Dyck, President, and the Rev. Walter North, Secretary.

A list of offerings for the ensuing year was directed to be prepared and sent to the Parishes, and the Assessment for Diocesan expenses fixed at one per cent. on their current expenses.

The Secretary of the Council was directed to make arrangements with Messrs. Baker, Jones & Co., of Buffalo, for the printing of the Diocesan Journals at a cost not to exceed three hundred and fifty dollars.

Nov. 15th, 1887.

Canonical consent was given to the consecration of the Reverend James S. Johnston, Rector of Trinity Church, Mobile, to be Missionary Bishop of Western Texas, and of the Reverend Abiel Leonard, D. D., Rector of Trinity Church, Atchison, to be Missionary Bishop of Nevada and Utah.

Mr. Lansing Swan Humphrey was recommended to the Bishop for Ordination to the Diaconate.

Mr. William Edward Hayes was recommended as a Candidate for Holy Orders.

An order was directed drawn for twelve dollars ($12) office expenses of the Secretary.

A Committee was appointed to confer with the Rev. C. W. Hayes, Editor of "The Church Kalendar," as to his proposal to print the same in connection with "The Church Record."

FEB. 23d, 1888.

A supplemental bill of $104 for expenses of the last General Convention was ordered to be paid.

The bill of Baker, Jones & Co., amounting to $333.32 for printing the journals of the Council was ordered to be paid.

The Standing Committee expressed its opinion that the Bishop should accept the invitation of the Archbishop of Canterbury and be present at the Lambeth Conference.

A motion that the Annual Council of the Diocese should be delayed until the last week in October was laid upon the table until next meeting.

The Secretary reported that after a conference with the Editor of The Church Kalendar, it had been decided that no combination should be made with The Church Record.

An order was drawn for $25.00 to pay the expense of the primary investigation of the case of the Rev. Sidney Wilbur.

APRIL 26th, 1888.

Mr. James A. Skinner, a Minister in the Presbyterian Denomination, was recommended as a Candidate for Holy Orders.

The question of delaying the Council of the Diocese was taken from the table, and, although the Bishop was indifferent to the proposed change, it was resolved that he be respectfully requested to appoint a day to permit a celebration of the Semi-Centennial of the Diocese, and that the Council be held on the 30th day of October, and in the village of Geneva.

The Bishop gave notice that he had admitted Mr. James A. Skinner and Mr. Allan Grant Wilson as Postulants for Holy Orders.

The salary of the Secretary of Convention, now due, was directed to be paid.

The Bishop brought before the Committee the request of the Rev. Lloyd Windsor and other clergy of the Rochester Deanery, asking for the ordination of the Rev. John H. Perkins to the Priesthood, and dispensing with certain of his literary examinations. On motion, it was decided to approve the same, provided consent was given by the majority of the Clergy of the Diocese.

JULY 17th, 1888.

Canonical consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Leighton Coleman, D. D., Bishop-elect of Delaware.

Canonical consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. George McClellan Fiske, D. D., Bishop-elect of Fond du Lac.

A report was read from the Rt. Rev. George Worthington, D. D., Bishop of Nebraska, acting for the Bishop of the Diocese.

For payment of his expenses, an order was drawn for seventy-five dollars.

A resolution was passed that, for the greater convenience of the Bishop and Standing Committee, the residence of the Diocesan Treasurer should in future be in the city of Buffalo.

Letters were read in reference to the removal of the remains of the Rt. Rev. William Heathcote De Lancey, D. D., late Bishop of the Diocese, to the Chancel of S. Peter's Memorial Church, Geneva. The correspondence was directed to be continued.

SEPT. 20th, 1888.

An order was drawn for payment of one-half the salary of the Secretary of the Council, $100, and also for $5.50 for printing certificates of Diocesan Council.

OCT. 26th, 1888.

Mr. James A. Skinner, Candidate for Holy Orders, and formerly a Minister in the Presbyterian denomination, was recommended for Ordination to the Diaconate.

The Secretary was directed to prepare a Report of the action of the Standing Committee during the past year, for presentation to the Diocesan Council.

The President made a Report upon the Trustees' Report of De Veaux College, which was adopted, and directed to be handed to the Council as the Report of the Standing Committee.

The Report of the Trustees of De Veaux College comes to us signed by three of its members, as on account of the removal of the Rev. Drs. Brown and Platt, and the preoccupation of the other members, it had been found impossible to secure a quorum since June last. The regular certification of the Report by a committee, appointed at a duly constituted meeting, has therefore been necessarily omitted, and the certificate of three members of the Board appended as a substitute.

The Report shows a continued good measure of prosperity in the affairs of the College, although nothing has been added to the Endowment Fund from the earnings of the year. An addition of $2,665 has, however, been made from the sale of village lots, of which there still remains to be sold land of the value of $3,500. The number of term pupils has been somewhat smaller this year than last (60 as against 68); but the number of Foundationers has been increased from 14 to 16, and there has been one day pupil, making a total of 77 pupils this year, as against 84 last year. Fluctuations in the number of term pupils must be expected from year to year, and the fact that the present clientele of the College is drawn from so wide an area, and so largely from outside the Diocese, speaks well for the reputation the College is making, and the appreciation it is winning outside of our borders as well as within. It is pleasant, too, to note that although the number of term pupils is a little less than the present capacity of the College, and the number of last year, yet the management has been able to increase the number of beneficiaries, and to do something toward the erection of the much needed chapel; as also to meet the legal expenses of nearly a thousand dollars, in protecting the domain from encroachment by a projected railroad to the Whirlpool, without exhausting their resources or impairing the Fund in their keeping.

In reviewing the financial statement of the Report, it appears that the amount of principal, invested in bonds and mortgages, has been increased from $92,300.76 last year, to $99,801.76. The stock of the Upper Suspension Bridge, $2,500, remains unchanged. Land contracts nearly the same, $12,537.30 last year, $12,101.40 this. Real estate in Lewiston has been acquired, increasing that item from $5,467.36 last year to $7,624.86 this, and the cash in bank is $495.73; making a total of $122,523.75 as against $119,858.75 last year, an increase of $2,665.

In the income account there are some changes. The income from term pupils is of course somewhat smaller, $22,800.01 this year, instead of $28,980.06 the last year.

From the Endowment Fund there has been a slight increase of $6,501.42, as against $6,262.97. Rents have produced $816, instead of $678.98, and the College Farm almost exactly the same as last year, $4,427.02. The total is $34,544.45, instead of $40,350.87.

In matters of expenditure, salaries have been increased a little, $6,490, instead of $6,037.50, wages reduced a little, $2,196, instead of $2,220. Foundationers' personal expenses, $890.17, against $804.34. Taxes, $301.29, as against $343.93. Repairs and furnishing, $2,338.12, instead of $2,110.27. Advertising, $493.65, instead of $535.68, and miscellaneous supplies, $15,864.85, instead of $18,538.73, making a total of $28,674.08, as against $32,222.93, including $632.51 insurance last year, a decrease of $3,648.85 in expenses, against a diminution of $5,806.27 in income.

The college farm (as usual) has cost $150 more than it produced, $4,571.29, against $4,427.02. There has been paid on account of the new college chapel, $641.50, and for protection against railroad encroachment, $926.20. There is cash on hand about the same as last year, $3,019.24.

Of resources at the end of the year, the dues from term pupils have risen to $1,874.35, instead of $617.29. The unpaid interest on securities $397.42, instead of $190.28. The college inventories amount to $2,840.12, instead of $2,735.19, and there is $3,019.24, instead of $3,114.95, and unpaid bills of $285.95; making a total of resources, $7,845.18, as against $6,444.67.

The profits of the year amount to $2,968.21, from which amount must be taken the $1,567.10, against the endowment income, viz.: the erection of the chapel, and the protection of the domain from encroachment, leaving a net addition of $1,400.51 to the capital of the institution, which is certainly an encouraging exhibit in the face of a diminishing of term-pupil patronage and an increase of two to the number of beneficiaries; so that again the friends of the College have reason to rejoice, and to thank God for His blessing vouchsafed the institution, and to labour cheerfully for the extension of its influence and usefulness.

All which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH,

Secretary of the Standing Committee.

BUFFALO, Oct. 24th, 1888.

(B.) BOARD OF EDUCATION.

(1.) PROCEEDINGS.

The Board of Education of the Diocese respectfully reports that during the past year it has provided for the support and education of Postulants and Candidates for Holy Orders. It encloses herewith the report of the Rector of the De Lancey Divinity School, of which institution it has official control.

All which is respectfully submitted.

WALTER NORTH,

Secretary of the Board of Education.

BUFFALO, Oct. 24, 1888.

(2.) REPORT OF THE DE LANCEY DIVINITY SCHOOL.

To the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese of Western New York, as Education Board:

The Rector of the De Lancey Divinity School would respectfully report:

On S. Andrew's day of last year there was the usual annual service of the School in S. Peter's Church, Geneva, with the Holy Communion, and at this service the honorary degree of S. T. D. was publicly conferred upon the Rev. Prof. Edson by the President of Hobart College. The discourse by Dr. Edson was from Deut. xxix., 29, and the subject—"Boundary lines in Theology—The proper scope and limits of Theological Investigation—The right handling of the Word of God."

During the year ending Aug. 31st, 1888, nine persons have been under instruction in this institution. The Rev. John H. Perkins, deacon, was, August 24th, S. Bartholomew's Day, advanced to the priesthood by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Worthington, Bishop of Nebraska.

I have to record the death, in January last, of Charles B. Mowry, A. B., who was looking forward to the Holy Ministry. He graduated at the commencement of 1887, from Hobart College, and his life undoubtedly was sacrificed, through overwork, to his ardent desire to begin his active ministry in the Master's service. As his pastor and theological instructor, I gladly bear testimony to the remarkable purity and integrity of his character.

Five persons have received pecuniary aid this year through the School.

Through the kindness and liberality of the widow of the Rev. George S. Teller, late of this diocese, the greater part of his library, about 400 volumes, has been secured to the school, making a large and valuable acquisition to its library. These books have been labelled and catalogued, and placed in their proper alcove in the library building of Hobart College. From these books 26 volumes of Standard Theological Works, which were duplicates, have been bestowed upon the Rev. Mr. Moir, Missionary at East Bloomfield. And let me here say that we desire to be a medium in this way to help clergymen starting out in the Holy Ministry who are without the ordinary standard works in Theology generally in use amongst us. Such works, the older clergy, as they advance in life, are often glad to spare from their accumulated stores, and I desire to make known that duplicates of such books coming to the Divinity School library, or to the library of Hobart College, will not be useless, but will be set to work over again by being conveyed, in the way indicated, to those beginning their ministry, and who greatly need such help.

Of the relations of the School to the missionary work of the Diocese I need hardly report to those who, from their position, cannot but be cognizant of the fact that it is more and more developing its power as an Associate Mission, especially for the eastern portion of the Diocese. In fact, everyone connected with it is engaged in the missionary work as a clergyman or a lay reader.

Perhaps I ought to add to my personal report that the Rev. Prof. Edson has given recitations in Hebrew and Greek continuously through the whole year past, in addition to his other duties.

JAMES RANKINE, D. D.

GENEVA, N. Y., Sept 1, 1888.

(C.) DE VEAUX COLLEGE.

To the Fifty-First Annual Council of the Diocese of Western New York :

GENTLEMEN—The Trustees of De Veaux College for Orphan and Destitute Children, pursuant to the terms of their Charter, respectfully submit the following report for the year ending June 30, 1888, also a copy of the College Register for the Academic year 1887-88.

During the year there have been instructed sixteen (16) Probationers and Foundationers; one (1) Day, and sixty (60) Boarding Pupils, making a total of seventy-seven (77) Pupils.

On the 30th day of June, the funds of the Institution consisted of $122,535.75 of principal-yielding income, of which sum a statement is furnished in Schedule A, hereto annexed. $2,665 have been added to the principal during the year from the sale of village lots. (The lots at present held for sale are valued at $3,500.)

Schedule C presents a condensed statement of Resources and Liabilities June 30, 1888.

The net profit of the operations of the College year was $2,968.21.

[A meeting of the Board of Trustees of De Veaux College was called for Sept. 27, 1888. No quorum was present at the place of meeting on that day.

Another meeting was thereupon called for Oct. 18th, and again no quorum was present. Inasmuch as it seemed impossible to secure the attendance of a quorum (five of the seven Trustees now residing in the Diocese) before the session of the Diocesan Council, the members of the Board present Oct. 18th, namely, Mr. P. D. Walter, Chairman, and the Rev. Drs. Windsor and Hitchcock, directed the Secretary to state the foregoing facts to the Bishop and Standing Committee, and to the Diocesan Council, and to present the annexed report as the Annual Report of the Board of Trustees for the Academic year 1887-88.]

All of which is respectfully submitted.

(3) REPORT OF THE AUDITORS.

GENEVA, N. Y., October 29, 1888.

To the Right Rev. A. Cleveland Coxe, Bishop of Western New York :

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR—Having been duly designated by you as a Committee to audit the accounts of Mr. James P. Mellen, Treasurer of the Parochial Fund, for the year ending September 1, 1888, and also to examine the securities held by him as such Treasurer, we would respectfully report :

That we find the accounts, of which the annexed is a summary, carefully and accurately kept ; all disbursements supported by proper vouchers ; the securities corresponding to the statement of same submitted, and all items of interest due prior to the date of the report promptly paid. This last fact, taken in connection with an examination of the securities, leads your Committee to conclude not only that the investments have been carefully made, but that the Treasurer has shown rare industry and tact in obtaining full and prompt payment of interest.

The Treasurer's salary, being fixed at five per cent. of the income from mortgages, has been carried forward, as usual, as a charge against the next year's account. The amount so carried forward has been computed at $276.76.

Respectfully submitted,

P. N. NICHOLAS,

A. P. ROSE,

Auditing Committee.

(K.) COMMITTEE ON BENEFICENCE AND WORKS OF PIETY.

(See Proceedings, page 39.)

The Standing Committee on Beneficence and Works of Piety respectfully report, that the great number of instances of such beneficence which have come to their knowledge will not permit any detailed account of them in the limits of the present report.

DEANERY OF BUFFALO.

Beginning with the Deanery and City of Buffalo, the Church of the Ascension has been greatly improved by the enlargement and entire refitting of the chancel, whose costly furniture and decorations, with an altar window, are the gift of the wife of the Rev. Dr. Van Bokkelen, in memory of the first Bishop of the Diocese. A chorister's room, Rector's study, and other rooms have been added and furnished, the cost of all these improvements being between six and seven thousand dollars. They were not quite complete at the close of the Diocesan Year.

The new parish of the Good Shepherd has seen its beautiful stone church, in memory of the Rev. Dr. Ingersoll, completed, nearly furnished (including the richly-carved altar and some fine memorial windows), and consecrated, chiefly through the gifts of the late E. R. Jewett and his family, at a cost of more than $30,000.

For the new mission of S. Bartholomew's a temporary church has been built, at a cost of $2,000.

S. James' Church has a new organ, costing about $3,000.

S. Mary's, a lectern, altar-cross, vases, and pulpit of brass, Litany desk, altar plate and windows, individual gifts, $656.

S. Paul's Church received, before its destruction by fire, some memorial windows, $1,754; and the congregation have now given over $50,000 for the rebuilding.

Trinity Church has been presented with a screen of carved oak for the west end, windows, and other interior work, $8,000.

S. John's, Ellicottville, has paid a mortgage on the church property, repaired the church, and provided new altar-cloths.

In S. Stephen's, Olean, the subscription of $25,800, reported in part last year, has been completed for the new stone church now in progress; and a parishioner has offered property valued at $8,500 for a public library building, on condition of additional gifts for endowment.

S. John's, Dunkirk, has an organ for which the congregation have given $2,030.

In Fredonia a church debt of $944 has been paid, and extensive repairs and improvements made, these latter not yet wholly paid for.

S. Peter's Church, Westfield, has received by legacy from its late lamented Senior Warden, George P. York, two lots, enlarging the church and rectory grounds, $625, and through him and others the payment of all parish indebtedness.

The parish house of Christ Church, Lockport, has been completed, at a cost of $2,200, of which $900 was a legacy from the late Mrs. Walbridge, and $500, a gift from her daughter, Mrs. Hunt, both former parishioners.

Grace Church has also completed, at a cost of $12,000 (of which $9,800 was reported last year), its parish building, which deserves special mention as hardly excelled for perfect adaptation to all the purposes which such a building can be made to serve—with its large lecture room and parlours connected, library, rector's study, class-rooms and offices, every part a model of practical utility and beauty of design.

DEANERY OF BATAVIA.

A pulpit of brass has been given to S. Mark's Church, Le Roy, by Mr. C. A. Rathbone, in memory of his parents, at a cost of $500.

S. Paul's, Angelica, has received many valuable gifts for repairs, improvements, and furnishing of the church, in all $1,495.

Trinity Church, Canaseraga, new altar-hangings, &c., $200.

Christ Church, Cuba, $366 towards bell, organ and other improvements.

Zion Church, Avon, $406 for renovating and painting the church.

The new Mission Church of S. Andrew, Caledonia, to be opened on S. Andrew's Day, is nearly complete, at a cost, including lot, of $2,700. of which $1,200 has been pledged, and $927 paid, by the congregation. Two ladies contributed $450.

S. Mark's, Hunt's Hollow, has received a legacy of $70, and $133 for windows and painting.

S. John's, Mount Morris, improvements in the rectory.

The new Mission Church of S. Luke, Attica, opened on Christmas Day last, has been in great part paid for by offerings of $1,200, its value being $2,500, and present indebtedness $700.

DEANERY OF ROCHESTER.

Christ Church, Rochester (erected in 1855), has been enlarged by a transept to form the nucleus of a new church, and has also a complete, beautiful, and commodious Parish House, a memorial window and altar desk, in all some $12,500.

The congregation of the Church of the Epiphany have subscribed $1,276 towards the enlargement of the church.

S. Luke's Church has received a pair of altar vases, a thank-offering from a communicant of the parish.

S. Paul's Church, $3,865 for repairs and improvement.

S. Luke's, Fairport, a lectern from the Sunday scholars of Christ Church, Pittsford, and an altar, carpet, lamps, etc., $140.

The organ of S. John's Church, Honeoye Falls, has been removed to the chancel and refitted—$60.

Christ Church, Pittsford, has an altar-cross of brass, in memory of its founder and many-years Rector, the late Rev. Henry Lockwood ; a marble font in memory of L. and S. Hargous, former parishioners ; and other gifts—in all $995.

Christ Church, Albion, a brass pulpit in memory of former rectors, now deceased ; and altar-desk and alms-basin of the same material ; also memorials, the latter for a parishioner, Mrs. V. H. Stiles, from whom the parish has received a legacy of $1,000

S John's, Medina, completes this month its stone tower, and has a brass altar-desk (in memory of L. W. Merritt), and large offerings for the organ and chancel window, the latter an individual and memorial gift.

DEANERY OF GENEVA.

Grace Church, Lyons, has completed a Parish House, at a cost of $2,918.

S. Mark's, Newark, has added $300 to its Rectory fund.

S John's, Dresden, still a vacant parish, has an altar-cross for its church, in memory of its Founder and Rector, the late Rev. Timothy F. Wardwell, and choir-stalls and altar-cloths.

S. Mark's, Penn Yan, contributes $641 towards a fund for enlargement.

It will be seen that the above items of "Works of Beneficence and Piety," nearly all in the erection, restoration, or beautifying of churches, aggregate about $166 000.

Individual members of the Parish have pledged themselves to the Diocese for the assessment for the Episcopate. When the present Rector took charge, October 9, 1887, the Parish had been vacant (with occasional services) for about three years. The communicants deserve great praise for loyalty and zeal under adverse circumstances. The nave and chancel of the church have been beautifully carpeted; a double-manual pipe organ purchased; several persons have given costly memorials, in silver, brass and wood; money has been provided to cover the outside of the church with ornamental shingles; and, better than such material prosperity, the Sunday and week-day services have been well attended, and the attendance at the Holy Communion has more than doubled.

No regular services were held in this parish from November to April, but the Sunday School and parish societies continued in active operation. A large portion of the offerings ($338.29) came through the Sunday School and the four societies of women and children, a faithful and zealous band of workers. The men too, are earnestly engaged in building up and improving the church property. The church lot was graded last June at a cost of $100.00. This is a working parish, and bids fair to succeed in its undertaking of self support. Daily services, begun in Whitsun week, have continued steadily save during an enforced absence of the Rector. The more frequent Communion is appreciated by the faithful, 400 communions being made during about four months.

The large number of baptisms shows that there are devout and earnest workers in this congregation. It is a great shame that there are but three male communicants; but these are a credit to the little parish. The ladies are the most thorough workers (and in the right direction) that I have ever met. They truly bring souls to Jesus.

Though this parish is weak financially and in numbers, in the last four years it has paid a mortgage debt of $200.00, which encumbered it more than ten years; the Church has been painted, papered and shingled, and a set of altar cloths procured. The credit is due here, as always, chiefly to the women of the parish.

Our little Sunday School is still the nursery of the Church, through the help of a few indefatigable workers. The Parish has still, as it has ever had, to encounter the strong prejudices of a community in a large degree unfriendly to the ways and teachings of the Church, "as this Church hath received the same," and little growth can be looked for until such prejudices are removed. But the seed sown, "if it die," will some time be quickened, no doubt.

The recent erection of this Parish precludes the possibility of giving exact figures as to families ; and as but four communicants have been canonically transferred from other parishes, the Rector is at this time unable to claim more, though about twenty persons receive at the monthly celebration of the Holy Communion.

Mention should be made of the handsome credence presented to the Church since its consecration, by Mr. Abner Cutler, in memory of its founder. Regular services have been held since the present Rector took charge on the First Sunday after Trinity, 1888.

The decrease in Families, Communicants and Sunday-scholars is due to the fact that the statistics of S. Matthew's and S. Peter's Missions, formerly a part of this Parish, are not included in this report, while the new and flourishing Mission of S. Bartholomew, on Howard street, has also drawn largely from the material of S. James'. An organ is building for the Church, to be ready November 1st, at a cost of $3,000, of which more than $2,000 has subscribed.

This Mission, begun by the Rev. Charles H. Smith in 1881, and formerly included in S. James's Parish, is reported separately this year. The church is in a growing section of the city, and the Mission serves the double purpose of holding those who are already Church people, and educating others in Church principles. Thus far it has not depended on the Missionary funds of the Diocese, its support having been provided for largely by the wealthier Churchmen of the city, in response to the appeals of the Rector.

The parish societies have added $241.22 to their funds, and the Sunday school has paid $112.05 of the amount reported for parochial objects. The work of the parish must remain missionary in character. The population is composed about wholly of day labourers, who migrate to some up-town parish as soon as they rise a little financially. It is to be hoped that a new church, or the present one enlarged, may, in a few years, have a more desirable location than the present. The children's Sewing school, which meets every Saturday, made, and presented to the Church Home, bedding and clothing worth $7.50. The Sunday school has two sessions; for the older pupils at 9.00 A. M., and for the infant class at 2.30 P. M.

The Sanctuary of the Church has been adorned by the Altar Society with a handsome dossel at a cost of $14. A memorial brass pulpit, costing $500, was given last June, by Mr. Charles A. Rathbone in memory of his parents. The Ladies' Auxiliary sent, at Thanksgiving time, a missionary box to the Rev. Charles A. Steele, Covington, Tenn., value $60, and at Easter, one to S. Monica's Hospital, Fond du Lac, $56; and a S. School class sent, at Christmas, to a Mission Sunday school in the South, a box valued at $25.

Residing in Angelica since Aug. 20, I have frequently assisted the Rev. Dr. Irvine in S Paul's Church.

The interior of the church has been thoroughly renovated, and the exterior painted, by the Ladies' Association. By a better application of the envelope system, the offerings are, for the first time in the history of the Parish, meeting the current expenses, leaving all extraneous means to be directed to the improvement of the church property and other useful works. Services have been well attended, especially in Lent and Easter-tide. Since last Easter the Rector has, with the sanction of the Bishop, organized a mission in the village of Caledonia, 7 miles distant, which he reports separately.

I held the first services here last fall, and organized the Mission in Lent, since which time I have had regular Sunday afternoon services, also Wednesdays in Lent, Good Friday, Ascension Day, etc. A fine half-acre lot and some $1,200 have been obtained for the Church, which is to be opened on S. Andrew's Day next. The work has grown beyond my most sanguine expectations, but, with few workers in a field so new and with a general atmosphere not helpful, we greatly need further aid.

During the past year, a section of the future new church has been built as a transept to the old, giving 200 more sittings. and a substantial and well furnished Parish House has been erected, 50 x 50 feet, two stories with a basement. Funds for these buildings have been accumulating for several years, and the whole cost of the work, $17,038.02, is now paid. The late Mrs. A. C. Wilder, of blessed memory, was so interested in and gave so largely to the work that the Vestry have gratefully named the audience room of the Parish House, "The Wilder Memorial Hall." A room used for missionary purposes has been named for another generous benefactor, "The Frances Cauldwell Memorial Room." A handsome stained-glass window has been placed in the choir-room in memory of two boys, sons of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Lines, and a brass desk has been placed on the altar by Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Ferrin, as "a thank-offering for the life of a child."

We are making some little progress, as will be seen, but the Parish is poor, and has long been surrounded by a fearful indifference and prejudice. The indebtedness reported is only for the Minister's salary, the Church property being free from debt. The Parish Workers have $151.00 in bank for the Chancel Fund. Several improvements have been made in the Church; a prayer desk has been given by Mr. Geo. Buck, and a handsome pulpit by Mrs. Long of Scottsville, widow of the late Rev. William Long.

A large amount of effort has been put forth in this field for two years past, and little fruit gathered. There is considerable opposition by other bodies, and a sad lack of steadfastness on the part of some of our people. The attractions at Ontario Beach on Sunday afternoons in summer are very powerful in drawing off the people, and a morning or evening service (instead of 4 P. M.) might be more successful.

During the past year, the parish house has been completed at a cost of $2,918.34 The Rev. Henry Lubeck resigned the parish Jan. 31, and the present rector entered on his duties in May, 1888. The parish is united and earnest, and steps will be taken for the rapid extinguishment of the debt incurred in building the parish house. The church has been repaired and painted. The congregations are large, and the Sunday school flourishing. Our present united condition is due to Him who "maketh men to be of one mind in an house."

Services have been held throughout the year, as heretofore, by a lay-reader from Hobart College, Mr. Charles A. Smith. Our thanks are due to the Rev. M. L. Kellner, of the Divinity School, Cambridge, the Rev. Richard T. Kerfoot of Branchport, the Rev. Drs. Rankine and Potter of Geneva, and the Rev. William H. Lord of Penn Yan, for celebrations of the Holy Communion and other ministrations. On Easter day a brass memorial cross and vases were placed on the altar as a gift of the congregation in memory of the Rev. T. F. Wardwell, the founder of the parish. The Guild of the Annunciation have added three walnut stalls, and two very beautiful sets of hangings for altar and lectern, through the kindness of a churchwoman in Germantown, Pa. There was no visitation of the parish during the year on account of the Bishop's absence in Europe.

APPENDIX IV.

DIOCESAN ASSESSMENTS.

The following Table of Diocesan Assessments contains :

(1.) In the First double column, the Assessments for the Support of the Episcopate and for Diocesan Expenses for the year ending Sept. 1, 1889, as set forth by the Standing Committee.

(2.) In the Second double column, the balance on the Assessments of the previous year ending Sept. 1, 1888, unpaid at that date, as shown by the Parochial Reports. It should be noted that this Table differs materially from the Reports of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund and the Treasurer of the Diocese, which show an arrearage for the Episcopate of $1,114.48 for 1887-8, (as against $904.77 by the Parochial Reports,) and of $570.34 for Diocesan Expenses (as against $452.52) Also, that no account is here taken of arrears prior to Sept. 1, 1887, at which date there was unpaid for the Episcopate only, for the one year 1886-7, the sum of $1,015.78. (See Report of Trustees, Journal of 1887, p. 94.) Of this deficiency of 1886-7, there appears to have been paid soon after Sept. 1, 1887, $153.46, leaving the total deficiency in two years for the Episcopate Assessment, $1,976.80, according to the Reports of the Trustees. There are no published statements of the arrears due on Diocesan Expenses before Sept. 1, 1887.

(3) The Third double column shows the amounts due for the two years, from Sept. 1, 1887, to Sept. 1, 1889, and unpaid Sept. 1, 1888, as shown by the Parochial Reports. The Treasurer's Monthly Reports for the first half of the present year, to March 1, 1889, show payments for the Episcopate amounting to $1,086.65, and for Diocesan Expenses of $348.28. But as some of these payments are included in the Parochial Reports for last year (though not remitted to the Treasurer till after the close of the year), and are not distinguished in the Treasurer's Monthly Statements, it is impossible to give them correctly in the Tables here printed. There was due March 1, 1889, for the past and present years, $3,616.12 for the Episcopate, (or $4 688.15 if we add the arrears of 1886-7,) and $1,570.24 for the Diocesan Fund.

THE above partial and "experimental" list of the early Clergy of Western New York, though prepared with some care, and searching of old documents, will doubtless need to be corrected, as it does to be supplemented by a later list, from the organization of the Diocese on All Saints' Day, 1838.

The whole number given above, (including the four Bishops,) is 176, of whom there are now living eleven :

1832.—The Rev. Reuben H. Freeman, (ordained 1832,) residing at Independence, Iowa.

1833 —The Rev. William Staunton, D. D., (ordained 1833,) New York.

The Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., (ordained 1833,) Cleveland, O.

1834.—The Rev. Edmund Embury, (ordained 1834,) Plainfield, N. J.

1836.—The Rev Gershom P. Waldo, (ordained 1836,) Senior Priest of Western New York, Springfield, Ill.

1837.—The Rev. George B. Engle, (ordained 1837,) Indianapolis, Ind.

The Rev. Henry Tullidge, D. D., (ordained 1834,) Smyrna, Del.

The Rev. Clement M. Butler, D. D., (ordained 1836,) Philadelphia.

1838.—The Rev. Samuel Cooke, D. D., (ordained 1838,) Stamford, Conn.

The Rev. William E. Eigenbrodt, D. D., (ordained 1838,) New York.

The Rev Lloyd Windsor, D. D., (ordained 1836,) Hornellsville, W. N. Y.; who began Missionary and Parochial labours in Western New York on All Saints' Day, 1838.

The dates of ordination of the Rev. Amos C. Treadway, (who came in 1824, from Lynchburg, Va., as Deacon,) and the Rev. Francis T. Todrig, have not been found. Mr. Treadway was at Lynchburg as early as May, 1823.

BUFFALO, N. Y.

FIFTY YEARS.

THE PRIMARY CONVENTION of the Diocese of Western New York was held in Trinity Church, Geneva, on All Saints' Day, Nov. 1, 1838.

At the Fiftieth Annual Council, in Buffalo, Sept. 21, 1887, "a Committee of three clergymen and three laymen was appointed to act with the Bishop in making arrangements for the suitable commemoration, next year, of our first Half Century as a Diocese."

The Bishop appointed as such Committee, the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, the Rev. James Rankine, D. D., the Rev. Henry W. Nelson, Jr., the Hon. James M. Smith, LL. D., Mr. Alexander L. Chew, and Mr. Davis L. Stacey.

The Fifty-first Annual Council of the Diocese was appointed by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, to be held at Geneva, on the 30th and 31st of October, the two days next preceding the Anniversary of the Primary Convention.

By a resolution of this Council, the Secretary was instructed to print fifteen hundred copies of the proceedings of the Commemoration, including the Historical Sermon, one thousand to be appended to the Journal of the Council, and separate copies to be sent to the Clergy and Parishes of the Diocese.

At ten o'clock on the morning of All Saints' Day—one of the brightest and loveliest days of the year 1888—the Bishop and clergy entered Trinity Church, with the processional Psalms, Deus Auribus (44, v. 1-8) and Confitemini (105, v. 1-12). Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. Lloyd Windsor, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, Hornellsville (a member of the Primary Convention of 1838), the Rev. George H. M'Knight, D. D., Rector of Trinity Church, Elmira, Central New York, and the Rev. Louis B. Van Dyck, Rector of Grace Church, Buffalo.

The Special Psalms for the Day were the 90th, Domine Refugium, and the 105th, Non Nobis Domine.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. Canon T. Bolton Read, D. D., of the Diocese of Niagara, Ont., as Epistoler; the Very Rev. J. Gamble Geddes, D. C. L., Dean of Niagara, Ont., as Gospeller; the Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, Manlius, Central New York, who represented the Bishop of that Diocese as Consecrator; the Rev. William D. Wilson, D. D., LL. D., L. H. D., Dean of S. Andrew's Divinity School, Syracuse, C. N. Y.; the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., Rector of S. Peter's Church, Auburn, the Rev. William M. Beauchamp, D. D., Rector of Grace Church, Baldwinsville, the Rev. Robert M. Duff, D. D., Rector of S. Paul's Church, Waterloo, of the same Diocese; the Rev. James Rankine, D. D., Rector of S. Peter's Memorial Church, Geneva, and the Rev. Henry W. Nelson, Jr., Rector of Trinity Church, Geneva.

By the Bishop's appointment, the Sermon, on the History of the Church in Western New York, was preached by the Rev. Charles W. Hayes, D. D., Rector of S. Peter's Church, Westfield, and Secretary of the Council.

The Canticles and Hymns were heartily sung by the Clergy and Congregation, led by the Choir of Trinity Church.

The Hymns were :

190, "Glorious things of thee are spoken."

494, "Who are these in bright array."

184, v. 3, "Behold the innumerable host."

After the Collect for the Day, the following Commemorative Prayer was said by the Bishop :

BLESSED LORD, who hast not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities: We render unto Thee most high laud and worthy thanks, as for all Thy mercies which we celebrate this day, so especially for all Thou hast wrought for us through choice vessels of Thy grace who have shone as lights of the world in their several generations, and who do now rest from their labours. Accept, we pray Thee, our grateful commemorations, as we remember before Thee our venerable Fathers in Christ, JOHN HENRY, Bishop of New York, and WILLIAM HEATHCOTE, his son and disciple in the Faith, by whom Thou hast planted and watered this our inheritance, and taught us to know the right ways of the Lord, and to walk in the old paths. And we beseech Thee evermore to keep us in the same; to show Thy servants Thy work, and their children Thy glory. And may the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God be upon us; prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us; O prosper Thou our handy-work. All which we beg through the merits and intercession of Jesus Christ Thy Son, our adorable Lord and Saviour, unto whom, with Thee, O Father, and Thee, O Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, henceforth and forevermore. Amen.

The alms at the offertory were appropriated, by the Bishop's direction, to the Christmas Fund for Disabled Clergymen and the Widows and Orphans of Clergymen of the Diocese.

At the close of the Service the Bishop called the Council to order.

The following Resolution was moved by the Rev. Dr. Anstice, seconded by the Rev. Dr. Rankine, and adopted unanimously by a rising vote :

Resolved, That for his able and most instructive Historical Sermon, this day delivered before this Council, under Episcopal appointment, by the Reverend Dr. Hayes (a copy of which has been already requested for publication with the Journal), our special thanks are due to the preacher; whose patient research and masterly compilation of facts have enabled us, and those who may come after us, to understand the Providence of God in our past, and our great occasion for gratitude to Him for the precious instruments through whom He has wrought, in founding His Holy Church in the Western region of New York.

The Bishop called up to the Chancel two venerable Laymen, Henry E. Rochester and George Arnold, of Rochester, who had been Lay Delegates respectively at the Primary Convention of the Diocese, in 1838, at which Bishop De Lancey was elected, and the Special Convention of 1839, at which he was consecrated.

The Council then adjourned sine die.

THE Clergy and Lay Delegates present at the Commemoration met at two o'clock P. M., for the "social gathering" included in the invitation, which was held, by the kindness of President Potter, in Alumni Hall of Hobart College. After a bountiful and well-served collation, at which the Bishop presided, brief speeches of much interest were made by Bishop Coxe, President Potter, Dean Geddes, Canon Read, the Rev. Drs. Wilson, Brainard, Duff, and Rankine, the Hon. Alfred Ely, Mr. Henry E. Rochester (the only surviving Lay Delegate to the Primary Convention of 1838), and others. Letters were read by the Secretary of the Committee, the Rev. Henry W. Nelson, Jr., from a number of the former Clergy of the Diocese who were unable to be present, and from several of the Bishops of the Province of New York.

Mr. Henry E. Rochester mentioned the interesting fact that at the New York Convention of 1830, at which he was present as a Lay Delegate, the Rev. William H. De Lancey, D. D., was voted for by a number of the Clergy and Laity, as the immediate successor of Bishop Hobart in the Episcopate of New York.

The invitation to the Commemoration was accepted by the following Clergymen, now or formerly of the Diocese, or of Central New York. A few of these (including, to the great regret of all, the Bishop of Central New York) were unable to be present.

Also from Messrs. Edward F. and William H. De Lancey, the two surviving sons of the Bishop ; from Anthony E. Stocker, M. D., of Philadelphia, who accompanied the Bishop on his first visit to his Diocese ; and from the widow of the Rev. Charles D. Barbour, of Jacksonville, Fla., a Priest of W. N. Y. in 1872, who entered into rest on the 3d of October last, after ministering faithfully to his people through the pestilence which has desolated that city.

The Committee have thought it desirable to give a few extracts from these letters, of special interest, regretting that space does not permit them to give many more.

Mr. E. F. DeLancey writes :—

“ Though elected at the Primary Convention of 1838, Bishop De Lancey never saw the Diocese of Western New York until he came to Auburn to be consecrated, on the 9th of May, 1839. He first came to Geneva a day or two afterward, to see the place, and select a home for himself ; and neither he nor his family became resident there till late in August, 1839.”

From the Rev. Dr. Bolles, Cleveland, O.:—

“ How can I express my regret in not being able to attend the Semi-Centennial Commemoration ! My feelings of interest were so deep in the original organization of your Diocese, and my gratitude to God, for His mercy in having spared my life, is so great, that I scarcely know how to deny myself the privilege. Please convey to the Bishop and Committee the assurance of my never-ceasing prayer to God for His blessing upon that beloved Diocese of Western New York, upon the memories of which my dearest and fondest recollections are concentrated.”

From the Rev. Dr. Staunton, New York :—

“ I regret that I am disabled by illness from being present with you, and sharing personally in the joy and thankfulness to God, which must animate the hearts of so many of my brethren, and of your good and genial Bishop, on that occasion, as they review the history of the Diocese, and trace in it so many proofs of Divine guidance, blessing, and protection."

From the Rev. Dr. Montgomery Schuyler, St. Louis, Mo.:—

"Some of the pleasantest associations of my ministry are connected with my labours in your Diocese, in Grace Church, Lyons, and S. John's Buffalo, for ten years and a half, in the prime of my manhood. I cannot mention the name of Bishop De Lancey without feelings of the deepest reverence and affection. He was a model Bishop, and I loved him as a father. 'Requiescat in pace.'

"I am an old man, already in my 75th year, but I can never forget Western New York. The companions of my earlier days are gone: Shelton and Ingersoll are in Paradise, but my old neighbour at Batavia, Dr. Bolles, is yet among us. Please remember me at the Altar on the blessed Feast of All Saints."

From the Rev. Gardner M. Skinner, Detroit, Mich.:—

"Your invitation recalls many holy associations of my collegiate course in Geneva, and my presence at the organization of the Diocese and the election of the Bishop, where, at a recess after two or three [informal] ballotings, Cicero Hawks stood forth in the aisle and delivered one of the most thrilling addresses, I thought, that I ever heard. Every one seemed to hold his breath that he might be better able to catch the next sentence. * * * You have my most earnest prayer that the Diocese may equal and exceed in the next half century the progress of the past, which has far outstretched the expectations of her warmest friends."

From the Rev. William Allen Fiske, LL. D., Brooklyn:—

"Would that I could be with you! I was a member of the Diocese of Western New York at its organization, received Deacon's and Priest's orders from its first Bishop, and gave the first and happiest ten years of my ministry to its service under the same noble Bishop. Within my recollection the great Diocese of New York has become five Dioceses. What hath God wrought!"

From the Rev. Richard Whittingham, Pikesville, Md.:—

"Would that I could be with you, for the many years of my sojourn in Western New York are bright and pleasant memories, and your noble and honoured Bishop was one of my earliest friends."

From the Rev. Dr. Hills, Burlington, N. J.:—

"As the Diocese of my nativity, my course of theological study, both my orders, and my earliest parishes, the recollection of the name ever awakens very sacred and tender memories; and I shall be with you in spirit on that occasion, and mingle my prayers with yours in the commemoration of the faithful departed."

From the Rev. Dr. Warren, Jersey City, N. J.:—

“I have very pleasant memories connected with Western New York, it being my original Diocese, and the grand ministry of Bishop De Lancey, the means of my becoming a Priest of the Church. There are many in the Priesthood, and many of the Laity of the Church, scattered all over the country, far and wide, who look upon ‘Western New York’ with feelings of pride and reverence as the ‘Model Diocese.’ ”

From the Rev. N. Barrows, Short Hills, N. J.:

“It would be one of the pleasures of a life-time to be present on such an interesting occasion, to meet so many dear friends and co-workers in earlier days, and to join in the felicitations on the grand work which has been done and the glorious prospects of the future. But I can only send my warmest greetings and my best wishes for the continued advance of the Church in that favoured region which was known fifty years ago as the Diocese of Western New York.”

From the Rev. Horatio Gray, Boston, Mass.:—

“I have very happy memories of years spent in Western New York. Many, who with me served at the altar there, have gone to their rest, but the influence of their lives and labours is fresh and perennial as ever. The Diocese has a noble record, and its present Bishop has advanced that record.”

From the Rev. William W. Montgomery, Mamaroneck, N. Y.:—

“How much I wish it were possible for me to be with you! For fourteen years I was connected with the Diocese, and I have many loving memories of old times and associations there. And for all my life, Bishop De Lancey’s name has been a household word to me, as an old friend of my father and mother in Philadelphia.”

From the Rev. William Allen Johnson, Middletown, Conn.:—

“My memories of dear Bishop De Lancey—by whom I was ordained Priest—of dear Macurdy, and of good old Dr. Shelton, are so fresh and vivid,—as well as of my own beginning at Bainbridge, Guilford and Afton,—that I feel as if I still had strong ties with what used to be the ‘Western Diocese.’ Bishop De Lancey is still my ideal of a Bishop. What a wonderful blending of dignity and courtesy, what a charm of manner he possessed! and then how wise and far-seeing he was! The Semi-Centennial of such a Diocese as that was, and I hope still is, is well worth keeping,”

From the Rev. William N. Irish, Essex, N. Y.:—

“I was in the first class confirmed by Bishop De Lancey in Trinity Church, Buffalo, Oct. 13, 1839. How time flies! I can hardly believe that it is fifty years since he was consecrated. In all his Episcopate, and especially when he was young, what a grand Bishop he was!

" I congratulate the brethren whose rectorship falls upon such a happy cycle in the history of the Diocese."

From the Rev. Thomas Drumm, New York :—

" An event of such great interest should bring together a large number of those who have contributed in any degree to make the Diocese of Western New York what she grandly and prosperously is to-day. As one who for ten years enjoyed the counsels of its Bishop, the companionship of its clergy, and the invigorating health of its churchly atmosphere, I greatly regret my inability to be present. I trust that the Diocese, now growing venerable among her sisters, may continue to be a leader in what is true and ancient on the one hand, and what is adapted to the Church's present needs on the other."

From the Rev. Dr. Mann, Kansas City, Mo :—

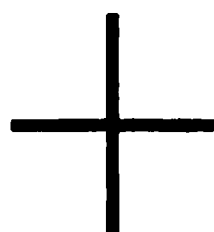

" The old Diocese has a hold upon my affections such as no other, I suppose, will ever gain. I wish it were possible for me to testify to my feelings for the Diocese by being present on the festal day."

From the Rev. J. Everist Cathell, Oneida, N. Y.:—

" Thirteen consecutive years of labour in this part of the old Diocese has made me familiar with the traditions of Bishops Hobart, De Lancey and Coxe, and the noble men who were their co-workers in planting the Church here ; and I count it high honour to be one of the builders upon their foundation."

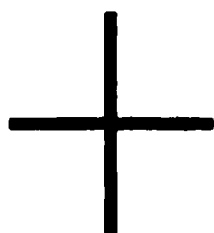

From Anthony E. Stocker, M. D., Philadelphia :—

" It was my good fortune to accompany Bishop De Lancey, and, for the time being, to be one of his family, as we journeyed from Philadelphia to Auburn for his consecration, and to be with that saintly man at all hours and at all seasons for about six weeks. No one could be so intimate with him, without an ever-increasing love and respect for him ; and with joyful truthfulness I can say, he was, in all his going out and coming in, a Man of God. In all my intercourse with him, I never saw him in the least ruffled, or for one moment anything else than the devoted father, the loving husband, the courteous Christian gentleman. His mild and dignified presence, his manly and comely appearance are as vivid to my recollection now as they were fifty years ago."

O GOD,

WE HAVE HEARD WITH OUR EARS,
AND OUR FATHERS HAVE DECLARED UNTO US,
THE NOBLE WORKS THAT THOU DIDST IN THEIR DAYS, AND IN THE OLD TIME BEFORE THEM.

THE SERMON.

DEAR BRETHREN AND FRIENDS:

First of all, the thought which must be uppermost in heart and mind to-day. One thought, yet, like all things which belong to time, threefold:

Loving memory of the Past, which has made us and our Diocese what we are:

Devout thankfulness for the Present, as we realize what the Diocese of Western New York means at this day:

The work that lies before us in the Future, and the promise of its accomplishment.

If I understand rightly the duty with which the Bishop has honoured me, it is not to preach a sermon, but to tell you an old story. A story familiar already to many of you, but whose repetition will not be wearisome, I may hope, on this day of memories, the day we consecrate to the Saints of the Church in Western New York. Surely it adds not a little to the happiness of this Commemoration, that it falls on the Feast of All Saints: that the Lessons have already told us of the righteous who live forevermore, of the accomplishment of the number of God's elect and the hastening of His Kingdom. That this Day of Remembrance for the whole Church of God is also, to us, a day of special and tender memory of so many whom we have known as living and working for Christ and the Church, in the early and later years of this Diocese.

The Past of the Church in Western New York begins, strictly speaking, just one hundred years ago. We shall see why. But the question may be fairly asked,—was there nothing of Christian faith and work here before this last century?

Yes: we may not forget the Franciscans who planted the Cross on the banks of the Niagara, while Virginia was a starving colony, and Plymouth Rock yet undiscovered;* nor the fathers of the same faith who followed, through the seventeenth century, at Onondaga, Oneida, Cayuga and the Genesee;† nor the faithful Moravians under Zeisberger, a century later, who laboured so many years at Onondaga; nor the earnest and intrepid Congregationalist, Samuel Kirkland, at Fort Schuyler and Oneida, for forty years, into the present century.

The efforts of Lord Bellamont (from 1698), and his successors in the government of New York, and of earnest Churchmen in England, and subsequently of Colonel Heathcote and Sir William Johnson, for missionaries to the Five Nations, were fruitless, so far as Western New York was concerned. The only actual work accomplished was among the Mohawks at Fort Hunter (now Amsterdam) and Johnstown; and the log chapel which Joseph Brant built for his people at Lewiston, during the Revolution, with its bell brought from the chapel at Fort Hunter, marks the only Church of England service in Western New York (at least beyond the walls of Fort Niagara), before the year 1788.

But a broad and deep line separates all this early missionary work from our own diocesan history. For whatever it effected, or failed to effect, was for a different race. So far as we and our ancestors are concerned, there was absolutely no Western New York till after the Revolution.

On the 7th of March, 1788, the town of Whitestown was erected in Montgomery County (the Tryon County of the Revolution), extending east and west from Fort Schuyler

* Planted it most probably at Lewiston, where, one hundred and sixty years later, the service of the Church of England was first heard outside the walls of Fort Niagara. See Turner's Holland Purchase, p. 93.

† See Note A.

(Utica) to Fort Niagara, and north and south from Lake Ontario to Pennsylvania. It was the first definite marking out of the territory of this Diocese as originally constituted; and with that Act of the State, as it seems to me, our Church history has its beginning. That good old town of Whitestown contained within its twenty thousand square miles not less than two hundred white inhabitants, though it was only four years since Hugh White had gone beyond the farthest verge of civilization to become the first settler on its eastern border.* Some of these earliest settlers were Churchmen from Connecticut or Virginia, as in Paris Hill and Canandaigua, where the Prayer Book was in use at occasional Sunday services and burials, as early as 1789-90. But it was not until 1796 that the first steps were taken by the Diocese of New York, which had been organized for the whole State in 1785, towards missionary work in the interior, by the appointment of a "Committee for Propagating the Gospel in the State of New York." In the spring of 1797, this Committee appointed Robert Griffith Wetmore, ordained Deacon by Bishop Provoost that May, as their first Missionary. His letters and journals, reported as being in the possession of the Committee at the Diocesan Convention of October, 1797, have never seen the light since, so far as I can ascertain, though no more deeply interesting chapter of our missionary history could be written. We are only told that he travelled some 2,400 miles, baptized 47 adults and 365 children, and preached 107 times, within about ten months. In the fall and winter of 1797, we find him at Canandaigua, where he must have spent several months, to the intense satisfaction of those sturdy old Churchmen, Judge Atwater and the Sanborns; going thence in December to meet the Oneidas (evangelized by Kirkland at Oneida), and baptizing 24 of them. At Bridgewater, he hears of some

* But a few years ago (1862) I buried at New Hartford, N. Y., his granddaughter, Mrs. Esther Storrs, the first child of Anglo-American parentage born in Western New York; mother of the late Rev. Henry L. Storrs, of New Hartford, and grandmother of the Rev. Leonard Kip Storrs, of Brookline, Mass.

Churchmen at Paris Hill, and starts before daylight for that place, where he finds his work happily anticipated by the organization of S. Paul's Church on the 13th of the preceding February, and regular lay-services from that time without intermission.*

And this is all we know of the work of our first Western New York Missionary.†

The familiar and venerated names of Father Nash and Daniel Burhans are found in Otsego County as early as 1795, but they did not reach Paris Hill and Utica till some years later. The first to take up Mr. Wetmore's work was Philander Chase, afterwards the Apostolic Missionary Bishop of Ohio and Illinois. In the one year of his Western New York work, he appears to have travelled some 4,000 miles, preached over 200 times, baptized 333 adults and infants, and organized several parishes, only one of which remains, however, S. Luke's, Oquaga (Harpersville), April 15, 1799, the second in Western New York.‡

The first Bishop of New York never visited this portion of his diocese. But with the consecration of his successor, Benjamin Moore, began the first great and permanent work for the Church in Western New York, in the ordination of Davenport Phelps, December 13, 1801. No name has a higher place on the diptychs of this All Saints' Day than his; but I need not repeat here the story of his life and work. A graduate of Dartmouth, a soldier of the Revolution, in the maturity of an active and honourable life, putting all things aside to bear the Cross of Christ as few men of later days have borne it, and laying it down only with life

* Eleven men, we are told, met to make that beginning of organized parish work in Western New York, and all were taken into the vestry rather than leave one out; that ninth vestryman, Silas Judd, surviving to be a lay-delegate at our Council, not many years ago. It ought to be recorded that Eli Blakslee and Gideon Seymour were the first Church Wardens of Western New York. (Gospel Messenger, XLII. 78. (May 14, 1869.)

† He was, after this, Rector of S. George's Church, Schenectady, and early in the present century, seems to have returned in failing health to his home, New Rochelle, and there died, yet a young man.

‡ Other organizations were at Canandaigua, Auburn and Palmyra. An appropriation was made by Trinity Church in 1797 for a church at Constantia, Oswego County, but nothing came of it.

itself,—such was our first home Missionary. It is pleasant to remember that his great work began and centred in the very place where we are now met;* here was the home of his later years, the rest from journeys and constant services at almost every hamlet between Onondaga, Binghamton, Angelica and Batavia; here, the refreshment of Litany Day worship and Christmas anthems in the little church, whose consecration on this same site, June 9, 1810, was the great event of the first visit of a Bishop in the present Western New York. And here, one would think, should be his burial-place, and that of his saintly wife, rather than in that lonely spot on the shore of Lake Ontario.†

Two years before Davenport Phelps entered into rest, began a new era for Western New York in the consecration of John Henry Hobart to the Episcopate. It is noticeable that in that year, 1811, Phelps was the only missionary of the diocese west of the Hudson River counties, though the Rev. Amos G. Baldwin of Trinity Church, Utica, was doing effective work in that neighbourhood. Mr. Phelps's mission ground that year was one hundred and thirty miles from east to west, and Bishop Hobart's first visitation the next year was almost wholly within its limits, though the worn-out Missionary had by that time the efficient help of the two brothers, Orin and William Clark, who are also to be held in grateful remembrance this day and in this place. From this first visit of Bishop Hobart to Western New York, to the erection of the Diocese, there was a quarter-century of such work and growth as has hardly its parallel in this country. The story of Bishop Hobart's Episcopate has been told again and again; last, and in some respects best of all, by Bishop Coxe, in the Centennial volume of the Diocese of New York; but even that touches but slightly on his share in the progress of the Church here. He began that work at a time of great trial and distress, in the first disastrous year of the war of 1812, felt nowhere more severely than throughout this region, whose border, from Niagara to Sackett's Harbor, was nearly desolated until the victories of Perry and Macdonough turned the tide. The Bishop's active Episcopal duty here was nearly all in the last fifteen years before his death, and under the most favouring conditions of temporal growth and prosperity. The close of the war of 1812-15 left a population this side of Utica, of 350,000. In 1830 it was 875,000, an increase of 150 per cent. But in the meantime the clergy and parishes had increased from 6 and 20 respectively, to 36 and 66, and the communicants from 487 to 2,331; in other words, the Church had gained almost threefold on the increase of population in material strength. But this was the least part of her real growth in those years. The voice of Bishop Hobart was a trumpet-call to priest and people alike to stand up manfully for "Christ and the Church." A few yet living can remember how there rang through his Diocese that watchword of "Evangelical Truth and Apostolic Order," which has passed into a motto since his day; how it stirred to new life and zeal those who had hitherto hardly dared to call themselves "Episcopalians." But look even at the journals and missionary reports of those days, and you cannot fail to see how the tone of timid apology for our "peculiarities" and our "liturgy" gradually changes to that of triumphant confidence and enthusiasm in the Divine Constitution and Mission of the Church. All honour to the earnest and self-denying band of missionaries who fought under such a leader: to Lacey, Macdonald, Wheeler, Welton, Gear, Onderdonk, Norton, Fuller, Lucius Smith, Babcock, Cuming, Dyer, Brown, Murray, Searle, Treadway, Parker Adams, Bostwick, M'Carty, Rudd, Eleazar Williams, John A. Clark, Norman and Jasper Adams, Andrews, Burgess, Mason, Dorr, and—most familiar name of all—William Shelton. But all these became what they were, and did the work of their day, largely through the impress on them of the mind and heart of John Henry Hobart; and to this day, thank God, Western New York is deeply stamped with the seal of his Episcopate,—alike in his work, his teaching, and his personal character.

I must pass over, with but slight mention, the foundations laid here by Bishop Hobart for Christian education. A grant from Trinity Church, New York, of $750 a year to the Academy at Fairfield, now in the Diocese of Albany, for the education of students in divinity,—a grant secured by the Rev. Amos G. Baldwin through the Bishop's influence,—became with some further grants, in 1821, the foundation of Hobart College; whose beautiful site was chosen by the Bishop, and whose charter was obtained by him with the express and avowed purpose of establishing a college in which, to use his own words, "Candidates for Orders may receive preparatory instruction," and Churchmen "may have an opportunity of educating their sons under circumstances most favourable to their being confirmed in those principles and views of religious truth, maintained by the Church of which they are members." *

Nor must we forget here the revival under Bishop Hobart of the long-past work of Samuel Kirkland among the Oneidas, and the training of Eleazar Williams as their Catechist and finally their Priest; a work which, happily, did not cease with the removal of those Indians from the State, but is still perpetuated, and with the happiest results, in the "Hobart Church" of the Oneidas at Green Bay.

Another lasting and most fruitful work of good to which the Bishop led his clergy and people was the formation of the Christian Knowledge Society of Western New York, resulting in the publication of books and tracts yet effective in parochial use, the largely increased circulation of Bibles and Prayer Books, and the establishment of the old "Gospel Messenger," which for well-nigh half a century, under Drs.

* Address of 1812.

Rudd, Matson, and Gibson, helped on so greatly all the parochial and missionary work of the diocese, and the growth of sound principles of Church teaching and Christian living.

A striking testimony to the results of Bishop Hobart's Episcopate in Western New York is the fact that his death gave utterance at once to the conviction that this portion of the State must soon have a Bishop of its own. It was at the Convention of 1830, held within three weeks after the Bishop's decease, and at the very time of the election as his successor of a Priest thought to be his choice. The suggestion, we are told, "was regarded with surprise, and considered as full of evil." * No wonder, if you think a moment what the history of the Church in the United States had been up to that day: organized as one body by a confederation of "States," and in all its constitutional legislation thus far, excluding the idea that a "diocese" could mean anything but the Churchmen of a sovereign State. To many of the clergy and laity of that day it seems to have been an absolutely new idea.

From this first suggestion the question appears to have slumbered for three or four years. The rapid growth of Western New York in Church and State went on, under Bishop Onderdonk's untiring and effective Episcopal work; and in 1835 this portion of the diocese numbered 60 clergymen, 92 parishes and 3,500 communicants, in a population of a little over one million, having gained fourfold upon the population within twenty-five years. As the Convention of 1834 drew near, the question of a new diocese came again to the surface; and the Bishop, who is said to have been personally averse to the measure, felt himself obliged to allude to it in his Address of that year, in these words:

"The rapid growth of this Diocese, and the consequent increasing burden of care and labour essential to its due Episcopal supervision, must, before long, force upon us a case calling for an important change in our ecclesiastical polity. The time must come, and perhaps it may not be long distant, when this Diocese will be too great for unshared supervision. The deep solicitude with which this conviction has been accompanied, in my mind, has been increased by the many difficulties connected with the subject. It is not to be lightly approached; it calls for deep thought and deliberate investigation."

* Gospel Messenger., XII. 112. (August 18, 1838.)

From this point the story of the movement towards founding the Diocese of Western New York, and of the election of its first Bishop, is recorded in our Diocesan Journal of 1885, as it was told fully and vividly by our venerable brother, the Rev. James A. Bolles, D. D., of Cleveland, Ohio, one of the oldest Priests of Western New York now living, and one who had a large share in all its Councils and work for twenty of its earliest years. That opposition to the division was strong, and at first almost indignant, was a matter of course; but the records of the successive Conventions show that it was shared by comparatively few Western New York Churchmen, every vote taken being decidedly, and the later ones overwhelmingly, in favour of the new Diocese. The arguments against the measure might all be reduced to three: the "let well enough alone" argument, the "State Rights" argument, and the "money" argument. To the first—always ready against anything which has not been always done—the simple and conclusive answer was the expression, by vote, of the conviction that the case was not well enough to be let alone. The second evoked two replies which went to the very root of the matter. The first was that famous pamphlet of Professor Whittingham, afterwards the great Bishop of Maryland, on the Episcopate of the Primitive Church; showing that the proposed division of the Diocese of New York was really but one step towards retracing a wide departure of modern days from the Catholic theory of a Bishop's Jurisdiction. The second was given in one of two admirable articles in the Gospel Messenger, by the late President Hale, of Hobart College. As Bishop Whittingham's argument was essentially that of the See Episcopate, so Dr. Hale's was that of its correlative, the Provincial System. "Our States," he says, "are in some respects sovereignties; and the Dioceses within the same State (for there will by-and-by be a division in other States as well as ours), may be regarded as constituting in a manner one Church, being invested with a sort of sub-national unity, as our States are sub-nations."* These are golden words; far ahead of their day, and even of our own day, as is still Bishop Whittingham's argument; but there is no question that both had a powerful influence in the unanimity of that final decision, which made Western New York a leader and an example to the whole Church in the United States.†

There were those with whom the "money" argument had great weight. The wealth of the Diocese was in the City of New York; and the separation of the feebler parishes of the western district from that source of missionary and parochial aid was regarded as little less than suicidal. The very earliest years of the new Diocese were the best answer to this argument of timidity, over-caution, or worldly prudence, by whichever name you choose to call it; and its utterances in the Gospel Messenger of 1837 are now most amusing reading, however pathetic then.

A Special Committee of the Convention of 1834 made, the next year, at Utica,‡ the first unanimous report in favour of a new Diocese, rejecting decidedly two other plans of relief submitted to them—one, that of suffragan bishops, the other that of archdeacons. It should be recorded that there were on that Committee, from Western New York, two clergymen, John Churchill Rudd and William Shelton, and one layman, Henry Fellows Penfield, of Canandaigua,—the two last named being with us in advanced age, residents of Buffalo, as it were but yesterday. On the second Committee, which reported in 1837 the positive resolution that the Diocese should be divided, were Pierre Alexis Proal, Orange Clark and Lucius Smith, and of the Laity, John C. Spencer, of Canandaigua, and Robert C. Nicholas, of Geneva.

Whatever may have been the personal feeling of Bishop Onderdonk at first, it is due to his memory to say that from first to last he exerted himself faithfully and earnestly to carry into effect the expressed wishes of the Diocese, and received from its members most grateful and cordial acknowledgments,—retaining the respect and affection of the new Diocese to the last day of his connection with it.

It should be said in passing that “Western New York” was adopted as the name of the new Diocese on motion of President Hale, at the New York Convention of 1838. A correspondent of the Gospel Messenger suggested the ancient and Catholic usage of the name of a city, and another proposed the name “Ontario.” But there is no record of any debate on this subject in the Convention itself.*

And thus all things were ready for that Council, which, fifty years ago to-day, met in this place, and within the walls of Davenport Phelps’s Church, to begin the corporate life of the Diocese of Western New York.

Its first act was to place the Diocese under the temporary care of its former Bishop; its second, to elect on the first ballot, as first Bishop of Western New York, WILLIAM HEATHCOTE DE LANCEY.

If Bishop Hobart had laid the foundations of the Church in Western New York, Bishop De Lancey certainly built the Diocese upon those foundations. Personally he was the pupil of both White and Hobart,—with the prudence and gentle firmness of the one, and the energy and fearlessness of the other. A mere glance at one or two salient points of his Episcopate is all that time permits.

* Those of us who feel deeply the unwisdom of this departure from primitive rule may comfort ourselves with the thought that the Diocese is not wholly responsible for its christening. It was New York, not Western New York, which gave the name.

His first great work was to build up the system of Diocesan Missions inaugurated in 1796, the only means of supporting missionary work within its own borders which Western New York has ever known. The Bishop found two-thirds of the 96 parishes to be missionary stations, aided mainly by a temporary grant from the Diocese of New York. The Diocese itself contributed in its first corporate year only $261 for its missions; the second year this rose to $1,461, and the third to over $3,000. This increase was the result of the first plan put in operation by the Bishop, of monthly collections for Church objects in every parish, large or small. How deeply the Bishop felt the importance of this work,—how carefully all its details were studied by him,—how the condition, wants, prospects and trials of each Mission and Missionary were always borne upon his mind and heart, none of you who knew him personally can forget. How he would labour to build up the Church in this or that feeble or almost desert place, not only by visits and correspondence, but by large contributions from his own small means! It has been sometimes thought and said that he exalted this diocesan work at the expense of larger interests of the Church. Such an impression is quite unfounded. The records of his Episcopate show that during its twenty-seven years, the offerings of the Diocese for objects exterior to itself were not only more than for its own missions ($108,000 to $102,000), but that they increased fourfold from the first to the last third of that time, while those for diocesan objects trebled.

It has been said also that Bishop De Lancey's prudence and exactness sometimes failed of results which a bolder policy would have attained. Undoubtedly this is true, but it is also true that it saved the Diocese as often from disheartening failures. His deep sense of responsibility for all trusts committed to him made such prudence a necessity in his view of things; but the clergy of his day knew well how largely he dispensed from his own slender means for others' good, how little weight any selfish interest ever had with him.

One word now on the advance which the Diocese made in Church principles under Bishop De Lancey's leadership. I have said that he was the pupil both of White and of Hobart. In those questions of speculative theology on which English Churchmen have always differed, he, like Bishop White, followed the teaching of Hooker, not, like Hobart and Seabury, that of the seventeenth-century divines and the earlier non-jurors.* But on the Divine Constitution of the Church and her Ministry, he was thoroughly at one with Bishop Hobart, and to this his Diocese heartily responded. The English controversies of fifty years ago were then only beginning to be echoed on this side the Atlantic, and the Bishop had gained the full confidence of his clergy and people before they began seriously to disturb our peace. The unity of his Diocese, which with its system and order gave it the name of "the Model Diocese," was a far greater triumph of his wise and loving guidance, than was its actual advance in Church principles. It is equally to his and its honour that the twenty-seven years of his Episcopate record not an instance of actual contest over those questions of ritual which in so many places proved fire-brands for foxes and sheep alike. He did not escape being called a "Puseyite" and a "Romanizer," or on the other hand a "high and dry" Churchman; but his Diocese, as a whole, followed him heartily in the one cardinal principle he ever sought to enforce,—loyal obedience to authority and law, not to any private opinion of his own. While free from all narrow prejudice in such matters, no one more fully appreciated and enjoyed the devout and solemn celebration of the Church's highest services. And what an example was he to clergy and laity alike of personal reverence and devoutness in the worship of God.

What a constellation of clergy,—nunc ad astra,—gathered about the Bishop in those bright early days of the Diocese, many of them, like himself, pupils of Hobart! I have named some who were here before 1830. Let us read again from our diptychs to-day. Henry J. Whitehouse,—Henry Gregory,—the elder Joseph Clarke,—Seth Davis,—George Fiske,—Kendrick Metcalf,—Erastus Spalding,—John V. Van Ingen,—Benjamin Hale,—Pierre A. Proal,—John Bayley,—Cicero S. Hawks,—Pierre P. Irving,—Augustine P. Prevost,—Ferdinand Rogers,—Ebenezer H. Cressey,—Henry L. Storrs,—Eli Wheeler,—Hobart Williams,—William Croswell,—Henry Lockwood,—Fortune C. Brown,—Edward Bourns,—Edward Ingersoll,—William S. Walker,—George Leeds,—John J. Robertson,—Thomas Clap Pitkin,—Charles Henry Platt,—Henry Stanley,—John Nicholas Norton,—Timothy F. Wardwell,—Benjamin Wright,—Samuel H. Norton,—Walter Ayrault,—Albert P. Smith,—Thomas N. Benedict,—Henry W. Lee,—Sylvanus Reed,—Henry L. Low,—David H. Macurdy,—Theodore Marsh Bishop,—Malcolm Douglass,—Robert J. Parvin,—Amos B. Beach,—Edward Livermore,—Julius S. Townsend,—George N. Cheney,—John G. Webster,—William W. Bours,—John J. Brandegees,—Edward Randolph Welles,—for whose bright examples of life and work for Christ we give thanks to-day. And it is fitting to make mention also of those called away from this Diocese to higher positions elsewhere, and still fulfilling their work: Bolles, Cooke, Eigenbrodt, Patterson, Gillespie, Cooper, Hull, Montgomery and Anthony Schuyler, Benjamin and Thomas Franklin, Tyler, Renouf, Coxe, Wilson, Pise, Bissell, Hobart, Matson, Levi Norton, Hill, Woodward, Arey, Stearns, Van Rensselaer, Ashley, Beach, M'Knight, Fiske, Whipple, Whittingham, Hills, Herrick, Stevens, Parke, Clarke, Paret, Neely, Barrows, Gibson, Wood, Jewett, Montgomery, Johnson, Shipman, Babcock, and others later on, whose names your own memories will readily supply. I have named but a few out of the grand roll of eight hundred who have served in Western New York.

And then remember the little band of Laymen who so nobly upheld the Bishop's hands in those early years. I cannot begin to enumerate them here; but of the eighty who met here at the Primary Convention,—what would a Western New York All Saints' Day be without the names of William Constable Pierrepont, James Rees, Thomas D. Burrall,* David Hudson, William S. De Zeng, John E. Hinman, George B. Webster, William Seaver, Trumbull Cary, Darwin Smith, Robert L. Rose, Pascal C. J. De Angelis, William V. I. Mercer, and a little later, John and William H. Adams and Ambrose Spencer of Lyons, Joseph Juliand of Greene, Jay Hathaway of Rome, Russell H. Heywood of Buffalo, David S. Hall and David B. Douglass of Geneva, George W. Cuyler of Palmyra,—but I must not lengthen out the list with other names which will come readily to your memories as to my own. Thanks to God this day for the example of their faith and their work!

My story of the past is ended for to-day. The death of Bishop De Lancey, the happy election and consecration of our present beloved Bishop, the second division of the Diocese by the erection of the See of Central New York, the great advance in Church life and work in so many directions within the last quarter-century,—these are things familiar to us all,—history yet making, and to be written later. One or two thoughts spring out of this retrospect, as to the present and future work of the Church in our Diocese. They will not detain you long.

* Who has done more than any one else to illustrate our diocesan history. Pity that his most valuable papers should be buried in the old files of the Gospel Messenger.

Fifty years ago, Western New York gave to the Church in the United States the first example of a new See erected from an older one. Thirty years later, she again took a step unprecedented in this country, in the formation of still another See by the subdivision of a Diocese thus originated. Since then, the growth of the Diocese, pari passu with Central New York, has replaced full one-half of what she lost twenty years ago; in other words, she has two-fifths more clergy and three-fifths more communicants than she had then. It is then within the bounds of probability that less than another score of years may make evident as great a need of increased Episcopal supervision as there was in 1838 or 1868; make it evident, I mean, to those least willing to accept such a conclusion. I have no more doubt that there ought to be this day a resident bishop in the City of Rochester, if not in this good town of Geneva, than that the sun shines in the heavens. But whether that be true or not, or whether that necessity, now or in the future, be greater or less, is not, as it seems to me, the first question to be met by this or any other of the Five Dioceses of New York. If those Sees are to stand apart and each go its own way in the future as in the past, then, I venture to think, we have too many already. The See Episcopate is by itself but a fragment of the primitive polity, and, grafted on to our present system of nearly autonomous dioceses, can only make the life and work of the Church more fragmentary. Our first need then is the practical development of the principle of unity enunciated first by President Hale at the foundation of this Diocese (in the passage I have already quoted), and again, in another form, by Bishop De Lancey in the House of Bishops.* I think it is a matter of just pride that both these declarations in behalf of the Provincial System came from Western New York, and from men as conspicuous for practical wisdom, moderation and sound sense, as for learning and intellect. Do you realize, dear brethren, that the

* See Journal of Western New York, 1854, p. 43.

State which President Hale rightly called a "sub-nation," has now a body of Churchmen, as represented by its communicants, much more than double,—yes, two and a quarter times that of the whole United States when Western New York became a diocese? That in clergy and churches, in the wealth of her laity, and in every other element of material strength,—except number of dioceses and extent of territory,—New York stands for more than this whole National Church possessed half a century ago? Whatever, then, may be thought of the Provincial System in the abstract, or as applied to the Church as a whole, it seems to me clear as day that it ought to bind the PROVINCE OF NEW YORK in an organic unity which will make possible an infinitely greater work for "Evangelical Truth and Apostolic Order," nay more, for the ultimate unity of all Christians within our bounds, than can ever be hoped for from her present autonomous dioceses, or from any number of such. Let the weak and timid permissive legislation thus far, for "Federate Councils,"* be made available to the utmost, till better can be had, for the true organization and work of a Province,—and then, Bishops and Sees may be safely multiplied wherever there is need, not as fragments, however grand and massive, but as living stones firmly compacted in one building,—a building which itself has its definite place and work in the greater whole of the National Church. Then, the noble foundation for higher Christian learning which Hobart laid here, and his successors have built and built upon so earnestly and faithfully, yet often with the patient waiting of weary hearts, might be made—what might it not be made, if it were the College, not of little Western New York, of Rochester, of Geneva, but of the great Province which was once, in the memory of some of us, Bishop Hobart's own Diocese?

* As we have designated, with that singular infelicity which pervades so much of our American ecclesiastical nomenclature, an assembly which has not the first principle of "federation" in its proper character.

Of other diocesan work and interests which come readily to mind, it would hardly become me to speak here, at the close of a Council of which they have been the great theme.* The value of such a commemoration as this is in its special application to ourselves of the teaching and associations of All Saints' Day; the deepening in our hearts that consciousness of an inheritance in the faith and life of the One Church of Christ, as shown forth by our fathers and brethren of the past days of this Diocese—an inheritance which is to us, and will be, by God's grace, more and more to those who come after us, a gift to be used to the utmost for His honour and glory.

IT may be said, and truly, that the Franciscan and Jesuit Missionaries, especially the latter, were in some sense emissaries of the French crown, which made their work subservient to its gigantic plan for connecting the S. Lawrence with the Gulf of Mexico—a plan never abandoned until the final conquest of Canada in 1763. But this fact does not, as it seems to me, at all detract from the sincerity and earnestness of these pioneer Missionaries, while it helps to explain the fact that all material results of their work among the Indians have perished with the claim of dominion which France founded upon it.

THROUGH the kindness of Mrs. George W. Nicholas, of Geneva (granddaughter, by marriage, of Judge John Nicholas, the first senior warden of Trinity Church), I add the following letter of the second Bishop of New York, which has been preserved as an heirloom in the family :

“ NEW YORK, Nov^r 9, 1806.

“ Gentlemen :

“ The incorporation of a protestant Episcopal Church in the town of Geneva is a matter which has afforded me great satisfaction. As this is a place which is every day rising more and more into importance, I am anxious to have our Church established there, on a respectable footing; for this purpose, I have requested Mr. Phelps to pay that Town, in future, very particular attention. Towards his support we shall yield from this quarter every aid in our power; but something must be done on your part, in order to provide for him a decent maintenance. I am sure every prudent method will be adopted for the completion of the work which you have in hand, and that your exertions may be crowned with full success, you shall have the good wishes and hearty co-operation of your friend and sv^t.

NOTE C.

THIS statement in regard to Bishop De Lancey's theological views will be received, naturally, with some surprise and question. I add therefore a few words rather to illustrate than to defend it. The Bishop was regarded, and rightly, as a typical ' High Churchman ' of his day. But he was also a man eminently conservative in temperament and tendencies ; the very opposite in this respect of Bishops Hobart and Seabury. Perhaps the best exposition of his teaching on the Sacramental System of the Church, as well as on its Apostolic Constitution, may be found in his famous article on " what is not Puseyism," published in the Gospel Messenger of December 16, 1843, and reprinted in his Episcopal Address of 1846. It is a clear and unequivocal statement of " doctrines, views and usages of our Church, long embedded in the faith and judgment of Churchmen, to which the term in question does not apply." Among these are, Episcopacy as a Divine Institution—the Apostolic Succession—Baptismal Regeneration—the " real," though " spiritual " and " inexplicable " presence of Christ in the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper—Sacramental justification by Baptism (together with instrumental justification by faith)—the value of the Fathers in the interpretation of Holy Scripture—the means of grace as appointed by Christ, in opposition to the modern revival system—the value of the Liturgy—the use of the Cross in " our churches or our houses"—holy vestments—reverence at the Name of Jesus—Daily Service—the observance of Lent and other Fasts—the support of Church institutions—and generally a devout and loyal honour and obedience to the Church and the Prayer Book. He declares his adherence and that of his Diocese to " these old paths in which such men as Moore and Hobart, and their clerical and lay coadjutors, have trodden before us," and that in these " the Diocese has been preserved in peace, harmony, prosperity and love."

With these positive and uncompromising views in regard to the Church and the Sacraments, Bishop De Lancey had, nevertheless, not only a tender regard for the memory and the teaching of Bishop White, whose Assistant he had been in S. Peter's, Philadelphia, but as I remember, a decided preference for his statements and mode of thinking on theological questions. For instance, on the sacrificial character of the Holy Eucharist, where the views of White and Hobart, though quite capable of being reconciled, are widely different in tone, Bishop De Lancey held decidedly with the former. This is perhaps as good an illustration as could be given of the remark in the text. There is no question that Seabury, Hobart, White and De Lancey all accepted fully the teaching of the Fifth Book of Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity, on the Incarnation and the Sacraments. But the two former, had they lived in our day, would, undoubtedly, have gone on in the path of the Oxford revival of Church principles, which may be said to have received its first impulse in England from the intimate intercourse of Bishop Hobart with Hugh James Rose, in 1824-5. White and De Lancey could follow Hooker himself, but not his expositors of the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries.

SOMETHING should have been said in this Sermon, however, of one of the most important Diocesan foundations laid by Bishop De Lancey, which he himself called "The Senior Department of the Diocesan Training School," but which our present Bishop has happily named in his memory, "The De Lancey Divinity School." It was the successor of a work of instruction in Divinity begun by the Rev. William D. Wilson, D. D., in which Bishop De Lancey took a personal share, and in which the present writer, with many others, had the privilege of being his pupil. But the "Training School" had its origin in the Bishop's conviction of the need of special training for a class of students—those, especially, entering the Ministry late in life, or from secular occupations—to whom our large Theological Seminaries could not well adapt their course of study. The foundation of this School occupied much of his time and labour during the last seven years of his Episcopate; and by his exertions, and largely by gifts from himself and his sisters, it was firmly established before his death, under its present Head, the Rev. James Rankine, D. D. Since then, with a large increase of endowments, and more recently with a corporate relation to Hobart College, it has done, and is doing, a special work of good for the Diocese and the Church at large, having given many able and faithful men to the Holy Ministry.
